Stewart and Tonkin continue domination, win record nine races at Melton meet

It has set the scene for a pillaging of the six Vicbred pacing finals on Saturday night. The duo has 26 of the 72 confirmed finalists, across the six finals.

by Adam Hamilton

Australian harness racing has never seen such dominance.

Powerhouse Victorian duo Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin have long been a juggernaut in their own backyard, but they have spread their wings to other parts of Australia with increasing success over the past two years.

Encipher's win in the TAB Eureka was so impactful trainer Emma Stewart had the mare's name tattooed on her hand.

The home of Muscle Hill, Tactical Landing and Walner will sell eight yearlings by those brilliant sires, including the full brother to Southwind Coors and a sister-in-blood to Tactical Mounds.

The icing on that cake came on Sept. 3 with what Stewart declared “our greatest night in the sport” when their star mare Encipher – the lone female in the race – upstaged the boys to win the world’s richest harness race, the $2.1 million TAB Eureka at Sydney’s Menangle track.

Just a week later and back in their domain (Victoria), Stewart and Tonkin underlined the depth of talent in their 100-strong Cardigan stables near Ballarat by having 25 per cent of the runners across 12 semi-finals of the rich Vicbred series at Melton.

The result? Yet another record night for the barn.

They won nine races, which equalled their own Australian record for wins by one stable at one race meeting, which they first did at Launceston in Tasmania in April, last year.

But this was a much bigger stage and far bigger achievement, especially when you consider another five of their runners finished second. So, 41 per cent of their starters finished top-two.

Further, Stewart and Tonkin had the first five across the line in two of the semi-finals.

It has set the scene for a pillaging of the six Vicbred pacing finals at Melton on Saturday night. They have 36 per cent of the finalists, or 26 of the 72 confirmed runners, across the six pacing finals.

In the 4-year-old mares’ final, Stewart and Tonkin have eight of the 12 starters. It’s similar in the 2-year-old colts and geldings final with seven of the 12 runners.

But that’s nothing new for the stable. In 2018 and ’19 they won five of the six pacing finals and the three years since they’ve won three finals each year.

And that dominance could be even stronger had a quirk of the racing calendar not ruled out Encipher and star 3-year-old The Lost Storm from not contesting the Vicbred series. That’s because the heats clashed with their TAB Eureka campaigns.

It hardly seems fair they were “punished” for flying the flag for Victoria against Australia’s best.

Of all their stars on display in the Vicbred finals, the biggest is mighty New Zealand-owned mare Amore Vita, who many think is on par with Encipher.

The 4-year-old daughter of Art Major was sublime sitting parked and arrogantly beating some quality rivals with closing splits of :53.5 and :26.2 over 2,240m.

It will be a major shock if Amore Vita doesn’t win the final and take her record to 18 wins from just 35 starts.

Stand-in driver David Moran, who took the reins for the first time with Chris Alford away driving Aldebaran Zeus at Yonkers, was suitably impressed.

“Oh, she’s every bit as good as they told me,” he said. “That was a fantastic win. She’s so strong and fast, I see no reason she wouldn’t measure up against the boys in big races later on.”

“[The TAB Eureka] was the best night we’ve ever had. It was absolutely amazing. The crowd and atmosphere was like nothing I’ve seen in harness racing [in Australia] before. [The organizers] did it so well.”

~ Emma Stewart

Later could be as early as next month in Victoria’s second biggest race, the Group 1 Victoria Cup at Melton on Oct. 14.

Already Stewart has hinted at Encipher taking on the boys again in the Victoria Cup after her TAB Eureka triumph.

“We’ll have a talk with [owner] Tyson [Linke], but I think she deserved her shot at those races [against the boys],” Stewart said.

The normally measured Stewart showed rare emotion after Encipher’s blazing Eureka win and was still buzzing a week later.

She even had “Encipher” tattooed across the side of hand to mark the occasion.

“It’s the best night we’ve ever had. It was absolutely amazing,” she said. “The crowd and atmosphere was like nothing I’ve seen in harness racing here (Australia) before. [The organizers] did it so well.”

There’s no doubt doing it away from “home” made it extra special for Stewart and Tonkin.

For so long their incredible Victorian success and a reluctance to travel had some calling them “flat track bullies.”

“I laughed when I read that. I think we’ve turned that around,” Stewart said.

A look at their major interstate success over the past 16 months certainly backs that up.

Let’s go back to July, last year. Their champion mare Ladies In Red beat the boys in the Group 1 Rising Sun at Brisbane’s Albion Park. Soho Historia also won the Group 1 Queensland Oaks during that carnival.

Earlier this year, Stewart and Tonkin qualified three of the eight runners for Australasia’s premier speed test, the $1 million Miracle Mile. On the way to it in NSW, Mach Dan won his successive Newcastle Mile and Honolua Bay won a feature lead-up sprint.

Stuart McCormick Amore Vita (David Moran) winning her
Vicbred semi-final.

Then back to Queensland and in July, Amore Vita won the Group 1 Golden Girl at Albion Park and The Lost Storm thrashed his rivals in the Group 1 Queensland Derby.

Then came Encipher's TAB Eureka win where Stewart and Tonkin were the only stable to have two runners, with The Lost Storm also flying their flag.

So, a stable once revered for his success with 2- and 3-year-olds and largely in its home state, has now spread its wings to other parts of Australia and is making a serious impact in what's traditionally been the toughest domain Down Under, the open-aged feature races.

