What will the season's final act bring?

Can T C I become the richest 2-year-old in the sport?

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

If a harness racing season was broken into three separate acts, the first would be all that occurs at the beginning of the calendar year through the first week in August. Most of the top stakes performers from the prior year will have been racing for a couple of months by that point, and the new 2-year-old crop is just a month into getting started. Between that first act concluding with Hambletonian Day, and a near two month-long second act of weekly rapid-fire stakes which would have ended last weekend at Woodbine Mohawk with their stakes laden card featuring 2-year-olds signature events, how will the season's third and final act close out the year?

Starting with how last week ended, T C I's break-and-recovered win in the Mohawk Million pushed his 2-year-old bankroll to $1,047,470, according to United States Trotting Association statistics. In last week's column, I referred to T C I as nearly unbeatable, and last week's mile may have proved that he simply is not beatable, at least with one exception, noted coming up. The emerging question for him over the next month may be if he can win enough to become the richest 2-year-old in the sport.

Becoming the richest 2-year-old trotter is well within reach. T C I is already second in that department to only Snow White and trails her by just over $200,000. Communicating through email with co-owner Mark Weaver, it was suggested that the colt had already raced a lot, and that the most likely remaining targets would be to race T C I just the second week in Lexington (International Stallion Series) and the Breeders Crown final. With a $700,000 guaranteed purse in the Breeders Crown, the winner's share from that race would easily ascend him to the top trotting spot.

T C I (David Miller) winning the Mohawk Million last Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

It's slightly more difficult on the pacing side but still highly possible. There'd be 11 pacers he'd have to leap over, the top one being Redskin, who amassed $1,407,263 in earnings back in 1986 (in a whopping by today's standards, 22 starts).

T C I is not racing this week but assuming he does race in — and win or maybe even finish second in his International Stallion Series race — plus wins the Breeders Crown final, that should be enough to push past as the highest earning freshman horse ever.

There is one massive caveat in all of this, and that is a horse by the name of Karl. Unbeaten, untouched and equally as impressive in his career, he and T C I have yet to clash. They both have the appearance of racing in next week's International Stallion Series, though it's possible they could land in different divisions. Even if they avoided each other there, they'd meet for sure in the Breeders Crown final notwithstanding unforeseen circumstances, which would almost certainly determine the division.

On a side note, T C I would be unbeaten if not for a loss in his first career start, and there's a parallel there between him and the all-time great Muscle Hill, who after losing the first start of his career through no real fault of his own, just like T C I, never lost again over his final 20.

In the other 2-year-old divisions, there will be ample opportunities between Red Mile and Hoosier in October, to Dover and The Meadowlands in November where still-unbeaten horses will be tested by even higher caliber competition that they've yet to face.

Top of mind is Geocentric, who, with a 7-for-7 record, is currently the sport's eighth rated horse in this week's Hambletonian Society weekly poll. Worth all of that ranking with her 1:49.4 record, she'd have the potential to clash with competition outside of sire stake-restricted races for the first time next week. In addition to Geocentric, Champlain and She's A Great

Lady stakes winner It's A Love Thing is nominated to the stake too, as are top fillies, Caviart Belle and My Girl EJ. If It's A Love Thing races in Lexington, it would represent her first time racing outside of Canada. All of these fillies are also nominated to the Breeders Crown towards the latter part of the month at Hoosier Park, as well as combinations of them being eligible to the Matron and Three Diamonds in November, and if any of them could string together a couple of wins in open Grand Circuit racers, the top of the division could change quickly. Lyons Legend shouldn't be forgotten either. Though not as heavily staked, she turned the tables on Blue Pacific in a Bluegrass division on Thursday at the Red Mile and remains only twice beaten in nine career races.

The 2-year-old colt and gelding pacing division is just as hotly contested, and last week's Metro Final gave an indication of what's to come over the next two months. In that race, Captain's Quarters delivered a season's best 1:49.3 when he held off a first over and game Legendary Hanover, who went down in defeat for the first time in seven races. In that same race, Ohio-sired standout Clever Cody was locked in for the entire length of the stretch. None of those are in action this week, though Legendary Hanover is eligible to next week's International Stallion Series.

Separate from that group that battled it out in the Metro, unbeaten 2-year-old Newsroom raced against just the once-beaten, PASS Final champion, Captain Albano on Friday (Sept. 29) in a division of the Bluegrass. Newsroom took heavy pressure last out at Hoosier in the Elevation Stakes in a race where it looked like he was surely going to be beaten by one of the many coming to him from all sides, but he somehow stuck it out to go 6-for-6. Something will have to give as these horses move towards more open competition — same goes for Better Is Nice, KYSS winner who also raced Friday — and all of the aforementioned horses with the exception of Clever Cody are Breeders Crown eligible.

On the human side, is Scott Zeron already Driver of the Year? Currently fifth in driver earnings, his magical season already includes wins in the North America Cup, Hambletonian, Jugette, and Little Brown Jug. Horses he's directly correlated to, Tactical Approach and It's My Show, could go as Zeron goes.

