Adam Bowden: Confederate won't race next year

And therefore, the sophomore pacing colt will be subject to The Meadowlands' Stallion Restriction Condition, better known as the Gural rule.

by Debbie Little

Following Confederate's win in the Kentucky Sires Stake Championship Series final for 3-year-old male pacers, breeder/owner Adam Bowden of Diamond Creek Farm announced that his homebred colt would not be back to race at 4.

"I think, if I'm being 100 per cent honest, there was never another thought with regards to this horse at this time," Bowden said. "I mean, we're a stallion farm. You know, we breed and race horses, and the ultimate goal is to create your own stallion, and he's never going to be worth more money than he is right now. It seems crazy for me not to [retire him], especially since we have three or four other 3-year-old colts that are going to race next year. It makes the decision to retire him that much easier.

"Now, if I just owned Confederate, the decision is likely the same, but it makes it significantly easier to do with Cannibal and Christchurch and Command all going to race next year."

According to Bowden, the fact that The Meadowlands' Stallion Restriction Condition would be applicable to Confederate's first crop – in short, making the Meadowlands Pace winner's first crop ineligible to that race, among others – did not play any part in his decision making when it came to retiring his colt.

"I've never let other people's decisions affect what we do," Bowden said. "We did it with Downbytheseaside. I mean, yeah, people have found loopholes, you know, this horse has this issue and this horse has that issue, but Downbytheseaside raced 22 times at 3 and it was kind of hard to find a reason for him to retire on some fake injury."

"So, I've never really been that type of person. If he retires sound, we won't file whatever Jeff [Gural] asks for and if he gets injured between now and the end of the year, then he gets injured. But, right now, he's healthy, happy and sound, and we're going to just continue to pursue our path."

While Bowden said he has great respect for Gural and what he's trying to do with his rule, he has his own thoughts about who it should apply to.

"I think most of the horses that have come back at 4 with success, were not stallion candidates at the end of their 3-year-old season," Bowden said. "And so, I think specific horses like Captaintreacherous and Tall Dark Stranger and Confederate, they fall into a totally different category. They shouldn't be subject to the rule. I think there should be a way to get out of it for those top, top horses. I'll probably offend somebody by saying that, but I don't really care."

"I understand his rule, but we're also going to do what we think is in the best interest of our horse. And if we have to miss with the first crop, I don't think it hurt Downbytheseaside. You know, Pebble Beach was still 3-year-old champion. He won the North America Cup and the Breeders Crown. Bythemissal won the Jug. Yeah, it stinks not to see them there, but, you know, it's part of the deal. There are consequences to every action. I'm okay with them. I understand them. Like I said, I appreciate what he's doing to create interest in the sport and I don't fault him for it, but like I said, we understand the consequences of the decisions that we make and we're going to do them because we think that's right for Confederate."

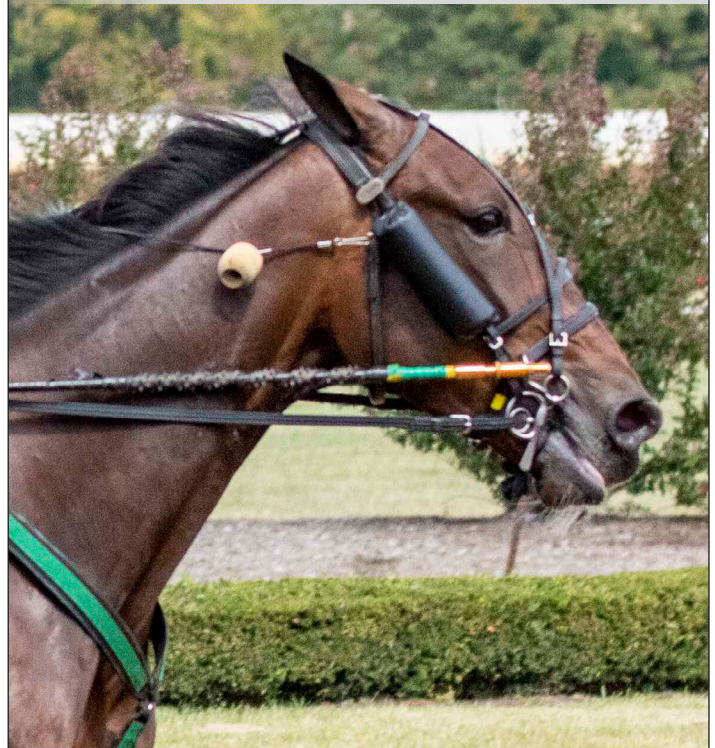

Although he does his best not to engage, Bowden is well aware of the conversations and criticisms on social media regarding Confederate and his main rival, It's My Show.

The connections of It's My Show have been questioned for choosing to go to the Jug rather than face off against Confederate this past weekend in Lexington, while Bowden's been questioned for doing just the opposite.

Bowden said he can totally understand the choices made by Richard Young, co-owner of It's My Show.

Confederate (Tim Tetrick) setting the 1:46.1 3-year-old world record on Sept. 4 at Red Mile.

"If I'm in Richard's position, I'm making the exact same decision," Bowden said. "I don't fault him. He shouldn't get crap from anybody for it. It's his horse and he did what he thinks was in the best interest of his horse. He has a gelding and he has a chance to race for a million dollars. Hell yeah, I'm doing that every time, and I don't think it has anything to do with Confederate."