Last December, they had four of the 12 runners in the Inter Dominion final, albeit they had to settle for third as their best finish with Act Now.

Two months later, Honolua Bay won them the famed Group 1 Hunter Cup at Melton.

All those races are rolling around again, and Stewart and Tonkin have the arsenal to be even more influential players.

Ladies In Red, one of the greatest mares Australia has ever seen, is close to a return from injury, while Honolua Bay is also over a smaller setback and ready to step out publicly again.

Then there are proven Group 1 performers like Act Now, Mach Dan and Hurricane Harley ticking away, too.

And, of course, Encipher and Amore Vita if they so choose to throw them in against the boys.

They will be massive players in races like the Victoria Cup (Oct. 14), Brisbane Inter Dominion (final on Dec. 16), Hunter Cup (Feb. 3) and Miracle Mile (March 3).

But, for now, they are just focused on doing what built their greatness, dominating in their own patch and winning the bulk of Saturday night's Vicbred finals at Melton.

Indiana

Despite fewer yearlings, Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale average on par with 2022

by James Platz

The third annual Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale was held Saturday (Sept. 9) at the Topeka Livestock Auction. Although offering a smaller catalog than in 2022, the average of $7,182 for the 73 yearlings sold was nearly identical to the previous year when 41 more horses were sold for an average of $7,142. The sale grossed $524,300 despite more than a dozen withdrawals. A group of 12 yearlings brought five-figure bids, with Mark Wright taking home two of the higher priced babies.

Five Carat Rocker topped all pacers sold at the Topeka sale. Cataloged as Hip 51, the Rockin Image colt is out of a $230,000-winning mare that has produced six winners from eight foals including Juslikeaqueen, a winner of $377,148 with a mark of 1:51. Wright, of Frankfort, Ky., signed the slip on the brown colt, consigned by Norman Miller, acting as agent.

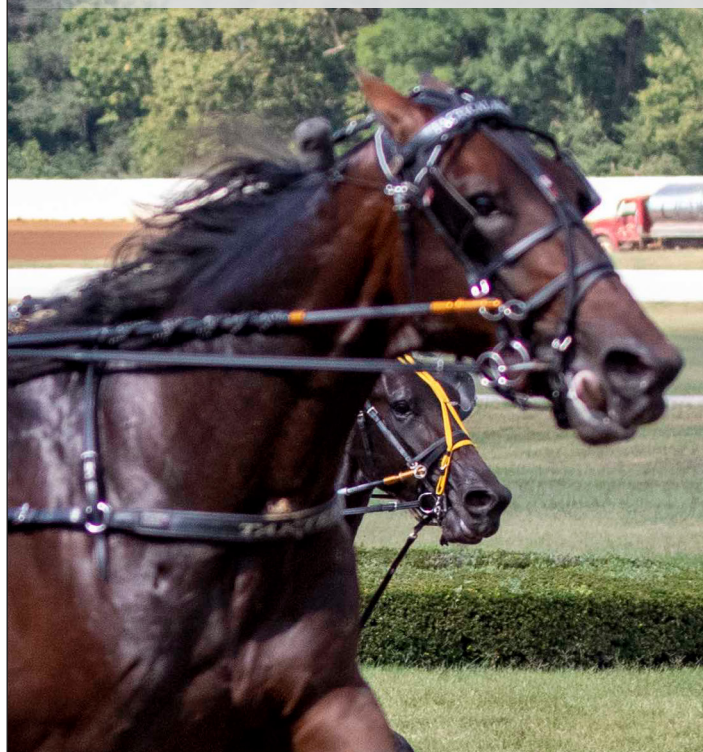

Wright also acquired supplemental entry My Little Sis, a Muscle Massive filly that was last to enter the sale ring Saturday, for a $20,000 bid. She is the first foal from Credit Winner mare Winnerano. Second dam Upside Hanover was a New Jersey Sires Stake final winner at 2, and has produced five winners from seven foals, including two six-figure earners.

The first crop of Breeders Crown champion Fiftydallarbill sells this fall, and a single colt passed through the ring in Topeka. Fake Dollar Bill, Hip 63 from the Nelson L. Slabach consignment, fetched a price of $19,000. He is the second foal from dam Fake News Cast, and is brother to Pilot Discretion freshman Fly Delta, a six-time winner that has hit the board in 11 of 14 starts. Alan White of Fountain City, Ind. signed the slip.

A gelding from the first crop of Muscle Hill son Don't Let'em finished near the top of the sale sheet. Let'em Be, Hip 78 in the catalog, was purchased for $18,500 by James Yoder. Consigned as agent by Double R Farm, the yearling is the third foal from a sister to International Stallion Stake division winner Super Schissel 2, 1:54.3, 3, 1:52.3 ($399,492).

First crop pacing sire Capt Midnight was also represented at the sale, with his top progeny, Roll On Midnite, bringing $12,250. The filly is the second foal from a Rocknroll Hanover mare with a 1:52.1 speed badge. Third dam is Shes A Great Lady winner Remember When, dam of Breeders Crown final winner Reflect With Me. Lyle D. Bontrager consigned the yearling, purchased by John Merkel.

