Noble matter raises questions on transparency and fairness

Eyebrow-raising results produced by four horses campaigned by Dan and Christi Noble on the closing night at Scioto Downs raises concerns and calls for out-of-competition testing in Ohio.

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

There's a widely popularized phrase stemming from a 1960's United States Supreme Court ruling, "I know it when I see it." When applied to what could be perceived as alleged improprieties taking place on closing night at Scioto Downs two Saturday's ago (Sept. 13), it's that doctrine which has landed the husband-and-wife team of Dan and Christi Noble in hot water in Ohio.

Though there is yet to be a formal announcement, it's perhaps racing's worst kept secret that the Nobles are, at least for the time being, limited in their options for getting their horses raced.

What numerous sources have communicated is further supported by the fact that no entries for horses with either Noble as a trainer or a driver have appeared for the first three draws of the new season at Ohio's Dayton Raceway. That makes the Nobles conspicuously absent at a track where Dan was the leading driver last year. Preliminary indications are that the same will hold true when Scioto Downs resumes racing next year.

By the numbers, here's what transpired at Scioto where the Nobles, along with others, had been mandated to race out of publicly-notified detention barns at times throughout the meet, but not on closing night. The four horses sent out by Christi as trainer and Dan as driver on Sept. 13 went four-for-four, winning over the five-eighths size track in times of 1:46.4, 1:47, 1:47, and 1:47.2. The 1:46.4 was just one-fifth-of-a-second off the fastest mile ever paced over any five-eighths size track, and the two separate 1:47s are tied with Sweet Lou for the now third fastest miles ever paced over any five-eighths size track.

For further perspective, the other non-Noble winning race times that night (excluding 2-year-old races which wouldn't be a fair comparison) were 1:51.1, 1:51, 1:50.2, 1:51, 1:49, 1:49.1, 1:50.1, and 1:51.3.

That night began in race 1 with the Noble horse Naturally Gifted A winning in a time of 1:47.2 while shipping to Noble from Plainridge. That win time showed an improvement from his career mark of 1:50.4 taken from the end of June at Plainridge. All prior race lines since that mark and the Scioto race show individual race times between 1:50.4 and 1:52.2.

Next up in race 4 was Sinbad N, an eight-length winner in 1:47. Going second-start Noble since arriving from Yonkers, Sinbad N improved on a 1:51.2 lifetime mark taken at Pocono Downs in July by over four seconds in establishing the new 1:47 mark.

It was another 1:47 mile two races later with a horse named Celtic Spirit who crushed foes by nearly double digits in what, for a brief time, tied the track record set about 30 minutes prior by barnmate Sinbad N. The 1:47 mile of Celtic Spirit bested his 1:48.3 lifetime best mile set at Scioto the preceding Saturday (Sept. 6).

Concluding with the open in race 8, Helium N left from the outside post 6, hit the front and went wire-to-wire through fractions of :25.3, :53 and 1:19.2 en route to his record-smashing 1:46.4 win where he humbled the 1-9 favorite Women Layer by 3½ lengths. It improved from Helium N's prior career record of 1:48.2 set earlier this Scioto meet.

As of this writing, only Celtic Spirit was in to go at Dayton, but he is now racing out of a new stable. The other three horses are not in to go, which adds to mounting speculation that there could be impact on owners of these horses, too.

Beyond providing context for the Nobles' omission from subsequent entries since that night, it raises the question as to what explanation – if any – is the public owed at this point. Though there have been no formal accusations and there should be a presumption of innocence maintained, there was still a combined amount of over $125,000 wagered on the four above mentioned races. At minimum, are those who contribute handle to races that produce statistical anomalies deserving of at least a statement that speaks to judges being aware of a matter and will be speaking to the participants – just something that at least acknowledges awareness of integrity matters to the public?

It's not only the bettors impacted but also competing race participants. Speaking separately from this specific instance, trainer and driver Anthony MacDonald who competes as a trainer and driver in many different jurisdictions including Ohio, has been advocating publicly for some time for regulation to help safeguard the sport.

Communicating through email, MacDonald said, "Honestly, I think my sentiment is clear and has been for a while. Generally speaking, and without pointing fingers at anyone, for Ohio to become a leader in this industry it will have to implement out-of-competition testing. The concern of improprieties plants a seed of doubt in industry stakeholders and the betting public. There is only one way to alleviate that, and that is out-of-competition testing. This is the gold standard in all major sports that have even any component of gambling. Our sport is based almost solely on gambling making this not just a request, but a must.

"I think everyone would like a level playing field; and the lack of safeguards like out-of-competition testing make it all too easy to sow the seeds of doubt. Any Ohio laws standing in the way of out-of-competition testing being implemented need amending to allow state officials to do their jobs. I think that's an absolute must, moving forward for the state of Ohio."

Agreeing with those sentiments, additional measures taken to further the integrity of racing and the races themselves are essential. They could take matters such as the case of the Nobles – which ultimately does remain subjective – and instead have a set of regulations that all involved can feel confident in the results produced from it.

Beau Jangles (Bob McClure) winning the $1 million Grade 1 Metro Pace on Saturday (Sept. 20) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Finally tested, Beau Jangles responded like a warrior in Grade 1 Metro Pace to remain unbeaten

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

With the battle won and his perfect record intact through eight starts, Beau Jangles towered over the Woodbine Mohawk Park winner's circle late on Saturday night (Sept. 20) – ears sharp, a crisp white Metro Pace blanket covering him like the satin robes of a boxer post-fight. The precocious man-child of a horse surveyed his kingdom with an expression that suggested he expected this all along as the partisan crowd buzzed about what it had just witnessed in the $1 million Grade 1 race.

Virtually untested in his career until this night, the 2-year-old Ontario-sired and Ontario-bred pacer had just proven that not only could he brush off a few serious haymakers, he could deliver a few kill shots of his own.

Asked for his takeaway minutes after his pupil posted a half-length victory over ultra-talented U.S. rival Frantic Hanover – also unbeaten until Saturday night – trainer Dr. Ian Moore said he learned that Beau, “has a lot of grit and a lot of guts and a lot of heart and a lot of will and desire to win.”

The result was impressive enough for the 71-year-old Hall of Famer to postpone his plans to retire at the end of the year.

"I have been talking [to my wife] Nancy about [retiring]," Moore said. "I'm getting too old, and it's getting physically demanding as well as mentally demanding as well... but I guess [retirement is] off the books now... I'll stick around for his 3-year-old year now."