"You read the social media comments like, the best horses should race against each other the whole time. It looked like maybe it was going to but he staked his horse a specific way based on his 2-year-old form. I totally get it. And he's doing what's right for his horse, and he's trying to manage a career that will stand hopefully a lot longer and will continue past this season, where we're mapping out a plan to create a stallion. So, I get why their paths maybe haven't crossed yet but they're likely to do so in Lexington [in the Tattersalls] and they're likely to do so at Hoosier [in the Breeders Crown]."

Fans on social media have expressed that they would love to see Confederate and It's My Show hook up again, sooner rather than later, as they did in the final of the North America Cup where It's My Show bested his rival by a head. That was the only loss on Confederate's card this year.

"We get a lot of crap from people for not supplementing Confederate to the Little Brown Jug, but we have another horse [Cannibal] going that we think has a legitimate chance," Bowden said. "You know, we're a Kentucky-based farm supporting the Kentucky racing. [Confederate] won the [KYSS Championship Series final] last year. It's cool that he won it again this year. I mean, there's a lot of reasons to not supplement him."

"If the [KYSS final] was a week earlier, we probably would have supplemented him [to the Jug] but racing on Sunday and then coming back and going two heats on Thursday, that's not easy to do. And he's coming off a world record [1:46.1] from less than two weeks ago."

In a perfect world, where his colt stays happy and healthy, Bowden has a few more races to look forward to with Confederate.

"He'll likely race both weeks in Lexington, in the Bluegrass and the Tattersalls. Then he'll go to the Breeders Crown. And then if we were lucky enough to win the Breeders Crown final, we would likely race him against the older horses in the [FanDuel, formerly the TVG]. I think he can compete there.

"We actually even talked about – depending on what other 3-year-olds do – racing him in the Breeders Crown against the open horses. We'll see what happens over the next couple weeks, but it's on the table. I mean, it's one race at a time, and you have to win the Breeders Crown to get the invitation for the [FanDuel]. Like I told you before, these plans have been in place for such a long time and for them to all come to fruition, or most of them come to fruition, it's been very rewarding."

Bowden also knows that depending on how the rest of the season shakes out, when it comes to divisional honors, there's one thing Confederate needs to do.

"I think to be certain, I think we have to beat [It's My Show] head to head," Bowden said. "You know, right now, [Confederate's] really done nothing wrong. Yeah, he came up a head short in the North America Cup, in his third start of the year. It's My Show beat us fair and square, so he's going to have to do it again. We're going to have to beat him."

"To me, he's like one of the top three, 2- and 3-year-olds that there has been. So, I don't mind saying that. I mean, yes, you can make cases for all kinds of them over time but I think he's in the conversation. I mean, he went [1]:46.1. He is the fastest 3-year-old by three-fifths-of-a-second ever. So, I'll take that. We've been waiting for 15 years for a horse like this. I am totally enthralled by him and love every minute of it. So, I'm going to enjoy it the rest of the way."

HISA and harness racing: a Q & A with CEO Lisa Lazarus

by Bill Finley

The relationship between the Horse Racing Safety and Integrity Authority (HISA) and the sport of harness racing has been, to say the least, a contentious one. The United States Trotting Association has been an outspoken critic of HISA and has joined others as a plaintiff in lawsuits contesting its constitutionality. USTA Chairman Joe Faraldo has called HISA an “existential threat to harness racing.”

Yet, to date, HISA has had no role in the sport. The law that created HISA covers only thoroughbred racing and no other breeds. However, it contains an opt-in provision whereby state racing commissions can elect to have HISA cover additional breeds. HISA went into effect on July 1, 2022. The Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU), an arm of HISA that oversees drug regulations and the enforcement on drug-related penalties, went into effect on May 22 of this year. Currently, neither is involved in harness racing in any way.

So where do things stand when it comes to HISA and harness racing? To get a better idea of the situation, Harness Racing Update reached out to HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus with a list of questions regarding HISA's relationship with the harness racing. Her answers are below:

HISA does not specifically mention harness racing. However, there is an opt-in provision whereby state racing commissions can have additional breeds covered. Have you heard from any commissions saying they want HISA to also cover standardbred racing? Do you anticipate that HISA will eventually expand and that harness racing will come under its umbrella? If that is to happen, do you see it taking place in the near future?

“There have been no indications of any opt-ins coming in the near future.”

Have any commissions specifically said that they will not opt to have HISA cover harness racing?

“No, they have not.”

If in fact, HISA is extended to cover harness racing where will the money come from to cover the added expense? Do you anticipate that per-start fees will be necessary? If not, where might the bulk of the money come from?

“Funding of additional breeds is expressly contemplated by the Act – the State Racing Commission or breed governing organization seeking to opt-in to HISA is required to have ‘in place a mechanism to provide sufficient funds to cover the costs of the administration of [HISA] with respect to the horses that will be covered... as a result of the election.”

Because standardbreds start more often than thoroughbreds, many in the standardbred business worry that that will mean they will actually be paying more in per-start fees than their thoroughbred colleagues. Is this a legitimate worry?

“See our answer to your previous question.”