Tactical Approach has won KYSS races since winning the Hambletonian and despite disappointing in that sire stakes championship, he's solidified his standing at the top of the division. He races today in a division of the Bluegrass that includes Air Power, a horse that was exceptionally regarded earlier in the summer, clearly has the talent, and can still shake up the division over these next weeks if he gets hot.

Zeron's other classic winner, It's My Show currently rates outside of the sports top-rated horse, Confederate, but he's garnered more support by showing up to the Little Brown Jug, racing in two heats, and overcoming a less than ideal post to win the $850,000 final. It's less likely than not to happen, but if he were to win out from here and have that include a win or two over Confederate, things will get very interesting.

All of these matters will be answered in the season's final act, which begins right now.

Hail, yes! Week one underway

by Gordon Waterstone

Is it too soon to ask: Did you miss me the last couple days? Backstretch with Gordon is back and after a couple of rainy days, the two weeks of major stakes racing got underway on Thursday (Sept. 28),

But first, let's go back a bit. I wanted to be sure to be at Red Mile Wednesday morning since the weather forecast for Thursday was rain. So, I made my way to the track on Wednesday only to have it start storming. It was thundering, lightning and raining when I arrived so I basically turned around and went back home. And in the wee hours of Thursday morning – slightly after 3 a.m. – we had a big storm that included hail. When it kept raining for several more hours, the backstretch tour Thursday also got canceled.

Kudos to the track crew for getting the racetrack ready to go at the scheduled 1 p.m. post time on Thursday. Cindy Solverson, the track's director of sponsorships, asked if I could present the trophy for the first race, and I accepted the honor. The race – a $96,700 Bluegrass division for 2-year-old filly pacers – was won by the Ron Burke-trained, Yannick Gingras-driven Canigetaloup.

I joined co-owners Larry Karr, Mark Weaver and others in the winner's circle to present the trophy. Weaver was holding his dog, Parker, and he remarked to Gingras: "At least you know you won't get shut out this meet. And you're now the leading driver." Which was kind of ironic since Scott Zeron won the next two races with Dame Good Time and Sarasota Hanover and I was standing down by the apron when he came back to the winner's circle the second time and I congratulated him on being the track's leading dash driver.

Overseeing the trophy table this year is Jenna Otten, who is now working at Scioto Downs as an on-air analysis and handicapper. Her sister, Jessica Otten, is on hand at Red Mile to serve as an on-air host alongside Bob "Hollywood" Heyden, although the track graphics showed him as "Heyden Hollywood." I told Jenna she is this year's "Trophy Girl," as I used to call Whitney Fields, but Jessica corrected me and said her sister is the "Trophy Gal."

There was a nice crowd at the track on Thursday, and sitting in the box with Nick Salvi we talked that it probably was the best opening day gathering in a few years. Julie Nash walked by and said hello, and Salvi and I both told her how we missed seeing her husband, former Kentucky basketball star Cotton Nash and prominent standardbred owner, who died in May.

Dave McDuffee came over and told me he had come to the racetrack directly from arriving at Bluegrass Airport. I congratulated him on his recent election to harness racing's Hall of Fame, and he told me he was "pretty humbled by it."

Just a few of the people I saw Thursday were Myron and Stephanie Bell, Mario Zuanetti, John Fodera, Jimmy and Christina Takter and John Fielding. Marvin Katz also stopped by to chat for a sec, and I told him I was recently at the French restaurant Le Deauville, where they have an entrée called Marvin's Chicken, which of course was named for him. Katz kidded Fielding a bit about Marvin's Chicken, noting that there isn't a Fielding Chicken, a Frank (Antonacci) Chicken or a George (Segal) Chicken.

When the afternoon of racing was over, drivers Gingras, Zeron, Tim Tetrick and David Miller each had two wins on their resume. One of Gingras' wins came with the sensational Nancy Takter-trained 2-year-old colt trotter Karl, who just missed by one-fifth of a second of equaling the world record with his 1:51.2 effort that stretched his unbeaten streak to five.

Thursday night was the annual Kentuckiana Farms pre-sale party, which is conveniently held at the Malone's Banquet Center, which is located directly across the street from where I live. One of the first people I saw was Gingras, and he came up to me and said he was glad I didn't jinx him with the Karl mention in last Wednesday's Backstretch column. I again told Gingras how impressed I am with this star trotter.

I thanked both Bob Brady and Ken Jackson for inviting me to the shindig. They bring in crappies and bluegills for the chef to cook up and both kinds of fish tasted great. Huge — did I say HUGE — shrimp cocktail, beef sliders and candied bacon were also on the menu.

