Will favorites rule across Kentucky Sire Stake finals?

With $3.4 million in purses on at Red Mile on Sunday it's shaping up to be a great card of racing.

by Brett Sturman

Heading into Sunday's (Sept. 17) eight $400,000 Kentucky Sire Stake Championship Series finals, perhaps the question that should be asked isn't how many of those races will be won by favorites but will favorites sweep every race?

The answer to that question and any in between will impact the unique 20 Cent Pick-8 wager being offered across the eight Championship Series Finals. With a $10,000 guaranteed pool and a low 15 per cent takeout, the wager will offer a mandatory payout for the day. If all or most of the obvious horses throughout the day win, the payout will be miniscule. If one or two of those lose, it's possible that six or seven out of eight could take down the entire pool. Here's how all of the races look:

Starting right off with what will be a theme through almost all of the races, do you play just the most likely scenario and single Allegiant, or exponentially increase the value of the ticket on the off chance there's a surprise? Allegiant comes off a 1:52.2

win on Sept. 5, and you'd think Zeron will have her on the point once again. Two back, Volcanic Blue Chip was making ever so gradual gains from the pocket against Allegiant, but then last out had the identical trip from the pocket and couldn't make nearly the same impression. Date Night Hanover continues to garner support every race but wasn't at her best last out. Dolce Amara is somewhat of an unknown.

RACE 3 – KYSS FINAL – 2-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

Geocentric had a real test a couple of weeks back in her Pennsylvania Sire Stake race when My Girl EJ gave her all she could handle, but Geocentric prevailed in that race. It's back to KYSS foes where she hasn't won by anything less than four lengths in her three other KYSS legs and would be near impossible to see losing in this spot. A 1:49.4 winner here four back, seems like it's strictly a matter of who will finish behind her. I'd imagine she'll be a single on almost all tickets. Asweetbeachhere did try an uncovered push a couple back against Geocentric and actually was close at the top of the lane, but faltered from there and wound up being many back in the end as has been the case for all others; she's been well supported against others including Lyons Legend. Capytreach was just third in that small field of four last out as the favorite but her prior efforts are better than that. Gifted One scored off the 2-hole trip in that same small field race. Seeuontheotherside was able to secure a good early spot from an outside post two back, maybe Hall takes a similar early chance.

RACE 4 – KYSS FINAL – 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

Next up in the parade of the shortest priced favorites is Twin B Joe Fresh. She enters her KYSS Championship Series Final with five straight wins, the most recent of which came just last Sunday against the identical group. Despite getting away fourth out of five and sitting off a slow :56.2 half mile pace, it still didn't matter as she paced on by once being put into position and then comfortably held off others. If there was ever a chance for Charleston to beat her it would have been last week when she got off easy on the front end, but could still only manage third. Always B Naughty did very well to narrow the gap for second last out in her PASS Final when Odds On Hail Mary had a big tactical jump on her. The Adioo Volo champ pulled the pocket two back against Strong Poison en route to a sharp 1:48.2 win; maybe from the rail she can put a scare into Twin B Joe Fresh. Strong Poison followed the race winner last out and was able to nail down second. Zanatta has had her moments despite being 0-for-10 on the year, that's what racing against the very best fillies every race will do.

RACE 5 – KYSS FINAL – 2-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT

Karl has the look of a special one and he's been nothing less than brilliant in all of his three starts thus far to kick off his young career. His 1:52.1 win two back was monstrous, he coasted last out, and it would take something unfortunate for him to not win here. Vocalize continues to outrace his odds and he was active in that last mile despite his longshot status; might as well blast again. Duke Of Walner was never going to track down Karl last out but it's probable he was going to close in for second if not for that break. At the same time, I thought he would have been able to hold off Longfellow S a couple races back as well, so there are question marks. Topmost saved ground and rallied up the inside to be second last out to Karl, second straight race he's been runner-up to that foe. Dame Good Time was beaten last out when he broke.

RACE 6 – KYSS FINAL – 2-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE

This is just a small field of six, but at the same time one of the only races you could make a reasonable case for horses beyond the favorite. Better Is Nice lost at 1-9 last out and never looked as strong as he did in races prior. He's yet to show any speed but I wonder if McCarthy would be content to get away last from the outside post. Ivy Park hadn't been able to figure out Better Is Nice two and three races ago, but he looked like he might have been on his way last out before getting rough and then being lost to a full-blown gallop. He's a threat if Takter can figure out what happened that day. Dancin Champion capitalized in that race and split through off the great trip; he was game on the front end in his race prior. Tua Many Captains was following that same seam late and he looks for another win in a six-figure race having won a KYSS Final at Oak Grove in July.

