T C I makes miraculous recovery, wins Mohawk Million

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

Ontario

A break at the start of the Mohawk Million put T C I, in rein to David Miller, behind the eight-ball. But that was only the beginning of what would be a drama-filled fourth edition of the unique 2-year-old trotting event.

It was expected the finish of the Million could produce one of its most exciting chapters to date. It was the start, however, that changed the complexion of the race and set the table for a compelling climax.

T C I, who had earned the golden ticket for his connections (the other nine slots for the Million are purchased for $100,000 per entry) after his win in the William Wellwood Memorial, broke stride at the outset, leaving the lifetime winner of eight of nine starts with plenty of work to do.

Tactical Strike, at 171-1, and 163-1 Top Mast, both Desiree Jones trainees, got away first and second, respectively, into the first turn, with the former taking the field through an opening quarter in :27.2. T C I, at 4-5, sat 10th, 15 lengths back of the winner. Drawn Impression was fifth but went off stride and was distanced.

The longshot duo continued to set the tone through a half in :57.1, followed by Allegiant and Show Me, as T C I and Miller moved into eighth along the backstretch.

Tactical Strike was still calling the shots after three-quarters in 1:26.1, as Security Protected ratcheted up the pressure to the outside. Top Mast remained third, followed by Griff, while Tennessee Tom started to roll down the lane, picking off rivals with every stride and then taking over the proceedings.

Once an afterthought, T C I then arrived on the scene, fourth and charging in Mark McKelvie's stretch call, and loomed a major threat to the new leader, who dug in gamely, but couldn't stave off the improbable winner.

The Ron Burke trainee crossed the line a 1 ¼-length winner over stablemate Tennessee Tom in a time of 1:54.3. Allegiant was third and Top Mast was fourth.

"We added a mini bit to him and scoring down he was fussing with it hanging out of line and I just think that made him mad and he did that," said Miller. "At the quarter, I was like, 'Ah, we've got the Breeders Crown still' and then I got him out in the flow, but he was running in so much around the last turn he wasn't making up any ground. As soon as he got into the straightaway, I said, 'Oh, he's going to win.'"

Mickey Burke was equally shocked by the early events he watched unfold.

"My heart stopped," said the assistant trainer and brother of Ron Burke. "You just don't expect it, and when it happened, you're like, 'Oh no.' And it's all you can do, watch the race, and see what happens. He just put on a phenomenal effort. Fortunately, the race set up for someone coming from behind. With his talent he was able to do it. I give the colt a lot of credit.”

While a break in stride was a first for the son of Cantab Hall—Nicoles Promise, co-owned by Burke, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services Inc., and Weaver BrusceMI LLC, displaying heart and grit is nothing new for the bay colt, who now has earnings of over $1.2 million.

After a second to launch his career this July at The Meadowlands, T C I reeled off eight straight winner’s circle trips, including his three-quarter length triumph in the $620,000 William Wellwood on Aug. 26.

Tonight’s win, no doubt, is his most remarkable.

“Well, it’s unbelievable, that should be history-making because that was just wonderful,” said co-owner Bud Hatfield, of the horse named for vacation destination Turks and Caicos Islands. “I thought it was over, quite honestly, but that horse is special. That horse is really special. Dave did a great job and you really got to give Ronnie Burke credit.”

Purchased for $150,000 (Hip No. 55) at the 2022 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA, T C I, bred by Concord Stud Farm LLC, paid $3.80 for the win.

Captains Quarters claims Metro Pace

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

After weeks of eye-catching rallies, but few visits to the winner's circle, driver Jody Jamieson put Captains Quarters at front mast and sped to a gutsy victory in the $970,000 Metro Pace on Saturday night (Sept. 23) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Clever Cody cleared control to a :27.1 first quarter with Captain Luke securing the pocket. Jamieson rolled Captains Quarters and landed in fourth to the backstretch, but the Captaintreacherous colt swiftly angled out and charged for the top well before a :55.1 half.

Legendary Hanover, the 4-5 favorite, raced fifth before pulling first over to make his challenge for the lead through the final turn. Jamieson uncorked a high-octane third quarter with Captains Quarters to clock by that station in 1:22.1 and strung Legendary Hanover for the stretch drive. Legendary Hanover kept trying to push forward while Clever Cody pleaded for room from the pocket, but Jamieson kept Captains Quarters strong to score in 1:49.3 by a half-length. Legendary Hanover finished second with Clever Cody third and Captain Luke fourth.

"[Trainer Herb Holland] wanted me to teach the horse to race long before he ever got a chance to stretch his legs," said Jody Jamieson, who won the Metro Pace for a second straight year after a pocket-popping score in 2022 with Stockade Seelster. "And last week [in his elimination], everyone saw him... – he was in an impossible spot, wasn't a great drive, and got to shake loose in :25.2... Horses just don't do that every day. He goes when you ask him; he's an amazing horse."

Captains Quarters won the Metro Pace in his fifth start, the victory is the second of his career. Holland conditions the winner of $525,904 for owner Rich Stiles.

"It's pretty awesome [to be here]," said Holland, who won his first Metro Pace. "I'll probably sleep better tonight than if he didn't hit the board."

Sent off as the third choice at 5-2, Captains Quarters paid $7.30 to win.

The son of Captaintreacherous out of Prescient Beauty was bred by Jim Avritt, Sr. and sold to Stiles for $235,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Misfortune of a possible first-over journey soon dissipated when Celebrity Bambino found cover from pocket-pulling Up Your Deo to the final turn. Following in the reprieve of the slipstream, Celebrity Bambino swung off cover past three-quarters in 1:24 and set his head down for the drive as Winners Bet tried to outfoot him to his outside. Celebrity Bambino sped through past the beam to clock a 1:51.4 victory by a neck over Winners Bet, while Hasty Bid stormed through a seam at the inside for third and Up Your Deo flattened out into fourth.

"At the start of the race, it wasn't going right again," Gingras said after the race. "He felt so good warming up in the post parade – he was right on the bit the way that I wanted him. The gate opened up, but his footing wasn't right; he wasn't trotting well. Looked like I was going to get away in a bad spot there, but the race changed when Louis [Roy with Tuscan Prince] made a break and the other horses grabbed up. I got him through the first turn, and after that it went right. I knew Ake [Svanstedt with Up Your Deo] would pull the 2-hole and [my colt] did the rest."

The victory pushes Celebrity Bambino closer to millionaire's row with now $936,070 in the coffers for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, J&T Silva Stables LLC, Knox Services Inc. and Phillip Collura. Ron Burke trains the colt by Muscle Hill out of Celebrity Ruth who collected his ninth win from 24 starts and paid $6.80 to win.