The USTA charges that HISA will drive both large and small businesses out of the harness racing industry by ‘stifling them with new fees.’ They go on to say HISA will cost jobs and drive many people out of business.’ What is your response to this?

“We are already almost at the end of the first year with HISA’s funding model and we have not seen that happen in thoroughbred racing. Responsible, prudent investments in equine welfare and integrity are a necessary part of being good stewards of a sport in today’s world.”

The USTA argues that HISA will make the sport less safe because it will remove critical health measures that protect the horse, most notably Lasix. What is your response to this?

“HISA will be driven by the outcome of the furosemide scientific study mandated by Congress and will be led by the data at the end of three years when the research is complete. That study will be conducted independently and be shared when available.”

Since the thoroughbred and standardbred are two different breeds with different needs and issues, will all rules apply equally to both? Can you give us an example of areas where the rules and protocols for standardbred racing may be different than they are for thoroughbred racing. Should there be two different sets of rules?

“The Act requires the Authority to consider the ‘unique characteristics’ of any breed that elects to be covered by the Act. We will need to study this and make an informed decision about what is best for each breed. But it is clear, there would need to be two different sets of rules.”

Many prominent harness trainers, breeders and owners have come out in favor of HISA. With that in mind, do you feel that the USTA's position is a proper reflection of how harness horsemen feel about HISA by and large?

“I am not able to comment on this as I do not have sufficient information.”

A common criticism we hear from the USTA is that the people pushing HISA are a small elite minority. USTA president Russell Williams has said this of HISA, ‘A small group of rich men want racing to go back to being a rich man's hobby.’ What is your reaction to that statement?

“I think it is misinformed. HISA is led by a diverse group and seeks feedback from all stakeholder groups. HISAUS.org lists all the active participants on dedicated committees and the Horsemen's Advisory Group weighs in on many important issues. That group is made up of trainers, owners, breeders, veterinarians, horsemen group leaders and backstretch worker representatives from around the country – big and small tracks. HISA is the antithesis of going backwards. Investing in equine health, welfare and integrity is the evolution of the sport.”

What is your message to those in the harness industry who are skeptical of HISA? Why would HISA be a good thing for standardbred racing?

“Just like thoroughbred racing is stronger under a united and uniform set of rules and accredited laboratories testing for the same banned and controlled medicines at the same level, the harness industry would benefit from this oversight and structure. Bettors need to have confidence in the product they are wagering on, and HISA delivers a fair and level playing field for all participants to be treated equally. My message would be that HISA is willing to discuss with any state racing commission or breed organization the benefits of uniform rules. The harness industry will have the benefit of watching the implementation of the thoroughbred industry.”

Confederate cruises, Geocentric rolls in championship events at Red Mile

by Kimberly French

Two of the sport's brightest stars, Confederate and Geocentric, sparkled on a superb 10-race card which offered $3.4 million in prize money and included eight $400,000 Kentucky Championship finals and two $100,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series finals for freshman and sophomore trotters and pacers on Sunday (Sept. 17) at Red Mile.

Confederate (Tim Tetrick), the swiftest 3-year-old in harness racing history, won as he pleased with a final time of 1:49 in the final for sophomore male pacers. His stablemate, Command, (Todd McCarthy) was second with For Once Inmy Life (Andrew McCarthy) coming home in third.

For Once Inmy Life strode to the top right at the beginning of the contest for 3-year-old male pacers and established fractions of :26.3, :55.3 and 1:23. Shortly before the three-quarter pole, Confederate, who was sitting in fourth, could wait no longer and came first-over on the backside. He was second in a flash and paced away from his competition rounding the final turn to win in hand.

Although he rattled off a :25.3 final quarter panel Tetrick had the colt geared down as they neared the finish line.

The Brett Pelling trainee is by Sweet Lou and out of Geothermal. The sport's top-ranked horse has a record of 16 13-2-1 and has banked $1.52 million. The Meadowlands Pace winner is now a two-time Kentucky champion and has not lost since the North America Cup final where he finished second.

Confederate competes as a homebred for Diamond Creek Farm and the facility's Adam Bowden made a special announcement in the winner's circle regarding the colt's future.

"Both are homebred colts and it's exciting to be first and second," he said, also referencing Command. "This is what we do, and to get a horse like Confederate, we are pretty excited. Everybody that has been associated with the horse has done a heck of a job with him.

"We are not sure yet if he's going to race both weeks here at the Grand Circuit, but he'll race at least once more and then the Breeders Crown and then from there we will see from there."

When asked about a 4-year-old campaign Bowden was clear.

"He will stand at stud," he said.

Confederate paid $2.10 as the 1-9 favorite.

GEOCENTRIC EXPLODES IN 2-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

The undefeated Geocentric (Tetrick) demonstrated why she was the 1-9 public choice as the Pennsylvania champion demolished her seven foes in 1:50.2 to become a Kentucky champion. Gifted One (T. McCarthy) paced her heart out to be second and so did Seeyouonthotherside (Tony Hall) to be third. The fillies, however, were no match for the sport's latest superstar.

The daughter of Sweet Lou—Geometry was in the fourth as Gifted One led the field through the first quarter mile in :27.1, but prior to reaching the half-mile marker the filly made a first-over move on the backside to assume command with the half in :55.4 and three-quarters in 1:24.1.