RACE 7 – KYSS FINAL – 3-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT

Tactical Approach has really turned it on beginning with his win in the Hambletonian. Last weekend he wasn't particularly well positioned having gotten away last with no real pace on, before he eventually got into the cover flow, moved widest and went by them all. Maybe he was caught off guard a bit two back by French Wine, but he was active early in that race where they put up a :54 half mile; seems ideally positioned from post 2. As mentioned, French Wine pulled off the shocker two back in 1:50 and then was unleashed late at Pocono to win his PASS Final. Ari Ferrari J was outkicked last out by Tactical Approach despite the second over trip; he's always in the mix. Hambletonian elimination winner Point Of Perfect dove to the inside last Sunday when he closed for third but wasn't an imminent threat to the top two. Khaosan Road has been given chances to win in his past few and hasn't been bad. Kilmister tired in his most recent after he had been coming back into form.

RACE 8 – KYSS FINAL – 3-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE

Confederate comes off a record breaking 1:46.1 mile in which he established himself as the fastest 3-year-old ever, demolishing the prior record held by a few of 1:46.4. In a race that essentially amounted to a time trial as stable mate Command sacrificed himself through fractions as fast he could set, the only question is what the timer would stop at when Confederate won. The weather forecast for Sunday calls for cooler temperatures than the 92 degrees when the record was set two weeks ago; it will be interesting to see what Confederate delivers as an encore.

RACE 9 – KYSS FINAL – 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

Special Way returned from injury two weeks back when making her first start since the beginning of June and couldn't have been any more determined. It actually looked like a couple might have had her number but she responded to the pressure and if anything, should be even stronger now. Walner Payton had every chance from the pocket two back against Mambacita and had plenty of room to rally up along the inside last out against Special Way but couldn't reach in either case. Mambacita was excellent in that win two back but was only mild at best last out; now moves outside. Railee Something earned her PASS Championship win last out at Chester when she was used early past a fast opening quarter, held off challenges including one from Heaven Hanover, and went wire to wire. Mommamia Volo rallied wide with some late interest in her most recent against Special Way.

The Lexington-Horse of the Year experience

by Bob Heyden

On Sunday (Sept. 17), $3.4 million will be on the line at the Red Mile. Confederate, the current favorite for Horse of the Year, returns to the scene of his 1:46.1 all-time mark. That prompted the question: How have Horses of the Year fared at the famed Lexington track? Let's take a closer look.

MOST UNUSUAL SCENARIO?

Breeder George Segal is synonymous with Lexington and the Red Mile, which he owns in partnership. Yet, one of Segal's most famous horses, Artsplace, the 1992 HOY, did not race at the Red Mile at all that year – and his season didn't end until Oct. 17.

MONI MAKER'S FAREWELL

Julie Krone under-saddle with the two-time defending HOY was a truly great moment in 2000. Moni Maker was 7 and said goodbye after a brilliant career. But, she did not compete at the Red Mile in either of her HOY seasons of 1998-1999, mostly because of her overseas schedule.

HOW TOUGH WAS GALLO BLUE CHIP?

Quite tough, I would say. After Gallo Blue Chip's grueling three-heat Little Brown Jug runner-up finish of 2000, he had nine more starts at 3 and set the all-time earnings record. In those nine starts, he had seven wins and two seconds. One of those wins was the Tattersalls at the Red Mile.

CONTINENTALVICTORY

Bred by Brittany Farms, Continentalvictory was the 1996 HOY and had a fantastic-yet taxing summer. The Hambletonian winner in straight world record heats wound up her HOY season finishing fifth at the Red Mile and was scratched from her finale – also in Lexington.

CHAPTER SEVEN

Chapter Seven holds the record for fewest starts for any HOY. He had 10 starts in 2012 and 20 per cent of those were at the Red Mile, winning a $7,500 open first in 1:51.1 and then the Allera in 1:50.2. He has since sired a male and female Hambletonian winner — Cool Papa Bell and Atlanta, respectively.

EMOTIONAL TIME FOR BUNNY LAKE

Just 23 days after 9/11, Bunny Lake won the Garnsey Memorial at the Red Mile as she closed out her 2001 season with 19 straight wins.

DURABLE ABERCROMBIE

Abercrombie, the 1978 HOY, started his season with a pair of Red Mile starts — second and then first. His 26th and 27th of 33 starts were also in Kentucky. He took his sophomore mark of 1:54.3 there and set the one-year earnings record for any older horse with a $703,000 haul.

PRECIOUS BUNNY-MIA

Precious Bunny was the 1991 HOY after setting a single-season earnings record and winning 20 of 25 starts. But, he never set the GPS to Kentucky that season. Remember, Artsplace didn't race in Kentucky in 1992 either, making it back-to-back years that the HOY was absent from the Red Mile.

FRESHMAN FILLY HOY

In 2014, JK She'salady ran the table (12-for-12) and edged out Shake It Cerry for HOY. Start #8 was made in Lexington and helped JK She'salady become the first freshman filly HOY.

CIAO BABY!

In 1997, as he was about to leave the USA and head to Canada for the Breeders Crown and then Italy for the Orsi Mangelli, Malabar Man won at the Red Mile in 1:54 to positively secure the HOY title.