Celebrity Bambino was sold for $120,000 at the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Bond ekes out Elegance score

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

Bond found a way to escape with the win in the $381,000 Elegance Stakes Presented by SBOA on Saturday night (Sept. 23) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Trained, driven and co-owned by Ake Svanstedt, the daughter of Southwind Frank—Boccone Dolce, sent on her way as the 4-5 choice in the race for 3-year-old trotting fillies, settled into second into the first turn as Righteous Resolve struck front and took her eight rivals through an opening panel in :26.4.

Rose Run Yolanda, in rein to Yannick Gingras, powered to the front just after the quarter and reached the half 2 ¾ lengths ahead in :55.3, followed by Righteous Resolve, Bond, and 82-1 Baroness Hill.

It was Rose Run Yolanda, second on the tote board at 9-5, still holding sway into the turn for home, but Bond was on the move, zeroing in on the pacesetter, and only a head behind through three-quarters in 1:24.

Bond emerged on top soon after, but was then confronted by a determined Righteous Resolve, who burst through on the inside and began to cut into the lead of her rival. The pair continued their tete-a-tete down the lane, with Bond emerging a head on top. Tactical Mounds was third and Baroness Hill finished fourth.

The final time, 1:51.3, was a stakes record and personal-best mark for Bond.

Bred by Diamond Creek LLC and owned by Svanstedt, Little E LLC, and L Berg Inc., Bond paid $3.70 to win.

"I didn't think [Righteous Resolve] was going to come on the inside, but it was her coming and it's a good horse, but [Bond] fought, and she wanted to win," said Svanstedt.

Ake Svanstedt trains and drives Bond.

Close finishes are nothing new for the sophomore filly, who came into the Elegantimage off a pair of wins — one by a head, the other by a neck. One race before her win streak, she finished second, a neck back of Heaven Hanover in the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks on Aug. 5.

An $80,000 purchase (Hip No.182) at the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, Bond, now 13-3-1 from 18 starts, pushed her bankroll over the $1 million mark.

"I think it had been too many races in the front, but she can race anywhere now," said Svanstedt. "She feels good, and she can leave fast. She's nice to drive, nice to handle."

Elegantimage, a daughter of Balanced Image, posted a race record of 20-7-3 and lifetime earnings of $955,368 in 41 races for owners Hyatt Holdings, Doug Millard, Jerry Van Boekel and Hall of Famer Steven Condren, who also drove the bay mare. She was inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in 2017.

Its A Love Thing wins Shes A Great Lady

by Ray Coto for Woodbine communications

Dave Menary pupil Its A Love Thing had her one eye and whole mind on the $540,000 prize and succeeded in a first-over push to overpower her peers and win the Shes A Great Lady final on Saturday night (Sept. 23) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Starting from post 5, driver James MacDonald floated forward with Its A Love Thing to race fourth as My Girl EJ swooped to lead Caviart Belle after a :26.4 first quarter. Caviart Belle, the 3-2 second choice in the betting, circled to retake the lead up the backside and then clicked by a :55.1 half.

As Caviart Belle tried to peel away through the final turn, MacDonald gave Its A Love Thing her cue and began marching uncovered after the leader. Caviart Belle led by three-quarters in 1:23.1, but quickly came under siege with Its A Love Thing adding pressure all through the stretch. Its A Love Thing slid to the lead in the final eighth and withstood a late charge from Odds On Platinum, who shook free from a pylon ride and settled for second beaten a length. My Girl EJ nabbed third from Caviart Belle.

"She raced huge [in the Eternal Camnation] – you just can't give away those kinds of lengths to great horses," MacDonald said on his more off-the-pace drive with Its A Love Thing when she lost to Caviart Belle. "She's just a great filly and she proved again tonight [that] if I put her in an okay spot she can do some damage."

"I've had a lot of nice fillies, but I've never been standing here," Menary said. "When you race in Ontario, especially with Ontario breds, you dream of being in the Shes A Great Lady or the Metro and getting the job done. I'm happy to be standing here."

Its A Love Thing has now won six races from nine starts; not missing the board in any of the nine. The daughter of Bettor's Delight—Love For Sail, who was sold for $65,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale has banked $486,446 for owners Eric Good, Thomas Biederman and Joshua Green and paid $4.80 to win as the 7-5 favorite. The filly was bred by Marvin and Lynn Katz and Al Libfeld.

Freshman winners Newsroom and Blue Pacific have Holloway looking to Crown

by James Platz

On Friday night (Sept. 22), Harrah's Hoosier Park showcased several Grand Circuit stakes that offered a preview of some of the trotters and pacers that could battle it out four weeks from now when the Anderson, IN oval plays host to Breeders Crown eliminations. Trainer Joe Holloway entered the evening with one Crown hopeful. He finished the night with the freshman duo of Newsroom and Blue Pacific each staking their claim as threats in October's championship events.

The young pacers both reached the winner's circle, but did so in completely different fashions. Newsroom, the undefeated Always B Miki—Well Hello There colt, dug in gamely in the lane to fend off 14-1 Noblesville at the wire to win the $110,000 Elevation by a quarter length. The favorite, driven by David Miller, took command early and held on late to stop the clock in 1:51.4 and record his sixth win. The victory was one of four on the program for the Hall of Fame reinsman.

Newsroom (2, David Miller) winning the Elevation on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

"I think the world of the horse," Miller said after the race. "I'm not going to brag on him at all. That's the worst thing I can do for him. I'm just happy every time he races, he comes out of it good, and he races well, and everybody's happy. I'm really high on him. I think he's a really good horse."

Newsroom's early exploits are drawing comparisons to previous champions Holloway has campaigned, including Jenna's Beach Boy, Perfect Sting and Always B Miki.

The colt has scored victories in the Tompkins-Geers, Kindergarten and $150,000 New Jersey Classic final. The conditioner assessed his newest budding star, giving high praise of his progression as a racehorse.

"He has guts, which he showed tonight," Holloway said. "He has lung power. He has gait, he has speed. I thought he was more advanced than most of the others, except maybe Sting or Jenna; certainly more advanced than Miki was at this stage."

The fact that Newsroom is in Holloway's barn is a matter of pure luck. He purchased the colt – bred by Mark Mullen and Stephen Day III and consigned with the name Theresalwaysaway – for $30,000 at Harrisburg last fall. The dam, a Well Said mare, had produced three previous starters from four foals, with one winner.

"He wasn't marked in my book," Holloway said. "I bought him from Preferred. David Reid has that large viewing area. He wasn't in my catalog, but he caught my eye. When I kept going over to look at different horses, I saw him a couple times."

The trainer asked to see the horse and marked him in his book. When the colt passed through the sale ring, Holloway bought him for Marty Granoff's Val D'Or Farms. Over the winter, Newsroom impressed the trainer and separated himself from the group.

