Confederate Smashes world record at Red Mile

The 1:46.1 mile is the fastest 3-year-old mark in history.

by Kimberly French for Red Mile

The sport's top ranked horse demonstrated why he deserves that ranking as Confederate stopped the clock in 1:46.1 in the $80,000 fourth round of the Kentucky Championship Series to become the swiftest 3-year-old pacer in harness racing history on Monday (Sept. 4) at Red Mile. Champion Special Way took the other division for sophomore filly trotters in 1:51.2 to remain undefeated in 2023.

The 13-race card also included three $30,000 fourth round divisions of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series and three fourth round legs of the $15,000 Kentucky Goldenrod Series.

Heavily favored Confederate (Tim Tetrick) made his world record appear like just a jog around the red clay oval. The colt and his reinsman left from post position 3 in the field of five and settled in third for the first fraction of the mile. For Once Inmy Life (Andrew McCarthy) established the first split of :27 but Command (Todd McCarthy), Confederate's stablemate, did exactly that and set hot fractions of :53.2 and 1:19.2.

Despite pacing his final quarter panel in :26.3, Command could not stave off Confederate who moved into second by a head at the top of the stretch and simply glided home with a :26 final quarter mile. A Cool Moment (Joey Putnam) crossed the line a full second behind Confederate with Command in third.

Trained by Brett Pelling, Confederate bested the previous world standard on a mile track for his age, gender and gait of 1:46.4 shared by Somebeachsomewhere (2008), He's Watching (2014), Cattlewash (2020) and It's My Show (2023).

The Meadowlands Pace victor improved his seasonal record to 8 7-1-0. He is now 15 12-2-1 lifetime with the only blemish this year a second-place finish in the North America Cup behind It's My Show.

Confederate, a son of Sweet Lou—Geothermal, has also captured the Cane Pace and Max C. Hempt Memorial. The win was his fifth in a row since the loss in the North America Cup. He was also the 2-year-old champion in this series last year.

The colt competes as a homebred for Diamond Creek Farm and he is the first foal out of his dam who is a half-sibling to champion Pure Country (Somebeachsomewhere, $2.43 million).

Confederate boosted his bankroll to $1.32 million.

He paid $2.10 to win.

Defending Dan Patch Award winner Special Way returned after a brief layoff due to a bone infection to capture her $80,000 division by a neck. Steered by her trainer, Ake Svanstedt, the filly allowed New Jersey champion Walner Payton (Dexter Dunn) to lead the field through a first quarter mile in :28.2. That's when Svanstedt shook the lines and Special Way took control.

She set fractions of :56 and 1:25.1 before fending off a hard-charging Mommamia Volo (T. McCarthy) to score by a neck. Walner Payton was third Special Way used a :26.1 final panel to collect her fourth win of the season from four starts and achieve a new lifetime mark. The daughter of Walner—Special Hill is also the defending Kentucky champion and has won 11 consecutive races dating back to this series last year.

Like Confederate, Special Way competes as a homebred for Brittany Farms, Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld. The filly, a granddaughter of champion Honorable Daughter, has earned $887,475 and possesses a resume of 13 11-1-0.

Special Way paid $2.64 to win as the public's choice.

CANNIBAL CRUSHES IN COMMONWEALTH SERIES

Favored Cannibal (Yannick Gingras, $2.10) destroyed his rivals in one of two $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series contests for sophomore male pacers in 1:48.4. The Adios victor returned to the winner's circle after finishing second to It's My Show in a world record equaling mile (1:46.4) in the Championship Series on Aug. 14.

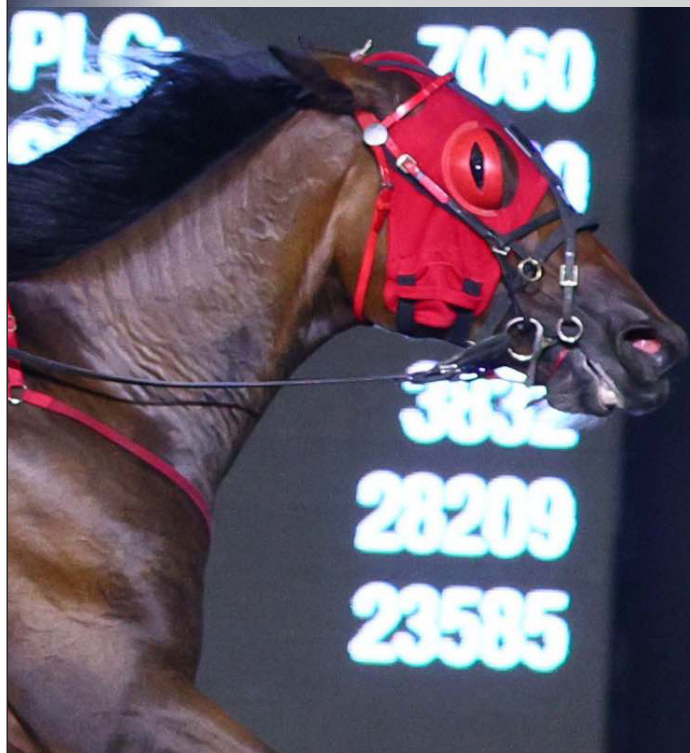

The son of Sweet Lou—No More Losses is trained by Nancy Takter and captured the final for the Commonwealth Series as a freshman.

Cannibal races as a homebred for Diamond Creek Farm. He has a career record of 17 10-3-1 and has earned $429,978.

He paid $2.10 to win.

El Rey (Scott Zeron, $5.28) collected his second win of 2023 in the other division of this series for 3-year-old male pacers in 1:48.3. The son of Captaintreacheraus—Mystery Game is trained by Alagna.

He was bred by Riverview Racing and is owned by Brittany Farms and El Rey Racing.

Believe U Me (Gingras, $9.68) collected her second straight victory in the sole $30,000 fourth leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for sophomore filly trotters in 1:53.4.

Trained by Ron Burke, the daughter of Muscle Mass—I Believe is owned by William Donovan and was bred by Wiesman Farms LLC.

KENTUCKY PROUD WINNER CESSNA PRIDE LEADS THE WAY IN GOLDENROD SERIES

Cessna Pride (Dunn, $23.62) won one of two $15,000 fourth round divisions of the Kentucky Goldenrod Series for 3-year-old filly trotters in 1:54.3. The daughter of Muscle Mass won the $50,000 Kentucky Proud Series final over this same oval on July 23 for owner/trainer Bill Cottongim.

Picaboo Lady (Gingras, $7.48) won the other division by a nose in 1:53. She is trained by Chris Beaver, and is co-owned by her trainer with Donald Robinson, William Rufenacht and Gilbert Short.

Hungry To Succeed (A. McCarthy, $39.72) won the only division for sophomore male pacers by a head in 1:50.2 for trainer Alagna. The son of Stay Hungry was bred and is owned by Brad Grant.

KARL, GIFTED ONE SHINE AT RED MILE

On Sunday (Sept. 3) Karl (Yannick Gingras) remained undefeated in his brief career and Gifted One (Todd McCarthy) broke her maiden in their respective $80,000 fourth round divisions of the Kentucky Championship Series for male and female freshman trotters and pacers at Red Mile in 1:54.2 and 1:52.4 on the 14-race card at Red Mile, which was conducted under the lights for the first time since 2019.

There were also two $30,000 fourth round legs of Kentucky Commonwealth Series events and five $15,000 fourth round divisions of Kentucky Goldenrod Series contests.

Karl and his pilot commenced their mile from post position 7 in the ninth race. The son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious was the overwhelming favorite in the field of seven 2-year-old male trotters due to his powerful performance in the previous leg in this series on Aug. 20 where he stopped the clock 1:52.1 with ease.