TRAINER-DRIVER HOY

In 1990, trainer/driver Ray Remmen and Beach Towel won the Tattersalls elim and final and then were second in the Bluegrass. Back then, they were contested in reverse order of today.

NO SUZIE

In 1995, C R Kay Suzie was the HOY. She ended her season on Sept. 20. Thus, she did not make it to Kentucky.

SBSW'S TWO FASTEST IN KY

Somebeachsomewhere's two fastest miles came in Kentucky — both back-to-back. His 1:46.4 in the Bluegrass was the all-time fastest 3YO effort, backed up with a 1:47.4 Tattersalls romp en route to a 20-for-21 career slate and a legendary stallion career that followed.

RECORD SETTER

In 2004, Rainbow Blue posted her career best 1:49.2 taking the Glen Garnsey at the Red Mile. She also had won earlier in the Nadia Lobell. They were two of her biggest scores in a brilliant 20-for-21 season.

USA OR BUST?

It's tough to be named HOY in the States without a visit or two (see Majestic Son in 2006). San Pail did read that memo and came to the USA in 2011 with both a Nat Ray (now the Cashman) and an Allerage victory to all but wrap up the HOY title — one which he nailed officially with a Breeders Crown tally over Commander Crowe.

PANTASTIC

In 2003, Pan Intended won both the pacing Triple Crown and the Breeders Crown. No other horse has done both — before or since. In his lone Red Mile appearance, he won the Tattersalls.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

In 2007, Donato Hanover won twice at the Red Mile with the two fastest miles of his life. He won the first heat and the second of the Kentucky Futurity in 1:51.1 and 1:50.1, respectively.

PELLING'S FIRST HOY

In 2005, Rocknroll Hanover won at the Red Mile on Oct. 1 and 8 in the Bluegrass and the Tattersalls, respectively. His first crop saw his son Rock N Roll Heaven also win a pair in Lexington. This came before Rocknroll Hanover's trainer Brett Pelling went back home to Australia for a decade. After his return, he had HOY #2 Test Of Faith in 2021. Pelling trains leading HOY candidate Confederate this year.

CAMPBELL AND GLIDEMASTER

In the 2006 Kentucky Futurity, Glidemaster, en route to HOY honors, won the second leg of the Triple Crown. This came a year after Glidemaster was rank and immature while racing at the Red Mile.

MUSCLE HILL HEADING OUT THE DOOR

Before Muscle Hill retired from racing, he won the 2009 Kentucky Futurity in 1:52.3 and 1:51.1 in 2009. He would then head to Canada and capture the Breeders Crown and call it a career.

WHERE'D HE GO?

Matts Scooter, the 1989 HOY thanks to a 23-for-30 record, time-trialed in Lexington the year before in 1:48.2 to lower Niatross' mark. Matts Scooter didn't end up back in Lexington during his HOY season. His Canadian ownership raced him in the Gold Cup final in Ontario on Oct. 1 instead.

NIHILATOR

Sixteen times Nihilator competed on a mile track in 1985 — two of those in the Bluegrass state taking both the Bluegrass and the Tattersalls en route to a 23-for-25 season and HOY honors.

CAM'S SPEED MOMENTS

Nobody remembers Cam Fella in terms of raw speed. But in 1982, as a sophomore heading to his first of two HOY titles, he posted a 1:54 time trial and a 1:54.4 in a $1,500 invitational, both in Lexington. Yet, he didn't start at the Red Mile in 1983, despite winning his final 28 races in a row.

FAN HANOVER, FROM START TO FINISH

Fan Hanover, the 1981 HOY, started her year at the Red Mile, finishing first and second in May. She also ended her season in Kentucky on Oct. 3 and 9. Of course, she became the first — and still only — filly to win the Jug prior. That more or less sealed the deal as HOY.

CAN SOMEBODY HELP ME HERE?

In 1986, Forrest Skipper was undefeated en route to the HOY title. But he did not compete at the Red Mile. Was he racing elsewhere? Nope. He qualified at Garden State Park on Sept. 27 by 19 lengths and then again on Oct. 4 by 21 1/2 lengths. Hmmmm.

FANCY CROWN

Fancy Crown's debut in her 1984 HOY season was in a Red Mile qualifier. She later swept the Kentucky Futurity and followed that with a Breeders Crown. That was enough to hold off the battling pacing superstars On The Road Again and Nihilator, then 2. A side note, Fancy Crown was second in the Bluegrass on Sept. 28, 1984, the day the harness world said goodbye to maybe the biggest Red Mile legend ever — Joe O'Brien.

MACK LOBELL

He was second to Napoletano in the 1987 Kentucky Futurity and almost a Triple Crown winner for Chuck Sylvester and John Campbell. It is a trophy which eluded both these Hall Of Famers. At 4, Mack did win a $2,500 invitational in Lexington. No male trotter has gone back-to-back as HOY since.