Once they reached the stretch it was all Geocentric as she pulled away well within herself to collect her seventh victory in as many starts.

"I'm skipping the first week [of the Grand Circuit] here in Lexington with her," said trainer Brian Brown. "She's going home and will be turned out for a week in the field. I don't want too many starts with her before the Breeders Crown, but she will be back the second week.

"I saw nothing wrong with her on her yearling catalog page and to this day she looks just as perfect. She went through a bit of tying up 12, 10 days ago but there has never been a problem with her other than that."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Clayton Pfeifer is working to engineer a full-time career in harness racing

by Chris Lomon

Standardbred racing is a part-time role for Clayton Pfeifer, but the Ohio horseman doesn't treat it that way.

It's a sport and a world the young man who works full-time in the Pike County Engineer's Office in Waverly, OH, knows well, dating back to the times when he would tag along and help his father and grandfather, both long-time horsemen, around their barn.

And while he didn't quite understand all the meticulous details that went into the horses and the family operation, Clayton did realize, early on, that he had forged a connection with the pacers and trotters that he greeted every morning and took care of throughout the day.

"My dad and my grandfather have been in the business for 30 to 40 years now, and I probably started out when I was around 6 or 7," Clayton said. "I started cleaning stalls, doing things like that, and getting the horses ready. By the time I was around 12, they would let me jog and train them. It was a big rush being able to jog them and see how athletic they are. I just liked being around them and the atmosphere of the barn and the racetrack."

A standout varsity pitcher on the Waverly High School baseball team, that chapter of his life closed when he required Tommy John surgery on his shoulder after his sophomore year.

That unfortunate turn did, however, open the door for the opportunity to pursue a career in the race bike.

In 2020, Clayton, who received a license to drive at the fairs, recorded 31 drives, and won his first race, the victory coming at Jackson County Fair in Wellston, OH, on July 17 with Pines Triplenickel, a pacer owned by Patsy Hall and trained by his father.

At the age of 18, Clayton, mere weeks after earning his provisional driving license, recorded his first pari-mutuel win, the milestone coming on Jan. 18, 2022, at Miami Valley Raceway.

He teamed with JLS Yankee Rose, a daughter of Yankee Cruiser—JL Spend Forever, also trained by his father, to best six rivals in the dash for maiden pacing fillies.

A length behind at the stretch call, the bay, at 14-1, collared the leader and went on to a three-quarter length score in a time of 2:00.1.

"It was a nice, easy win," Clayton said. "It was a huge thrill. When I crossed the wire, I remember my adrenaline just kicked in. I had a big smile on my face. It's one of those moments where you feel you really accomplished something."

Another pacer, All Sass, owned by his grandfather and trained by his father, has provided the Pfeifer family with several highlights in 2023.

Winless in 10 starts last year, the 3-year-old daughter of Well Said—All Lace has hit her best stride this season, one in which she has racked up three wins and 10 top-three finishes from 21 starts.

"She's always been game and she has never let me down every time I've raced her," Clayton said. "She's just an all-around good mare, even in the barn. She's good to jog, she's good to train, and she's definitely not like her name."

On Aug. 9, at Scioto Downs, the bay filly, bred by Winbak Farm, gave Clayton his second pari-mutuel win.

Sent on her way at 12-1, All Sass rallied stoutly down the lane for a one-length triumph in 1:53.1.

"I would love to make a career out of driving horses but there are so many drivers in Ohio and so many good ones. It's hard. I just want to continue to drive and make the most of any opportunities I do get. Whether I'm driving one of the favorites or a long shot, I also go out there with the same goal of giving my horse the best chance to succeed. The best thing you can do is go out there with an open mind and do what you can to map out the best trip."

"She got away well, sat second, and at the top of the lane, I tipped her out and she just went right on by. That was a great feeling, too. Any time I get to drive is a big thrill."

The biggest challenge Clayton has faced is getting those chances.

"I would love to make a career out of driving horses but there are so many drivers in Ohio and so many good ones," he said. "It's hard. I just want to continue to drive and make the most of any opportunities I do get. Whether I'm driving one of the favorites or a long shot, I also go out there with the same goal of giving my horse the best chance to succeed. The best thing you can do is go out there with an open mind and do what you can to map out the best trip."

When it comes to charting his future in the sport, Clayton, who wears the same black, white and cardinal red racing colors as his father and grandfather, will strive to improve and hopefully, gain more attention for what he brings to the table.

He'd also like to see more nights like the one he experienced on July 15.

"I had my first race at Northfield and finished third with All Sass in a leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes," Clayton said. "That was great. I really enjoyed it. There is a good group of drivers up there, a really strong driving colony. So, it was nice to go out there and be on the same track as those guys. It ended up being a nice result for us. All Sass raced great, and we were very happy with how she did."

In the moments when he does need to get away from the pressures of work and life, he heads to the great outdoors. Clayton also enjoys another side of the equine world.

"I like deer hunting during that season," he said. "I do that a lot. But there isn't much time to do a lot of things outside of my job and racing. I have a girlfriend and she is big into quarter horses. I ride with her and go to shows with her. I don't like sitting around much, so I enjoy being active."

And Clayton no doubt enjoys the standardbred life.