"Marty always told me buy anything you want that sells cheap," Holloway said. "If they're no good, get rid of them. He kept training well. Around March, Marty asked, 'Who do you like the best?' I told him and he said, 'Get out of here. Who do you like the best?' I told David [Miller], 'You better come and train this colt.'"

Miller sat behind Newsroom and echoed Holloway's sentiments. Six victories later, the driver is making comparisons of his own.

"He reminds me of his dad," Miller said. "He looks like him, the same color, the same mental approach. I've noticed that a lot about him."

Those are lofty hoofprints to follow. Breeders Crown champion, Horse of the Year, double millionaire, one-time fastest horse in history, top-rated sire, Hall of Fame inductee.

It's premature, and even unfair, to saddle Newsroom with lofty expectations. Still, Holloway knows the intangibles are there for the colt to be special, even if his Elevation win was slightly out of character.

"He has a shot," he said of the pacer, now a winner of $170,775. "He wasn't his best tonight, but you know what, he got the job done, and that's awful good. I don't know why he wasn't his best. That I'll have to figure out. Obviously, I thought he should have won easier. He didn't. He's a good horse. He's really a good horse. He had every right to be beat, he was even passed a little bit, but he comes back on."

Newsroom looks to extend his streak at Lexington before returning to Hoosier Park for the Crown eliminations Oct. 20 and 21. While his winning effort Friday, required a gritty response in deep stretch, stablemate Blue Pacific surprised her connections with a dominating three-length victory to secure the $200,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management stake for freshman pacing fillies. Miller guided the Sweet Lou—Miss Jones 2-year-old to a 1:50.2 track record performance in only her third career start.

"She surprised me to death," Miller said. "She missed some time there; she got laid up. I kind of thought she would be that type of filly, but not this quick. That was her third lifetime start, and she's doing stuff like that. To me, that's pretty impressive. That was amazing."

The Fair Winds Farm-bred filly qualified at Gaitway in early and mid-June, but a setback prevented her from debuting until earlier this month in the New Jersey Classic. A $53,000 Harrisburg purchase, also owned by Val D'Or Farm, Holloway just hoped to salvage the season and prepare for 2024.

"I would have hoped she was this kind of filly early," the trainer said. "But she got sore. She bucked a shin and we lost quite a bit of time. Then the hopes were to put some money on her card, be able to retain her, and race her at 3. I got her ready for the Jersey Classic. I didn't go into it with intentions of winning it."

After finishing third in her elimination, Blue Pacific put a neck in front at the line to take the final in a time of 1:50.3. After she came out of the race sound, Holloway changed the plan from racing at Lexington to taking a shot in the lucrative Kentuckiana. The decision paid dividends when she moved to the top as the field raced to a :55 opening half and then kicked clear in the stretch to collect her second win in three attempts. The winning time shaved two-fifths of a second off the previous track record for 2-year-old pacing fillies. With the victory, Blue Pacific has banked $173,050 in less than one month. Once again, Holloway is adjusting his plans with the filly to book a return trip to Hoosier Park next month.

"She has exceeded my expectations," he said. "Early on when she baby raced, I would have hoped she was this kind of filly. Now we go to the Grand Circuit races, and it looks like she can come back here for the Breeders Crown. I was hoping to maybe go to the Kindergarten. I didn't know. She was going to tell me, but she looks like she'll be okay."

Allywag Hanover becomes double millionaire; It's Academic equals track record during Hoosier stakes card

by Emily Ratcliff / Harrah's Hoosier Park

After finishing second in the same event last year, Allywag Hanover and driver Todd McCarthy made amends with an authoritative 1:47.3 victory in the $175,000 Harrah's Hoosier Park Pacing Derby on Friday (Sept. 23). Lou's Pearlman and David Miller put in a gallant effort to finish second, while Ponda Warrior and driver Kyle Wilfong finished third. With the victory, Allywag Hanover sent his lifetime purse earnings over the $2 million mark.

In one of the most exciting miles of the season, Allywag Hanover left alertly but was caught wide on the first turn through the opening panel in a snappy :25.2. Hellabalou and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. were the first to grab the lead but relented the front to Allywag Hanover just before the half. Allywag Hanover's lead was short lived as Little Rocket Man wanted his turn on the front and got it at the second station in :53. The field continued to mix it up on the front with Lou's Pearlman and David Miller grabbing the lead and leading the field through three-quarters in 1:20.

When the field turned for home, Lou's Pearlman was still on top but was joined on the outside by the heavy post-time favorite Bythemissal and Yannick Gingras. McCarthy had Allywag Hanover perfectly placed second-over and when he showed his mount some clear racetrack, he responded with a :27.1 closing kick to get the win by a head.

"There was a lot more action early than I thought there would be," McCarthy said. "I wasn't exactly happy with my position in the first turn but it ended up working out for us and Allywag did his jog tonight. That was a tremendous effort."

The victory was the third win on the season in 11 starts. Trained by Brett Pelling for Allywag Stable, the gelded son of Captaintreacherous—Anderosa Hanover has now won 27 of 65 lifetime starts.

Overcoming post 7 and nine other foes, It's Academic dominated on his way to a track-record equaling performance and became a double millionaire in the process.

Miller wasted no time putting It's Academic into play as the 4-5 favorite, blitzing to a hot opening quarter on the lead in :26.2. It's Academic would relinquish the lead up the backstretch as Dexter Dunn gave Pretender his marching orders to the front at the half in :54.2. Dunn kept the pedal down on the far turn to three-quarters in 1:22.2 with It's Academic in tow with Take All Comers and Tim Tetrick and the top trio began to separate from the remainder of the field.

As the trotters turned for home, Miller tipped It's Academic off the Dunn helmet and the Ron Burke trainee pounced. Turning in a gutsy :28 final-quarter, It's Academic held off a final surge by Take All Comers up the passing lane to score the victory by two-and-a-half on the line in 1:50.3. Lovedbythemasses and Todd McCarthy rallied late up the rail for third at 44-1. It's Academic returned $3.80 to his backers at the betting windows.

The victory in the Caesars Trotting Classic was the eighth in 13 seasonal outings for It's Academic and earned the Ron Burke trainee double-millionaire status. Owned by Brad Grant, the 6-year-old son of Uncle Peter—Annapolis has banked $743,951 on the season and now boasts a career bankroll of $2,103,26. The 1:50.3 clocking equaled the all-time trotting track record at Harrah's Hoosier Park, a mark that was established by Whata Swan in 2022.

"He's a perfect gentleman on and off the racetrack," said Miller. "He is just a professional in every sense of the word."