Karl aims to make more noise in KYSS final

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

If actions speak louder than words, Karl's performances to begin his career virtually shout. The 2-year-old male trotter has won all three of his races, by a total of 15-1/4 lengths, and his 1:52.1 triumph last month at Lexington's Red Mile is the fastest of the season for freshman trotters.

On Sunday (Sept. 17), Karl will look to continue his winning ways when he meets nine rivals in the $400,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series final for 2-year-old male trotters at the Red Mile. The colt will leave from post 1 with Yannick Gingras driving for trainer Nancy Takter and is the even-money favorite on the morning line.

"He hasn't been tested yet, but that's going to come at some point," Gingras said. "He'll be tested this weekend, and in the future. But so far so good. Every start he's had so far, he's done it easily and had something left at the end each time. At some point we'll get to the bottom, but we haven't been there yet."

After qualifying once, winning in 1:54.4 at The Meadowlands, Karl made his pari-mutuel debut in a division of the Kindergarten Classic Series on Aug. 4 at The Big M. The colt rolled to victory by six lengths in 1:54.1, with a :26.3 last quarter-mile.

"Nancy had mentioned him a few times in the spring and early summer and said they were taking their time with him, but that they thought they had a nice horse," Gingras said. "I knew he had trained a pretty good mile before I qualified him, so when he went in [1]:54.4, it wasn't a big surprise. He qualified really good, and I knew that day I had so much left in the tank."

In his second start, a leg of the KYSS Championship Series at the Red Mile, Karl went to the front from post 7 and posted a seven-length win with his 1:52.1 mile. On Sept. 3, in the last preliminary round of the Championship Series, he sat third for the opening three-quarters of a mile before following a horse around the last turn and marching home in :27.1 to win by 2-1/4 lengths.

"He got a little excited on me the day he won in [1]:52.1," Gingras said. "I was more a passenger, I didn't really want to go that fast, but he got a little anxious. In his last start, it was slow fractions, but I sat him in the hole anyway. He was nice and relaxed and was really happy with that. He followed cover in the last turn and kicked home like a nice horse in the stretch. That's all you can ask for."

Karl (Yannick Gingras) posted the fastest sophomore trotting mile of the season with this 1:52.1 triumph last month at Lexington's Red Mile.

Karl, a son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious, sold for $135,000 at last fall's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. He is owned by Christina and Nancy Takter, Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing, and Bender Sweden. He was bred by Crawford Farms.

"He doesn't have a whole lot of racing experience, but he's a smart horse, and ability-wise he's right there," Gingras said. "He's got crazy speed. He's shown it already, that he's got that :26 speed in him. Not many trotters have that, let alone 2-year-old trotters.

"He's also strong. He can carry [his speed] a long way. He's got a great gait, an efficient gait, that covers a lot of ground, and he's got a great attitude. I really like him and I'm excited to drive him. He's got the tools, now he's got to do the job. We'll let the horse do the talking."

The Red Mile hosts all eight Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series finals Sunday afternoon. Three returning champs will be in action — 3-year-old male trotter French Wine, 3-year-old female trotter Special Way, and 3-year-old female pacer Twin B Joe Fresh — as well as the sport's No. 1-ranked horse, 3-year-old male pacer Confederate.

In addition, the finals will include seven horses, including Karl, that led their divisions in points: 2-year-old filly trotter Allegiant, 2-year-old male pacer Better Is Nice, 2-year-old female pacer Geocentric, 3-year-old male trotter Tactical Approach, 3-year-old female trotter Mambacita, and 3-year-old female pacer Strong Poison.

Geocentric is undefeated in six lifetime starts and already has a Pennsylvania Sire Stakes title to her credit. French Wine also won a PASS crown this season, as did 3-year-old filly trot finalist Railee Something, while Special Way and Better Is Nice both were champs in New Jersey. Tactical Approach, another Takter trainee, won the Hambletonian last month.

Racing begins at 1 p.m. (EDT). For free Red Mile programs, visit the track's website here.

USHWA has also elected veteran writer Tim Bojarski and broadcaster Dave Brower to the Communicators Hall of Fame.

Jim Campbell brought attention to his many stellar years of conditioning racehorses when, in 2022, he sent out the winners of the Hambletonian, Cool Papa Bell, and Hambletonian Oaks, Fashion Schooner, on the same day, only the third trainer to do so. He also joined the ranks of Billy Haughton, Joe O'Brien, and Jimmy Takter as horsemen who have trained two Hambletonian and two Hambletonian Oaks winners. That impressive campaign helped Campbell earn the Trainer of the Year award from USHWA.

Campbell hails from an elite Ontario harness racing family that started with Canadian Hall of Famer Duncan Campbell and has progressed through father Jack and brother/Hall of Fame driver/Hambletonian Society president John. John and Jim combined to win the 1995 Hambletonian with Tagliabue. In 1987, Jim became "established" with the pacer Run The Table, in a stable that has focused in recent campaigns on developing young stakes trotters while capturing six Breeders Crown championships.