This appearance, however, was a bit more subdued, yet with the same result: victory. The colt and his driver settled in third position as Vocalize (T. McCarthy) clicked off the first fraction of the mile in :29.3. That's when Dame Good Time (Scott Zeron) took control and established a split of :58.1 for the half-mile. Vocalize and his reinsman decided the pocket spot was not where they wanted to be and regained the lead after three-quarters in 1:26.4.

Gingras shook the lines at Karl heading into the stretch and the colt surged to the lead off a second-over trip to best the closing Topmost (John De Long) by a half-length to improve his record to a perfect three-for-three. Vocalize dug in to hold third.

Trained by Nancy Takter, Karl was purchased for $135,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by his trainer, Christina Takter, Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing and Bender Sweden Inc.

The colt was bred by Crawford Farms and is a half-sibling to Lucius Vorenius (Father Patrick, $238,085). His dam earned $202,438 during her career.

Karl paid $2.30 to his supporters and has earned $90,000.

Gifted One visited the winner's circle for the first time from five starts in the Championship Series event for freshman filly pacers. T. McCarthy guided the daughter of Captaintreach—Creative Power to the pocket seat after the duo commenced their mile. They were content to remain in that position as Capytreach (Zeron) went straight to the lead and clicked off fractions of :28.3, :57.3 and 1:26.2.

Gifted One simply popped the pocket in the lane and paced to the wire to collect her first win by a half-length. She has been knocking on the door but had the misfortune of chasing rising star Geocentric in her last three races. Asweetbeachhere (Atlee Bender) was second with a sizzling :25.3 final quarter panel after rallying from last. Capytreach was third.

Gifted One hails from the Tony Alagna barn and is the first foal from her dam. She was purchased by Robert Leblanc, Joe Sbrocco, Brad Grant, Pryde and JAF Racing for $180,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

She was bred by Brittany Farms, Marvin Katz and Lynn Katz and paid $12.90.

Gifted One's record now stands at 5 1-2-0 and she has collected $84,000 in purse money.

JUS A MIKI MOMENT, BRIGHT STAR WIN COMMONWEALTH SERIES DIVISIONS

Jus A Miki Moment (Tim Tetrick) sprung a mild upset at and broke her maiden in her sixth career engagement in the $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series division for 2-year-old filly pacers in 1:50.3.

Trained by Jennifer Bongiorno, Jus A Miki Moment is a daughter of Always B Miki and World Of Delight.

The filly was purchased for $53,000 by Joseph Di Scala Jr., Zippett Racing Stable, T L P Racing Stable and Jaf Racing at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Jus A Miki Moment was bred by Roll The Dice Stable and Brenda Reno.

She possesses a resume of 6 1-1-1 and has earned $25,100.

The filly paid $29.06 to win.

Bright Star (T. McCarthy) also broke her maiden with a triumph in 1:54.3 in fourth leg Commonwealth Series action for freshman filly trotters. The daughter of Muscle Hill—Morningstar took advantage of costly breaks from the two favorites, International Moni, (Bender) and Fly By (Zeron) to come home first at odds of 15-1 for trainer Alagna. Pick Pocket (Peter Wrenn) was second and Show Me (Andy Miller) was third.

Bred by Brittany Farms, Bright Star paid $32.74 to win. The filly is co-owned by her breeder, Pryde Stables Inc., Caviart Farms, Plouffe and Riverview.

Bright Star is a half-sister to Starita (Trixtion, $307,696) and was purchased at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. She now has a record of 4 1-2-1 and a bankroll of $33,600.

Her granddam is 2006 Hambletonian Oaks winner Passionate Glide.

T. McCarthy and Wrenn steered Direction ($4.22) and Odds On Live Ball ($.6.90) in the two $15,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Goldenrod Series for 2-year-old filly pacers in 1:52 and 1:53.

T. McCarthy collected his fourth sire stakes triumph on the day when he drove Lockheed Martin ($3.38) to victory in the first of three divisions for freshman male trotters in 1:55.1.

Wrenn took the second split with Swan Explosion ($5.54) in 1:56.1.

Dexter Dunn was victorious in the third division with Mont Saint Michel ($4.98) in 1:56.2.

McCarthy led all drivers with four stakes wins on the card.

Joviality bested the boys in the Swedish Derby

by Thomas Hedlund

Anders Ström's Courant Stable, one of the owners investing the most in the harness racing business both in Europe and America, was dressed in the yellow jacket belonging to the winner of the $780,000 Swedish Derby after Sunday's (Sept. 3) race of over 2,640 meters.

Courant's super mare Joviality (Chapter Seven) was perfectly driven by Erik Adielsson and the Sabine Kagebrant-trained 4-year-old sprinted to a safe win after a pocket trip.

Joviality (Erik Adielsson) is the first mare to win the Swedish Derby in 22 years.

The Derby became a two-horses contest when the end of the race approached. Joviality opened quickly for the lead when the car left the field, but from post 7, favorite Dancer Brodde passed Joviality after 100 meters, before he made a break and was out of the game.

Joviality was in front again, but Adielsson had no thoughts of defending the position when Adrian Kolgjini asked for the lead with Barack Face, who impressed a lot in his elimination win from first over.

With Barack Face in front and Joviality in the pocket, the pace was allowed to reach low levels and it was clear that horses far back in the field would have problems challenging for the win.

Barack Face tried to shake off the chasers in the last turn, but Joviality is, with all her experiences from races in America, a very complete trotter who manages to handle all different distances, so when her space for attack came in the last turn, she immediately closed in on the leader, disarmed him and won in safe and nice style in a mile rate of 1:56 over 1.6 miles.

Barack Face was strong as second and Love Keeper held his position as third on the inside, which resulted in third place.

Replay here.

Anders Ström was in his glory, but this day was the ladies' Derby. Sabine Kagebrant, trainer of two horses and the CEO at Courant Stable, became the first woman to win the Swedish Derby as a trainer and Joviality broke a 22-year-old streak of no-mare wins in the race.

proved that she's a tough lady in Sunday's $380,000 Derby for mares.

Driver Carl Johan Jepson had no other choice than leaving his position in fourth over at the back stretch, trying to get Global Dancer closer to the leading duo of Queen Belina and Bonneville W.I. and Jepson got lucky when Jennifer Sisu gave cover throughout the last turn, three wide.

Global Dancer got the serious order of attack at the top of the stretch and just before the wire she passed a brave Jennifer Sisu.

It was a mile rate of 1:56 over 1.3 miles for the winner. Jennifer Sisu finished second ahead of a strong finishing Mellby Korall, who got a trip in sixth over.

Alessandro Gocciadoro's Eolo Jet (Wishing Stone) was on his way to a runner up performance when the $160,000 Gran Premio Carlo Marangoni was held in Turin, Italy on Sunday (Sept. 3) afternoon, but when leader Ebano d'Arc made a break with 50 meters to go, the way to victory was opened for Gocciadoro's trotter.

Massimilian Castaldo sat in the bike behind upset winner (22-1) Eolo Jet, who came home in a mile rate of 1:58.4 over 1.3 miles.

In Saturday's (Sept. 2) $160,000 Campionato Europeo in Cesena, three races were required before a winner was crowned. Bonneville Gifont (Varenne) won the first heat from the lead and in heat 2, where the same horses met from opposite post positions, Akela Pal Ferm (Maharajah) claimed the win via the open stretch.

Two different winners meant that a race off between the two winners was scheduled and Akela Pal Ferm was best from the lead in 1:58. Antonio di Nardo sat in the bike behind the winner.