As to how it will pan out, part-time gig or full-time career, remains to be seen.

One guarantee, however, is Clayton's bond with the sport and its stars.

"I work my 40 hours of week and then head to the barn to take care of the horses, and then do it all over again the next day," he said. "It's a busy life, but I have always liked being around the horses. I'm pretty sure that is never going to change."

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Big money was at stake as Vincennes' Criterium Day was held

by Thomas Hedlund

Paris track Vincennes had a great Sunday (Sept. 17) event as three $320,000 Criterium-races were on the menu and the spectators witnessed some spectacular races that afternoon.

The big star, Joshua Tree, trained by Jean-Michel Bazire, had to stay in the stable when the 4-year-olds battled over 2,850 meters, but the race included several other top trotters and Philippe Allaire's Just A Gigolo became the bettors' first choice as the race went on.

And Just A Gigolo was a heavy factor in the Criterium des 4 ans. Driver Franck Nivard attacked three and four wide at the uphill part of Vincennes, giving cover to Sebastien Ernault's Josh Power (Offshore Dream). Ernault gave his horse the signal for the attack at the same time as Just A Gigolo got advantage of the race and Josh Power easily disarmed the favorite, in an upset win in a mile rate of 1:56.1 over 1.7 miles.

Just A Gigolo was second and Just Love You third.

Replay here.

Philippe Allaire had the favorite even in the $320,000 Criterium des 3 ans. His Koctel du Dain has belonged in the top of the crop pretty much all the year and with two kilometers to go in Sunday's race, Koctel du Dain was in front. Sebastien Guarato-trained Krack Time Atout (Face Time Bourbon), driven by Paul Philippe Ploquin, did some work in the two-wide path and when attacks were made from behind with a half-mile to go, Krack Time Atout seemed to be a beaten horse, but it turned out that that was not the case. When Ploquin begged for some more power at the top of the stretch, Krack Time Atout answered and sprinted to a safe win in 1:56.3 over 1.6 miles.

Gerard Forni

Idao de Tillard (Clement Duvaldestin) winning the $320,000 Criterium des 5 ans on Sunday at Vincennes.

King Opera, who overtook the first over position with 700 meters remaining, held strongly as runner up while leader Kocitel du Dain finished third.

Replay here.

Favorite Idao de Tillard (Severino) was served a ground-saving trip by Clement Duvaldestin when the 5-year-olds met in the $320,000 Criterium des 5 ans. That proved to be necessary in the end and even if the big favorite did what was expected from him, the victory in Sunday's race was hardly the most impressive in his career.

The race turned out to be a high-speed story when leader Ibiki de Houelle was under pressure from Izoard Vedaquais during the race's first kilometer. The latter made a break just as he was on his way to overtake the lead and Ibiki de Houelle continued to control the show in front. Behind him, Duvaldestin saved ground with Idao de Tillard and the position first over could be taken with a half-mile to go. Idao de Tillard bested his "I-friends" but it got a bit stressful for Duvaldestin in the end, when Inmarosa gained space for the finish with 100 meters to go. Idao de Tillard held the opponents behind and won in a strong mile rate of 1:55.2 over 1.9 miles.

Inmarosa was second and It's A Dollarmaker third. Replay here.

DERBY WINNER BEST IN NAPLES

Alessandro Gocciadoro had some strong cards in his hand when the $160,000 Gran Premio Freccia d'Europa was held in Naples on Sunday (Sept. 17) night. Gocciadoro sat behind Vernissage Grif, who got a first over trip, outside of stablemate Bepi Bi, but it was Holger Ehlertr trained Bleff Dipa (Mister J.P.) who was the strongest in the stretch.

Roberto Vecchione attacked three wide at the back stretch and disarmed Gocciadoro's horses with 150 meters remaining in the 1,600 meters long event.

Ehlertr's Italian Derby winner won in 1:53.3, ahead of Vernissage Grif and Zefiro d'Ete.

A PAIR OF STAKES RECORDS IN OPENING DAY ACTION AT THE DELAWARE COUNTY FAIR

Rose Run Zoey (Tyler Smith) cruised to the win in the $137,460 Ohio Breeders Championship for 2-year-old filly pacers in a stakes and track record equaling 1:52.2 in Sunday (Sept. 17) action at the Delaware County Fair.

When the gates of the starting gate opened, Rose Run Zoey protected the rail position and rebuffed a challenge by Daisy's Star (Sam Widger) to go gate-to-wire. The pocket sitting Flyin Bullets (Brett Miller) was second and a late charging Seaside Diva (Chris Page) was third.

The daughter of Lather Up is owned by Miller Racing Stable and Let It Ride Stable and trained by Ryan Miller. Her career earnings are $570 shy of the $200,000 mark.

Sectionline Bigry (Chris Page) took the $34,400 Ohio Breeders Championship for aged pacers in a stakes record equaling 1:49.4.

The hometown Sectionline Bigry (Chris Page) sat patiently in third and watched the dueling leaders – Cyclone Union Jack (Dan Noble) and Gold Digger King (Tyler Smith) – through the first three-quarters in 1:22.2.

Page went three-wide with the eventual winner in the final turn and drew away to equal the mark set last year by Charlie May.

With the first-place check of $17,200, the 8-year-old gelded son of Pet Rock's career earnings surpassed the $1 million mark.