Four of the dozen horses that sold for $10,000 or greater were pacers. The highest bid on the trotting side went to Swan For All filly Twilight Hour. Cataloged as Hip 64, the trotter was hammered down for $31,500. The filly is the fourth foal from Here Comes Herbie mare Allie Labrook, an Indiana Sires Stakes final winner with over $300,000 on her card. Twilight Hour is a full-sister to freshman winner Winslow. Bred by Dan Shetler and co-owned by Shetler and Doug Rheinheimer's Dojea Stables, the filly was consigned by Dojea Stables. Shelter made the successful bid.

New stars born in Oslo over Bjerke's stakes weekend

by Thomas Hedlund

Bjerke racetrack in Oslo, Norway, played host to a massive program on Saturday (Sept. 9) with finals in two divisions of Kriteriet for 3-year-olds and the Derby for 4-year-olds.

The card included the ladies' races and in the $121,000 Kriterium for fillies, Frode Hamre-trained Meghan B.R. (Face Time Bourbon) took a safe wire-to-wire win for driver Tom Erik Solberg. The mile rate over 1.3 miles was 1:59 and Meghan B.R. held runner up Alunita and bronze medalist Grand Queen behind her at the wire.

The $158,000 Derby for mares was held the same day and from fifth over and after an early three wide attack, Cabaret Artist (Propulsion) proved strongest at the wire. Cabaret Artist had to do some hard work before driver Örjan Kihlström found a spot in second over, giving cover throughout the last turn before a strong attack began. Cabaret Artist won easily in a mile rate of 1:55.4 over 1.3 miles, while N.Y.Moet finished second and Laureen B.R. third.

Sunday's (Sept. 10) race card was for the boys and the Geir Vegard Gundersen stable had a good opportunity to claim the trophy in the $121,000 Kriteriet with four horses in the race. Magnus Teien Gundersen sat behind first choice Just Like Heaven (Maharajah) and the trip turned out well for him. With barely a mile to go Just Like Heaven hit the lead as stablemate Charron kindly opted for a pocket trip.

Magnus Teien knew he was sitting behind the best horse in the field and with a half mile to go, Just Like Heaven left his opponents several lengths behind and sprinted to an outstanding win in a mile rate of 1:58 over 1.3 miles.

Klinger was the runner up ahead of Nelson Daytona.

A very impressive won the $158,000 Derby later the same day. From post 1, Born In Bergen (Born In The U.S.A.) succeeded in keeping the quick opening opponents on the outside as the first turn approached. But even when the first battle was over, Born In Bergen had to defend himself against outside trotters Petho and Thai Ohio along the way.

Driver Björn Steine was determined in his tactics and when Petho once again challenged on the leaders' outside in the last turn, Born In Bergen picked up some new power and sprinted to a safe win in a mile rate 1:59.3 over 1.6 miles.

Just Perfect Sisu finished strongly in second and M.H.Hot Cash was third.

Ohio Sired Standardbreds raced for over $20 million dollars in 2023.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Driver Justin Vincent has carved out a niche doing well with difficult horses

by Chris Lomon

Problem pacers or troubled trotters, Justin Vincent has a soft spot and a winning touch with complex standardbreds.

Throughout his time in the race bike, which dates back to 2008, the Delaware horseman has never shied away from taking on a project horse, the unpopular types with a less-than-stellar reputation.

"I suppose I've done it the hard way, with longshots and horses that other people want to drive," Vincent said. "Some people are fortunate enough to start with the nice horses. It's easy to drive a good horse, but you have to drive the tougher ones before you get a chance to drive the better ones. I took those words to heart, and I think it helped me in the long run."

Vincent now finds himself on the cusp of reaching a well-earned milestone, fewer than 10 wins away from 500-lifetime trips to the winner's circle.

"It feels good," he said. "I've had some good years and bad years, and everything else in between. I know I'm getting close, and I think it will be a good feeling when that day comes. I just enjoy what I do. My dad's been in the industry and so has my mom, along with grandparents too. I love being around the horses and I like going out there and competing every night."

The 36-year-old also appreciates the chance to work with any horse, regardless of record, reputation, or raw ability.

Vincent said he views each opportunity to drive as an educational lesson.

"My dad also told me that you could be 90 and still learn something new every day, and that really is true," Justin said. "You always want to keep an open mind in this business. There is always something you can pick up on and then use it to improve yourself."

Justin Vincent and his partner, Cory Lee, with son Brooks, named after Baltimore Orioles legend Brooks Robinson.

Advice, all of it welcome, has been in abundance since Justin drove in his first pari-mutuel race 15 years ago.

One, in particular, still resonates with him.

"When I started, my dad told me, 'You have to have a real thick skin in this business if you want to be a catch driver,'" Justin said. "When you first start out, trainers will put you down on their horses, but sometimes, the very next week, they will take you off, and you can't take it to heart. It's something you need to learn to deal with. Most of the time, they will come back to you eventually, but when they don't you have to move on, or it will wear you down. That's something I take pride in, not getting hurt if they fire you. Catch drivers are a dime a dozen in the business, but if you're good and you have a good attitude, they will come back to you."

Even more so when you happen to have a penchant for pairing with the difficult horses.

Justin, who lists the now-retired 24-time winner Varsity Hanover as one of his favorites to drive, readily embraces every chance he gets to work with the ones most others would prefer to distance themselves from.

Playing a major part in a horse's form has nothing to do with Justin seeking an ego boost. Instead, those projects are very much about pushing himself to find solutions, a chance to bring out the best in a horse.