Based on Moore's perma-smile, it won't be a hardship.

"Somebody asked me last week, 'Is he the best horse you ever trained?' And I said, 'Well, he's right up there, but I can't really say that at this point in time,' but after that tonight, he's getting there pretty well now," Moore said. "He got strung out to about the three-eighths-of-a-mile there, and those weren't cheap fractions either, and the other guy sat right behind him and couldn't get it done. So, I was very impressed. He's a terrific animal. We love him."

The trip was anything but easy.

Sent off as the bettors' second choice in the field of 10, Beau Jangles (Bob McClure) was parked three-wide through the first turn with Tilthecowscomehome (Jody Jamieson) to his immediate left, Superchamp Hanover (Matt Kakaley) on the rail and favorite Frantic Hanover (Tim Tetrack) leading the field. When Superchamp Hanover made a break in the turn and exited to the safety lane, Tilthecowscomehome took his spot on the rail. Meanwhile, McClure drove on toward the front, but not without a tussle from Frantic Hanover, who stretched out Beau Jangles until mid-way up the backstretch. As Frantic Hanover sat patiently in the pocket, Al Papi (Yannick Gingras) loomed first over as the two Ron Burke-trained horses were poised to strike. When Al Papi faded in the stretch, Frantic Hanover pounced out of the pocket and looked to be sailing to victory, until Beau Jangles dug in and fought him off.

"[Beau Jangles] had to work really hard," McClure said. "He was wide in the first turn and he was stretched pretty hard... and you just never know where the bottom of these horses is, but halfway down the stretch, Timmy's horse came at him hard and, for a brief second, I thought he was going right by. But this colt doesn't give up. He just kept digging and kept digging and all the credit goes to him and Doc. Doc had him as ready as he could and this colt didn't let anybody down."

The 1:49.1 mile was a career best for Beau Jangles and tied the track record shared by A Rocknroll Dance, Tall Dark Stranger and Fallout.

Watch the race replay here.

In the winner's circle, Beau Jangles' majority owner Adam Ainspan, who picked out the colt as a yearling on behalf of an all-U.S. ownership team, said he was amazed by the crowd's reaction.

"I'm glad to see that Canadians seem to be really proud of him," said Ainspan, who shares Beau Jangles with Mary Beth Roberts under the Graham Grace Stables LLC of Clifton, VA, along with Anne Hooper and Jonathan Roberts under the Kiwi Stables LLC of La Plata, MD and the family of Ed, Garth and Philip Bolton, plus John Draper, of the Bolton Stables of Clermont, FL.

Nearby, Jonathan Roberts was flabbergasted.

"This is unbelievable," Jonathan said. "He just battled an unbelievable race. I'm nothing but impressed. They took every shot to try to put him away, but he was never going away. That was never in the cards."

A leading driver in Maryland, Jonathan said he would have preferred to have been in the sulky than watching from the tarmac.

"I'd have been less nervous sitting where Bobby [McClure] was than standing on the apron a nervous wreck," he said. "I don't even get nervous in the bike."

Garth Bolton, who owns Beau Jangles with his brother Philip and their father, Ed, said Beau Jangles proved, "he's just a great colt. He's special."

"We are lucky enough to be a part of [Moore's top 3-year-old pacer] Prince Hal Hanover and now this one is even more special. To be a little part of this guy is just so much fun."

Feet away, Beau Jangles' breeder, David Heffering, was fighting off tears. Heffering's Tara Hills Stud of Port Perry, ON not only owns Beau Jangles' dam, Mrs Major Hill, it also stands the sire, Cattlewash.

"This is what we live for," Heffering said. "Being number one in the Ontario Sires Stakes is great, but then doing this and having [owners that] just love this horse is incredible. [Ainspan] had the conviction that he loved this horse from the minute that he saw his video."

Heffering then thanked Cattlewash's U.S. owner Bill Donovan for bringing the horse to Ontario to stand stud. Cattlewash is already the leading pacing sire in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) program despite only having his first crop of Ontario 2-year-olds racing.

"I give a lot of credit to Bill Donovan for bringing the horse here to Ontario," Heffering said.

As for being the one to breed Beau Jangles, Heffering gave credit to his pedigree guru Bruce Brinkerhoff, who also made the trip to Mohawk from the States to see the Metro Pace.

"We bought two horses that year to breed to Cattlewash – one was Mrs Major Hill and the other was Sports Check, the dam of TH Check Me Out, who was in the She's A Great Lady," Brinkerhoff said.

Proving this moment was at least partly about karma pairing the right horses with the right people at the right time.

It was Moore that cautioned Ainspan that Beau Jangles might be too big as a yearling when the trainer first inspected the colt at last year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA. But Ainspan loved the athleticism the colt showed on his yearling video and asked Moore to buy the pacer then known as TH Bo Jangles. The final price was $65,000 U.S., which is now a bargain considering the colt – renamed after Ainspan's dog, Beau – has earned $972,125 (Cdn) with the OSS Super Final and Breeders Crown, all at Woodbine Mohawk Park, still to come this year, health willing.

"When you see something almost a year ago, you really never know, but to see your vision come true is rewarding," Ainspan said, adding that seeing Beau Jangles race in person is impressive.

Courtesy Adam Ainspan
Adam Ainspan with Beau the dog, the namesake for Beau Jangles.

"Just seeing his speed of foot and his stride length, I really expected him to win. You never know for sure, these other horses are great, but it's just a feeling of satisfaction to see it come full circle."

McClure called the victory, "amazing," and said he could feel Canada backing Beau.

"He's a champion horse and this is still the beginning," McClure said of the colt that already has four OSS Gold victories to his credit, as well as the Metro Pace and a division of the Nassagaweya.

"He's going to have a lot of greatness to come."

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Lasting Dream outlasts a blow-up in the Elegantimage

by Melissa Keith

Saturday night's (Sept. 20) Grade 1 Elegantimage final was won by open lengths by R Dutchess, in line to Tim Tetrick. Although she finished fourth as beaten 1-5 favorite in her Sept. 12 elimination at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the daughter of Father Patrick and The Ice Dutchess (ninth in the 2019 Elegantimage) went behind the gate as 4-5 public choice Sept. 20. Leaving from post 9, Tetrick took no chances, sending his filly after early leader Lasting Dream, who left aggressively from even further out for driver Louis-Philippe Roy.

This race would not be settled at the wire, but on the first turn, and later, by judges' decision.