I spent a few minutes at the party talking to Canadian-based trainer Shawn Steacy and his wife, Natasha. Of course, we chatted a few minutes about their star filly pacer Sylvia Hanover, who is in-to-go on this afternoon (Sept. 30) at Red Mile (Race 4, an $80,000 Bluegrass division). I told the Steacys I'd be by in the morning to get an up close-and-personal look at Sylvia Hanover, so I'll get back to her in a few.

I sat with Lexington Selected Yearling Sale co-sales manager Bruce Brinkerhoff and starter Mike Moss, and we were soon joined by the Bells. Despite both being in the business for decades, this was the first time Mike and Myron had met. I admit that I didn't stay too long at the Kentuckiana party as my Detroit Lions were playing Green Bay so I wanted to head home to watch the game. So I did, and I can say I tremendously enjoyed the beatdown the Lions put on the Packers.

In case you weren't aware, sports wagering became legal in Kentucky earlier this month, and on Thursday online and phone app betting went live. I actually found some harness racing-related prop bets offered:

1. Will Solverson sell enough banner ads to go the length of the entire stretch to the three-quarter pole: Yes/No
2. Which dog will receive more Backstretch mentions: Marty Byrd or Roxie
3. Which trainer will receive more mentions: Tony Alagna, Ron Burke, Joe Holloway or Nancy Takter
4. How many Facebook posts of winning football wagers will Garnet Barnsdale post this weekend: Over/Under 8
5. How many Backstretch mentions will the breakfast table get? Over/Under 8
6. Leading driver (with odds): Gingras (2-1); Tetrick (7-2); Zeron (7-2); Miller (6-1); Dexter Dunn (6-1); Andy McCarthy (10-1); and Todd McCarthy (18-1).

Speaking of football, I learned Friday morning (Sept. 29) that Meadowlands GM Jason Settlemyer won't be coming to Lexington this weekend. Settlemyer had planned on coming but when he learned that Taylor Swift would be at MetLife Stadium Sunday night to watch boyfriend Travis Kelce's Chiefs play the Jets, he decided he would go the game in hopes of getting close to Swift. BTW Jason, I invited Swift to come to Red Mile on Kentucky Futurity Day, but she replied to me that our relationship was indeed over and I had to shake it off because we were never, ever getting back together.

I woke up Friday morning and looked outside to see sunshine and nary a cloud in the sky. The weather people are predicting temperatures in the low-to-mid 80s from here on out until next Friday, with no rain in the forecast. By the way, the rain we had over the past two days was the first we've had in the Bluegrass since Aug. 25 so we really did need it.

I made my way to the breakfast table, loaded up my bagel with cream cheese, which received the approval of Chris Tully. I have to admit that I was a bit nervous when I got in line as I was behind Swedish photographer Adam Strom and I was afraid he'd take all the food. Thank goodness he left a bagel for me. The breakfast sponsors were The Deck of Dreams members: Burke Brigade, Team Miller, JB Racing Stable, Alagna Racing and Toscano Stable.

I talked some football with Tully and Al Eferstein, and then I headed over to see trainer Bob Stewart. We also talked football and some gambling stories. Dr. Andy Roberts was in the barn and I told him he looked a bit grumpy, and he laughed and said it was because he was already tired.

The Steacy stable is in the same barn as Stewart, so I headed over to see Sylvia Hanover. Shawn Steacy told me the filly just wants to win. I think that's obvious to us all when we see her on the racetrack. Shawn told me that regular driver Bob McClure will be making the trip from Canada, and he joked that several drivers have told him that if McClure's flight is delayed or canceled they'd be happy to step in.

I waved hello to track photographer and KHHA executive director Amanda Stephens and Andy and Julie Miller, and Marcus Melander yelled over "Hey buddy! I then made my way over to see trainer Jack Darling. Unlike last year, when Darling and assistant Johnny Mallia came to Lexington with world champion and eventual Horse of the Year Bulldog Hanover, it was very quiet. I asked Mallia how different it was this year, and he told me after non-stop interviews last year, nobody had yet to ask him a question this year. I told him I just changed that by asking my question.

Darling brought just his 2-year-old filly pacer Tea Party Hanover, and after she finished sixth in the Bluegrass division where I was the presenter, he told me the daughter of Stay Hungry would be headed back home tomorrow. I asked Darling about Bulldog Hanover, and he told me that the stallion has just returned to his home at Seelster Farm in Canada after spending some time in Maryland as his semen was collected to ship Down Under.

Remember, today's race card gets underway at 1 p.m. and that traffic will be heavy early as UK plays Florida at Kroger Field. Later on, Herman's Hermits invading the Lexington Opera House.

Apologies to Amy Hollar for not mentioning her, and let's rejoice as gas prices looked to have dropped a few pennies since last time, ranging from $3.42 to $3.59. I'll be back with you on Sunday morning (Oct. 1). Thanks again to Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Farms and Dave Briggs for the HRU opportunity.

Did you know all this happened at Red Mile?

by Bob Heyden

As racing heats up on Lexington's storied mile oval, here are two dozen standout moments from the past.