"The one thing I can say about myself is that I'm not afraid to drive the so-called 'bad ones,' the horses no one else wants to drive," he said. "I've done well in that way. I've carved out a niche for myself with some of these horses, the ones that some drivers might be nervous or wary of. I like driving those crazy trotters, the runaways, the kind that have those quirks or things that push you to think outside the box. My dad had a lot of those crazy ones when I was growing up, so I guess I've carried on that tradition. It makes me happy knowing I can drive those ones."

A prime example would be a bay gelding by the name of Rockindude.

The son of Rockin Image—Halle Go Lightly, who was a $30,000 purchase at the 2020 Hoosier Yearling Sale, was claimed by Justin last summer.

After a handful of out-of-the-money results, the gelding, with Justin in the sulky, finished second at 17-1 on Sept. 3 at Ocean Downs.

"It's always good when your horse does well," he said. "I'm really happy with him. He's been a bit of a project horse and I've been working with him quite closely. I was really happy with him. So, when that work pays off and the horse does well, it's a very satisfying feeling."

Justin was the leading driver at Rosecroft in 2012, a meet that included a six-win night. Now he has added a new chapter, this one outside of racing, to his teaching skillset.

“The one thing I can say about myself is that I’m not afraid to drive the so-called ‘bad ones,’ the horses no one else wants to drive. I’ve done well in that way. I’ve carved out a niche for myself with some of these horses, the ones that some drivers might be nervous or wary of. I like driving those crazy trotters, the runaways, the kind that have those quirks or things that push you to think outside the box. My dad had a lot of those crazy ones when I was growing up, so I guess I’ve carried on that tradition. It makes me happy knowing I can drive those ones.”

~ Justin Vincent

Three months ago, the baseball fan and his partner, Cory Lee, welcomed a son, Brooks, named after Baltimore Orioles legend Brooks Robinson.

While it’s far too early to know if he’ll follow in his father’s footsteps, Brooks can look forward to a lot of time around the barn and watching his dad compete at Ocean Downs and Harrington Raceway.

“I guess when I look down the road, I’d like to teach him about the business,” Justin said. “Maybe he will become part of it one day.”

One guarantee, in the shorter term, is Justin’s hope to add a couple more horses into the fold.

No need to guess as to what one of the requirements will be for those pacers or trotters.

“I like to buy those project horses so that I can put that effort into them,” he said. “Three would be a good number. Any more than that would seem like work. But when they finally do well, it just makes it all the better. It is such a rewarding feeling.”

One thing that won’t change is Justin’s upbeat attitude.

Although there won’t be an asterisk beside the odds of the horse he’s piloting on most nights, he will drive them as if they are the favorite.

“I’m happy,” Justin said. “I always like to look at racing as a glass half full. You will have a lot more tough days than good days in this business, but when it’s a good day, you take it. And when I get the chance to work together with a horse who isn’t the type most prefer, I’ll gladly take it.”

Tactical Approach strikes, Twin B Joe Fresh jets at Red Mile

by Kimberly French for Red Mile

Hambletonian victor Tactical Approach rebounded off a second-place finish in his last appearance in the $80,000 fourth round of the Kentucky Championship Series for sophomore male trotters in 1:51.2. Twin B Joe Fresh engaged in a vicious battle with nemesis Strong Poison to capture her respective division of the series conducted for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Sunday (Sept. 10) to collect her fifth consecutive triumph to become the sport's newest millionaire at Red Mile in 1:49.1.

The nine-race card also included three Kentucky Commonwealth Series events and three Kentucky Goldenrod Series contests.

Heavily-favored Tactical Approach and regular reinsman Scott Zeron began to trot from post position 6 in a very strong field of six. They sat in fifth as longshot Brodeur (Tony Hall) set the first fraction of :27.2. That was when second choice, Kilmister (Brian Sears) took control. After trotting in :56.1 for the half-mile and 1:24.2 three-quarters around the red clay oval, Kilmister's rivals were beginning to advance while Tactical Approach was at the back of the pack.

Point Of Perfect (Yannick Gingras) poked a nose in front rounding the final turn with Khaosan Road (Tim Tetrick) breathing down his neck. At this juncture, Tactical Approach began to roll and moved into fourth.

The son of Tactical Landing—Sarcy used a :26.1 final quarter panel to claim victory by three-quarters of a length. Ari Ferrari J (Dexter Dunn) was second. Point Of Perfect held third.

Trained by Nancy Takter, Tactical Approach improved his resume to 17 8-1-4 and boosted his bank account to $717,989.

The colt was bred by Steve Stewart and Oakwood Farms. He was purchased for $85,000 at the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by Robert Leblanc, John Fielding and Joe Sbrocco and Jaf Racing.

Tactical Approach's granddam is 2003 O'Brien Award winner Southwind Allaire (Valley Victory, $733,514).

He paid $2.66 to win.

Defending Kentucky and New Jersey champion Twin B Joe Fresh (Dunn) engaged in another tremendous battle in the lane to defeat familiar foe Strong Poison (Gingras) by three-quarters of a length. The daughter of Roll With Joe—Casual Breeze has not lost since a second-place finish to Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Sylvia Hanover in the $169,00 Mistletoe Shalee on July 15.

Charleston (Tim Tetrick) assumed command as the mile commenced from post position 3 while Dunn and his filly settled in fourth from post position 2. Strong Poison also allowed Charleston to lead the field of six through splits of :27.4, :56.2 and 1:24 before the battle was on.

Charleston remained in front by a head in the drive for the wire, but Twin B Joe Fresh and Strong Poison were in hot pursuit.