Approaching the opening quarter, R Charm led the field, followed by a first-over Highlandstarburst. Behind them, along the pylons, Dexter Dunn and 5-2 second-favorite Global Heritage were conservatively positioned in fifth behind the battling relative longshots. R Dutchess suddenly bore in, causing Global Heritage to break stride. Dunn took her to the safety lane as Tetrick settled his filly single-file fourth, behind Lasting Dream, who had been advancing three-wide to the :27 quarter.

R Dutchess cleared leader Highlandstarburst at the :56.3 half, and held off a first-over challenge from the 74-1 Elegantimage supplement Zette Athena around the final turn. The favorite opened up down the stretch, as Lasting Dream made steady late progress along the inside path. R Dutchess (3, 1:52s; $380,416) was 2½ lengths ahead of her at the finish, winning in 1:52.4 for trainer Suzanne Kerwood, for whom she has raced since Aug. 30. The filly is shared by racing/breeding lessee M and L DE of Wilmington, DE, and owner Armitage Farm of Midway, KY.

Tetrick brought the unofficial winner back to the winner's circle.

"We were just playing chess," he told interviewer John Rallis, in reference to the first turn action. "Everybody was trying to find position, you know. Rubbin's racin' sometimes, but you know, [Louis-Philippe] Roy was trying to squeeze down, and it

"We were just playing chess [in the first turn]. Everybody was trying to find position, you know. Rubbin's racin' sometimes, but you know, [Louis-Philippe] Roy was trying to squeeze down, and it was a tight race... She [R Dutchess] raced a really good race... I made a good move down the backside. The 9-hole's a long way to go, and she raced really good. She held on well."

was a tight race... She [R Dutchess] raced a really good race... I made a good move down the backside. The 9-hole's a long way to go, and she raced really good. She held on well."

The drama was only beginning. A voice could be heard calling out to Tetrick in the winner's circle: "Timmy, they want you in the paddock."

An inquiry was posted soon afterward, concerning action near the quarter. R Dutchess had possibly interfered with Global Heritage, but had Lasting Dream created the issue by crowding R Dutchess? The Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO) officials (senior judge Dave Stewart, Jr., with associate judges Fred Brethour and Larry Hughes) reviewed video from the incident, looking at it from different perspectives, which were also shown to spectators.

Watching the video review from Mohawk's Quick Hitch Café with a caretaker from the Determination stable, what became evident was that seeing the moment from opposite visual perspectives yielded different logical perspectives on the origin of the interference. Watching the moment from the inside point of view seemed to show Lasting Dream slightly bearing in on R Dutchess, who in turn interfered with Global Heritage, the breaker. But looking at the same part of the race from the outside point of view showed Lasting Dream already ahead of the momentary contact between the favorite and Dunn's filly. Only one could be true.

Reminiscent of Michelangelo Antonioni's classic film Blow-Up (1966), zooming in on the action brought less clarity, not more, at least to the murmurings among spectators. (In that movie, a blurry photo may have accidentally captured the image of a crime being committed; an enlarged version of the photo is even more inconclusive.) The video screen, divided into quarters, showed opposing views of the contested moment in the Elegance, including head-on and from behind. Suspense mounted as the officials repeated the footage under review, over and over, for minutes on end.

The judges were able to get greater detail from interviewing the drivers involved. Their official report revealed that Dunn “stated that he received pressure from outside horses, he didn't know who was at fault, but it caused his horse to be crowded and make a break,” while “Roy stated he maintained his path on the outside, took what room was given to him and didn't crowd the No. 9 [R Dutchess],” and Tetrick “stated he got into No. 2 [Global Heritage], but felt he was pressured from the No. 10 [Lasting Dream] on his outside.”

The judges also explained the video footage that informed their decision.

“The panel used the pan and front tower shots, which showed that No. 9 [R Dutchess] is running in on the turn and comes down to No. 2 [Global Heritage], causing that horse to make a break. No. 10 [Lasting Dream] appears to remain in the same path on the outside and the video does not support her applying pressure to No. 9.”

In the end, R Dutchess came down. She was first-placed-11th, behind Global Heritage, who ended up 10th after the break. Lasting Dream was second-placed-first, ahead of a dead heat for show between Highlandstarburst (driven by Yannick Gingras) and Stormont Beautiful (driven by Tyler Borth). Both show finishers were placed second.

The 10-1 Elegance winner Lasting Dream (3, 1:51.3f; $546,950) is a homebred daughter of Cantab Hall—Dream Together, owned by Determination of Montreal, QC, and trained by Luc Blais. Dream Together (4, 1:51.3m; $801,782) finished second to Ariana G in the 2017 Elegance final for Blais, Determination, and driver Dan Dube. Lasting Dream is her only foal to race, from three live offspring. Dream Together's latest foal is Dreamtrade, a 2024 filly by Forbidden Trade.

To quote the photographer from Blow-Up, “Nothing like a little disaster for sorting things out.”

As of publication deadline, there has been no appeal announced regarding the ruling and subsequent placings in the $375,000 (Can.) Elegance final.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Howdy Mate unites global friendship

by Adam Hamilton

A chance meeting on a private jet in the hours after the 2022 Hambletonian helped shape one of harness racing's most global and unlikely ownership groups.

Down Under's top harness racing media presenter Brittany Graham, who also boasts over 300 wins as a driver, snapped up an offer to fly from New Jersey to Kentucky that night.

The jet was owned by Michelle Crawford, of the Leviathan Crawford Farms, and another passenger was leading trainer Nancy Takter.

But expat Aussie Todd McCarthy, a good friend of Graham, hogged the limelight, having won his first Hambletonian that day with Cool Papa Bell.

Maybe it was the inspiration for Takter to then win it herself the next two years with Tactical Approach (2023) and Karl (2024). But wait, there's more... Karl was bred and part-owned by the Crawfords.

Graham was humbly surrounded by harness racing royalty, but they all clicked.

Takter and Graham were already buddies, having met through a video interview on Australian TV during the pandemic.

"One of the unexpected gifts from the pandemic was my friendship with Brittany," Takter said. "We met through that interview and immediately hit it off and she later came to the U.S. to visit, tour the sales and look at yearlings.

"From there, Brittany began sending me Australian sales catalogs and asking my thoughts on various horses."

Graham said: "We'd spoken about racing one together, but at first was leaning on Nancy's amazing knowledge and experience with trotters to help me find one."

In the midst of a cold and miserable winter in the U.S., Takter said she had "nothing better to do" than dive into the catalogs.