1. Two Breeders Crowns were held there. In 1984, the first ever Crown for Older Pacing Mares was won by Workaholic ($12.80) with Hall of Famer Berndt Lindstedt. Three years later the BC pacing mares returned with Follow My Star ($9.60) winning with John Campbell.

2. At just 22, Peter Haughton, driving Quick Pay, nosed out dad, Billy Haughton, thus preventing two things: a Triple Crown on the Trot for Billy with Steve Lobell, and a driving win in the Kentucky Futurity, the only Triple Crown race that eluded Billy as a driver.

3. The 1927 and 1929 Hambletonians were both held there due to washouts at Syracuse and were won by Losola's Worthy and Walter Dear, respectively. In 1929, Walter Cox did something never duplicated he finished 1-2-3-4.

4. That homebred Confederate set the 1:46.1 World Record this summer, 28 summers after another famous homebred did the same at the Red Mile. Jenna's Beach Boy went 1:48.4.

5. It was Lexington where two of the last three Triple Crown winners – Windsong's Legacy (2004) and Marion Marauder (2016) – won the coveted honor despite starting from the second tier.

6. Niatross (#59) time trialed in Lexington in 1:49.1 on Oct. 1, 1980. Joe O'Brien was listed on 12 of the first 99 scheduled time trials, at age 63, more than any other driver. Others listed to go those couple of days were: #85 Margie's Melody, dam of Nihilator, who won in 1:55.4, #23 Tyler B who didn't go, #22 Good To See You who didn't go, #112 Overkill who didn't go, #194 Justin Passing who didn't go and #223 Fundamentalist who didn't go.

7. The first race was actually called a "Sweepstake" and on Sept. 28, 1875, five trotters went at it. Odd Fellow won it.

The Stable of Memories at Red Mile.

8. A couple of orphaned colts had maybe their best career moments on Kentucky Futurity Day: Deweycheatumnhowe (2008) and Windsong's Legacy (2004).

9. Donato Hanover in 2007 set his two personal bests on the same day (1:51.1 and 1:50.1). That same day, Giant Diablo posted a mare record of 1:50.1.

10. In 2021 and 2022, Allywag Hanover was the fastest performer at Red Mile. Is a threepeat possible in 2023?

11. Uhlan time trialed in 1:56 3/4 in 1922 which stood until 1938 when Greyhound had three 1:56.1 miles in an 11-day span, highlighted by a 1:55.1 gold standard which lasted 31 years.

12. Billy Direct and Greyhound, on back-to-back days in the fall of 1938 at the Red Mile, went 1:55.1 and 1:55, respectively. No one could have predicted that both marks would outlive both horses. Billy Direct lived another decade and Greyhound passed in 1965. The trotting mark stood until 1969 when Nevele Pride broke it going 1:54.4, and the pacing mark held for 22 years until Adios Butler broke it with a 1:54.3 mile in 1960.

13. The official time in 1938 was made by three timers, since there was no electronic timing yet. For the entirety of the 1938 Red Mile season there were 13 sub-2:00 miles, which even further accentuates the dominance of both Billy Direct and Greyhound.

14. Tactical Approach was the first Hambletonian winner to make his next four starts in Lexington.

15. Brett Pelling and Stanley Dancer could have something in common thanks to Red Mile. Confederate could make Pelling the first trainer since Dancer to have a pair of sophomore pacing colts be HOY. Pelling had Rocknroll Hanover in 2005 and could have Confederate this year.

16. There was no Philips starting gate or any gate at the Red Mile from 1937-42. They used the McNamara Barrier which essentially was a string over the horses hanging from a cable overhead. But if the string touched the horses there'd be a recall and the driver was set down. It was very unpopular.

17. Maud S in 1890 was the first to beat 2:10, doing so as a 10-year-old in 2:09.1. Nancy Hanks was the first to better 2:05 in 1895.

18. It's the 10th anniversary of Shebestingin winning in 1:47 flat at the Red Mile for Dave Miller, Joe Holloway and Val D'Or. She's the dam of two-time Breeders Crown winner Perfect Sting.

19. Homicide Hunter's 1:48.4 mark was set five years ago in Kentucky. Could that mark be challenged this year?

20. Thursday (Sept. 28) was not only the start of the Grand Circuit at Red Mile, it was the 148th anniversary year of the track's very first race and the 39th anniversary of the passing of Joe O'Brien who was synonymous with Red Mile. O'Brien won the very first Triple Crown in 1955 with Scott Frost.

21. During a live interview, four-time Driver of the Year, Dexter Dunn called Red Mile "my favorite track ever, anywhere to race."

22. In 1880, the Round Barn was structured and in 1971 it was officially designated "The Standardbred Stable of Memories."

23. From 1942-45 – the war years – there were no Futurities held and the focus was on 2YO trotters.

24. In 2023, day 1 (Sept. 28), race 1, Grant Circuit meet, Jack Darling is in a Bluegrass Stake, a year after Bulldog Hanover electrified the world and 26 years after his Northern Luck posted a nighttime 1:49.1 record in the Tattersalls.