RACING IS IN OUR DNA
FEATURING THE THIRD LEG OF
HARNESS RACING'S TRIPLE CROWN

THE 131ST
KENTUCKY FUTURITY

Grand Circuit starts Thursday, September 28th,
Friday, September 29th and Saturday, September 30th.
Final weekend is Friday, October the 6th, Saturday,
October 7th and Sunday, October 8th.

All post times 1pm.

Award-winners trained by Jim include Tagliabue, Galleria, Broadway Hall, Broadway Schooner (his other Oaks champion), Broadway Donna, Real Cool Sam, and Cool Papa Bell.

Jim is fortunate in that his patrons tend to stay with him for a long and mutually profitable time. He has trained for Jules Siegel and his late wife, Arlene, as Fashion Farms for nearly 30 years and with the Farber family, first Sandy and then his son Scott, since Run The Table's stellar days.

David McDuffee, an insurance agent by trade, entered harness racing in the 1980s with partner Tom Walsh, and has expanded his standardbred "footprint" as an owner by several degrees of magnitude in the intervening years, with nine Breeders Crown victories, two Hambletonian Oaks, two Little Brown Jugs, and three Kentucky Filly Futurities numbering among his successes. He was USHWA's Owner of the Year in 2021.

Over the years, McDuffee put together a small but elite broodmare band that did well on the racetrack and continued to do well in the breeding shed. Their names are familiar: Pizza Dolce, Bella Dolce, and 2013 Horse of the Year Bee A Magician. He also campaigned the highly successful racehorse and later stallion Kadabra.

Continuing this trotting mare tradition for McDuffee was his most recent star Bella Bellini, a distaff McDuffee also bred. Unspectacular at 2, she exploded during her sophomore form, winning the Hambletonian Oaks and earning divisional honors. Her sharpness continued in 2022, when she was named Trotter of the Year.

Campbell and McDuffee will be joined in entrance to the Hall of Fame by trainer/driver Eddie Lohmeyer, who enters the Hall through the special Veterans designation as picked by USHWA's Hall of Fame Screening Committee.

Joe Faraldo, a winner of the 2019 Bergstein-Proximity Award, came up just shy of the 75 per cent of "yes-no" votes required from the balloting to be elected to the Hall in his first appearance on the HOF ballot. This showing should put him in good stead for upcoming elections.

Tim Bojarski began his contact with harness racing communications in 1986 at Batavia Downs, near his western New York home of Akron, authoring a tip sheet and writing profiles of horsemen. He is in his 23rd year of writing for Hoof Beats, the award-winning magazine of the U.S. Trotting Association, for which he has been a columnist for 11 years. The busy Bojarski is employed by Plainridge Park near Boston, the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts and that state's stakes program, the New York Sire Stakes, and Batavia Downs.

Dave Brower, who passed away unexpectedly in October 2022 at the age of 53, was a mainstay of The Meadowlands for many years, achieving his biggest recognition as a broadcaster on the nightly racing show from the New Jersey oval, in addition to being that track's morning-line odds maker and handicapper.

The author of the book "Harnessing Winners" was also a highly visible contributor to the Hambletonian Day television coverage on many occasions and worked in broadcasting during the Grand Circuit meets at the Delaware County Fair in Ohio and at Lexington's Red Mile.

Campbell, Lohmeyer, McDuffee, Bojarski, and Brower will be honored in two upcoming ceremonies. They will receive their first formal recognition at the Dan Patch Awards Banquet, presented by Caesars Entertainment, on Feb. 25, 2024, at the Rosen Centre Resort in Orlando, FL. The second event will, of course, be their formal introductions into their Halls in Goshen on July 7, 2024.

Further information on both events will be available in the coming months.

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) is the leading group of communicators about the standardbred horse. USHWA conducts the official annual balloting for the sport's most prestigious honors: induction to the Hall of Fame and Communicators Hall of Fame, along with the selection of the Horse of the Year, Trotter and Pacer of the Year, and the leading divisional horses of each season.

Each year USHWA hosts the Dan Patch Awards Banquet, honoring the best and brightest performers in North American harness racing. This banquet is the Association's principal source of funding, and with generous financial support from the harness racing and breeding industry, USHWA is able to host the banquet at a world-class facility in a world-class manner.

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

Dragging is a drag

by Alan Leavitt

Having read through the proposed USTA rule changes twice, I still can't find a word about dragging.

Dragging, for those remaining few unfamiliar with this accursed term, is holding the field long after the clock has hit zero minutes to post time. The tracks do this to create more betting, but the reality is late betting becomes a learned reflex.

It doesn't have to be this way, and it shouldn't. The biggest betting race in the world is the Kentucky Derby, and when the clock at Churchill Downs hits zero, the runners are being loaded into the gate.

I note that Mark Loewe, who is now a very big dog at the USTA, mentions the issue of misperception being a threat to the viability of our sport.