The winning owner is Delaware's Harold Lee Bauder. He is trained by Steve Bauder.

Dakota Jackson and Louie Louie overcame an objection to win the Tim Fouts Memorial Standardbred Driving Championship in 1:53.4. Rose Run Xiled (Wyatt Long) and Medoland Terror (Tony Dinges) were second and third.

Louie Louie is owned by Tatham Racing Stable and trained by Mark Winters, Jr.

Jackson represented the American Harness Drivers Club.

ROSE RUN YANAE TAKES $120,000 OBC FOR SOPHOMORE FILLY TROTTERS

Rose Run Yanae (Chris Page) rebounded in the $120,000 Ohio Breeders Championship for 3-year-old filly trotters in Monday (Sept. 18) action at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

When the field of eight was sent on their way, Contechsfashion (Trevor Smith) grabbed the early lead from Docs Boo Boo (Jeff Nisonger). Driver Chris Page elected to send the eventual winner after the lead and cleared the field at the quarter in :28.

The leaders saw little challenge past the half in :56.3 and the three-quarters in 1:26.

Rose Run Yanae was able to use a comfortable :28.4 last quarter to score a six-length win over Docs Boo Boo and a late closing Swinging Senorita (Tyler Smith) in 1:54.4.

The win provides a little bit of redemption to the connections after Rose Run Yanae suffered some recent poor position luck and second place finishes in the final leg of the Ohio Sires Stake and the $300,000 OSS Final.

The Triumphant Caviar filly is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services and Weaver Brussemi and trained by Ron Burke.

With the $60,000 first place check, Rose Run Yanae now has $393,288 in career earnings.

The win was Page's third of the day and his fifth of the Delaware meet.

In the $12,000 Signature Series Final Trot, the 10-year-old The Next Triumph (Dan Noble) went gate-to-wire to score a two-length win over Stoney Ridgetop (John Konesky III) and Enforce The Law (Joseph Kramp) in 1:56.3.

The winner is co-owned by Robert Smolko and trainer Ron Steck.

Earlier on the 19-race card there was a unique situation: the stallion Lane Of Stone won the Signature Series Trot consolation in 1:55. His 2-year-old daughter, Flip Five Stones, won the third race of the card, a $5,022 Ohio Fair Racing Conference event.

Both winners were driven by Jeff Nisonger and trained by Mark Winters. The father is owned by Harry Horowitz and the daughter is campaigned by Dennis Shaner.

SIRES STAKES REPORT

SB Bodacious makes headlines with dominating championship win at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces

SB Bodacious (Voracious Hanover) posted the fastest mile of the night (1:51.4) with a dominating 5-1/4 length score in the $65,000 Minnesota-sired older male pace on the Saturday (Sept. 16) Night of Champions program at Running Aces.

Owner/trainer/driver Rick Magee was content to settle away in third early while Bunkerhill Phill (Kevin Wallis) and Handsome Harvey (Luke Plano) traded turns on the front while posting a :27.1 opening quarter. Magee activated SB Bodacious just after the :56 half mile and they quickly swept up to the leader and pushed past for the front near the 1:23.3 three-quarter mile checkpoint.

As they turned in for home, SB Bodacious took off for the wire and left his rivals reeling. Alilthundadownunda (Nick Roland) lacked racing room until the stretch and shook free late to rally and capture second money after a photo with Bunkerhill Phil, but neither had a chance to catch SB Bodacious who had built up an insurmountable lead. Longshot SB Prince Archie (107-1, Gerald Longo) picked up the pieces in fourth.

The winning margin was 5-1/4 lengths and the mile time of 1:51.4 was the fastest of the night.

It was career win number 24 for 7-year-old SB Bodacious ($15.20) who also eclipsed the $300,000 mark ($313,693) in career earnings with the victory. Mikaela Del Giudice is the assistant trainer for SB Bodacious and the winning breeder is Fredrick Hoffsaes.

Iron Sharpens Iron delivered another knockout punch in the $65,000 sophomore male trot championship, going gate-to-wire and opening up at every call before checking in 14-1/4 lengths ahead of his rivals in 1:55.4.

Wisco Wild Card (Jacob Cutting) was the best of the rest throughout and collected the place spot over Whata Tettegouche (Roland) and Ice Splitter (Warren).

Iron Sharpens Iron ($2.40) now shows 19 wins in 24 career starts for owners Jeralene Roland, Devon Arp and the late Alfredo Villarreal and trainer Dan Roland. Justin Van Otterloo is the assistant for Danler Farms.

DP Freedoms Chrome (For You Almostfree) lowered his own track record to 1:58.1 and remained undefeated in 10 career starts with a 4-3/4 length triumph in the $65,000 freshman male trot championship.

Banker's Quest (Mooney Svendsen) set the early tempo while driver James Gould sat the pocket with the big favorite DP Freedoms Chrome. They went for the lead as they headed down the backstretch and never looked back from there, opening up around the far turn while Insurrectionist moved into the second spot and finished well clear of Banker's Quest while Magical Zamboni (Roland) arrived home in fourth.

DP Freedoms Chrome ($2.10) was bred by David Borntrager and is owned by Aimes Racing and is trained by Elvin Zimmerman. He now shows career earnings of $78,500.