Karl keeps unbeaten streak with Bluegrass win

by Ray Coto

The undefeated Tactical Landing colt Karl rung up his fifth straight victory in 1:51.2 just a tick of a second off the world record in taking the fifth of five divisions for the $405,100 Bluegrass 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot at Red Mile on Thursday afternoon (Sept. 28).

Driver Yannick Gingras floated 1-9 favored Karl into fourth while Hankins Hanover clocked a :27.3 first quarter with Stormcloudfashion in the pocket. Gingras then gave Karl his head up the backside and brushed to the top into a :56.2 half. Holding his speed through three-quarters in 1:24, Karl stretched his lead into the lane and strolled in under a hand drive to a two-length win over Hankins Hanover, with Southwind Metric mounting a late charge for third and Bright Star taking fourth.

"He's really funny," Jimmy Takter said of Karl. "He jumps around, he's feeling good, he made two breaks on me in the warmup and I said 'Nancy, what the heck is this?' He always does this. He doesn't pay attention, and Yannick said as soon as he got up behind the gate, he took the bit. He never took the bit from me warming up. Yannick says if he asked him, he would've trotted under [1]:50 today."

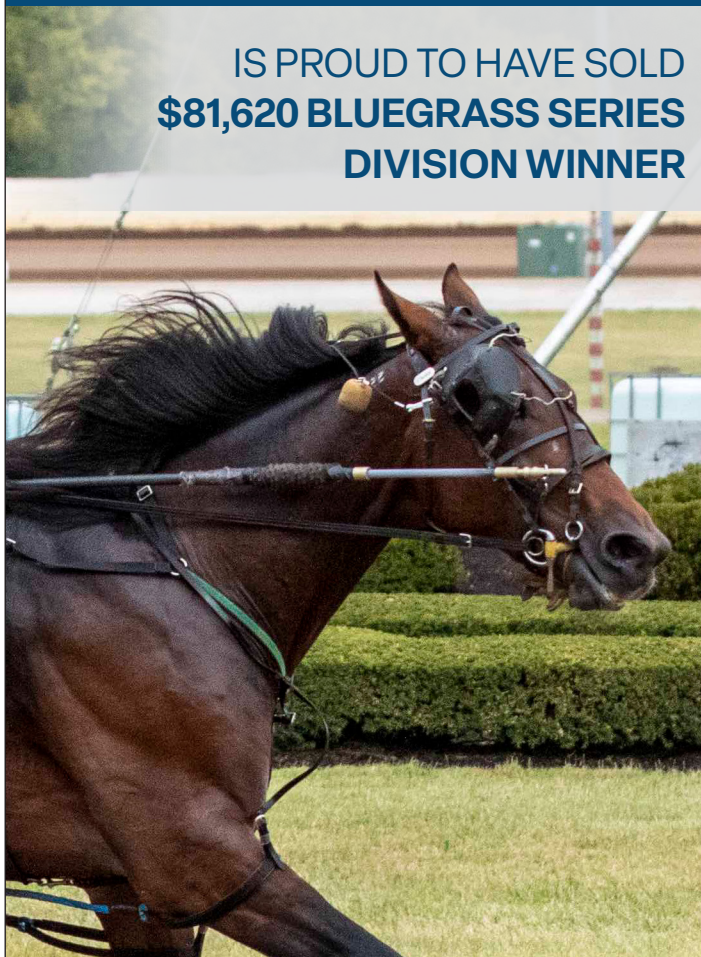

Dave Landry

Karl (Yannick Gingras) won his Bluegrass test on Thursday at Red Mile in 1:51.2 to remain unbeaten.

Dame Good Time delivered as the 6-5 favorite in the first division with a 1:54.2 steamroll victory.

Driver Scott Zeron settled into third with Dame Good Time while Bargain took the field by a :29.4 first quarter over pocket-sitter Situationship. Situationship grew antsy from second and barreled to the lead before a :57.3 half while opening a three-length advantage to the far turn.

Coasting by three-quarters in 1:25.3, Situationship appeared strong into the lane while Zeron gave Dame Good Time his cue to trot. Under minimal urging, Dame Good Time drew nearer and nearer to a leg-weary Situationship and slid by with ease in the final strides to win by three-quarters lengths with 58-1 Flight Landing another three lengths behind in third and Greenspan closing from last for fourth.

"He's been a little tricky from the get-go," Zeron said. "They've been making changes with his shoes and bits in his mouth. He's always had the talent; he just couldn't put it all together. He's found his stride in his last couple. The fractions were certainly honest and I was happy where I was. Down the lane, my horse performed like I thought he could."

The Chapter Seven gelding broke his maiden with the victory, coming in his fifth start over the track. Despite being a maiden coming into Thursday, Dame Good Time padded his bankroll to $147,810 for owner/breeder John Cummins. Robert Bath trains the $4.54 winner.