Please forgive a personal note, but I was years ahead of Loewe here, and I actually did something to change public perception for the better.

During an eight-year term on the Kentucky Racing Commission, I passed a ban on one-handed whipping. That has now become the norm in virtually every harness racing jurisdiction in North America.

This occurred during Steve Beshear's two terms as governor. For the record, Beshear had only honest, decent people advising him on racing matters.

Back to dragging and Loewe, it should be a concern that holding a race for as long as seven minutes after the clock hits zero clearly raises the question of the integrity of our sport.

Many of our tracks are now adjuncts to casinos, and they would love to be rid of us. I hope and pray that none of them will wise up and use dragging as a pretext to get rid of us, once and for all.

Now to the yearling sales season, and the action videos that are essential to getting a good price for your stock.

Here at Walnut Hall, we use Hammond Communications Group, and I have them shoot with three cameras, one at each end of the video strip and one in the middle.

Coming up under the great horseman Howard Beissinger, I shoe everything the way Howard started his trotters, with a 5/8's half round and a ribbed white rubber bell boot. In my early days the bell boots were solid pieces of rubber, and you pulled them on and off. To make that a little easier, you'd keep them soaking in a bucket of warm water.

Because we shoot our pacers on the trot, I hang them up just like the trotters. Actually, when you put the right shoe and boot on a pacing-bred yearling, they often will hit a good trot even better than the trotting bred ones.

I know I could put our pacing yearlings on the pace if I thought it would enhance their value. Just leave them barefoot in front, put a side weighted shoe on behind with a light pair of show horse chains, and voila.

But there's no reason to think it would result in higher prices, so why bother?

A yearling looks better with its mane pulled. All you need is a mane comb and a dollar bill for the length.

My dear friend Larry Cohen from back in the days of his lovable dog Spot, calls his videos "films." And his are, although not everybody goes to the lengths he does.

We don't put any music on our videos, and neither does the Hanover Shoe Farms, who set the bar for everybody else in our biz. I do, however, still have a vivid memory of one of Tad Egloff's videos playing to "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Tad and I go back together for a good 60 years. In the days of the Harness Breeders Sales Co., Tad was my backup if an irate buyer or seller was threatening violence and was a lot bigger than me. Such a great guy, then and now.

And speaking of great people, I spent two delightful hours with Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky last Sunday as she checked out some of our yearlings.

In the course of conversation, Bridgette brought up a terribly important point.

Because our Kentucky Sire Stakes program is open to every sire in North America, there should be a separate division of the Sire Stakes for the progeny of stallions standing in Kentucky.

Jablonsky is right in spades, because we have oodles of money and we could easily do this right. I don't know who the committee members are who control this, but whoever they are, they should fix this, and fix it for 2024.

And as a final question: Who can tell me what is the single most important thing you must do when riding or driving a horse?

Answer next week, maybe.

Ponda Title set for Doherty test at Hoosier Park

by Ken Weingartner

Among the many admirable qualities possessed by Ponda Title, perhaps the most valuable is the one not readily visible: The desire to win.

Ponda Title has five victories in seven races this season (with a second and third in her two setbacks) and $138,670 in purses, a total that ranks among her division's best. All her starts have come at Harrah's Hoosier Park, where tonight (Sept. 15) she will make her Grand Circuit debut against nine rivals in the $400,000 Jim Doherty Memorial for 2-year-old female trotters.

She will start from post 4 with Kyle Wilfong in the sulky for trainer Jay Hochstetler and is 6-1 on the morning line.

"From the time we started training her down, she had the gait to be a nice horse and her effort level was always excellent," Hochstetler said. "She really liked training, she liked beating horses, liked fighting them off. That's what is separating a lot of them nowadays. They all can go fast, it's a matter of whether they want to beat horses.

"She's big, beautiful, and she loves to race. The closer somebody is to her, the more she wants to try. Whether she can beat them or not is up to what the other horse is, but [Ponda Title] is going to try her hardest. She's gritty. She's just been a joy to train."

The Doherty is part of a 14-race card at Hoosier Park that also includes the $420,000 Peter Haughton Memorial for 2-year-old male trotters. The Doherty and Haughton were held previously at The Meadowlands.

As was the case last year, the Doherty and Haughton will offer "Win and You're In" status for the 2023 Breeders Crown. The official winner of each race, if Breeders Crown eligible as of June 1, will advance directly to their respective final, with no starting fee, and the opportunity to draw for post 1 through 5.

Dean Gillette
Ponda Title (Kyle Wilfong).

This year's Breeders Crown will be hosted by Hoosier Park in late October.

Ponda Title opened her career with five consecutive wins, including three in the Indiana Sire Stakes series. Following two ISS setbacks, one by a neck, she will make her first start on Lasix in tonight's Doherty.

"I'm intrigued to see about that," Hochstetler said. "The last couple starts hadn't been quite what we expected from her, so at least we kind of found a reason, and we're hoping that will help her."