"Although I wasn't overly familiar with Elite Stride [first season sire], I liked that he was a son of Muscle Hill, a sire I've always admired, and the colt had a decent maternal line, especially with Kadabra in it," Takter said. "I'd previously enjoyed success with Sorella, a Muscle Hill out of a Kadabra mare.

“Nancy named [Howdy Mate]. She thinks that’s how we all talk down here.”

~ Brittany Graham

“Brittany walked the sale grounds, sent me videos, and FaceTimed until we agreed to buy the colt.”

Elite Stride was fully U.S.-bred, being by Muscle Hill and out of the talented U.S. mare Real Babe. He was a brilliant young trotter with just 14 starts netting nine wins, three seconds, and a third.

“We took a bit of a risk with a first season sire, but as a result he didn’t cost much ($A25,000),” Graham said. “Nancy said she’d race him with me, and then Michelle, who I’d met through Nancy and is good friends with her, said she’d take a share, too.”

Fittingly, the colt was named Howdy Mate.

“Nancy named him,” Graham said with a laugh. “She thinks that’s how we all talk down here.”

Takter said: “It was a perfect nod to both our countries’ cultures.”

The initial plan was for Graham to train Howdy Mate with her father, accomplished trainer Darrel, who has trained 2,800 winners and driven almost 2,200 winners.

“We took him back to Queensland [where Brittany lived at the time], and dad broke him in; he’s never broken-in a trotter before,” Brittany said. “Nancy was adamant he went home with us to break in. She thinks it’s such an important part of a horse’s success.”

Early this year, Brittany jumped at an opportunity to further her career with a move to the passionately strong harness racing heartland of New Zealand as its “face” of harness racing through the Trackside TV channels.

It sparked D-Day on Howdy Mate’s career.

And the timing meant Takter was actually holidaying Down Under in New Zealand and Australia.

“Nancy came down for the big Ladbrokes Ultimate Driver Championship at Albion Park [in Brisbane] in February, but came early so she could have a couple of weeks with me in New Zealand going to the races, some farms, and the yearling sales, too,” Brittany said.

It gave Takter the chance to drive Howdy Mate.

“Right away I could feel his natural ability and, most importantly, his speed – something you simply cannot teach,” Takter said.

While in Brisbane, a chat between Brittany, Takter, Jess Tubbs and her late husband, the great Greg Sugars, led to Howdy Mate moving to Myrniong where Tubbs and Sugars trained, an hour outside Melbourne.

Takter had met Tubbs a few weeks earlier in New Zealand.

It added a fourth female power player in Tubbs to the mix.

“Jess and I have become great friends, we talk multiple times a day and it’s refreshing to connect with another female trainer who truly understands this business,” Takter said.

But it was Sugars, who tragically died in his sleep at the age of just 40 on April 26, who first alerted Brittany and Takter to Howdy Mate’s potential.

“To be honest, we weren’t sure about him when dad broke him in and did the early work with him, but I vividly recall getting that video from Greg saying, ‘Hey, I think he goes well, this horse,’” Brittany said.

A little like his sire, Howdy Mate was a real handful early and his manners at the races reflected that.

Brittany Graham, Jess Tubbs and Nancy Takter.

He did plenty wrong at his first three starts and his behavior around the stables and track was a nightmare for Tubbs.

"Jess wanted him gelded, but I remember Nancy saying, 'Michelle and I don't race geldings,' and that sort of shut me down," Brittany said with a laugh. "I get it, it's a different world in the States and a good colt can be so valuable, but we just don't have that domestic market down here.

"In the end, Jess said he had to be gelded or she wasn't sure if he had a racing future; I just let her work that out with Nancy."

The result, a first-up win in the $20,000 Gavin Lang 2YO Trotting Classic at Bendigo at Howdy Mate's first race after being gelded.

"It certainly turned him around," Tubbs said.

Most recently, Howdy Mate delivered on the potential the late Sugars saw, Tubbs felt was there and driver James Herbertson had hinted at, when he brilliantly won the $75,000 Nutrien Equine Sales Classic final at Melton on Sept. 13.

"What a thrill," Brittany said. "I was on FaceTime to Jess after the race, she was FaceTiming Nancy in the States... We were all so excited for 'MJ' to win a big race like that, especially when everyone knows he's still really just doing it on raw ability.

"Herbie [Herbertson] said he wanted to switch-off when he hit the front and didn't know what to do, or he'd have won by further and even more impressively."

"[Training Howdy Mate on my visit to New Zealand], right away I could feel his natural ability and, most importantly, his speed – something you simply cannot teach."

~ Nancy Takter

Takter, with some help from Crawford, can also claim Howdy Mate's stable name "MJ".

"Nancy's son, Marcus, Jr., is called MJ and Michelle's son is MJ, too. So that just made sense," Brittany said.

The penny may have dropped at just the right time for Howdy Mate.

The Nutrien final win could be just the first of a few big wins, if he keeps it all together and keeps improving.

"He's paid-up for everything, so there's the Vicbred series next, then the Redwood, which is a standing start, and then the Breeders Crown, too," Brittany said. "They're all just options at the moment, we leave all the planning to Jess."

Tubbs thinks the best is still ahead of Howdy Mate.

"It seems like he's got a bit of bottom to him," she said. "He's handling the work a lot better this time in [since being gelded] and we know he's got the speed.

"If he can get the manners down pat and be more reliable, it will stand him in good stead going ahead.

"It's been an incredibly hard year for me and to win that race [Nutrien final] with Herbie, who has been such a great supporter, in the bike and for Nancy, Britt, and Michelle really does mean a lot.

"Winning good races with great people is what it's all about and hopefully there's more to come with this guy."

Takter agreed.

"Jess has done an exceptional job developing 'MJ' into the racehorse he is today," she said. "I'm excited to see what's ahead for Howdy Mate and grateful for the friendships, lessons, and experiences that have come from this international adventure."

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

An incredible trend continues

by Bob Heyden

When Louprint hit the wire capturing the 80th Jug it became readily apparent that an amazing trend is still in play. Let's call it "Take Five" or maybe "Repeat After Me (Every Half Decade)."

You see, every five years, when the year ends in a "0" or "5" it's a 3-year-old male pacer stealing the show, and it's gone on for now 45 years.

Let's take a closer look at this phenomenon.

1980: Niatross was voted HOY (238-1) over French Chef. The Triple Crown champ was also unanimously voted 3-Year-Old Male Pacer of the Year.