Bringoverthemoney (Mooney Svendsen, $2.20) delivered a big performance as the big favorite in the $65,000 championship for older male trotters, delivering a devastating 15-1/2 length blow to his rivals in 1:54.3 to capture his fourth straight Night Of Champions victory. He was never in doubt throughout the mile. Longshot Poko Loki at 72-1 rallied late to nose out SD Eliminator for second money.

The sharp son of Money Talks is owned by Joshua Horvat and trained by his breeder Katie Horvat. He now shows 36 career wins and has earned $363,525 to date.

Apple Juice (Cutting, $4.00) posted a gate-to-wire victory by 1-1/4 lengths over big rival Déjà Vu Babyboo (Dean Magee) while Moonlit Night was third best in the 1:54.3 mile.

Scott Banitt is the winning owner/trainer/breeder. Apple Juice (Fancy Schmancy) now shows eight career wins and earnings of $103,117.

Gotubydashorthairs (Roland, $2.20) posted her usual late sweeping rally to capture the $65,000 sophomore filly pace by one length in 1:56.4 for her ninth career win. Fillister Photo (Chad Svendsen) was promoted to second and Quite The Flirt (Dean Magee) was promoted to third after Made Of Misschief was disqualified from second for striking the wheel of Wavzeka near the top of the stretch.

The winner is a very impressive daughter of Wind Me Up, owned by her breeder Mark Anderson and trained by Gordon Graham. She now sports seasonal and career earnings of $126,087.

Dougsmonkeybusiness (Cutting, $14.80) posted a very impressive gate-to-wire effort in the $65,000 sophomore male pace championship in 1:55 for his seventh career tally. He was never in question in the effort while race favorite I'm A Skoldier (Mooney Svendsen) was second best off a pocket-trip and EX Why Zee (Brady Jensen) was third best after a first-over journey.

The winner is also a son of Wind Me Up and is owned by trainer Rick Bertrand as well as Doug Flores who are also the winning breeders. Dougsmonkeybusiness now has career earnings of $117,630.

Give Me This Dance (Warren, $2.60) posted her 22nd career win in the $65,000 championship for older pacing mares, going gate-to-wire from post 4 over Wish I Had Thyme and Kitty Wampus with a winning margin of 2-1/4 lengths in 1:56.

The winner is also by Wind Me Up and is owned by her breeders Alan & Cheryl Sandbulte and is trained by Justin Anfinson.

Susie's Sister and Teachmehowtotory put on quite a show in the $65,000 older trotting mares championship, hitting the wire together in a thrilling finish. The photo-finish camera was thrown into overdrive and could not split the two after the 1:57.4, creating the first dead-heat ever in a Minnesota Night Of Champions contest.

For Susie's Sister (Wallis, $2.10) it was career win number 33 for owners Lynchris, breeders A Piece of the Action and trainer Jenni King. She now shows earnings of $306,346 to date.

For Teachmehowtotory (Roland, $3.40) it was her second-straight and third-overall championship win, and career win number 20 for owners Set The Pace Racing, breeder Glen Sauder and trainer Nick Roland. She now shows career earnings of $252,585.

Wisco Tootsie (Rick Magee, $2.60) smartly converted a pocket trip into a championship win in 2:01 for her eighth career score. She rallied past longtime leader Al-Mar Richs Jetta (Brandon Jenson) late in the lane to post a 3/4-length winning margin while Stressful held off Flash Of Glory for third.

Wisco Tootsie is a daughter of Southwind Flash who now shows $102,923 in career earnings for owner The Sandstone Social Club and trainer Dan Roland. The winning breeder is Harlan Nolt.

Baby Flash (Chad Svendsen, $3.40) delivered another big performance for her 13th career win in 15 starts. The daughter of Southwind Flash took the lead midway through the contest and drew away late to post a 4-3/4 triumph in a career best 2:01.2 in the $65,000 freshman filly trot. Banker's Grace (Rick Magee) was home second over Spicymoneymaker and Al-Mar Puredelight.

Baby Flash has now earned $92,474 for owners Rick Huffman, Keith Wilson and Brenda Lovetinsky. Huffman is also the winning trainer. The winning breeder is Dennis Bontrager.

Fast Larry (Brady Jenson, $2.20) lived up to his name in the $65,000 freshman male pacing championship, posting his third straight win in a career-best 1:54.4 mile.

He got rolling just past the quarter mile and was on top before the half and then proceeded to draw away from the field in the final stages to post an 8-3/4 length victory over 62-1 longshot Celebrity Status (Roland) and 83-1 longshot All Star Wonder (Dean Magee) while El Parrandero Q was home in fourth.

The winner is by Art's Chip and is owned by his breeder Gary Carlson and is also trained by Jenson.

SIRES STAKES

Maine's frosh fillies storm through Bangor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Maine's 2-year-old pacing fillies stormed through historic Bass Park a day early with two $14,000-plus divisions, in a successful pre-emptive strike on Friday (Sept. 15) against the potential havoc of Hurricane Lee.

In the $14,486 first division, Who's Perfect (Heath Campbell, Valerie Grondin) took command into a :29.4 opening panel. Without the benefit of cover Gowestyounggrace, the Dave Ingraham-driven daughter of Western Maverick, raced first over through a 1:00.4 half, and began her ascent to the top.