Jacob Bouck has more people in his corner than a heavyweight boxer

The 21-year-old is using that support to live out his harness racing dreams.

by Chris Lomon

Everywhere he looks, Jacob Bouck can find someone in his corner.

His driving and training careers have only just begun, but long before his first victory in the race bike, the native of Edmeston, NY, had already found a wealth of support from far and wide; horse people eager to help the aspiring horseman find his way.

“When I was 7, I went to work with my uncle at Robert Keller’s,” Bouck said. “Doc Keller, who was a vet, taught me a lot. And so have many others. Since then, I’ve loved being around the horses and the business.”

That affinity for racing heightened when he met trainer Michael Miller and his wife Hannah, also a trainer.

Lessons in life and racing were eagerly accepted by Bouck.

“I worked for Michael and Hannah for a long, long time,” Bouck said. “I actually lived with them through fifth to ninth grade. Mike taught me how to shoe and gave me a lot of knowledge about the business. I got my racing colors from Mike, and he let me drive a lot of his horses at the county fairs and at Vernon. When I got my first horse to train last year, he helped me learn the ropes, and gave me a lot of valuable advice. I got my first county fair win with one of Mike’s horses, who he co-owns with his grandfather. I won with that horse at my hometown fair in Morris.”

Last October, Bouck earned his first pari-mutuel victory at Vernon Downs.

And he did it in style.

His pre-race instructions were fairly simple, but the young reinsman had loftier goals in mind ahead of the third race at Vernon, a pace paired him with Road Ready Wes, a bay son of Western Ideal trained and owned by Philip Doyle.

“I was lucky enough to get the chance to drive him, thanks to everyone connected with the horse,” Bouck said. “Phil told me to go out there, try my best and have fun. He said, ‘If you win, that would be great, but do your best to pick up a check.’ I told them, ‘We’re going to win tonight.’”

The tote board, however, suggested a decidedly different outcome.

When the starter car sped away, Road Ready Wes, at 18-1, was the longest shot in the seven-horse field.

“I got away fourth on the rail and the two guys in front of me pulled and I slid up behind the horse that was leading,”

Bouck said. "Coming down the lane, the horse drifted out and I came up the rail and we won. It was a new lifetime mark, 1:54.1, for him, which made me very happy."

Currently, Bouck is working in the barn of trainer Michelle Warner.

His time there, much like his experiences with other operations, has been deeply rewarding.

"This past winter, I went to work for Michelle, and I've been here ever since," he said. "She has given me a lot of opportunity to drive and qualify their horses. They let me drive Usurp Hanover, Bet Big On Blue and I've also been lucky enough to take care of Aces Or Better, who is a wicked-nice horse."

For Bouck, it was yet another pleasant reminder of people who have taken the time to help him move his career along.

"So far, I've had a lot of important help from a lot of good people," he said. "I've just had a lot of opportunity and a lot of people who have been there to help me out. Mike Miller has been huge for me. We'll talk about the races and what I can do better the next time, what I'm doing good at, and things I can improve on. [Trainer] Dale Allen has helped me out as well. He has a nice horse named Little Sammy Chung, who tries every time. When you think this horse is done, he still gives you more effort. Getting those chances to drive and be around nice horses... I can't say how lucky I've been to know people are there for me."

That list is seemingly always expanding.

"Benny Eggers has let me drive a couple of his horses, Mama Donna and Bak To Magic, at the fairs," Bouck said. "He entered the horse in a maiden race at Vernon near the end of August and he finished fifth. He raced well. The horse in front of me ran and I had to grab ahold of my horse and settle him back down on the rail and try to go on from there. After I grabbed him, he just didn't want to do it anymore."

Bouck was disappointed but not discouraged by the result.

Instead, every race he drives in, win, lose, top-three, or off the board, provides him with a learning experience, something he can use to improve upon.

The 21-year-old also has a detailed game plan in place for his standardbred career, one that includes a long-held goal.

"My long-term goal is to keep racing, train for other people and own a few horses," he said. "I'd like to race at Vernon and Saratoga. My dream, ever since I was 7, was to go to Indiana and race at Hoosier Park. I hope that can come true one day. Hopefully, one day I can be the leading driver at Vernon or another track and have a successful business."

"In the short term, it's about continuing to work hard. With Warner Racing Stable there are 38 horses, so there is a lot of work to be done. There's a lot of feet to pack, horses to jog, brush and groom. But I like the work. The more I work, the happier I am and the more I learn.”

For now, at least until the colder weather and snow comes, Bouck will remain a busy horseman, eager to soak up knowledge from both horses and humans every day he walks into the barn.

While some of those conversations might be one-sided, interacting with the pacers and trotters continues to be a valuable learning tool.

“In the winter, I relax and unwind because we’re not as busy,” Bouck said. “I go hunting in the winter, but through the spring and summer, up until Vernon and Tioga closes, I’m always busy. But I like that and I like being around the horses. I get to know each horse better, so if the occasion ever comes up where I get to drive them, I know them and what makes them tick. I like to go to different tracks, where I can talk with different drivers and horse people.”

And perhaps, maybe without even knowing it, Bouck might find some more people happy to be in his corner.

Across the river and into the swamp, Part 4

by Frank Cotolo

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

Part 3 is here.

Del Insko was a major New York-circuit harness horsemen and he knew just about everyone in the business and that made him a valuable contact for people interested in standardbred ownership.

Like Mal Burroughs. Burroughs talked to his accountant about owning a standardbred and what do you know, his accountant knew another accountant with a client by the name of Del Insko.

"I had lunch with [Insko] and I liked what I heard," Burroughs said. "After that meeting I decided to get involved."

Insko gave Burroughs a lead on a yearling selling at a Tattersalls mixed sale. Burroughs went to Kentucky and purchased the horse, Distant Thunder, for $24,500.

"I told Del I was going to take the yearling to my farm and see if I could break it and train it," Burroughs said.

Distant Thunder, Burroughs said, was an experiment. He read James Harrison's book on care and training and worked eight months learning skills.

"I got him going pretty well," he said, "but he wasn't right. Someone put me in touch with Doc Steele and he told me the horse had calcium in a knee and the worst thing for that was cold weather."

According to Burroughs, Steele recommended shipping the horse to Florida "to [Bill Vaughan] who started his own public stable."

Distant Thunder raced well at 3 and he was second in a heat of the Jug.

"And he chased Abercrombie around all year and made about $180,000," Burroughs said. "I raced him at 4 and then he went to stud in New Jersey."

Then, more experimenting. Burroughs bought Satin Doll for $38,000 and the pacing filly became a top performer. He bought more yearling pacers and broke and trained them. But Vaughan loved trotters. He said trotting is where horsemen make real money. Fine, but Burroughs was flirting all along with another means of participation in the sport.

"The whole driving thing started with a filly in the Jugette," Burroughs said. "Billy Haughton cared for her. We got rained out one day, the grooms were gone and Billy wanted to get the horses moved. 'Take your filly and jog it.'"

Haughton told Vaughan to teach Burroughs.

"I always thought Joe O'Brien was the coolest driver out there," Burroughs said. "Driving like him was my goal."

Owning, training, driving and then breeding kept him in the game financially but he "wanted to go the next step: breed my own horse, raise the foal myself and drive it..." Burroughs said. "I studied breeding, read every theory so I was able to figure what crosses with what best."

Burroughs met Jimmy Takter and the duo bred, broke and trained Burroughs' first successful trotter, a filly, Gleam. Burroughs was still an amateur in the bike when he drove her to win the Hambletonian Oaks. By that time, the track that Burroughs helped build was the center of the harness racing industry and home of the Hambletonian.

It was Burroughs' next goal.