1985: Nihilator, a son from Niatross' first crop, was the Little Brown Jug winner and was voted HOY (231-53) over On The Road Again; oddly, the exact same tally as Pacer of the Year.

1990: Beach Towel won the Jug and was the first single season $2 million earner. He was voted HOY (273-13) over No Sex Please and Pacer of the Year (275-13) over Miss Easy.

1995: Jenna's Beach Boy was Pacer of the Year, and won his second of three straight Breeders Crowns; to this day the only pacer ever to do so. In HOY balloting he came close to CR Kay Suzie (119.5 to 81.5).

2000: Gallo Blue Chip was voted HOY (152-40) over two-time defending HOY Moni Maker and Pacer of the Year (187-14) over Western Ideal.

2005: Rocknroll Hanover was voted HOY (124-32) over Mr Muscleman and Pacer of the Year (176-9) over Jereme's Jet.

2010: Rock N Roll Heaven was voted HOY (123-2) and Pacer of the Year (127-2). He was from the first crop of sophomore HOY Rocknroll Hanover.

2015: Wiggle It Jiggle It was a decisive winner for HOY (130-3) over Pinkman. His 26 22-3-0, $2,181,995 made him the sport's last $2 million single season earner.

2020: Tall Dark Stranger was voted HOY (89-29) over Party Girl Hill and an easy winner as Pacer of the Year.

2025: Louprint appears headed towards a similar upcoming awards season to keep alive this stunning display of sophomore pacing dominance.

HAPPY 65TH BIRTHDAY JIMMY TAKTER

On Sept. 29, 1960 in Sweden, a little fella an ocean away entered the world and 65 years later, coming up on seven years of retirement, Jimmy Takter's name and face are still known to all.

Let's take a brief look back at his stunning career.

1. His first driving victory in North America came with Baltic Speed in a NJSS race in 1983 at age 22 while working for the Nordins.
2. Only Takter has had a HOY in both the 20th and 21st centuries: both Malabar Man (1997) and Moni Maker (1998-99), and Always B Miki (2016).
3. The last two trainers to win the Hambletonian back-to-back are both named Takter: Jimmy (2014-15) and his daughter Nancy (2023-24).
4. Jimmy debuted successfully in the Jug in 2006 with Mr Feelgood.
5. Jimmy is the only trainer to win four Hambletonians with four different drivers: Mal Burroughs, Ron Pierce, himself, and Brian Sears.
6. Nobody has won more money in the Hambletonian than Jimmy.
7. Nobody has won more Breeders Crowns than Jimmy (34).
8. Nobody in a Meadowlands Hambletonian not named Jimmy Takter has gone 1-2 in the same Hambletonian twice: Malabar Man and Take Chances (1997) and Trixton and Nuncio (2014).
9. Jimmy is the only trainer ever to win six Breeders Crowns in one year (2015).
10. Jimmy's Shake It Cerry went on to bank better than $2.7 million for her career.
11. Jimmy trained both a Hambletonian Oaks winner as well as a Hambletonian winner driven by amateur Mal Burroughs: Gleam (1994 Oaks) and Malabar Man (1997 Hambletonian).
12. Jimmy conditioned the only female pacing filly to win the Dan Patch at 2, 3, and 4: Pure Country.

40 YEARS SINCE GLEN GARNSEY'S PASSING

The harness racing community mourned his passing on Sept. 27, 1985, leaving the sale in Lexington in a car accident. A veteran of the Korean War, at 20, he opened a public stable in 1963. He headed Castleton Farm in late 1969, and was the head man for the top shelf outfit the K.D. Owen Stable (1968). He and his father Garland were the first pair to each drive 1,000 winners.

His 1:50.4 time trial with Fan Hanover was two full seconds better than the pacing female mark by Tender Loving Care. He drove No Nukes as a 3-year-old in 1982, and in 1983 marked his well-deserved Hall of Fame induction. He won more than $11.1 million and 2,058 races. He twice had a sophomore pacer as HOY: Abercrombie (1978) and Fan Hanover (1981). He won three of the first four Hambletonian Oaks and is the only one to win the Jug with a filly (Fan Hanover in 1981).

40 years later his memory lives on, because 52 years was just not enough.

Top contenders chase spots in the European Derby final

by Thomas Hedlund

Three eliminations will set the stage for the $480,000 European Derby final – two in Sweden on Saturday (Sept. 27) and one in France on Friday (Sept. 26). The 12-horse final will be contested at Solvalla on Oct. 11, where Europe's best 4-year-old will be crowned.

Eight horses will line up at Vincennes on Friday in a strong field going 2,100 meters behind the gate. Headliners include Lovino Bello (Village Mystic) and Frank Gio (Face Time Bourbon).

In Sweden, two eliminations with eight starters each are on the menu, and those fields are equally competitive. Bullet The Bluesky (Readly Express), First Of Mind (Face Time Bourbon), Far Wise As (Face Time Bourbon), Dream Mine (Maharajah), and La Yuca (Face Time Bourbon) bring the top credentials, but both divisions look wide-open and hard to predict.

FUNNY GIO SETS WORLD RECORD IN BOLOGNA

Free Time Jepson, this year's King's Trophy winner, had no answer for Funny Gio in Sunday's (Sept. 21) $181,000 Gran Premio Continentale on the half-mile track in Bologna – and maybe it was no surprise.

Funny Gio delivered a world-record performance.

The 4-year-old daughter of Face Time Bourbon seized command in the Group 1 event, while stablemate Free Time Jepson was parked first-over. In the lane, Funny Gio kicked clear effortlessly, and despite coasting late, she demolished the previous world record for 4-year-old mares by a half-second, winning in a mile rate of 1:54.1 for 1¼ miles. Remarkably, she did it under wraps. For context, M-M's Dream (Swan For All) set the North American mark for the division two years ago at Yonkers Raceway in 1:54.3.

Far West Bi (Muscle Hill), trained by Holger Ehler and driven by Roberto Vecchione, closed well from second-over to be second. Free Time Jepson (Face Time Bourbon) held third.

The $78,000 Gran Premio Continentale Filly for 4-year-old mares saw Follia d'Esi (Ringostarr Treb) finish strongest. Alessandro Gocciadoro sent Fantastic Gio to the front turning for home, but Marco Stefani launched Follia d'Esi with a furious rally to prevail in 1:54.4 for the mile.

Fantastic Gio (Face Time Bourbon) was second in 1:55, while Fenice del Ronco (Maharajah) took third in 1:55.3 after a pocket trip.