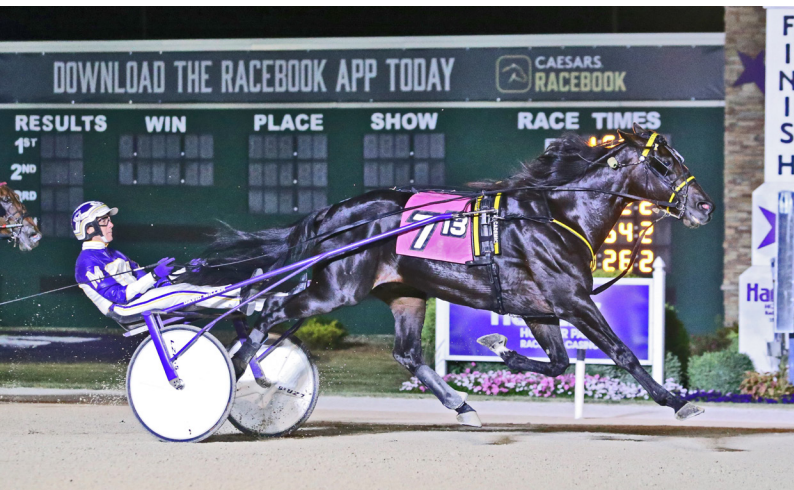

The mile by It's Academic is one of three track record breaking or equaling performances on the card, with the other two coming in each division of the Kentuckiana Stallion Management for freshmen fillies. In the $260,000 trot, R Melina outdueled a gritty Ponda Title in the lane to score a 1:53.1 victory with Tim Tetrick in the bike for trainer John Butenschoen.

WHY NOT NOW CONTINUES WINNING STREAK IN JENNA'S BEACH BOY

Why Not Now (LeWayne Miller) collected his second consecutive Harrah's Hoosier Park victory with a win in the $127,500 Jenna's Beach Boy in a new lifetime best 1:48.2. Coach Stefanos (Trace Tetrick) was second and Christchurch (Gingras) was third.

GRUESOME TWOSOME EXTENDS WIN STREAK WITH MADISON COUNTY VICTORY

Gruesome Twosome and driver/trainer Daryl Bontrager pushed their win streak to three after capturing the $100,000 Madison County Stakes for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings in 1:54.2. Gruesome Twosome paid $5.60 for the victory.

Topmost and John DeLong finished second while Elhelpski and Peter Wrenn rounded out the trifecta.

The son of You Know You Do—All Set Lets Go has now won five of seven lifetime starts for owners Ira Steinberg and Daryl Bontrager. Gruesome Twosome has now bankrolled $172,125 in lifetime purse earnings.

SOUTHWIND CHERRY UPSETS IN THE MONI MAKER

Southwind Cherry and Harrah's Hoosier Park's leading driver Trace Tetrick pulled off the 12-1 upset in the $152,000 Moni Maker Stakes. Using a :27.2 closing quarter, Southwind Cherry tracked down the heavily favored Instagram Model and Andrew McCarthy just steps before the wire to get the victory. Heart On Fire and T. McCarthy finished third.

The daughter of Muscle Hill—Counter Pointe recorded her fifth win of the season and sixth lifetime victory. Owned in partnership by trainer Jeff Cullipher and Pollack Racing LLC, Southwind Cherry has now banked $122,275 in lifetime purse earnings.

HELPIRSTEDITION CAPTURES PHIL LANGLEY MEMORIAL

After three runner-up finishes in sire stakes company, Helpfirstedition was able to get the job done in the $100,000 Phil Langley Memorial in a new lifetime best of 1:51.3. Staging a big rally late in the lane, Helpfirstedition was able to track down the pacesetting Ponda Jet and Wilfong to get the victory by a head. Ponda Jet finished second while Point of Perfect and Gingras finished third.

Trained by Melissa Essig, the gelded son of Helpisontheway—She Knows Swagger recorded his sixth win of the season from 16 starts. Unraced as a 2-year-old, Helpfirstedition has earned $252,600 in lifetime purse earnings for the partnership of E. Wickey, J. Graber, Running Wild Stables and J. Schmucker.

The 15-race stakes card saw over $1.7 million pushed the betting windows, a record handle for a card contested at the track that did not feature Breeders Crown races.

Toscano, Zeron show how to get it done in the Jug

by Bob Heyden

Hats off to the powers that be for the $1 million combined Jug purse and the most bettable Jug ever. The 850G final heat pot – for the first time ever – was more than any participant had lifetime going in. It's My Show had $687,215 entering the festivities.

Scott Zeron and Linda Toscano completed the Jug/Jugette daily double in style, nailing Seven Colors in the last step.

David Miller had won an earlier elim. He entered the day with 10 pacing Triple Crown wins.

Nancy Takter and Yannick Gingras combined with Cannibal for an elimination score, but couldn't make the top in a scorching :53.3 final half.

The Jug was the 507th Triple Crown event in the sport's history.

THE MAIN PLAYERS

Toscano won her very first Little Brown Jug this year – the day after winning her first Jugette – three months after winning her first North America Cup with her Jug winner, It's My Show. This came four years after training his brother Best In Show to her first ever Meadowlands Pace, which came a week after her Hall of Fame induction. That means she won her first NA Cup, Jug, Meadowlands Pace and Jugette after going into the Hall of Fame.

Zeron has now won the Jug 11 years apart – 2012 with Michael's Power was his first. That victory made him the youngest driver at that time (23) to win a pacing Triple Crown event.

If you count the Jug as a $1-million race, then Zeron has swept the NA Cup ($1 million Cdn), Hambletonian and Jug in 2023, joining Bill O'Donnell (1985), John Campbell (1995) and Tim Tetrick (2012) as the fourth driver to win three seven-figure events in one season.

Zeron and Dexter Dunn hit the wire together in the Jug, just a neck apart. They were born the same year in 1989, 11 weeks apart.

Could Zeron be the one to end the four-year "Driver of the Year" streak that Dunn currently enjoys?

In the five richest races won by Zeron, none were favored. It's My Show was the fifth choice in the Jug, as was Tactical Approach in the Hambletonian. It's My Show was the second choice in the NA Cup. Previously, Zeron was third choice with Marion Marauder in the 2016 Hambletonian and second choice with Atlanta in 2018. It's My Show remains the only conqueror of Confederate in 2023.

Zeron is the only driver to win the Hambletonian in his 20s and 30s. He's also the only driver to defeat Always B Miki and Wiggle It Jiggle it in the same race. Shambala beat them both in the U.S. Pacing Championship in 2016.

Brett Pelling and Billy Haughton won the Jug and Jugette in the same year, 24 years apart. Now 25 years later Toscano joins in. Zeron's five biggest career wins have come by a combined 1 1/4 lengths.