Despite throwing down a :25.2 final quarter fraction, Charleston could not hold off the sizzling :24.3 and :24.4 advances of the two favored fillies.

Twin B Joe Fresh reigned supreme. Strong Poison, after a courageous mile of her own, was relegated to second. Charleston paced a strong mile to be third.

Bred by Brittany Farms, the filly is co-owned by her driver, her trainer, Chris Ryder, in addition to Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak.

#BETONHARNESS

OUR FUTURE DEPENDS ON IT!

Twin B Joe Fresh now sports a resume of 20 15-3-1 and has earned $1.04 million in purse money.

She is the first foal out of an unraced dam and was a $65,000 purchase at the 2021 Standardbred Horse Sale.

Twin B Joe Fresh paid $2.28 to win.

HORIZONTAL COLLECTS THIRD STRAIGHT IN COMMONWEALTH SERIES

Horizontal (Zeron, $4.88) won this third consecutive race in the sole $30,000 Commonwealth Series fourth round division for 3-year-old male pacers in a lifetime best 1:48.4.

The son of Always B Miki—Geometry is trained by Linda Toscano and was bred Diamond Creek Farm. He is owned by Determination and sold for $47,000 at the 2021 Standardbred Horse Sale.

Horizontal is a half-sibling to freshman filly pacing phenom Geocentric (Sweet Lou, $294,501).

Djimon (Gingras, $16.58) scored a slight upset over favored Prince of Honor (Todd McCarthy) with a new lifetime mark of 1:52.1 in the first of two Commonwealth fourth round legs for sophomore male trotters.

Trained by Mark Steacy, the son of Tactical Landing—Sheena's Shadow is owned by Hudson Standardbred Inc., Dale Larson and Stephen Downey. He was bred by James Wilhite Jr. and is a half-brother to Winning Shadow (Credit Winner-$883,896) and Ritson (Cantab Hall, $229,078).

Dire Straits (David Miller, $7.74) collected his first win in 2023 in a lifetime best 1:51.4 in the second division for 3-year-old male trotters. The son of Muscle Hill—Southwind Cocoa is a half-sibling to Crime Fighter (Chapter Seven, $185,211) and Magnificent Seven (Chapter Seven, $147,094).

Trained by Mattias Melander, Dire Straits was bred by Richard Gutnick who co-owns with Thomas Pontone and Gary Cocco.

He was fourth in the Breeders Crown last year behind Gaines Hanover.

TETRICK TAKES TWO OF THREE GOLDENROD SERIES EVENTS

Chamba (Tetrick, $2.78) took the first of two $15,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Goldenrod Series for 3-year-old male trotters. Tetrick also guided Naranjo ($45.62) to victory in the second division.

Keep My Secret (Tony Hall, $3.74) prevailed in the only Goldenrod Series leg for sophomore male pacers.

The $400,000 Kentucky Championship Series finals will take place on Sunday (Sept. 17) with the $100,000 finals for the Kentucky Commonwealth Series on Monday (Sept. 18) and the $50,000 Goldenrod Series finals on Tuesday (Sept. 19).

Red Mile offers a rich buffet of wagering items including a 20-cent Pick-6 with 15 per cent takeout, a 50-cent Pick-5 with an industry low 12 per cent takeout, a Super Hi-5 15 per cent takeout, and Pick-4 events, with a $10,000 guaranteed pool in conjunction with the U.S. Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program.

Red Mile races on a Sunday, Monday, Tuesday schedule with a 1 p.m. EDT post time through Oct. 8. Free program pages are available at redmileracing.com in addition to race replays and a daily livestream of each card.

McArdle dies at age 24

It is with a heavy heart from all of us at Hickory Lane Farm that we announce that the great racehorse and stallion, McArdle, died peacefully at the Farm this past Saturday (Sept. 9) at age 24.

Born, raised and sold as a yearling by Perretti Farms, McArdle, the son of Falcon Seelster—Lilting Laughter, was owned by Norman Smiley, Gerald Smiley, Sampson Street Stables (Louis Damiano), and TLP Stables (Thomas Pontone) during his racing career from 2001 through 2003. He was masterfully trained by Chris Ryder and driven at 2 and 3 by Luc Ouellette, David Miller and Mike LaChance. As a racehorse, he earned a 1:49 mark at 3 and amassed $2,455,609 in earnings with while winning 28 races, the vast majority being stake races.

Following his racing career, McArdle was syndicated and began his stallion career in 2004 at Perretti Farms, New Jersey before moving two years later in 2006 to Pennsylvania to stand at Lindwood Farms until 2013 at which time, he arrived at his final destination, Hickory Lane Farm, Ohio while for most of his stallion career being shuttled to perform stallion duty in the Southern Hemisphere at Nevele R Farm, New Zealand.

As a stallion in North America, McArdle's results are as impressive in the breeding shed as they were during his racing career. Known for siring fast and durable horses, he sired winners of over $86 million including seven-million or double millionaires including superstar and current Canadian sire McWicked 7, 1:46.2 ($4,930,967); world champion One More Laugh 3, 1:47.4 ($2,690,593); Ohio champion Charlie May 4, 1:47.1 ($2,020,385); McCedes 3, 1:49.4 ($1,337,082); Nob Hill High 6, 1:50.1 ($1,110,703); McErlean 4, 1:49.1 ($1,039,646); Lispatty 7, 1:49.4 ($1,005,403) as well as Ohio filly champion, Queen of the Pride 4, 1:50.2 ($787,211).