Follia d'Esi continues to build an impressive résumé. Last season she captured the Oaks del Trotto ($298,000), and this year she's already added victories in the $78,000 Gran Premio Regione Campania and $78,000 Gran Premio Antonio Carena.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Ahle triples in freshman Maryland Sire Stakes

by Rosecroft Raceway

Driver Johnathan Ahle captured three of the six $10,000 first-round Maryland Sire Stakes preliminary events for 2-year-olds on Monday (Sept. 22) at Rosecroft Raceway.

Ahle, who led all drivers with five wins on the entire program, capped his stakes hat trick with Booger Bear, a 1:57.3 winner in the lone section for male trotters. The Yall Beneath Me—Get Rich Quick gelding, who competes as a homebred for owner/trainer Richard Hans, rated fractions of :29.1, :59.3, and 1:29 before accelerating through the final turn to put 10¼ lengths on runner-up Flyin Wizard. Ahle and Hans also teamed up with And Just Like That, a 5¼-length, 1:58.2 winner in the filly trot.

Ahle's other stakes win came aboard That'sloveto, who took the first filly pacing division in 1:57.3 for owner/trainer/breeder Dominik Miga.

I Say That Too was the faster of the victorious pacing fillies, drawing 14 lengths clear of More Than Better to post a 1:56.3 win. Corey Braden owns and drove the Rusty's For Real—Who Says That filly, whom Stacey McLenaghan trains.

Better Gon took speed honors by way of his four-length, 1:55.4 win over Dapper Time in the first 2-year-old male pacing division. Russell Foster drove the More The Better N—Graygon gelding for trainer Adrian Wisher, Jr. and owner Frederick Weitz, Jr. Inca Social rallied to a 1:59 win the other male pacing split, with Roger Plante, Jr. aboard for owner/trainer Howard Birney.

When live racing returns to Rosecroft on Thursday (Sept. 25), there will be a $1,504.12 carryover in the Jackpot Hi-5, offered in race 10. First post for the 13-race card is scheduled for 7:15 p.m. For more information and free handicapping resources, visit www.rosecroft.com.

Kalispel (Billy Carter) was best in Saturday's $60,000 Virginia Sire Stake 2-Year-Old Colt Trot.

Virginia SIRE STAKES REPORT

Kalispel, KNL Neely Girl, capture Virginia Sire Stake trotting preps at Shenandoah Downs

by Darrell Wood / Shenandoah Downs

Bob McKim's Kalispel and Clifton Green's KNL Neely Girl captured respective colt and filly trotting divisions in the first Virginia Sire Stakes races ever held at Shenandoah Downs this weekend.

On Saturday (Sept. 20), McKim's trotter wired the eight-horse field in 2:02.2 and crossed six lengths the best in 2:02.2. After cutting initial panels of :30.2, 1:02.1, and 1:33, the Gregory Pecs gelding took a 2½ length lead into the top of the stretch and powered home to beat Scott Warnick's runner-up Financialymbarased by a healthy margin. Kalispel is owned by McKim and is now two-for-three in his young career. Tracy Bradshaw's Kades Nay took third. The entire field will return this Saturday (Sept. 27) to compete in the $60,000 final.

In the $6,000 filly division, reinsman Jesse Leinbach scored his first career driving win by directing KNL Neely Girl to a wire-to-wire triumph in 2:06.3. The freshman daughter of Snow King authored quarter stanzas of :31.1, 1:03, and 1:34.4 before crossing the wire 1¼ lengths ahead of second place finisher Talehia. The upset winner, who is owned by JML Racing of New Holland, PA, was sent off at odds of 24-1 and paid $51.20 for the win. Tremaine Harding owns the runner-up. Rock Vinci's Giddy Up Yaya Girl was third.

Sunday's (Sept. 21) Sire Stake divisional pacing events were won by Leonard Jones' Morton J and Rock Vinci's Treasuremealways. The former went wire-to-wire in a two-horse field, crossing in 2:08.4 while beating Scott Warnick's I Be Haulin Fast. The winner, a Yankee Royalty gelding, was driven by Declan Donoway.

The latter division, for fillies, saw the freshman daughter of Strong Player come from behind as the field of four turned for home. Scott Warnick's Dancing Joyce cut early fractions of :29.2, :59.2, and 1:30.4 but surrendered the front end as William Carter led Treasuremealways alongside then moved forward at the head of the stretch. The filly, owned by Susan Hager of Keysville, finished in 2:02.1. Runner-up May I Help You (Leon Harris) finished 1¾ lengths behind while Dancing Joyce took third.

To be eligible for the Sire Stakes, horses must have been sired by a stallion that was registered with the Virginia Harness Horse Association and stood in the Commonwealth of Virginia during the breeding year. The program began in the 2022 breeding season and resulting foal crop of 2023 — which are now 2-year-olds — competed for $6,000 purses this weekend and $60,000 purses next weekend.

Atlantic SIRE STAKES REPORT

by Nicholas Oakes for Red Shores

Windemere Skye continued to brush off her rivals as the Atlantic Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacers was front and center Sunday (Sept. 21) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

Drawing post 8 in her $20,020 A-division for 2-year-old pacing fillies, Windemere Skye ($2.40) moved smartly to the lead past the quarter and widened it with every stride to a 1:56.3 score for driver Marc Campbell and trainer Earl Watts, stopping the clock with a :28.2 closer to keep her season spotless at eight-for-eight. Owned by Windemere Farms of Springvale and Matt Burke of Stratford, the daughter of Somewhere Fancy was much the best over Bakers Dozen (driven by Paul Langille) and Elm Grove Uncannie (Ken Murphy).

The companion $20,020 filly split in race 13 went to Beach Jewels ($4.60), who cut it all out as part of a four-bagger for driver Gilles Barrieau, who was in the bike for trainer Kevin MacLean in 1:58.2. The Arthur Blue Chip filly, owned by Reg MacPherson of Stratford, turned back Going For Blood (Kenny Arsenault) and Exhilarating (Darryl MacLean).

The $6,000 B-division tilts for fillies went to Isle Mach Da Money ($2.20) in race 2 for trainer/driver Barrieau, as well as Howmac Fancy ($5.10) in race 6 delivering in 1:59.4 for driver Paul Langille and trainer Kyle Williams.

The $17,740 2-year-old colts A-divisions were equally sharp.

Zero Two Sixty ($2.50) prevailed in race 7 for his third straight, with a crisp 1:57.1 answer for Barrieau and trainer Sifroi Melanson, carrying the Ultimate Stable's colors to victory over Sporty Anthony (Murphy) and Tiziano (Clare MacDonald).