“ I always thought Joe O’Brien was the coolest driver out there. Driving like him was my goal.”

~ Mal Burroughs

“I want the big one,” he said.

Malabar Man was the first horse foaled on Burroughs’ farm. Takter loved how the Supergill colt developed.

“He’s a perfect horse,” Takter said.

But the summer of ‘95 was cruel. Malabar Man fell ill and Burroughs had a serious heart attack. By autumn ‘96, Burroughs and his colt defied adversity. At 2, Malabar Man won the Breeders Crown. He returned at 3, amateur Burroughs steering, and there I was at The Meadowlands covering the 1997 Hambletonian.

A decade and a few years later I covered The Hambletonian at The Meadowlands for the Hambletonian Society and TwinSpire dot com. My new assistant was Ray Cotolo, my youngest son. We were on our way out of the hotel when the elevator stops and in walks Burroughs. I reminded him I was an editor at TIMES: in harness and introduced him to Ray.

“Ray, this is the man who built The Meadowlands, I mean not all by himself,” I said. “Remember I told you about Malabar Man?”

“Yeah,” Ray said.

Burroughs said hello and was polite and calm and looked healthy. I told him that one of the best driver-related quotes I ever received came from him, only the second amateur driver to win a Hambletonian.

“I told Ray what you said a great driver does,” I said. “You remember you told my readers, ‘I think it’s very simple. Never win by more than you have to.’”

In 2004, Malabar Man went to stud at New York’s Winbak Farm. He died in 2011, the year the original Meadowlands grandstand, across the river from the once-hallowed half-miles of New York, shut down. The track was privatized and purchased by real-estate giant Jeffrey Gural’s Newmark Knight Frank. The current grandstands and racetrack were built on the site of the former backstretch. It opened in 2013.

Draws held for MGM Yonkers International Trot and other stakes events

by Yonkers Raceway media

France's Etonnant drew post position 2 and has been installed as the 3-1 morning-line favorite for Saturday's (Sept. 9) $1 million MGM Yonkers International Trot at MGM Yonkers Raceway. Saturday's card also includes two $250,000 Invitationals for older horses – the Robert Miecuna Trot and the Aria Pace – and eight $225,000 New York Sire Stakes finals for 2- and 3-year-olds of both sexes and gaits.

Etonnant, a former Elitloppet champion, has won six of 10 starts this year, including in 1:51.3 over the mile distance in the Prix de Washington at Enghien-Soisy Racecourse on July 15. He also won his Elitloppet elimination at Solvalla Racecourse in 1:52 before finishing fifth in the final. This will be Etonnant's second MGM Yonkers International Trot appearance as he raced in last year's edition but made a break and wound up eighth.

"[Post] 2 is a good number, maybe not such a good number for him, but we cannot be sad with post 2," said Etonnant's owner/trainer Richard Westerink, who finished second in the 2015 International Trot with Timoko, the sire of Etonnant.

"On the inside is a little bit scary [for his horse on a half-mile track], but I think we can handle it."

Among Etonnant's main rivals is Vivid Wise As, who is the richest horse in the field with over $3.1 million in the bank and is the third choice on the morning line at 4-1. Vivid Wise As drew post 1 for driver Matthieu Abrivard and trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro.

"Vivid Wise As is a very good horse also," said Westerink. "He has a good draw on the inside. I hope we will have a great race and a great battle with the other horses, too."

Jiggy Jog S is a familiar horse to fans and followers of harness racing in North America as she has raced here for her entire career, but she was foaled in Sweden and will represent that country on Saturday. She will start from a trailing post 9 and is 8-1 on the morning line.

"She's a very, very strong filly, and we're very pleased to have her in the barn," said Sarah Svanstedt, wife of trainer Ake Svanstedt. "She loves to race and she's fast. Now she is 4 and facing a strong group of horses here, but girl power can be good. She has been going fast times and facing good horses. She's got a strong mentality and is fast. I don't really know if she really needs a specific way of racing. When she has her day, she's strong and not many horses beat her. Now she has been off almost four weeks coming into this race, so we're training her tough right now, and she's ready to race."

Dexter Dunn will have his familiar seat behind Jiggy Jog S, and Sarah said of their partnership, "They are a great team together, and he loves to race her, too. They have a connection."

It's Academic, who will be driven by David Miller for trainer Ron Burke, is one of two hopes for the United States in the field. The champion of this year's Crawford Farms Open Trot, Spirit of Massachusetts and John Cashman Memorial is the second choice on the morning line at 7-2 and will depart from post 3. It's Academic, who also won the Tom Aldrich President's Trot over the half-mile oval at MGM Northfield Park on Aug. 12, was a fast-finishing third from the outside post 8 in the 2022 MGM Yonkers International Trot.

Mike Lizzi
Cokstile (Vincenzo Dell'Annunziata) won last year's $1 million MGM Yonkers International Trot for Norway.

The MGM Yonkers International Trot will go as race 7 on the 11-race program and at a distance of a mile and a quarter. The full field with their morning line odds, listed driver/trainer, and country is as follows:

1. Vivid Wise As – Matthieu Abrivard – Alessandro Gocciadoro – 4-1 – Italy
2. Etonnant – Anthony Barrier – Richard Westerink – 3-1 – France
3. It's Academic – David Miller – Ron Burke – 7-2 – United States
4. Fashion Frenzie – Louis-Philippe Roy – Nancy Takter – 20-1 – Canada
5. Hierro Boko S – Hannu Korpi drives and trains – 8-1 – Finland
6. Get A Wish DK – Bo Westergaard drives and trains – 15-1 – Denmark
7. Aldebaran Zeus A – Chris Alford – Brent Lilley – 15-1 – Australia
8. Bengurion Jet IT – Alessandro Gocciadoro drives and trains – 15-1 – Italy
9. Jiggy Jog S – Dexter Dunn – Ake Svanstedt – 8-1 – Sweden
10. Venerate – Brian Sears – Marcus Melander – 12-1 – United States

Two races before the MGM Yonkers International Trot are the Robert Miecuna Invitational Trot, and it's headlined by M-M's Dream (post 2, David Miller, Ron Burke). M-M's Dream won the Hambletonian Maturity and the Steele Memorial at The Meadowlands earlier this summer, taking her mark of 1:50 flat in the latter event. She'll face the likes of double millionaire Amigo Volo (post 1, Dexter Dunn, Nifty Norman) and stablemate Hillexotic (post 7, Yannick Gingras).

Ten of the sport's best older male pacers are slated to meet in the Aria Invitational Pace (race 10). Allywag Hanover (post 3, Todd McCarthy, Brett Pelling) and Bythemissal (post 6, Gingras, Burke) were third and second, respectively in last Saturday's Canadian Pacing Derby at Woodbine Mohawk Park and renew acquaintances here. Covered Bridge (post 10, Jordan Stratton, Jeff Gillis) has had a great year on half-mile ovals, winning the Camluck Classic, Gold Cup and Saucer, and Kane Invitational, but will have to overcome the trailing post.

Both the Robert Miecuna and Aria Invitationals will be conducted at the distance of a mile and a quarter, and the full draws are as follows:

$250,000 ROBERT MIECUNA INVITATIONAL TROT - RACE 5

1. Amigo Volo – Dexter Dunn – Nifty Norman

SIRES STAKES

REPORT

Records fall in Philly sophomore Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championships

by James Witherite / editor, Hoof Beats magazine

After reeling off wins in the Milstein Memorial and the last Pennsylvania Sire Stakes preliminary, Seven Colors delivered a powerful punch in Sunday's (Sept. 3) $252,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship for 3-year-old male pacers at Harrah's Philadelphia, defeating Pepsi North America Cup winner It's My Show in 1:48.1 and tying his own track record, which he shares with A Rocknroll Dance.