Odds-on favorite Sig Sauer trotted to the lead in midstretch of the second division before going off-stride for the first time in his career, which opened the path for Pick Pocket to burst through and land a 17-1 upset in 1:54.2.

Driver Anthony MacDonald planted Pick Pocket on the point from post 8 to a :28.4 first quarter before yielding command to Magic Hill towards a :57.2 half. Sig Sauer raced unhurried from fifth until committing first over to the final turn, where he motored to match strides with the leader by three-quarters in 1:26.1.

Sig Sauer strolled into the stretch on an easy lead, but took a bad step and lost stride down the center of the track at the eighth pole. Pick Pocket circumvented a tiring Magic Hill and charged through the inside to grab the lead late while Bryant Bros S mounted a rally down the center but came three-quarter lengths short of victory. Thinker Monkey took third and Magic Hill held fourth.

"He's been good from Day One," MacDonald said. "He was one of our better trainers. We had him at Oak Grove and had an opportunity to send him back to New Jersey, but I said 'You know what, we'll just leave him down in the state.' We turned him out

Pick Pocket has now won three times from nine starts and accrued $121,460 for owners Thestable Pick Pocket Group and Hutchison Harness LLC.

Mars Hill pounced off a pocket ride to a 1:54.2 win in the third Bluegrass division. Driver Todd McCarthy moved the Muscle Hill colt for the lead through a :28.1 first quarter and cleared control from Robinhood onto the backstretch. He then yielded to a headstrong Loxahatchee to a :56.1 half before creeping around that tired leader by three-quarters in 1:26. McCarthy kept Mars Hill to task through the lane as he crossed the beam 1-1/4 lengths better than a fast-charging Ordained in second. Mr Bluebird took third and Robinhood finished fourth.

“He was great up in Canada there and last start he made a little hiccup at Hoosier unfortunately, but he came back and showed his best here today,” McCarthy said.

Tony Alagna trains Mars Hill, a homebred for Willow Oak Ranch who has now won four times from seven starts and earned $189,340. He paid $4.54 to win.

Jim Campbell trainee Smart Schooner followed in his mom’s footsteps and motored to a 1:53.2 victory in the fourth division going nearly gate-to-wire.

Nursed by Tim Tetrick through the first turn, Smart Schooner, a gelded son of Greenshoe from world champion Cooler Schooner, ventured forward through a :29 first quarter before insisting on leading the pack up the backstretch. Tetrick let the gelding go and pocketed Wild Ticket before a :57.1 half while remaining authoritative at the helm through the final turn.

By three-quarters in 1:26, Smart Schooner spun for home on an open lead he maintained with ease. Smart Schooner hit the finish 2-1/2 lengths better than 7-5 favorite Winter Soldier, who just nipped second from Wild Ticket. First-time starter Daiquiri Hanover finished fourth.

“I was holding my breath the first half because he’s a little tough to get off the gate,” Tetrick said. “But once he got there, he’s a really talented colt when keeping his mind on his game.”

The rebound win for Smart Schooner was the third of his career from six starts and came after three straight pari-mutuel outings where he failed to stay flat. Bred and owned by Fashion Farms LLC, he has now earned $69,914 and paid $8.74 to win.

Three of the five divisions for the Bluegrass 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot were named “The Captain Corey” and sponsored by the Captain Corey Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms. The other two divisions were named “The Father Patrick” and presented by Al Libfeld Equine.

LYONS LEGEND STAVES OFF BLUE PACIFIC IN BLUEGRASS

Driver Tim Tetrick worked steady early fractions for Lyons Legend to force her main competitor, 1-5 favorite Blue Pacific, to claw forward in a final-quarter sprint, and the tactics paid off to give the 5-2 second choice a 1:52.1 victory in the third of three divisions for the $290,100 Bluegrass 2-Year-Old Filly Pace on Thursday (Sept. 28) at Red Mile.

Tetrick swept to the lead with Lyons Legend out of post 7 to clock a :27.4 first quarter with Flawless sitting second. Blue Pacific landed third and stayed put at the pegs while the backfield itched for cover to follow. With no challengers laying aim, Lyons Legend strolled to a :57.2 and readied for the impending charge from Blue Pacific to the final turn.

Lyons Legend upped the ante to three-quarters in 1:25.3 and built solid cushion as Blue Pacific attempted to cut the deficit in the lane. Blue Pacific accelerated and pushed to within a length of Lyons Legend in the final eighth, but Lyons Legend held firm and repelled her rival in the closing strides to take the victory by a head. Flawless held third from Behest in fourth.

"How do you go to the sale and come home with something for $30,000 and have them do what she's done?" said JoAnn Looney-King of the Jim King, Jr. trainee who has now won seven races from nine starts and banked $285,286 for owner Theelyonsracing. She paid $7.46 to win.

Canigetalouplop uncorked a pillar-to-post job to take the opening division of the Bluegrass going away in the fastest mile of the day: a 1:50.4 effort.