As a racehorse and stallion, McArdle will be fondly remembered for forever touching the lives of many in a positive way both emotionally and financially. Anyone who was lucky enough to be directly associated with him knew he was a very special animal and truly one of the greats in our sport. He will be dearly missed.

$500,000 Quebec Championships held at Hippodrome 3R

The day started out with the trainers needing to add mud fenders and the drivers donning rain gear, but despite racing over a good, rain-soaked track, the show continued at the Hippodrome 3R on Sunday (Sept. 10) with the $500,000 Quebec-bred championship finals for 2- and 3-year-old trotters and pacers.

There was a two second allowance by the judges. The track crew did an excellent job as the racing surface was in good shape with numerous horses taking lifetime marks. The rain ended before the fourth race went off and clear skies prevailed the rest of the afternoon before a huge crowd of racing fans.

Here is how each of the eight divisions fared on the 12-race afternoon card:

$65,000 final Three-Year-Old Trotting Fillies

Sant Ambroggio (Robert Shepherd) did all the work and race favorite Dont Treat Me Bad (Resolve) and driver Jocelyn Gendron got all the glory.

It was Sant Ambroggio who cut the entire mile with Dont Treat Me Bad sitting the two-hole trip through fractions of :28.4, :59.2 and 1:29.3 before Gendron moved Dont Treat Me Bad to the outside to challenge Sant Ambroggio down the stretch. The two battled to the wire with Dont Treat Me Bad getting up in the final strides to win by a head in 2:00. Kenogami Courage (Stephane Brosseau) was third.

It was a lifetime mark and the fourth win of the season. Dont Treat Me Bad paid $3.70 to win. She was bred and is owned and trained by Herve Kirouac of Sherbrooke.

$65,000 Final Three-Year-Old Pacing Fillies

Ladycorona (Bettors Delight) became the only horse to make a clean sweep of the series, winning all three legs and the final for driver Pascal Berube.

Leaving from post five, Berube sent the 1-5 favorite Ladycorona down the road from the start with Godiva Ice Cream (Guy Gagnon) sitting the pocket trip. Ladycorona cut fractions of :28 and :58.4 when last year's champion filly, Pocahontas Du Lac (LPR) came first-over but was unable to gain on the race leader in the backstretch. Ladycorona passed the three-quarters in 1:28.2 and then pulled away from the field to win with ease by three and one-quarter lengths in 1:57.4. Pocahontas Du Lac was second with Godiva Ice Cream third.

It was the eighth win of the season for Ladycorona who paid $2.50 to win. She was bred and is owned by Sotiros Anastasopoulos of Sainte-Therese.

$65,000 Final Three-Year-Old Pacing Colts & Geldings

Louis-Philippe Roy said Friday that he hoped he would be able to touch the Championship trophy on Sunday and he finally was able to in the last stakes race of the afternoon.

The race favorite Attitude (Daniel Dube) was first on the lead with Maximus BG (Guy Gagnon) in the two-hole to the quarter in :27.2 and the half mile in :56.4. Then it was Bets Beach (Pascal Berube) coming first-over with Little Diamond (Jocelyn Gendron) second-over entering the backstretch.

Then three-wide came Kansas Panic (Robert Shepherd) at the three-quarters in 1:26.2 and they cleared to be first-over against Attitude on the final turn. But also sneaking up along the rail and then coming three-wide on the final turn was Kingston Panic (Sportswriter) and LPR.

They were able to collar Attitude and then hold off stablemate Kansas Panic to win by two lengths in 1:55.2. Attitude was third. It was an emotional victory as the owner and breeder of both Kingston Panic and Kansas Panic was Brian Paquet, who passed away just three weeks ago. Paquet was not only a prominent owner and breeder, but an industry leader in Quebec when it came to horse racing.

For Kingston Panic it was his second straight win and a lifetime mark. He is trained by David Pilon and paid $7.80 to win.

$65,000 Final Three-Year-Old Trotting Colts & Geldings

The biggest upset of the afternoon came in this final as 35-1 Free Wheels (Wheeling N Dealin) with driver Jocelyn Gendron cut the mile and would not let anyone pass them. They cut fractions of :29 and :59.4 before the race favorite Kinnder Motown (Robert Shepherd) came first-over to challenge after the half mile marker.

Those two would then battle head and head to the three-quarters in 1:29.1. They still went at it around the final turn and just as they straightened out for the stretch drive, Kinnder Motown broke stride and Free Wheels coasted to the wire to win by two and one-half lengths in 1:59.3. Timonier (Daniel Dube) was second with BBC Sportsboy (Marc Belanger) third.

It was a lifetime mark for Free Wheels and his third win this year. He is trained, owned and was bred by Herve Kirouac of Sherbrooke and paid $73.80 to win.

$55,000 Final Two-Year-Old Trotting Fillies

Kenogami Queen (Stephane Brosseau) was the overwhelming 1-5 favorite in the race but just as she was clearing to the lead at the first quarter, went off-stride and was out of the race.

That allowed JD Beauty (Robert Shepherd) to take back control of the lead going to the backstretch, but then she went off stride. That left 5-1 Sensi Amnesia (Muscle Mass) in the lead, and she took off for trainer/driver Marie-Claude Auger, pulling away from the field to win in a romp by eight and one-quarter lengths in 2:05.3. MVPs Daughter (Jerome Lombart) was second with Cleveland U Bet (Louis-Philippe Roy) third.