Pacing filly Odds On Hail Mary and trotting colt French Wine also rolled into the record books in their respective PASS finals.

Driver Dexter Dunn took a 3-hole tuck with Seven Colors to stalk Linda Toscano stablemates It's My Show (driven by Scott Zeron) and Fulton (Andy McCarthy) through a :27 first quarter before brushing to control with a lap to go. Following a :54.3 half, Seven Colors was forced to pick up the pace on the backstretch by the first-over Ken Hanover (David Miller), who emerged from fourth and pushed a 1:21.4 three-quarters before working to within three-quarters of a length of the lead midway on the final turn. The Stay Hungry—Rainbowinthedark colt shrugged off his outside rival easily, edging away in upper stretch with :26.2 closing speed and winning by 1-3/4 lengths while well in hand. It's My Show protected second off his pocket ride; Fulton finished third, another three lengths behind.

"He's a good horse; he's on top of his game," said Dunn. "I asked him coming off the top of the straight, and the last eighth he was good. He was doing it pretty comfortably."

Now three-for-three for his current connections, owner/trainer Andrew Harris and co-owners William Pollock and Bruce Areman, Seven Colors has won eight of 20 races in his career and has banked $497,370. He paid $3.80 to win.

Just one race before, in the $252,000 PASS final for 3-year-old pacing fillies, Odds On Hail Mary ($7.80) stalked a fast early pace before unleashing an explosive kick late in a 1:48.2 mile, breaking the world record for sophomore pacing fillies on a five-eighths-mile track, previously held by Kiss Me Onthebeach, by a fifth of a second.

Zeron kept Odds On Hail Mary reserved in the pocket while Beach Cowgirl (Joe Bongiorno) carved out early fractions of :25.4

Grace Zimmers

Seven Colors (Dexter Dunn) improved to three-for-three for his current connections with a commanding 1:48.1 score in the PASS final for 3-year-old male pacers on Sunday at Harrah's Philly.

Grace Zimmers

and :54. With three-eighths to go, Zeron angled the Heston Blue Chip—Mach Some Noise filly out of the pocket to avoid being boxed by an advancing Hungry For Love (Todd McCarthy) on approach to the far turn, and she threw down a :26.2 backside blitz before opening 2-1/2 lengths on the field turning for home. With Always B Naughty (Dunn) emerging off cover to give chase, Zeron kept Odds On Hail Mary to task through the stretch en route to a 1-1/4-length victory. Hungry For Love finished third.

Toscano trains Odds On Hail Mary, a six-time winner with $273,243 in career earnings, for Odds On Racing.

French Wine ($2.20) shaved two-fifths of a second off Googoo Gaagaa's 12-year-old divisional standard with a 1:51.4 score in the PASS final for 3-year-old male trotters.

Andy Miller perched the Bar Hopping—Creamy Mimi colt second-over behind the live cover of Once In A Lifetime (Tim Tetrick) with seven-sixteenths to go, and the pair were towed to within two lengths of leader Khaosan Road (Zeron) at three-quarters in 1:23.2. French Wine swung three-wide off the corner for home and found his best stride in the final sixteenth, collaring Khaosan Road with 70 yards to go and drawing two lengths clear. Once In A Lifetime, who leveled off after being overtaken in mid-stretch, finished third.

"I felt like they were getting cheaper fractions that I would have liked, but Andy forced Timmy [Tetrick] to move on [with Once In A Lifetime]," said French Wine's trainer, Julie Miller. "Coming off the last turn, I felt like Andy waited for them to straighten down the stretch, and he exploded like he was supposed to. It seems like he's peaking right now."

Now a seven-time winner with $687,468 in lifetime earnings, French Wine races for the Andy Miller Stable, Daniel and Jean Plouffe, and One Legend Stable.

Railee Something ($4.00) rounded out the quartet of PASS champions crowned Sunday with a gritty 1:53 win in the 3-year-old filly trot.

After using a :26.4 first quarter to clear Angelpedia, Railee Something and driver Yannick Gingras stole a :55.3 half before then digging in through the far turn to repel a sustained challenge from Hambletonian Oaks winner Heaven Hanover (Tetrick) and subsequently stave off an inside challenge from runner-up Fashion Annie (Andy McCarthy) by a neck. Sheer Faith (Dunn) rallied from third-over to finish third.

Ron Burke trains Railee Something, an International Moni—Railee Priti filly with 12 career wins and a bankroll of $507,136, for owner/breeder Ronald Mersky.

A quartet of $50,000 PASS consolations for 3-year-olds led the undercard, with trotting gelding Sinatra De Vie ($5.40, Johnathan Ahle, 1:54.3), pacing filly Southwind Icenfire ($2.80, Gingras, 1:51.3), trotting filly Bella Macchiato ($7.40, Dunn, 1:53.2) and pacing gelding Brue Hanover ($2.80, Gingras, 1:49.4) winning their respective events.

REPORT

Willys Home Run steam rolls to victory in OSS

by Austin Stanton / Ontario Racing Management

Willys Home Run continued her dominance over the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) this season with an eye-popping score in the second of two $103,000-plus Gold divisions for two-year-old trotting fillies Monday (Sept. 4) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The daughter of Archangel was made a 1-5 favorite by the betting public in race 6, despite drawing the outside post 10 with James MacDonald in the bike.

“When I saw the draw originally, I said that sucks,” said MacDonald. “But I know what this filly is capable of, and it was kind of a good situation going in. I raced her off the pace in the Peaceful Way and she had been racing so good, so I knew it wasn’t like she’d gone down the road four starts in a row and she had to do it again.”

As MacDonald suspected, the 10-hole was no issue for Willys Home Run. She blasted from the gate, led the field through a :27.4 first quarter, and remained in front through a second panel in :30 seconds flat.

R Liza made a first up move in the third quarter, but when MacDonald and Willys Home Run entered the stretch, the filly showed another gear, separating herself from the rest of the field by six lengths and stopping the clock in 1:55.1.

Willys Home Run is a full sister to Logan Park, who established a new Canadian record of 1:50.3 earlier this season. Trainer Rob Fellows knew he had a good one on his hands in the spring.

“In April or May I had like 14 and I knew she was better than everything else,” said Fellows. “You trained her with the pacers and she’s better than them. She was just special.”

Willys Home Run has banked $312,000 through seven starts, with four OSS Gold wins, and runner-up in the Grand Circuit Peaceful Way in her previous start.

Bred by Reg Higgs, she is co-owned by Higgs, Dr. Sara Gatchell, Jake Higgs, Yolanda Fellows.

Valuable Miss (My MVP) out-dueled West River Ivory (Wheelin N Dealin) for second.

The OSS action kicked off in race 3 where Zippy Zipporah battled Love Those Legs for the early lead through a :28.1 first quarter, while Bob McClure settled Dontmesswithmama back in seventh after leaving from the post 6.

No One took the lead in the backstretch and posted a :58.1 half-mile mark, before Louis-Philippe Roy and Sue Ann cleared to the front around the far turn with favorite Rhythm Of Life on cover, setting up what looked like a three-way battle between the pair and Love Those Legs.