Toscano's Ucandoit Blue Chip is a daughter of 26-year-old and now retired, Molly Can Do It. She was the winner of the very first Breeders Crown for a female trainer. In 2002, Molly Can Do It gave Toscano her Crown over reigning HOY Bunny Lake no less.

TWO DEGREES OF SEPARATION

Follow along, it's fun.

Zeron wins the Triple Crown with Marion Marauder in 2016 for trainer Paula Wellwood who is Toscano's BFF.

On Hambletonian Day, Marion Marauder was paddocked by Shelly Grieco who is Toscano's #1 go-to gal.

In 2012, Zeron wins the Jug with Michael's Power who finishes second in the 3YOCP voting 68-50 to Heston Blue Chip trained by Toscano.

ZERON'S QUITE THE LADIES MAN

1. He won the 2016 Triple Crown with Marion Marauder for trainer Paula Wellwood.
2. He won the 2018 Hambletonian with the filly, Atlanta.
3. He won the 2023 NA Cup with It's My Show for Toscano.
4. He won the 2023 Hambletonian with Tactical Approach for trainer Nancy Takter.
5. He won the 2023 Jug with It's My Show for Toscano.
6. He won the 2023 Jugette for Toscano with Ucandoit Blue Chip, a daughter of Molly Can Do It who made Toscano the first female trainer to win a Breeders Crown.

NOTE: It's My Show is now the second most famous horse to win a major stakes race who was winless (0-8) at 2. Art Official will likely forever hold this title having gone 0-15 in 2007 the year before he upended Somebeachsomewhere in the 2008 Meadowlands Pace.

HRU is providing links to publicly-available fines and suspension lists for convenience.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.

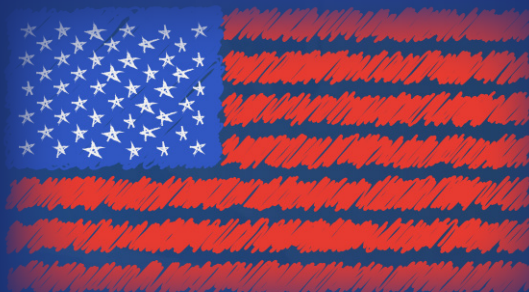

Also, please note, for context, the first link is to the Association of Racing Commissioners International's classification system of drug penalties to give readers a sense of the difference between a Class 1 and a Class 4 positive.

My Little Brown Jug memories, Part 4

by Murray Brown

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

Part 3 is here.

1982 – Merger – This edition of the Jug might be best known for the horse who wasn't there. Cam Fella was by far the best of this crop. Unfortunately, he wasn't eligible. If he had been, he most certainly would have gone and barring very unlikely circumstances he would have won the race. Heading into the race, the event was viewed as being wide open. It drew 25 entrants necessitating three eliminations. The first elimination and the final were won by the John Campbell-trained, driven and partially-owned Merger. The second elimination was won by McKinzie Almahurst trained and driven by Bill Haughton and the third division was won by Temujin in a world record time of 1:54.3, eclipsing the World Record by Niatross also set at Delaware. Among the also rans that day was No Nukes a horse that was destined to become a generational sire. Interesting that the year's crop included No Nukes and Cam Fella two stallions greatly responsible for what the breed is today. Merger was Campbell's first Jug win.

1983 – Ralph Hanover – If one were looking for the perfect horse, one would not have to go much further than Ralph Hanover.

1. Great Bloodlines? Check. He was by leading sire Meadow Skipper out of the solid producing Tar Heel mare Ravina Hanover.
2. Looks? Check. He was a grand looker and perfectly conformed.
3. Manners? Check. Perfect. He could be driven any way and usually finished on top. In addition, he was just wonderful to be around.

4. Racetrack performance? Check. He became the seventh pacing Triple Crown Winner. At 3, he won 20 of 25 starts and earned $1,711,990, more than any other horse had previously won.

5. Breeding potential? Check. He was syndicated by a group of prominent breeders to stand at beautiful Almahurst Farm. Yet, the breeding gods were not with him. He wasn't the first horse with impeccable credentials to be found lacking in the stud, nor would he be the last.

On to the race. There were 25 entrants split into three eliminations. The first elimination was won by Fortune Teller. The second was won by Crosscurrent. Then the third was won by Ralph Hanover. The final and the race went to Ralph Hanover winning with ease for the training and driving duo of Hall of Famers Stew Firlotte and Ron Waples, winning by seven lengths.

1984 – Colt Fortysix – It was the first drive ever in the Little Brown Jug for Hall of Famer Chris Boring and it was a winning one in wire-to-wire fashion in each of the two heats. There were some, including this observer, who thought that if Dr. John Hayes driving Legal Notice had been able to get loose at any point in the mile in the final heat that the outcome might have been different. I've seen thousands upon thousands of races but never before have I seen a race where a horse was so hopelessly boxed in from beginning until the very last few steps. At that point it was just too late. There were two absentees in this Jug who just might have been better than those who competed. Their names were On The Road Again and Holmes Hanover. They finished one-two in the Cane separated by a head that year. A non-factor in the race was the 2-year-old champ Walton Hanover. One tidbit from the race which will never escape my memory was a phone call received from one of Walton Hanover's owners Grady Cooksey a few days before the event. In all seriousness, he asked me if I could get passes for him and reserve a table for his party in the clubhouse. I told him I thought I could get the passes but that getting the table might prove difficult.

1985 – Nihilator – The 3-year-olds of 1985 might have constituted the greatest group of 3-year-old pacers in a single year that ever raced. The best of them all was the super colt Nihilator. Nihilator arrived in Delaware as the winner of 26 of 28 lifetime starts. He was to leave with two more notches on his winning belt. It wasn't the walk in the park that some expected it to be though. It was a great horse race where in the final Nihilator was a neck victor over his stablemate Pershing Square with Dignatarian finishing third. Among the other greats in that crop were Falcon Seelster who wasn't eligible to the Jug, but who performed in world record time winning an overnight in 1.51 on Jug Day. Other notables from that crop were Dragon's Lair, Chairmanoftheboard, Marauder, Broadway Express and Flight Of Fire.

1986 – Barberry Spur – The race marked the first of two won by Dick Stillings trained and Roy Davis owned winners of the Jug. It was also the second in a row and the last for a colt sired by Niatross. Of all the questions that I've confronted in 60 plus years as a student of the bloodlines of the standardbred, the one regarding Niatross as a sire is perhaps the only one to which I don't have an answer, whether it be right or wrong. The first crop by Niatross was greeted with great expectations both at the yearling sales and privately. There was great anticipation. Niatross was considered by most to be the greatest pacer to ever look through a bridle. They sold well and performed to expectations. From the first crop came the champion Nihilator, Pershing Square, the outstanding filly Semalu d'Amour, Handsome Sum, Niafirst and Flight Of Fire. The second crop featured the Jug winner Barberry Spur, the champion filly Caressable, Smartest Remark and Masquerade. Then the proverbial wheel fell off. Despite his receiving larger and at the very least comparable books Niatross was never to come close to achieving the success sustained in his first two crops. Does anybody have an answer? I don't. I've heard them all but I don't believe any.