Ponda Title, a daughter of Muscle Massive—Elin, was purchased for $32,000 at the Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale. Her family includes Allegiant, this season's fastest 2-year-old female trotter, as well as past stakes-winners such as Beer Budget, Tiger's Too Good, Only Lonely, Celebrity Eventsy, and more distantly, Dan Patch Award-winner Mystical Sunshine.

"That family is kind of hot right now," said Hochstetler, who trains Ponda Title for Connie Hochstetler, Robert Buddig, and Allen Schwartz. "I've seen that family a lot through the sales catalogs. It seems like they produce racehorses."

Hochstetler also will send out Miss Dior in the Doherty. She has won two of seven starts and finished second to Allegiant in the early Kentucky Sire Stakes final in July at Oak Grove. The daughter of Six Pack—Sweet Thing is owned by the same group as Ponda Title, with the addition of Homer Hochstetler. She will start tonight from post 8 with driver John DeLong and is 20-1 on the morning line.

"We didn't know what to expect from her at Oak Grove and she kind of overachieved and put up a big mile to be second against Allegiant," Jay Hochstetler said. "We've always been high on her because she's got a beautiful way of going. She's a little quirky to drive sometimes, but she's so good gaited that even though she's quirky you can still rely on her."

"If she gets tripped out, she's got enough natural talent to make a little noise in there."

The competition facing Ponda Title and Miss Dior includes Soiree Hanover, who is coming off a win in last week's New Jersey Classic at The Meadowlands in a career-best 1:53.1, which is the third-fastest mile of the season for 2-year-old filly trotters. She is the 10-horse field's top money-earner, with $192,425, and will start tonight from post 9 with Tim Tetrack driving for trainer Lucas Wallin. She is 7-2 on the morning line.

Wallin-trained The Moment (10-1) and Ake Svanstedt-trained Slip Sliding Away (5-2 morning line favorite) also have a Kindergarten win this summer. Slip Sliding Away, who will start from post 6 with driver Dexter Dunn, was beaten by a nose in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship on Sept. 2 at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs. The Moment, who was just a half-length back in third in the PASS final, will leave from post 3 with Brian Sears.

Graceful Design (3-1), who drew post 1, has hit the board in three Grand Circuit starts for trainer Tony Alagna and driver Andy McCarthy. She heads to the Doherty off a third-place finish in the Peaceful Way Stakes on Aug. 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Cheval Rapide (5-1) has two wins in the Kindergarten Classic Series to her credit, including a 1:54.2 score on July 28 at the Big M. She will leave from post 2 with Yannick Gingras driving for trainer Nancy Takter.

"I think it's a pretty deep and evenly talented field," Hochstetler said. "There's nobody where you say that one doesn't really belong. It's going to be interesting to see how it shakes out. It might end up being whoever gets the trip is the lucky one to get it all."

The Haughton features T C I, who brings a seven-race win streak to the event for driver David Miller and trainer Ron Burke. The colt's victories include the William Wellwood Memorial on Aug. 26 at Mohawk and the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship on Sept. 2 at Pocono.

Also among the 10-horse field are Wellwood second- and third-place finishers Mars Hill and Amazing Catch, PASS second- and third-place finishers Security Protected and Greenspan, and once-beaten Ohio Sire Stakes runner-up Spaaaanzano.

Racing begins at 6:15 p.m. (EDT) at Hoosier Park. The Doherty is race 10 and the Haughton is race 12. For free daily programs, visit the track's website here.

SIRES STAKES

Popular choices win NYSS Excelsior finals at Batavia

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

Eight $55,000 divisions went postward in the $440,000 New York Sire Stake Excelsior finals that were held at Batavia Downs on Wednesday night (Sept. 13) and several streaking horses were victorious again and had the support of the betting public.

The 2-year-old trotting filly Dozen (Chapter Seven—Sequin) drafted third for Tyler Buter behind the entry of Barn Dreamer (Jason Bartlett) and Barn CJ (Kevin Cummings) from the start to three-quarters where Buter tipped her and trotted towards the front. At the top of the stretch, Dozen was in full flight and bolted home to a 3-¼ length win in 1:58.2.

It was the fifth straight win for Dozen ($2.80) who is owned by Diamond Creek Racing and trained by Marcus Melander. Diamond Creek Farm bred Dozen.

Then the 2-year-old pacing colt Pop It (Huntsville—Pop The Tags) left hard from post 1 for Mark MacDonald and led the entire race. While leading by 1-½ lengths, Pop It cut quarters of :28.1, :58.1 and 1:27.4 before turning for home and holding off the pocket-sitting Spectacular Plus (Bartlett) to win by a half-length in 1:56.

That was the fourth straight win for Pop It ($2.70) and owners Schnittker Arnold, Country Club Acres, Joe Sbrocco and Ted Gewertz. Ray Schnittker trains Pop It who was bred by Kathryn Weed and Kenneth Weed.