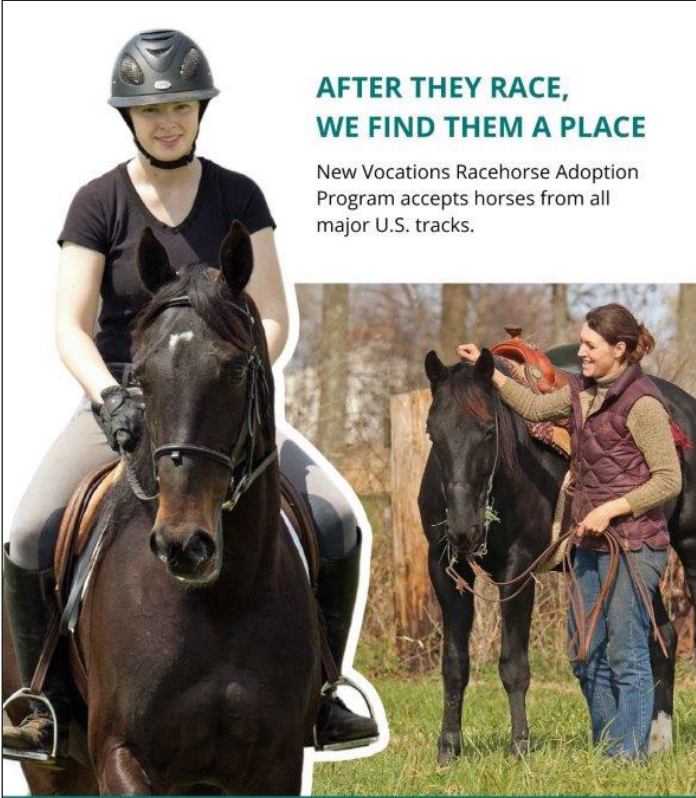

McClure made it a four-way fight by finding room for Dontmesswithmama up the rail and the Blake MacIntosh trainee trotted home in :28.1 to win by a head over Rhythm Of Life.

“Every time a lane opened up for her, she just kept diving forward,” said McClure. “So, it was a good time for Blake to have her good, and she is rounding into form at the right time of year.”

Dontmesswithmama’s win was the first of her career, and it was the daughter of Muscle Mass’ best performance in the provincial program to date, with her two previous efforts yielding fourth and fifth place finishes.

“The other day when I trained her, she didn’t want to pass the last one, so I wasn’t too happy about it,” said MacIntosh. “But she seemed to pass everything tonight.”

MacIntosh co-owns the filly with Van Camp Trotting Corp who moved her career earnings from just over $18,000 to $69,761 with the maiden breaking score.

Huntingforchrome sets new mark for 2-year-olds in NYSS at Tioga

by John Horne for Tioga Downs

Tioga Downs played host to two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Saturday (Sept. 2).

Vandiemmen Bluechip (Jason Bartlett) captured the $51,500 first division.

Darius (Mark MacDonald) went to the front and led to the quarter in :27. He slowed things down with a :30 second quarter to be first to the half in :57. Avenger Force (Matt Kakaley) came flying first-up going down the backstretch and would challenge for the lead. Darius held a short lead at three-quarters in 1:24.4.

As they reached the stretch Darius shook off Avenger Force but that's when Vandiemmen Bluechip ($10.20) made his move and blew right on by to win in a lifetime best of 1:52.3. Darius had to settle for second. Avenger Force was third.

Vandiemmen Blue Chip is a 2-year-old gelding by Huntsville—Peppermint Patti. He is owned by Samir Tawil, Paul Kautz, Nathan Fullmer, and Alexander Henn while trained by Mark Capone. He now owns three career victories.

Huntingforchrome (Tyler Buter) took the $51,500 second division setting a new track record for 2-year-geldings in 1:52.1.

Supplemental Fee (MacDonald) was first to the quarter in :27.4. Boston Rocks (Jason Bartlett) took control with a lap to go and was first to the half in :57. He still had the lead at three-quarters in 1:25.1.

As they made to turn for home Huntingforchrome ($3.20) came first-over from fourth and was flying down the stretch to go right on by to set the new record. Boston Rocks had to settle for second. Howlenth hills (Matt Kakaley) finished third.

Huntingforchrome is a gelding by Huntsville—All On Top Hanover. He is owned by Robert DiNozzi and trained by Jennifer Bongiorno. It was his fourth win in six career starts.

Windsor winds down with Maine's hot fillies

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Under sunny skies and high temperatures, Maine's sophomore pacing fillies scored some fast miles on Monday's (Sept. 4) final day of racing at Windsor Fair.

Held prior to the regular card the pair of $14,000-plus divisions witnessed equal winning times for the pair of talented distaff pacers, both of whom took the most direct route to the winner's circle.

In the first match-up, Pickmepickme was all business and grabbed the $14,459 split in decisive fashion. Scoring from post 3, driver Andy Harrington had to contend with the hard-charging Justcallmemimi (Walter Case, Jr., Mike Graffam) to overtake the lead past the :29 opening panel.

With the rest of the field now comfortably at bay, Harrington rolled the Western Maverick filly through evenly-rated fractions of :58.1 and 1:27.3 while gaining separation with every stride. As the finish line drew closer, the contenders slipped away from Pickmepickme who triumphed in 1:57.2 by three open lengths.

Justcallmemimi finished second; Bailey's Rock Star (McGuire Sowers, Sherry Cushing) was third.

Owned, trained and bred by Marc Tardif, it was Pickmepickme's twelfth lifetime victory, which boosted her career bankroll to $132,378.

The second $14,684 division for 3-year-old pacing fillies was captured by South St Dottie in a wire-to-wire thriller.

Driver Aaron Hall had the daughter of Western Maverick out and rolling from her pylon starting position, and had 2-1/4 lengths on the field at the :28 first quarter. While settling into a softer :58 half, the aggressor Katelyn's Angel (Kevin Switzer, Jr., Tardif), who came into the day off of a five-race win streak, was ranging up on the outside to make a bid for the top. At the 1:27.4 third panel the pair were matching strides while side by side.

But the final turn helped South St Dottie keep Katelyn's Angel a few steps back, which was just enough to hold off any late brushes to win by a length in 1:57.2.

La Mambacita (Scott McKenzie, Valerie Grondin) finished third.

Owned and bred by Jan Donoway, the time was a new lifetime best for South St Dottie who grabbed her seventh stakes win of the season, and pushed her lifetime earnings to $101,999. She is trained by Mike Graffam.

MAINE TROTTERS MAKE TRIUMPHANT RETURN TO WINDSOR

For the second Sunday in a row, all divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for trotters went postward at Windsor Fair, with several fan favorites increasing their seasonal win totals and three victors taking new lifetime marks.

In Sunday's (Sept. 3) $14,146 non-wagering opener, trainer Valerie Grondin got her 499th career driving victory aboard Chipper Dale, giving that 2-year-old son of Shake It Off Lindy his sixth consecutive victory, along with a faster lifetime mark.

With a 'take no prisoners' effort, Grondin pushed her charge out to the lead by open lengths, and continued to control the tempo through speedy 'colt trotter' fractions from her well-established position of power. Cruising home in 2:04.4, the time shaved a full four seconds off Chipper Dale's previous lifetime best, and maintained the gelding's perfect record with $50,102 in earnings.

Owned and bred by Lynn-Marie Plouffe, the Maine-bred trotting star has yet to taste defeat in a purse race. Pembroke Will (Heath Campbell, Grondin) finished second; Carrabasset (Mark Athearn, Gretchen Athearn) was third.

The second $14,367 non-betting event for 2-year-old trotting fillies was captured by My Saving Grace, who also took a new lifetime mark.

Driven by Mark Athearn for trainer/partner Gretchen Athearn, the daughter of Shake It Off Lindy took an early seat behind pacesetter Pembroke Breeze (Campbell, Grondin). As the race progressed through evenly-rated panels, Athearn continued to close the gap on the leader, and by the head of the stretch he and My Saving Grace were poised to pounce.