Earlier in race 4 A-division action, Woodmere Kobe ($8.20) gamely surged late to nail Fire And Blood (Mike Downey) on the line in 2:00 for trainer/driver Kenny Arsenault and owners Peter Smith and Gerald Morrissey, with Darbies Fancy (Adam Merner) completing the triactor.

In B-division colt action, St Patricks Morn ($4.70) was all class in 1:59.4 for driver Ken Murphy and trainer Alan MacDonald in race 5, Streakantonio ($2.20) controlled and closed the deal in 1:58 for Barrieau and trainer Ron Matheson in race 8, and Real Fancy Pants ($10.20) fronted them all in 2:02.2 for Jason Hughes and trainer Ashley Gamester in race 11.

SOA of New York and MGM Yonkers announce contract agreement

The Standardbred Owners Association of New York (SOANY) and MGM Yonkers, Inc. (MGM Yonkers), owner and operator of Empire City Casino and Yonkers Raceway, are pleased to announce that they have reached an agreement on a new contract which will govern racing at the historic Yonkers Raceway oval through Dec. 31, 2028.

In addition to nightly racing and millions in purses waiting to be won annually, harness racing fans will enjoy annual staples such as the prestigious Blue Chip Matchmaker Series and MGM Borgata Pacing Series in the spring, the MGM Yonkers Trot and MGM Grand Messenger in the summer and the MGM Yonkers International Trot in the Fall.

“Yonkers Raceway is the premier harness track in the State of New York and has the highest overnight purses of any track in the United States,” said SOANY president Joe Faraldo. “With this new deal in place, racing opportunities for our horsemen are preserved and will continue at the highest levels in North America for the next three years during the contract. Moreover, the contractual protections contained in the contract, together with important provisions enacted in state law governing racing obligations and racing revenues, ensure the bright future and continued vitality of the harness racing industry in New York during and, indeed, long beyond the term of the contract.”

Peter Venaglia, first vice-president of the SOANY and chairman of the board of trustees of the SOANY said, “The contract contains important protections for the horsemen in the event MGM is awarded a casino license this December and also provides for the funding of the health Insurance and retirement benefits uniquely provided by the SOANY to our eligible grooms, as well as to qualified trainers and drivers, all of whom are collectively responsible for making racing at Yonkers possible.”

Louis Theros, president of MGM Northeast Group said, “Since acquiring Empire City and Yonkers Raceway in 2019, MGM Resorts has made significant investments to upgrade Yonkers Raceway and secure its future as one of the nation’s premier harness tracks. Yonkers Raceway is not only the crown jewel of harness racing in New York, it is a destination that attracts drivers and owners from across the Northeast to compete for the richest purses in the sport. This new agreement ensures the 126-year-old, iconic track will continue to thrive.”

With significant financial support from MGM Resorts, Yonkers Raceway has undergone more than $1 million in upgrades in recent years. These upgrades include resurfacing the track with more than 6,000 tons of recycled track material, an enhanced horse paddock, installing state-of-the-art LED lighting, and a new multiple display LED infield tote board to provide fans with even greater race-day experiences.

New tax legislation favorably impacts owners, breeders

Peter Weisberg has been involved in harness racing since working as a groom at Monticello Raceway as a teenager in the late 1970s and as a groom/assistant trainer for Mark Loewe in the 1980s (caretaker of 1988 Little Brown Jug runner-up Threefold). Now his participation is as an owner and an accountant for many of the sport’s top trainers and owners.

Weisberg, a CPA/CFP who races as PCW Racing LLC and counts 2024 Dan Patch Award-winning trotter Maryland and promising 2-year-old trotter Zephyr Kemp among the horses he co-owns, said legislation passed this year by Congress as part of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA) contains key provisions that favorably impact horse owners, particularly those involved in breeding and racing.

He offered these thoughts regarding the legislation:

1. Bonus Depreciation

One of the most powerful provisions of OBBBA is the permanent extension of 100 per cent bonus depreciation for qualifying assets – capital expenditures such as racehorses, breeding stock, barns, equipment, and related facilities. Under the prior Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA), bonus depreciation was phasing out (40 per cent in 2025, 20 per cent in 2026, and gone by 2027). Thanks to OBBBA, investors in racehorses can now write off the full purchase cost immediately, retroactive to Jan. 20, 2025.

2. Net Operating Loss Carryover

The Bill also restored the net operating loss carryover allowing excess business losses to carryforward as a net operating loss.

The net operating loss carryover can be applied against up to 80 per cent of future taxable income each year and carries forward indefinitely until fully utilized.

3. Restored and Enhanced Business Interest Deduction

OBBBA restores a favorable method of calculating the business interest deduction by adding back depreciation rather than subtracting it. This helps equine businesses carry costs more efficiently when using debt financing and generally increase the amount of deductible interest expense. This is important for businesses that rely on debt financing for the high cost of capital investments.

Potential Trade-off: Impact on Betting

There's a notable downside: starting in 2026, OBBBA limits the ability of bettors (including horseplayers) to deduct gambling losses — allowing only 90 per cent of losses to be deductible (against winnings), down from 100 per cent. This change may reduce betting activity, which could indirectly affect purse sizes and demand for horses. The National Thoroughbred Racing Association has expressed that “work remains to offset some losses by horseplayers,” and they plan to pursue legislative fixes.

Overall, this is a huge win for standardbred and thoroughbred owners and breeders and paves the way for reinvestment, modernization, and sustained growth across breeding, racing, and farm operations. This was reflected in the recent Saratoga thoroughbred sale, which was up 22.6 per cent from the previous record-setting year.

Red Mile Grand Circuit meet opens Thursday

The annual fortnight of world-class harness racing at The Red Mile commences this Thursday (Sept. 25) with the opening day of the Grand Circuit meeting featuring seven divisions of freshmen slated to compete in Bluegrass action on the 13-race card.

Stakes competition gets underway in the second half of the early daily double with the first of four divisions of the $330,000 Bluegrass 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot, the opening division of which is sponsored by the Sig Sauer Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms. Noel Daley, the 2024 Dan Patch Trainer of the Year, sends out 2-1 morning line chalk Minoan, as the Bar Hopping colt, out of the SJ's Caviar mare Regal Woman, looks to add to his six-figure account off a fourth-place finish in a Kindergarten preliminary at The Meadowlands. Todd McCarthy pilots the colt from post 2, just outside of Nancy Takter's Greenshoe pupil Onassis as he returns to Lexington off a runner-up finish in the $100,000 Kentucky Commonwealth final on Sept. 15. Yannick Gingras has the driving assignment on Onassis.