On to the 1986 Little Brown Jug. The race was rain delayed, taking place on the Friday after its scheduled Thursday date. Stillings chose to hand the lines for the race over to his friend Bill O'Donnell. In the first elimination Amity Chef was a decisive winner handled by John Campbell and trained by Blair Burgess. Barberry Spur won the second heat in near gate-to-wire fashion. In the final third heat Barberry Spur repeated what he had accomplished in his elimination becoming a back-to-back Jug winner for driver Bill O'Donnell.

1987 – Jaguar Spur – Trainer Dick Stillings chose to reverse the role from the previous year by driving Roy Davis' Jaguar Spur to victory instead of entrusting him to a catch driver. In 1986 he had turned the lines over to Bill O'Donnell. There needed to be three elimination heats for this Jug since 24 colts declared. The overwhelming first heat favorite was Run The Table coming into the event on a five-race winning streak. This was not to be that colt's day since he failed to even make the final in the first and thought to be strongest heat which was won by longshot Jaguar Spur in gate-to-wire fashion over pocket sitting Redskin. In addition to Run The Table that elimination also had North America Cup winner Frugal Gourmet. The second elimination was won by Ohio favorite Z Twenty Eight. The third heat was won by Happy Affair. In the final Jaguar Spur was on top all the way en route to victory and becoming his sire Albatross' fifth and last Little Brown Jug winner. Two top pacers notable by their absence in the race were Jate Lobell and Laag.

Unprecedented schedule for Illinois racing in 2024

by Neil Milbert

For the third time in three years, the Illinois harness racing community will have to live with an unprecedented schedule.

By a 9-0 vote Thursday (Sept. 21), the Illinois Racing Board approved the 2024 schedule that was jointly submitted by the Hawthorne Race Course, the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association (IHHA) and the Illinois Thoroughbred Horseman's Association (ITHA).

It calls for Hawthorne to extend the current 49-night Sept. 9-Dec. 31 harness meeting to Jan. 1-Feb. 12.

The thoroughbreds will take over the Chicago metropolitan area's only remaining racetrack for a 62-program meeting from March 23-Oct. 13.

Then, the standardbreds will return Oct. 19 and race through Dec. 30, giving them a combined total of 49 programs.

To offset the gap in the schedule, the IHHA again will work with the Illinois Department of Agriculture to maximize summer opportunities for harness horses by holding non-betting racing funded by the Hawthorne purse account at the State Fairgrounds in Springfield. In 2024, there will be 28 programs in June, July, August, September and October with racing on Thursday and Friday, an 11-program increase from the 2023 dates that had Springfield racing 14 programs and the DuQuoin State Fairgrounds racing three more.

They will be followed in August by the annual pari-mutuel mini-meetings at Springfield and DuQuoin.

This year, a March 5-Sept. 4 thoroughbred meeting prefaced the first appearance of the standardbreds at Hawthorne this month and in 2022 the calendar was divided into four segments with Jan. 7-March 2 and July 2-Sept. 11 harness meetings and April 2-June 25 and Sept. 23-Dec. 31 harness meeting.

The three-year Chicago racing version of musical chairs was necessitated by the decision of corporate owner Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI) to sell the world-renowned thoroughbred showcase Arlington International Racecourse to eradicate racing and possibly racino competition for a nearby casino in which it acquired a majority interest in 2021. The property was sold to the Chicago Bears with the stipulation that there would be no racing or casino gambling and the NFL team has demolished the track.

"The loss of Arlington [starting in 2022] was as devastating as it could be to [thoroughbred and standardbred] owners and breeders who are doing everything they can to keep horses on the racetrack," ITHA president Chris Block told the racing board. "Without Hawthorne we wouldn't have racing. I go around the country and people cannot believe we have the two breeds sharing the racetrack. I have a lot of confidence in the Carey family [that owns Hawthorne] and what they're doing."

Complicating the status quo is the demolition of large portions of the grandstand and clubhouse that began in 2020 in order to transform Hawthorne into a combination racing and casino gambling venue at a projected cost of $400 million.

Racinos became legal in 2019 under a law allowing for a massive expansion of gambling venues in Illinois and, in addition to Hawthorne, the downstate thoroughbred track Fairmount Park across from St. Louis is in the process of preparing to become a racino.

A portion of the adjusted gross revenues from the racinos will be allocated to purses, thereby significantly enhancing the quality of racing and the tracks' prominence in the North American simulcast marketplace.

"With the approval of the [Illinois] Gaming Board we will have the casino up and running by the end of 2024," Hawthorne president Tim Carey told the racing board. "Top to bottom, left to right every part of the racetrack will be affected by the casino, even the backstretch."

"I truly believe Illinois racing is on the precipice of a tremendous renaissance. We will make Illinois a truly dynamic influence on the sport of racing in North America as a whole. In the meantime, it requires the empathy and understanding of both breeds. I appreciate everyone's understanding. There's rationale and reasoning for everything we're doing. It's something we're building for the long term and horse racing will benefit because of that."

The IHHA's new president, Jeff Davis, praised Hawthorne's management team.

"Juggling a racetrack for two breeds is no small feat," he said. "The proposed schedules are not perfect but they represent a commitment. Between 2018 and 2021 there was a 95.5 per cent increase in standardbred mares bred. That should give you an indication of the future of Illinois racing after the opening of the racino at Hawthorne."

The 2019 gambling expansion law also allows for six new casinos in the state — some of which already have begun operating at temporary locations — and a new harness track/casino in one of seven south suburban Chicago townships.

Later that year, it appeared that the racino would become a reality when video gaming operator Rick Heidner and Carey informed the racing board that they were partnering to construct the new track in Tinley Park and a 2020 meeting from Dec. 6-29 was awarded by the board.

However, the proposed racino's racing license and dates were denied after a Chicago Tribune story linked some of Heidner's business endeavors to a banking family with alleged organized crime connections.

Although Heidner was later exonerated by the gaming board, the proposal, by then, was dead.

At Thursday's hearings that prefaced the awarding of 2024 dates, Carey testified he and Hawthorne's management team "remain fully committed to developing a second track and ensuring the success and growth of harness racing in the state of Illinois.

"We have completed preliminary market diligence for a standalone harness track and racino and will continue to move that project forward once financing for the casino development at Hawthorne is completed. We have to do our own racino first."