Getting up in the final strides to win by three parts of a length, My Saving Grace prevailed in a new lifetime best of 2:06. Owned by Margaret Thyng and bred by Leighton Properties, it was her fifth seasonal victory and brought her earnings to $45,035.

Pembroke Breeze finished second; Twisted Venture (Mike Cushing, Sherry Cushing) was third.

The Maine-bred 3-year-olds hit the track during the regular Windsor Fair card, with the $14,941 colt trot presented as race one, with odds-on favorite Wabanaki advancing his current win streak to three.

Trained and driven by Ivan Davies, the son of Boy Band left for an early lead and controlled the opening panels of :29.2 and 1:00.1 before feeling any significant pressure from the pack.

However, at the 1:30.4 third panel Pembroke Traveler (Campbell, Grondin) had advanced first over and was at the throat latch of pacesetter Wabanaki. By the head of the stretch only a whisker separated the two combatants as they bore down on the swift Windsor Fair homestretch.

That's when Davies reminded Wabanaki what was at stake and the gelding found another gear and put down a :29 second final quarter to scoot away from the would-be spoilers and take a new record of 1:59.4, winning by 2-1/4 lengths.

Owned by Anita 'Bunny' Anastosopolous-Andrew and bred by her late husband Mike Andrew, Wabanaki's efforts put his lifetime earnings into six-figure territory at $102,913. He now has five wins this year, and paid $2.80 to win.

Outlawofthevalley (Kevin Switzer, Jr., Marc Tardif) surged home to be second; Pembroke Traveler finished third.

The Davies-Andrew clan had another shell in the chamber as Wild Ending redeemed her defeat last week to pick up her fifth win of the season while taking the $14,952 sophomore filly trot.

In a decisive wire-to-wire romp, the daughter of Boy Band was expertly piloted by Davies to a 2:05 score, drawing off by six lengths at the wire.

Owned by Anastosopolous and bred by Andrew, the filly now has $47,892 in seasonal earnings. She paid $2.80 to win.

Melania's Best (John Nason) finished second; B R Glory (Wally Watson, Lisa Watson) was third.

THRICE IS NICE FOR TARDIF'S TWO FOLD COLD

Team Tardif's Two Fold Cold has provided his owner/trainer with an emotional rollercoaster this season. Winning the fastest $14,487 division of the Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday (Sept. 2) at Windsor is only part of the story.

The son of Deuce Seelster is trained and owned by Marc Tardif, and together with his wife Peggy Tardif, they comprise one of the most heavily armed forces in the Maine Standardbred Breeders program. With a horse or three in just about every division the Tardif's work hard at racing horses, and supporting Maine standardbreds.

It's no surprise that with several dozen horses in the barn that one may become a 'project horse.' With a habit of breaking stride, the raucous freshman has good speed but a tendency to do things his own way.

But, despite 'running' at, or near, the start in two of his last three outings, the gelding still has managed to win decisively on each occasion. Saturday was another 'case in point' with the uncertainty surrounding Two Fold Cold's behavior.

With an inconsistent and hair-pulling early bobble, he got back pacing right away, settling into third position while back seven lengths. Coming first over after the half, he had caught the field and was poised for the top at the third panel.

By the head of the stretch Two Fold Cold had taken command, and then drew off to give himself a new lifetime mark of 1:59.4, winning by 3-3/4 lengths for regular handler Kevin Switzer, Jr.

Bred by Gary and Kristina Hall, Two Fold Cold now has three wins in seven lifetime starts, with earnings of $23,233. Hesjustadelight (Ron Cushing, Heidi Gibbs) finished second; Wes's Challenge (Walter Case, Jr., Tardif) was third.

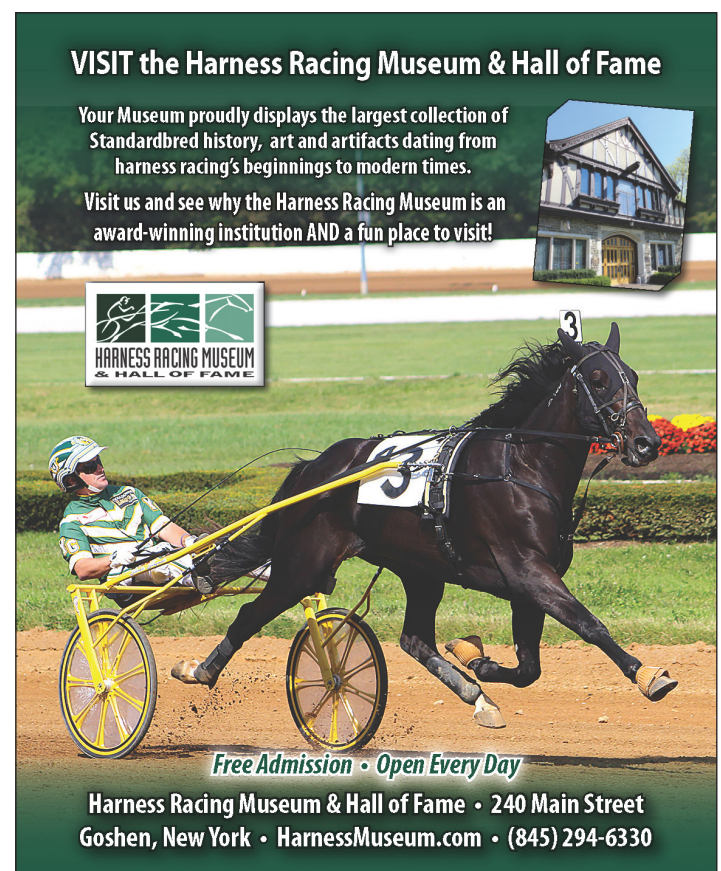

Team Tardif swept the 2-year-old pacing colts division with their own Thru The Fire, who also picked up a new lifetime mark.

Andy Harrington drove the son of Western Maverick to a wire-to-wire victory in a career best 2:02.4. Owned by Leighton Property and bred by Marc Tardif, it was Thru The Fire's second career win, but first Maine Sire Stakes triumph.

Justcallmebuck (Gary Hall) finished second; Stretch It Donn (Case, Jr., Tardif) was third.

The Maine Sire Stakes returns to Bangor today (Sept. 6) with two $14,000-plus divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Looking ahead, Bangor hosts the freshmen pacing fillies on Sunday (Sept. 16) before transitioning over to the Farmington Fair the week of Sept. 17.

Climb The Pole, Gaines Hanover capture Simcoe splits

Sophomore trotting filly Climb The Pole and sophomore trotting gelding Gaines Hanover came with late accelerations to each capture their respective division of Simcoe Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday night.

Climb The Pole lunged in the closing strides to collar tempo-setter and 4-5 favorite Righteous Resolve to snag the $157,200 Simcoe for 3-year-old trotting fillies in 1:52.2.

Righteous Resolve revved off the wings and claimed command to a :26.3 first quarter with HP Extra Ice securing the pocket. Strolling firmly up the backside to a :55.3 half, Righteous Resolve stayed on the muscle through the final turn as HP Extra Ice readied a charge from the pocket. But after three-quarters in 1:24, Righteous Resolve kicked for home on an extended lead.

Driver Jody Jamieson perched Climb The Pole on cover spinning into the stretch and launched her past HP Extra Ice with Baroness Hill rallying wider. Righteous Resolve stayed resolute on the point until the final eighth, where driver James MacDonald called upon her to engage with her late-rallying challengers. Climb The Pole hit another gear in the closing strides to down Righteous Resolve by a half-length with Baroness Hill settling for third and Smashin Racquets another six lengths behind in fourth.