It was the maiden victory for Sensi Amnesia in five lifetime starts. She is co-owned by Auger with Catheline Pelletier and was bred by Auger. She paid $12.10 to win.

$55,000 Final Two-Year-Old Trotting Colts & Geldings

Before the start of the race the 2-5 favorite, Wild Dream Men (Guy Gagnon) went off-stride creating a wide-open race from the start. Vol De Banque (Claude Beausoleil) was first on the lead then came M C Eddy (Looklikeachpndale) and driver Pascal Berube to take control by the first quarter.

Then past the half mile marker, Gagnon got Wild Dream Men back into the race and they came first-over against M C Eddy. Those two would battle it out to the three-quarters and around the final turn. Then in a classic stretch drive, M C Eddy was able to hold off Wild Dream Men to win by a neck in 2:04.2. Drinklikehenry (William Roy) was third.

It was the second win in four lifetime starts for M C Eddy, who paid $8.90 to win. He is trained by Daniel Martin, who co-owns the gelding with Dominique Michel and Jean Carignan. He was bred by Jean Picard and Daniel Martin.

$55,000 Final Two-Year-Old Pacing Fillies

The race began with Breedingbankrupsy (Pascal Berube), The Heart Valley (Francis Picard) and D Gs Loriejeanne (Jonathan Lachance) all leaving for the lead and they were three-across at the first quarter in :28.3 before anyone would back off.

Breedingbankrupsy led the field with The Heart Valley in the pocket and D Gs Loriejeanne left hung out first-over. LPR would then come second over with the 1/5 race favorite Ronda Du Lac past the half mile in :59.1. In the backstretch LPR moved Ronda Du Lac three-wide and looped past Breedingbankrupsy, but at the same time The Heart Valley vacated the pocket trip and parked out Ronda Du Lac three-wide at the three-quarters in 1:31.1, with 14-1 Shes Rock (Hes Watching) with Robert Shepherd second over and in the hunt.

As they started down the stretch, The Heart Valley locked wheels with Ronda Du Lac, slowing them both down as Shes Rock sped by to win in 2:02.1 by two and one-half lengths. The Heart Valley was second but placed seventh for interference with Ronda Du Lac third placed second and Breedingbankrupsy fourth placed third.

It was the maiden victory in six starts for Shes Rock, who was unraced at age two. She paid $30.80 to win for trainer Isabelle Darveau and owner Bruce Tremblay of Shipsaw, Quebec. Shes Rock was bred by Lise Carbonneau.

$55,000 Final Two-Year-Old Pacing Colts & Geldings

Race favorite Boomboom Tonight (Sportswriter) and driver Guy Gagnon were parked out to the opening quarter in :28.2 by Love That Miramont (Jean Bernard Renaud). Then LPR came first-over at the half in :59.1 with Olaf Du Lac, but was unable to collar Boomboom Tonight at the three-quarters in 1:28.4.

Boomboom Tonight and Gagnon then pulled away from the field and went on to win with ease by three lengths in 1:58. Olaf Du Lac was second with Ambitious Mind (Francis Picard) third.

It was a lifetime mark for Boomboom Tonight, his third straight win and fourth victory in six lifetime starts for trainer Marc Belanger. He was bred and is owned by Elisabeth Pothier of St-Christophe-D'Arthabask, Quebec and paid $4.00 to win.

Track Notes: Guy Gagnon led all drivers with a triple on the afternoon. Louis-Philippe Roy, Pascal Berube and Jocelyn Gendron all had driving doubles. Herve Kirouac had a training double. Live harness racing resumes Friday (Sept. 15) at 4 p.m. This will be the final Friday twilight card of the 2023 race season at H3R. For more information, visit www.hippodrome3r.ca.

$440,000 NYSS Excelsior finals at Batavia Downs tonight

A loaded 15-race card has been drawn for tonight (Sept. 13) at Batavia Downs and it features the $440,000 New York Sire Stake (NYSS) Excelsior finals. A total of 64 state-bred standardbreds will start in eight $55,000 Excelsior divisions and combined with seven overnight events valued at $71,500, the total purses up for grabs that night total $511,500.

All of the 3-year-old events are full of very talented horses, many of which have competed on the New York Sire Stake circuit at some point over the summer. Most from this group have already raced at Batavia this year, but none put on a more memorable performance than the pacing filly Rec Time (Huntsville—Ms Malicious).

When trainer Deborah Daguet sent Rec Time behind the gate in a $57,000 NYSS leg at Batavia on Aug. 16, she was overlooked by the betting public at 9-1. But she turned some heads when she moved from third in the stretch to win by 2-1/2 lengths in 1:52.3 and set a new Batavia track record for 3-year-old pacing fillies. It was her first NYSS start of the year after having won four Excelsior races with two seconds in six starts. She has not raced since that start, but Rec Time has been freshened up and qualified back in preparation for this event, going 1:55.2 at Mohegan Sun Pocono Downs.

Looking to set records of her own is Mark Ford's High Fashion Star (Huntsville—High Fashion Model) who is the highest money earner in the field with $102,964 deposited on the strength of her five wins and four seconds this year. Beside the Excelsior series, High Fashion Star has also competed in the Lynch Memorial at Pocono and Empire Breeders Classic at Tioga Downs. She too just qualified at The Meadowlands in a very impressive 1:53.4 going gate to wire.