An important byproduct of the start of casino gambling at Hawthorne will be the provision in the 2019 expansion law that calls for the elimination of purse recapture, which has had a severe negative impact on harness and thoroughbred purses for nearly 30 years.

Purse recapture is a 1995 provision of the Illinois law that allows racetracks to recoup losses on live handle brought on by the authorization of full-card simulcasting of races from other states. The recapture amount is 2 per cent of the decrease of Illinois handle on Illinois races from 1994. This amount is deducted from purse accounts.

In 2023 the amount deducted from harness and thoroughbred purses is $6,774,544.

Finish lines: A long-time member of the board of directors, Davis was elected IHHA president at the organization's meeting on Monday (Sept. 18). He has been an owner/breeder since 2010 and his love of standardbred racing dates back to the 1970s when his family patronized now-defunct Quad City Downs. Outgoing president Marty Engel remains a member of the board of directors.

In 2024, Hawthorne will race on Sunday and Monday from Jan. 1-Feb. 12 and Saturday, Sunday and Monday from Oct. 19-Dec. 30.

Horses are continuing to prepare for the main event in Illinois harness racing, Hawthorne's Night of Champions for Illinois-breds on Oct. 7. Fox Valley Gemini, the 8-year-old gelding pacer who is the only horse to win a Night of Champions race for six consecutive years, and Annas Lucky Star, the 9-year-old trotting mare, who for an unprecedented seven years has been a recipient of an IHHA award designating her as the champion of her filly/mare age group, will be in action in Sunday's prep races. Also competing on the Sunday card will be the 2-year-old gelding trotter Fireballs Pride. By winning his debut at Hawthorne he improved his eight-race resume to five wins and three places after excelling on the county fair circuit where he won four starts by margins ranging from 10 ½ to 16 lengths.

The future looks bright with Rock N Roll Doo back on track

by Adam Hamilton

Down Under harness racing's "problem child" has got his mojo back. And, luckily, Rock N Roll Doo's trainer/driver Michael Stanley is a "glass half full" person.

It would be easy for Stanley to lament what could have been over the past year since the best pacer he has trained thrashed his rivals and looked the sport's next big thing in the Group 1 Victoria Cup at Melton.

So much has gone wrong for the horse and Stanley, but after the best part of a year in the wilderness, Rock N Roll Doo is back firing and seemingly primed for a Victoria Cup title defense on Oct. 14.

While many have referenced Rock N Roll Doo's three-race New Zealand Cup raid just weeks after the Victoria Cup win as the trigger to his derailment, Stanley insists otherwise.

"No, I would still argue there were more positives than negatives that came out of the trip to NZ," he said. "Obviously, [owner] Brendan [James] and I have had plenty of time to look back on it all and there's no doubt it helped develop him as a horse.

"He was actually flying over there, but he just didn't handle the standing starts. His one mobile run, which came after he messed up two stands, was really good when he sat parked and was beaten less than three meters in the NZ free-for-all. Sure, we didn't get the results we hoped for over there, but we still took plenty from it."

Rock N Roll Doo returned home and finished a terrific third in the Cranbourne Cup a month after his last NZ run, but that was to be his last glimpse for many months.

Club Menangle/Hamilton Content Creators

Rock N Roll Doo (Michael Stanley) winning the Len Smith Mile at Club Menangle.

"It all went wrong for the horse and I in the Bendigo Cup at his next run," Stanley said. "It was the start of a nightmare run on all levels, to be honest."

Rock N Roll Doo started to hang so badly Stanley feared something wasn't right with the then early five-year-old and went to ease him out of the race.

"Just as I did, Cam Hart tried to steer his horse around me, but it wouldn't go and he cannoned straight into my back," Stanley said. "The pain was unbearable. I knew it had to be something serious."

When Stanley, an accomplished Aussie rules footballer, says the pain was unbearable, you listen.

After a night in the hospital, where he was diagnosed with two fractures in the transverse process of the L1-L3 of the vertebrae, Stanley was basically bed-ridden for a month and it was three months until he was back in action.

"It hurt so much because the fractures were where all the nerves are," he said. "They thought it might have been kidney damage at the start because of the pain."

So, there is Stanley stuck in bed and feeling hopeless, as the pacer he had always dreamed of training went on from the Bendigo debacle to race awfully again for 11th placings in the Ballarat and Hunter Cups.

"[My wife] Gen and dad [Ian] were a great help, but, clearly, the horse wasn't right," Michael said. "We still don't know exactly what it was, except maybe some shoulder soreness. Maybe he was a bit tired after the NZ trip, too."

"We just needed to pull the pin, but that's hard to do when you know how good the horse is and all the big races are on around that time. We did pull the pin, but probably waited a bit too long."

It sparked some challenging times for Michael and his young family with not many horses in work, limited income and the lingering effects of the damage to his back.

"It put strain on us all round," Michael said. "Financially, we took a hit and Gen, who had basically been in a training partnership with me, went back to relief [school] teaching and it's taken the best part of a year to get back to where we were before it."

"Although I'm lucky with my back because it could've been a lot more serious, I've still got lingering effects like discomfort and numbness. They say I'll never fully recover and will likely have lasting effects later in life, too."

Michael needed Rock N Roll Doo back to his best, for his mind and his pocket, and he started to get excited when he got back to some serious track work in early July.

"He felt like the horse of old, but I didn't want to get too excited until he got to the races and delivered," he said.

The big, raw and rangy son of Rock N Roll Heaven put a huge smile on Michael's face, even in defeat, when he resumed with a monstrous second when he broke the clock from a mile back at Melton on Aug. 19.

The run was so good, Michael and James quickly changed plans and decided to chase the Group 1 Len Smith Mile at Menangle two weeks later, which Rock N Roll Doo won despite sitting parked throughout.

"Yes, there's been a lot of frustration, but it's genuinely all turned to excitement now," Michael said. "He was so good first-up, we decided to have a crack at the Len Smith and he won it, probably only about 70 per cent fit and with so much improvement to come. The race wasn't even on the radar and he's already come back and won a Group 1."

"I don't want to ponder the past anymore. The future is too bloody exciting because he's still young and quite inexperienced. I'm not saying he'll win every big race, but we can be confident no matter how the race is run he will give them a big shake. Brendan summed it up best the other day when he said, 'We respect all the rivals we'll face, but we fear none.'"

Rock N Roll Doo was kept up to the mark with an easy Maryborough Cup win recently and had his last preparatory race for the Victoria Cup when he tackled the Group 2 Kilmore Cup on Friday night (Sept. 22)

Beyond chasing successive Victoria Cup wins on Oct. 14, Michael said it is "very likely" Rock N Roll Doo will tackle the iconic Inter Dominion series (consisting of three rounds of compulsory qualifying heats into a final) at Brisbane's Albion Park in December.