“She just tries; she never gives up,” said Jamieson, who co-owns Climb The Pole with his father/trainer Carl Jamieson, Steve Heimbecker and Aaron Byron. “She’s just a sweetheart, really. She’s an ornery mare sometimes, but when you get a racehorse like her and she tries every week... you can’t beat that.”

A daughter of Kadabra, Climb The Pole continues to add to a productive campaign off a 2-year-old season where she only started twice. She’s now won seven races from 12 starts in her career and banked $295,468. Off the second choice in the betting, she paid $5.30 to win.

Gaines Hanover gobbled rivals down the center of the track while avoiding late-stretch trouble to take the $177,300 Simcoe for trotting sophomores in 1:53.1.

Hasty Bid hustled to the lead to a :28 first quarter and soon yielded control to Osceola into the backstretch. Ghostly Casper, parked through the first turn, advanced towards the leader to a :56 half. Osceola kept him wide to the final turn as Ghostly Casper continued pestering the pacesetter to three-quarters in 1:24.1 all while Southwind Coors readied a three-wide charge and Gaines Hanover a four-wide charge.

Osceola swung for home clinging to the lead as Hasty Bid looked for clearance to pull from the pocket. Southwind Coors and Gaines Hanover gathered their momentum on the straightaway and marched furiously after the leader while Hasty Bid got hooked by the wheels of a tiring Ghostly Casper in the last eighth. Gaines Hanover outmuscled Southwind Coors to the beam to take a neck victory with Osceola third and 130-1 shot New Rules grabbing fourth.

“I’ve raced against him so many times and I was real happy to get the drive on this guy for this race here,” said driver Sylvain Filion on acquiring the drive behind the Richard Moreau trainee since regular pilot Louis-Philippe Roy opted to drive Tuscan Prince, who broke behind the gate. “I thought it was the only way to go; I floated out of there and got cover. Even though I

Gaines Hanover, a gelding by Cantab Hall and a winner at Woodbine Mohawk Park last year in the $810,000 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot, has now collected six victories from 16 starts and earned $666,236 for owner Gestion J. Y. Blais Inc. He paid $13.50 to win.

Big M lover ‘Ucandoit’ does it again

There’s no question that Ucandoit Blue Chip loves racing at The Meadowlands. The Linda Toscano trainee is seven-for-12 lifetime at The Big M and is a two-time New Jersey Sire Stakes champion at the mile oval.

The daughter of Keystone Velocity—Molly Can Do It will look to add a New Jersey Classic trophy over her fireplace in the $150,000 (est.) final next week, and appears ready to do just that after taking the lone NJC elimination for 3-year-old filly pacers Saturday (Sept. 2) night.

“I was really happy with her,” said Toscano. “She’s as consistent as they come, that’s what you have to love about her. I passed on the bye, so by winning we would get a good post [for the final].”

Driver Scott Zeron had Ucandoit Blue Chip in the 3-hole early on, vacated the rail at the five-eighths to go after leader Beltara, collared that one at the head of the lane before surging clear in mid-stretch. Odds On Cinamon, the 2-1 second choice, picked up live cover from the eventual winner around the far turn and was closing ground late, but came up a neck short in a mile that went in 1:50.2.

“The [New Jersey Classic] series is phenomenal,” said Toscano. “Everything about it has been great for the horsemen. It’s basically what the appropriation money was supposed to do. Our trotting sires, you can’t get much stronger. What was lacking was the pacing side and with Perfect Sting and other sires on the way, we are moving in the right direction.”

As the 4-5 favorite, Ucandoit Blue Chip returned $3.60 to win while increasing her lifetime earnings to just over $380,000.

In the only NJC elim for pacing 3-year-old colts and geldings, Stay Grounded came from off the pace to win for the fourth time in his last six starts, hitting the wire a head in front of 28-1 longshot Gallie Getaway. The Noel Daley trainee, a son of Stay Hungry—Radar Contact, was driven by Johnathan Ahle to the 1:50.4 win and paid $8.80 as the third choice in the wagering.

“He’s a little quirky,” said Ahle of Stay Grounded. “But second-over worked out fine. He had plenty in the tank.”

A LITTLE MORE: The four-card “Mini Meet” concludes next weekend with eight NJC finals on tap with purses totaling $1.7 million (est.). All-source wagering on the 14-race card totaled $2,323,871. The NJC finals will be featured live on Fox Sports 1 Friday night at 9 p.m. Big M TV’s Jessica Otten will provide the commentary. Gabe Prewitt gave out both Pick-4s to his #Senditin Army faithful Friday and followed that up with a $452 Early Pick-4 Saturday. Racing resumes Friday at 6:20 p.m.

Clinton drivers shine as Canada’s leading driver claims first charity title in Clinton finale

The 43rd Annual Charity Driver’s Challenge kept fans on the edge of their seat until the final leg of the eight-race contest. Heading into the final dash, of the contest, Tyler Borth and Travis Henry were tied at 145 points each. Making it a true nail biter, the two came in first and second respectively. It was a battle in the stretch for a finish of 1:56.3 upon Meilleur Fromage for Borth pushing him into first with 195 points.

Henry finished second with 170 total points and fellow Clinton driver, Paul Mackenzie was right there in third with 126 points in the Charity Challenge, all benefiting the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 140. Through the generous donations of the day’s drivers, the sponsorships and on track fundraising, over $12,000 was donated to the Clinton Branch.

Borth also claimed the top driver award for Clinton, with 44 wins on the season. For trainer there ended up being a three-way tie, with Pat Bisset, John Kennedy and Cameron McQueen sharing the title.

Two legs of Grassroots Ontario Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt trotters wrapped up the 2023, 15-week season at the Huron County Oval. A track record was broken with Henry upon Dowedealinandwhy winning the ninth, but was quickly replaced in the 10th by Deadline Hall and driver James MacDonald in 1:57.2.

The 10-race card saw a near record handle, just topping the $125,000 mark.

significant renovation and infrastructure enhancement this summer. The project is slated to be completed prior to the start of the race season although customers may experience some temporary disruption as that project wraps up.

Fans are reminded that the main level of The Raceway will not be open to racing customers when racing resumes as it will remain operating as an MLHU Vaccination Clinic for the fall period. On-track patrons will be able to access the Raceway Lounge on the second floor as well as the Top Of The Fair restaurant and new Top Of The Fair lounge space.

The Raceway in London gearing up for busy fall meet

The Raceway at Western Fair District is less than a month away from kicking off its fall season on Monday (Oct. 2) and fans of the London track will notice plenty of changes this season when racing resumes.

The race day broadcast has been revamped and will feature a fresh, new graphics package along with a new photo finish and timing system. The races will continue to be broadcast on a variety of platforms including live streaming on The Raceway's popular YouTube channel which can be accessed through the track's website.

The Top Of The Fair dining room also has a new culinary team and new head chef this season who promises guests a new menu focused on modern, comfort food featuring high quality, locally-sourced ingredients. The dining room will be open each Friday evening as well as other special event days during the meet.

Guests can also watch and wager in the comfort of two new lounge spaces, The Raceway Lounge located on the second level of the grandstand as well as the new Top Of The Fair lounge.

The popular Survivor Tuesday contest will return this season with an 'online only' format. Participants must have an HPIBet account to qualify and play along in the weekly contests. The Raceway will have more exciting initiatives to announce in the coming days.

Several special events are planned this Fall including the Donnie McElroy Memorial race on Friday (Oct. 13), London Classic Yearling Sale with a special menu at the Top Of The Fair on Tuesday (Oct. 17), the 18th annual Harness The Hope Night on Friday (Oct. 20), Caretaker Appreciation Day on Nov. 3 and the annual Holiday Drivers Challenge in support of Toys For Tots on Sunday (Dec. 10).

The front section of the grandstand has been undergoing