Driver Yannick Gingras sent Canigetalouplop for the front from post 4 and cleared command to a :28.1 first quarter. She had her rivals squirming uphill from there as she rolled through middle fractions of :56.3 and 1:24.1 before moseying clear in the lane. Canigetalouplop widened to a 4-1/4-length win over Peace Talks, who marched uncovered from last to grab second. Asweetbeachhere, the 9-5 favorite, levelled off from a second-over bid in third and Miraculous Deo finished fourth.

Ron Burke trains Canigetalouplop, a homebred 2-year-old filly by Sweet Lou for his Burke Racing Stable LLC along with Weaver Brussemi LLC. Larry Karr and Phil Collura share ownership of the now three-time winner from 11 tries who has $104,549 in earnings. She paid $7.78 to win.

The second division, the only named "The American Ideal," went to a perfectly timed rally by driver Scott Zeron with Sarasota Hanover as she gathered her momentum and then held off a late charge to win narrowly in 1:52.

Sea Shanty Hanover hustled to the top from post 6 to lead Gifted One by a :27.4 first quarter, but only briefly. Gifted One angled outside up the backside and crept forward to circle back to the lead before a :56 half all while Sarasota Hanover sat behind in third.

Gifted One continued to roll around the final turn while Zeron got underway with Sarasota Hanover and reeled in the leader to three-quarters in 1:24.2. Sarasota Hanover kept plugging forward through the stretch to eventually down Gifted One but hung a tad through the lane while Sea Shanty Hanover shook free from the pocket. Once that challenger came charging, Sarasota Hanover reengaged and kept her nose in front to the finish while Reigning Jade, the 8-5 favorite, ran out of racetrack and settled for third. Gifted One took fourth.

"I loved her from day one," trainer Linda Toscano said. "She's had a couple of hiccups along the way. We think we have them figured out, which is why she's here and I was tickled with her today. She's been a very sound filly all along. As long as she comes out of this good, she's eligible for everything."

A daughter of Stay Hungry, Sarasota Hanover has now won three races from seven starts and earned $71,695 for owners Jablonsky Held Stable, Camelot Stable, John Fodera and South Mountain Stables. She paid $9.78 to win.

The one division of The American Ideal was sponsored by Brittany Farms. The other two Bluegrass 2-Year-Old Filly Pace divisions were named "The McWicked" and were sponsored by the McWicked Syndicate and Winbak Farm.

Warrawee Michelle, Draw The Line fastest in Norman Woolworth Memorial

by Ray Coto, for The Red Mile

Ake Svanstedt pupil Warrawee Michelle and Dustin Jones trainee Draw The Line recorded the fastest miles of the five divisions for the $429,000 Norman Woolworth Memorial Bluegrass Stakes, for 2-year-old trotting fillies, with 1:53.2 clockings in their respective divisions on Friday (Sept. 29) at Red Mile.

Warrawee Michelle delivered as the 4-5 favorite in the second of five divisions for the Norman Woolworth.

Svanstedt sent the daughter of Walner to the top from post 6 to a :29.1 first quarter with The Moment settling into second and Pisco Sour in third. Warrawee Michelle was left alone to the half, clocked in :58.1, and easily handled the far-turn push from first-over Cool Ma Belle. Past three-quarters in 1:26.3, Warrawee Michelle slipped away from her peers in the lane in progress to a 2-1/2-length win over fast-closing Pizelle with Pisco Sour grabbing third and Santa Croce taking fourth.

Trainer Ake Svanstedt co-owns Warrawee Michelle with Santandrea Inc. and Young Guns. She's now won two races from six starts and earned $93,750. She paid $3.70 to win.

Draw The Line punched off a pocket trip and strolled to the finish to win in the fifth and final division of the Norman Woolworth Memorial.

Warrawee Michelle (Ake Svanstedt) also won her Bluegrass division in 1:53.2.

Special Talent pushed forward to take the lead from Draw The Line past a :29.1 first quarter and coasted uncontested to a :57.3 half. Draw The Line began looming out of the pocket through the final turn and made her move after three-quarters in 1:25.3. Draw The Line then powered to the line going away by four lengths while Paulina Hanover closed to take second from Special Talent. Green Mercedes finished fourth.

"Right from the day we broke her, she was a natural trotter," said trainer Dustin Jones, who also bred and co-owns Draw The Line with Dean Lockhart. "We always had hope for her, but you don't know until you get them in to race. After today, I think she's [Breeders Crown material]. The last start, she just finished a treatment of antibiotics so I figured she'd be a lot better today."

A daughter of Cantab Hall, Draw The Line has now won twice from eight starts and earned $83,563. Scott Zeron drove the $9.46 winner.

One World opened the afternoon from post one in Race 1 and finished No. 1 at odds of 9-2 in a near coast-to-coast effort timed in 1:53.4.