From the sophomore class, 3-year-old pacing filly Rec Time (Huntsville—Ms Malicious) and Bartlett left for position from post 5 and dropped in second behind Light And Tight (Jordan Stratton), then and followed that one for seven-eighths of the mile while Sweet Cheyenne (Marcus Miller) applied pressure to the leader from the outside. At the top of the stretch, the passing lane opened and Rec Time paced away down the lane to a two-length win in 1:55.1, with a sharp :27.3 final panel.

Rec Time ($3.90), who set Batavia Downs track record for 3-year-old pacing fillies earlier this year, won her sixth race in only eight 2023 outings for owners D Racing Stable and Jason Osullivan. Deborah Daguet trains the filly bred by Fair Winds Farm, Mark Mullen and Steve Jones.

And then 3-year-old trotting filly Serendipity (Chapter Seven—Vida De Vie) got away fourth for Miller while Five Fish Species

(MacDonald) led the field. Woolco (Jim Morrill, Jr.) pulled first-over at the half and Miller followed with Serendipity. Halfway through the last turn, Serendipity went three-wide and then under a line drive, pulled away to a 1-¾ length victory in 1:57.1.

It was the ninth win of the year for Serendipity ($6.00) and owners W Donovan, Jim Winske, Stephen Michaels and Joe Sbrocco. George Ducharme trains Serendipity who was bred by Joie De Vie Farm.

Bartlett won three Excelsior finals while Buter won two.

Aiello, Hollywood join Red Mile team for Championship Sunday

Red Mile will host the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Finals on Sunday (Sept. 17) with $3.4 million in purses up for grabs with eight $400,000 championship finals heading the 10-race extravaganza.

A pair of $100,000 finals of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series will provide the bookends for the historic Sunday program.

In celebration of this prestigious event, famed thoroughbred announcer Pete Aiello will be at The Red Mile along with one of harness racing's most knowledgeable historians, Bob "Hollywood" Heyden.

Known for his accuracy, enthusiasm and excitement, Aiello is no stranger to the standardbred sport and sealed his star status in harness racing by upending Gabe Prewitt in what was deemed the "Match Race of the Century" at Pompano Park raising over $50,000 for aftercare for retired standardbred horses.

Heyden has come to be known as one of the finest handicappers, commentators and historians in the sport, solidified by his induction to the Communicators Hall of Fame in 2013.

The Sunday program will feature a grand buffet of wagering options, including a unique 20 cent Pick-8 (races 2 through 9) with a guaranteed pool of $10,000 coupled with a low 15 per cent takeout.

There will also be a Pick-4 beginning in race 6 with a $10,000 guaranteed pool highlighted by an industry low 12 per cent takeout.

Other exotic wagering options include a 20 cent Pick-6 beginning in the first race (15 per cent takeout), a 50 cent Pick-5 beginning with race 4 (12 per cent takeout), and a pair of 20 cent Super Hi-5 events (15 per cent takeout) offered on races 5 and 10.

Among the champions racing in Sunday are the undefeated 2-year-old pacing filly Geocentric (Sweet Lou), the million dollar winning 3-year-old pacing filly Twin B Joe Fresh (Roll With Joe), the undefeated 2-year-old trotting colt Karl (Tactical Landing), the Hambletonian winner Tactical Approach (Tactical Landing), the 3-year-old trotting filly Special Way, undefeated this season in four starts, and the fastest pacer in 2023 thus far Confederate (Sweet Lou), the 3-year-old pacer who won his last start over Red Mile in 1:46.1.

Post time for the Sunday Championship program is 1 p.m. and free program pages are available on the website redmileracing.com.

Dave Briggs to receive Tom White Media Award

Hall of Fame Communicator Dave Briggs has been named the Tom White Media Award winner for 2023 by the Little Brown Jug and the Delaware County Fair.

A native of Windsor, ON, Briggs graduated from the University of Western Ontario with a Masters of Journalism degree and began working at the London Free Press. He quickly parlayed an early career story on Western Fair Raceway into a job at The Canadian Sportsman — at the time, Canada's longest-running publication.

Briggs worked for The Canadian Sportsman for 19 years before it ceased publication in 2013. He currently serves as the editor of Harness Racing Update and for Catena Media.

Briggs has won nearly 30 national and international awards, including a record 12 United States Harness Writers Association's John Hervey Awards and four Standardbred Canada O'Brien Media Excellence Awards.

In 2017, Briggs received the sport's highest honor, induction into the Communicators Hall of Fame by the members of USHWA.

Briggs will be presented his award at a ceremony on Tuesday (Sept. 19) in the Delaware County Fair Log Cabin.

The award honors the legacy of long-time Little Brown Jug and Hall of Fame publicist, Tom White, who passed away in 2019.

Past Tom White Media Award winners were Paul Ramlow (2019), Brad Schmaltz (2021) and Dean Hoffman (2022).