The "Glamour Division" of second year male pacers is another evenly seeded field.

Storm The Court (Huntsville—Soft Wind Hanover) has bounced between the NYSS and Excelsior races all summer for trained Mark Silva, winning once at the top level and three times in the latter. He went gate to wire in his outing at Batavia on Aug. 8 in an impressive 3-1/4 length, 1:54.1 victory and has since paced in 1:51.4 at Tioga, getting beat only a head after cutting the mile again. He is one to watch.

That Dog Will Hunt (Huntsville—Mikayla Rose) was the one who beat Storm The Court in 1:51.4 at Tioga after benefiting from a perfect trip. However, he made an uncharacteristic break at Yonkers in his last start in an overnight race and was placed as a result. It would appear the break was an anomaly, and that trainer Jennifer Bongiorno will have That Dog Will Hunt ready to be a major contender here.

Stephen Crevani's Bullville Stephano (Artiscape—Bullvillestephanie) already has a lifetime mark of 1:49 at Pocono earlier this year and just got beat a neck in 1:50.3 in an overnight there two weeks ago. He has two Excelsior wins this year including a 1:54.4 walk in the park at Batavia on August 8. There is no question that Bullville Stephano has the speed and versatility to win this race.

The 3-year-old trotting fillies are led by Woolco (Chapter Seven—Upside Hanover) who spent the better part of the summer competing in the NYSS where she won once and finished second as well and actually finished eighth in the points standings to qualify for the $225,000 NYSS finals that were held at Yonkers on Saturday (Sept. 9). However, trainer Bob Krivelin opted to enter the Excelsior final instead as her three wins there saw her finish fifth in those standings.

Ron Burke had Destiny's Darling (Chapter Seven—Moonlight Cocktail) racing in NYSS events her last three starts where she finished second and third to that top division's leader, Royal Filly. However, the bulk of her starts were in the Excelsior series over the summer and that's where she qualified for the final. She does appear to have a class advantage as a result of her recent outings.

Serendipity (Chapter Seven—Vida De Vie) is a George Ducharme trainee who is an eight-time winner this year that includes her last start at Batavia. Serendipity hasn't missed the board since June, hasn't missed a check all year and should be considered a serious contender.

Looking at the second-year trotting males, David Dewhurst's City Of Hope (Met's Hall—Doin The City) is possibly the hardest working 3-year-old in to go as he already has 23 starts this year with a very impressive 11 wins as a result. After sweeping a three-race series at Saratoga, City Of Hope went on to win three Excelsior legs and bankroll $110,294 so far this year. He has been known to make an occasional break, but when he's on his game, he is dangerous.

Looking at his rivals, trainer Ron Burke has Kennebago (E L Titan—First Class Act) coming into this final off two consecutive wins, both of which were on the front end. And Seven Over (Chapter Seven—Overpowering Lindy) is a four-time winner this year for trainer Per Engblom, the last of which was at Batavia. His 1:54 mark at Vernon is the fastest of this bunch and he did compete in the NYSS earlier this year.

Whereas the 2-year-old pacing division for both genders seems to be very evenly matched races that should provide excellent betting opportunities, the first-year trotters appear to have several horses who stand out in both races.

The 2-year-old filly trotters will have to contend with a strong entry from the Batavia-based stable of trainer Steve Pratt and the pair just happened to finish first and second for points and earnings in this division of the Excelsior series this year. Barn CJ (Crazy Wow—Fractured Dream) has won six of seven Excelsior starts with one second and earnings of $65,000. Barn Dreamer (Devious Man—HB All Our Dreams) has won four of six Excelsior starts with two seconds and earnings of $50,000. And both trotters won their last outing and that was at Batavia Downs.

The main competition and biggest challenge for the Pratt entry is Marcus Melander's Dozen (Chapter Seven—Sequin) who comes into this final on a four-race win streak, all in Excelsior action that earned the filly $44,638. Her last win was at Vernon Downs where she took a lifetime mark of 1:55.4 and the one start she did not win was a third-place finish in a NYSS start at Saratoga. It's also interesting to note that every time Dozen faced both Barn CJ and Barn Dreamer, she won.

The 2-year-old male trotters should put on quite a show with four horses peeking at the right time.

John Stark Jr.'s Tobern (Crazy Wow—Bertaux) won five in a row over the summer, including one NYSS start and an 18-length romp at Batavia on August 4. He's the top money earner in this field with $98,650 and has been the picture of consistency all year, never missing the board in seven outings.

Dan Daley's Fringed (Crazy Wow—Jinx Muscles) suffered through breaks and terrible draws all summer and although he seems to have gotten over his bad manners, his poor posts have continued. However, despite starting from the six and eight holes in his last two outings, he won both times convincingly and beat Tobern in both of those races.

Then there is the entry (coupled by ownership) of Woweress (Crazy Wow—Chaperess) and Barn Credit (Credit Winner—Nothing But Nice) who are both more than capable of winning. Woweress is trained by George Ducharme and in six starts has two wins including one 7-3/4 length jog in 1:58.2 at Batavia. Barn Credit is another Pratt trotter who, although somewhat camera shy with only one win, has hit the board five out of six times this year.

Post Time for the first race tonight is 6 p.m.

Free full past performance programs for every live card of racing at Batavia can always be downloaded at the Downs' website under the "Live Racing" tab and all the racing action can be viewed as it happens for free at the Batavia Downs Live Facebook page.