Still getting that good Bangor air at the 1:30 (:29.1) third stanza, Gowestyounggrace was poised to pounce, and did just that by taking command at the head of the stretch.

Trained by Fred Ward Jr., Gowestyounggrace prevailed by two lengths in 2:00.2, the fastest division of the afternoon. It was the fourth consecutive victory for the filly that is owned and was bred by Sharon and Fred Ward, Jr. She has earned $32,956 in just seven lifetime starts, and paid $6.60 to win from the outermost fifth starting post position.

Wagering favorite Who's Perfect finished second; Ghost Of You (Kevin Switzer, Jr., Marc Tardif) was third.

My Sweet Revenge followed a perfect garden-spot trip to grab the second $14,487 division of Maine-sire freshman fillies.

Driven by Walter Case, Jr., the reinsman let betting favorite Mrs Foxy Roxy (Nick Graffam, Mike Graffam) do all the heavy lifting as she cut moderate fractions through a relatively uneventful mile.

But the action came quickly and decisively as 'Casey' unleashed the daughter of Western Maverick at the head of the stretch to wear down the pacesetter and score by three parts of a length in 2:04.1.

Trained by Marc Tardif and owned by Leighton Property, it was the filly's second victory of her career. She was bred by Laurie Harding and Reginald Duguay, and paid $15.00 to win.

Mrs Foxy Roxy finished second; Summertime (Steve Wilson) was third.

In other news, one of Maine's favorite daughters, Valerie Grondin, picked up her 500th career driving victory aboard her own Zampara in the final race of the afternoon at Bangor. Friends and family from as far south as Bell, FL, were eager to congratulate the prominent Maine Sire Stakes trainer for her career driving milestone.

Scratched from PASS final, Captain Fear Not rebounds with Keystone Classic win

Captain Fear Not missed his chance at Pennsylvania's title due to sickness, but he rebounded nicely Saturday (Sept. 16) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows, capturing a division of a Keystone Classic. Dublin Dasher took the other split in the $82,700 stake for freshman colt and gelding pacers.

Captain Fear Not won a pair of PA Sires Stake events and might have been one of the favorites in the Sept. 2 championship for $252,000. But Kathe Troy, who owns and trains the Captain Crunch—Mikayla Rose gelding, realized his health wouldn't allow it.

"He had a temperature of 103," Troy said. "It was an easy decision to make, but it was a real hard decision to make. It was heartbreaking. I said to [winning driver Jeremy Indof] 'Give him a shot. Don't baby him. Babying him is my job.'"

Indof was obediently aggressive, barreling to the point before the quarter. Captain Fear Not showed no lingering effects of his illness, defeating Syed Ali K by 1-1/4 lengths in 1:51.4, with Single Action third. Troy said the victory wraps up the youngster's freshman campaign.

Dublin Dasher hadn't been in a stake before, but that didn't keep Jim Pantaleano from hustling him to the front for trainer Hunter Oakes and owners Alan Johnston and H O Racing Inc. The Always B Miki—DB Blue Chip gelding not only turned aside the first-over challenge of 6-5 favorite Rose Run Zeke, but he also wouldn't allow the pocket-sitting At Ease Hanover to get closer than 1-3/4 lengths at the wire while winning in a career-best 1:51.4. War Machine completed the ticket.

"I drove him early on when Hunter was just starting with him, so I knew the horse had a lot of ability," Pantaleano said. "He was just having colt issues. I spoke with Hunter before the race, and he said the colt was probably ready to go a big trip."

$80,500 Keystone Classic — 2-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Trot

Ordained and White Shoe Hanover each won a division of Saturday's co-feature.

Ordained was a seven-race maiden entering the Keystone Classic, but trainer/driver Charlie Norris confidently sent him to the front. The Father Patrick—Chic Chick gelding led every step, downing Splendid by a half-length in 1:56.2. I'm Out finished third.

"He had a little soreness problem behind, not soft tissue or anything, but he was just sore," Norris said. "We've been working on him, doing therapeutic stuff, and he's really sharp right now. He's always had the speed and the ability."

Carrie Norris, Bradley Berlin, Jim Zito and Jerald Barris own Ordained, who will be pointed to Red Mile and Cumberland Run, Kentucky's new racing venue.

In his stakes debut, White Shoe Hanover, trailed by 4-1/2 lengths at the three-quarters and had to swing extremely wide for the drive; a victory under those circumstances seemed unlikely. But the Greenshoe—Wood Blue Chip gelding kept rolling for Bradley Chisholm and prevailed in 1:56.4. Highly Motivated was second, beaten 2 lengths, while Two Times The Moni earned show.

"The more room the better with him; he likes to get up the track a little," Chisholm said. "When the first half came up under :58, I was fairly confident even though I was a few lengths off them. When he had his two qualifiers, we were thinking about coming to the end with him. We didn't think he would make it at all. One day it all clicked. He'll definitely be better in six months' time."

Nifty Norman trains White Shoe Hanover for Robynlee Reichard.

Anthony MacDonald and trainer Tim Twaddle teamed for three victories on the 14-race program.

The Meadows is dark this week for track maintenance. Live racing resumes on Wednesday (Sept. 27), first post 12:45 p.m.