The first of three divisions for the $328,000 Bluegrass 2-Year-Old Filly Pace immediately follows in the afternoon's third race, which is sponsored by Brittany Farms. Big Weekend dips from a seventh-place finish in the $400,000 Kentucky Championship Series final into potentially lighter waters as the 2-1 favorite for trainer Travis Alexander. Tim Tetrick drives the Captaintreacherous—Tica Hanover filly from post 3, next door to trainer/driver Joe Bongiorno's precocious Papi Rob Hanover prospect Amira Hanover. Erv Miller also sends his Tall Dark Stranger filly Kissin In The Dark, out of the stakes-winning mare Yagonnakissmeornot, from post 6 in rein to David Miller following a third-place rally at odds of 101-1 in the $100,000 Kentucky Commonwealth final.

Bargain yearling Topville Lucky looks to add to her nearly unblemished record in the second Bluegrass division for pacing fillies, carded as race 6 and sponsored by the Beach Glass Syndicate and Winbak Farm. The $27,000 yearling purchase for the tandem of Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman, and trainer Andrew Harris has found the winner's circle in all but one of her five starts, with her lone loss coming as a result of a break in stride. Dexter Dunn retains the drive after guiding the Sweet Lou—Warrawee Winx filly to a 1:50.4 score in the $400,000 Kentucky Championship Series final. She starts from post 1 as the 3-5 morning line favorite in an eight-horse field that also features Beautiful Memory, a Perfect Sting filly out of the 2019 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Filly Pace champion Reflect With Me. Scott Zeron drives that rival for trainer Tony Alagna out of post 4.

Colts and geldings return to the track in the next race for the second division of the Bluegrass freshman male trot, where trainer Ake Svanstedt sends an eye-catching pair in the race sponsored by Al Libfeld Equine. Svanstedt will pilot Mr Penner, a gelding by his former pupil and 2021 Hambletonian champion Captain Corey out of the Muscle Hill mare Wet My Whistle, from post 5 as the 3-1 second choice on the morning line. He will leave just outside of Nordic Dancer S, a full pacing-blooded brother to this year's Hambletonian winner Nordic Catcher S. Dunn pilots the Six Pack colt out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare That Woman Hanover as he looks for just the second win of his career. Meanwhile morning line favorite Mr Big Spender, a colt by Captain Corey—Reilly K, will have to overcome post 8 in the eight-horse field for trainer Norm Parker and driver Mike Wilder after the colt finished third in the $368,950 Peter Haughton Memorial to this season's Mohawk Million winner Apex.

Pacing fillies wrap their stakes action for the afternoon in race 9, which is also sponsored by the Beach Glass Syndicate and Winbak Farm. Ron Burke-trainee Barbuda Belle, by Captaintreacherous out of the stakes-winning mare Uffizi Hanover, starts from post 8 as the 5-2 morning line choice after she crushed with a 1:50 lifetime-best effort to win the $100,000 Kentucky Commonwealth final at odds of 15-1. Gingras stays in the bike on the hardened filly making her ninth start of the campaign. Hope Hill, runner-up in that Kentucky Commonwealth final, also competes in this division two slots inside for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. and driver Dunn. The Papi Rob Hanover—Ruth Hill filly looks to add to her resume which has yet to see her miss the board from six starts.

Kentuckiana Farms sponsors the penultimate division of the Bluegrass male trot, which draws Kentucky Championship Series runner-up It Could Be Worse for trainer Linda Toscano. The colt by Captain Corey—Emiliciousboomboom gave chase for a second-place finish in the $400,000 final to Endurance, who shipped to Canada following that win and nearly snagged victory against Apex in the Mohawk Million. Zeron pilots It Could Be Worse as the 9-5 morning line chalk from post 2.

Zephyr Kemp fronts the closing division of Bluegrass action, which is sponsored by the Volume Eight Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms, on the Thursday card as the 2-1 chalk out of post 3 for trainer Marcus Melander. The Calgary Games—Southwind Adele colt looks for amends off a fourth-place effort as the even-money choice in the Kentucky Commonwealth final two weeks ago. Dunn stays in the bike in the seven-horse field that also attracts Commonwealth third-place finisher Requiem from post 5 for trainer Matthew Burkholder and driver David Miller as well as Impossible Bi from the pylon post off a fifth-place finish in the Kentucky Championship Series final for trainer Erv Miller. Zeron picks up the drive on Impossible Bi.

The 13-race card to open the Grand Circuit meet at The Red Mile begins at 1 p.m. (EDT). The Thursday card also features a $7,500 guarantee on the Early Pick 4, which covers races 6-9. Every Pick 4 and the 50-cent Pick 5, which begins in race 3, at The Red Mile features a low takeout of 12 per cent.

Meadowlands stallion nomination list updated

The Meadowlands would like to remind potential buyers at the upcoming commercial yearling sales of the new Stallion Early Closer Participation program for foals of 2024.

This stallion payment provides their foals of 2024 the opportunity to gain the option of nominating to Meadowlands early closers for the life of the horse by making the one-time $400 Meadowlands Early Closer Participation payment. Nomination and sustaining payments for Meadowlands 2026 early closers on the foals of 2024 will not begin until March 15, 2026.

The most up to date list of stallions whose 2024 foals are eligible to nominated to Meadowlands 2026 early closing events and other pertinent information may be found on The Meadowlands website.

Two stallions have been added to the original list in response to inquiries by horsepersons who bred to them in 2023 and brought to our attention that these horses were not included. Cantab Hall, despite his January 2023 death, was bred to a few mares in both 2023 and 2024 via frozen semen. Those foals will be considered eligible. Alrajah One IT bred a short book in New Jersey while he was being trained back to race then was shipped to Italy and will be considered a foreign stallion thus his 2024 foals will be considered eligible.

The list of foreign stallions exempt from the Stallion Early Closer Participation payment with yearlings consigned to the upcoming sales have been added to the list of stallions whose progeny are eligible for nomination to Meadowlands on the web.

As promised, 50 per cent of the estimated revenue generated by both the stallion and the Feb. 15 payments on the foals of 2024 will be used to increase the money added to Meadowlands marquee stakes/early closers listed below. These are the races that enhance the career of any horse able to win and are undeniably important as "stallion makers" on the resume of horses that potentially have a future in the breeding shed.