Then there are races like the Hunter Cup and Miracle Mile early next year.

"We'll take what we can get, but if there's one race I would absolutely love to win [it's] the Miracle Mile," Michael said. "We went so close with Soho Tribeca [third] a few years back and it still burns as the one that got away. We thought we had the right horse and he was primed."

Back in 2018, Soho Tribeca sat parked throughout in a still Australasian record 1:46.9sec mile and was beaten less than a meter.

"We might have the horse to do it, too," Michael said. "Two of his best wins have been at Menangle [where the Miracle Mile is run] and he's come back a more mature and easier horse to drive now."

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

Things that have left me gobsmacked

by Alan Leavitt

I continue to be gobsmacked by how many yearling videos are shot without white bell boots on in front. The boots do a great job of accentuating the yearling's front action, and their weight is very helpful in keeping the horse on a fast trot.

Looking over the catalog for the forthcoming Lexington Yearling Sale, I continue to also be gobsmacked by the way the sale pedigrees are done. Why did they eliminate the sire paragraph?

The yearling's sire is the single most important element in establishing a prospective buyer's interest, and, if anything, enhancing his accomplishments can only enhance a yearling's attractiveness.

On this subject, which to me is an important one, the thoroughbred business gets it right, in spades. Look at any Keeneland or Fasig-Tipton yearling catalog, and the first thing your eye lights on is the enhanced sire paragraph. In this respect, at least, the runners know what they're doing a lot better than we do.

Speaking of the way the thoroughbreds do their pedigrees brings up the subject of having graded stakes, as they do, and our way, which is to do nothing. If you think in terms of trying to bring a thoroughbred racehorse owner into our business, the first thing he'll balk at is the lack of graded stakes in our sales pedigrees.

This is something that I've long fought for, starting from back in the days when Phil Langley was the USTA president. Langley was against grading our stakes because he thought it would offend the track owners whose stakes were rated lower than the track owners thought they should be.

The department at Fasig-Tipton that does the grading has offered to work with anyone the USTA sends to learn how grading works. They've also already come up with a special listing that would cover our sire stakes, which the runners don't have.

Speaking of Langley, he and I came up together in our sport, more often than not on opposite sides of the same question. Langley was technically the employee of one Billy Johnston, who owned the tracks where Langley called most of the shots as racing secretary.

Johnston was not everybody's cup of tea, and that included me. He did have a quick wit, as evidenced by his description of the name Breeders Crown as a great name for a brand of condoms. He and Langley both saw nothing wrong with one handed whipping, citing as support the fact that pro hockey was big on fist fighting.

When I responded that in pro hockey the participants all agreed to fight each other, while in harness racing whipping was inflicting pain upon innocent animals, they were unmoved. We went back and forth on this, and eventually I won out when the rule banning one handed whipping in Kentucky became the norm throughout North America.

That, however, is of itself not enough to re-popularize our sport here in the United States. If there is an answer, it lies somewhere in the betting. If anyone has an answer, however, I believe it would be Dana Parham.

For 15 years, Parham was the head of a group that annually bet $50 million on harness races. Parham is not only a very smart guy, he's an equally nice guy, and a pleasure to talk to. If anyone can come up with the kind of betting that would attract national interest in our sport, it's Parham.

Surely, there must be one open-minded track operator out there who wants to take advantage of Parham's vast betting knowledge.

This, again, brings up the god-awful track practice of "dragging," or holding the field until after the official clock has hit zero. There are many reasons why this abominable practice is self-defeating, but there is one that is sufficient to kill it forever of itself, and that is it totally destroys the integrity of our sport.

Like a broken record, I again point out that in the biggest betting race in the world, the Kentucky Derby, when the clock at Churchill Downs is hitting zero, the horses are being loaded into the gate. Which makes this kid wonder, who are the people making the "dragging" decisions?

And now it's time to answer the question of: What is the single most important thing to do when you're riding or driving a horse?

The answer is: Keep the horse's head straight.

Happy trails, everybody.

H3R adds race date and more stakes races

The Quebec Jockey Club recently announced an additional day of live racing to its 2023 calendar at the Hippodrome 3R along with two new $60,000 stakes events.

There is also a post time change for the final Friday (Sept. 29) program, with post time at 3:00 p.m. and then a special Saturday (Oct. 7) afternoon card, with post time at 1:00 p.m.

Click here for an updated copy of the 2023 live racing schedule for Hippodrome 3R.

The Saturday (Oct. 7) program will be dedicated to the finals of the Quebec Regional Fair Circuit that has taken place all summer long at tracks throughout Quebec.

The two new $60,000 stakes races are the Brian Paquet Memorials and will be held on Sunday (Oct. 1) with post time at noon.

Both memorials are for 3-year-old and older pacers, one division for the horses and one division for the fillies and mares. Preference will be given to Quebec-bred horses, then Quebec-owned horses and then it becomes open to any horses from Canada or the U.S. Each division will feature just eight starters.

Also on that afternoon card will be the $30,000 Lucien Bombardier Pace for 2-year-old fillies.

The entry box for the Oct. 1 card closes Wednesday (Sept. 27) at 11:00 a.m. The race office can be reached to enter horses or answer questions about the new stakes races by calling 819-374-6734 ext. 203.

Disappointed Confederate will retire at the end of this year

I was very unhappy to hear of Confederate's retirement (at the end of the year). Thus, he will not race as a 4-year-old. This is, again, proving how short sighted and selfish this game has become.

What is a sport without stars? Why not retire at 2? Why not have a retirement ceremony immediately after the Meadowlands Pace or Hambletonian right there in the winner's circle? Why waste time?

I have been talking about the demise of this sport for years and everything I have stated has proven true. It's not that I'm some kind of genius, but a blind man can see it from a mile away.

Who cares about the sport? Who's watching? There was a running of the International at Yonkers for $1 million two weeks ago. Anyone watch? For that matter, did anyone care?

The average age of harness racing people is over 60. Where are the ranks filling in behind? Talk to my sons age group and horse racing is the furthest thing from their betting minds. They have no problem throwing a few bucks on a baseball or football game.

Any champion is graded on a career of years. Anyone can lead the league one year, but how about dominance for 3 or 4? Is there no money to be earned racing as a 4-year-old or is the sport just about making babies? One hundred and fifty babies a year, wow, large breeding fees and sales. Wow, I own a son of Confederate, problem is he's one per cent as good as dad.

It doesn't really surprise me. It fits the pattern. Whatever decisions the sport makes is always backasswards. Appreciate you letting me vent.

Bill Hartenstine / Farmingdale, NY