Unhurried off the wings, driver Dexter Dunn made his move for the lead with One World after a :29 first quarter, following Cocktailwithakick's brush for the front into the backstretch. Dunn landed One World on the helm before a :57.1 half and plodded to the final turn with few challengers looming. By three-quarters in 1:26.2, One World accelerated upon straightening and stayed strong through the finish to win by 2-1/2 lengths over Cocktailwithakick. Chaparmbro, the 2-5 favorite, got rolling from off the speed too late but charged home for third and Glamorous Hanover took fourth.

"She's been very nice since day one," trainer Lucas Wallin said. "Maybe this is a little [of a] surprise, actually. I didn't think she was capable to do a mile like this right now. I think she showed [she's Breeders Crown material] today. That's absolutely a race we have to aim for. We'll see how she comes out of this race – if we race next week, or if we skip that then we'll focus on Breeders Crown."

Al Libfeld owns One World, a daughter of Muscle Hill with two wins from seven starts and $87,500 banked. She paid $11.90 to win.

Driver Andy McCarthy perched 3-5 favorite Buy A Round on cover to the top of the stretch and soared home to a 1:53.3 victory going away in the third division of the Norman Woolworth.

Sadbirdstillsing zipped to the lead to a :29 first quarter before yielding command to Sierra Girl in the backstretch, all while McCarthy tucked Buy A Round into fifth. Sierra Girl stormed up the backside to a :56.4 half and slowed through the final turn as The Roxbury pounced out of fourth and marched uncovered with Buy A Round in tow.

The Roxbury slid to the lead after three-quarters in 1:25.4 but was no match for Buy A Round when McCarthy fed her racetrack in the lane. Buy A Round scooted 2-3/4 lengths clear of The Roxbury to the line while Sierra Girl clung to third and 108-1 shot Spy Coast claimed fourth.

"This filly's great, really fast," Andy McCarthy said. "She's a Walner, so we have to be a little careful about her not going too fast early. But I think she's kind of calming down. She got kind of hot on me last start there before the New Jersey Classic final, but today she was quite good."

Buy A Round has now won four times from six starts – while never missing the board – and earned $224,250 for owner Fred Hertrich III. Noel Daley trains the daughter of Walner who paid $3.32 to win.

A maiden going into Friday, Miss I La hatched the goose egg with an 8-1 upset in the fourth division of the Norman Woolworth, timed in 1:53.4.

Graceful Design grabbed control to a :28 first quarter with Miss I La securing the pocket. She remained on top through a :57.3 half as undefeated French Champagne mounted a first-over bid to the final turn. And with Tactical Strike losing stride from fifth, the backfield scattered leaving the top four well clear to three-quarters in 1:26.3.

French Champagne levelled off coming into the lane, giving room for Miss I La to angle from the pocket. Graceful Design fought to hold command to the inside and kept Miss I La at bay up until the final strides, where Miss I La pushed a head in front. French Champagne held third and Dolce Amara, another five lengths behind, finished fourth.

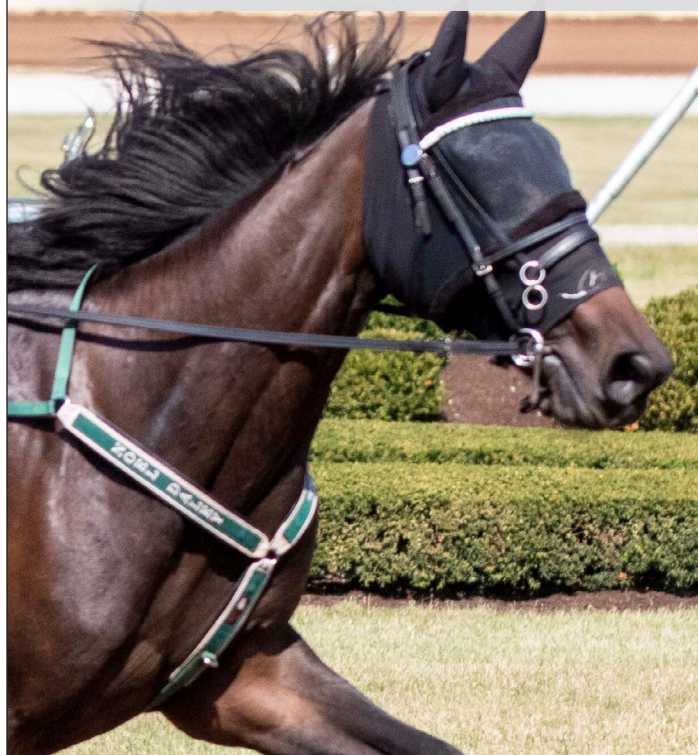

"She raced great, but she's raced well her entire year so far," driver Scott Zeron said of Miss I La. "Last [race] when she was sixth [in the New Jersey Classic], I just had no room; she was very full of herself. She can be a little aggressive like some of [the Walners], but at the end of the day the speed's there."

Off the mark on her sixth attempt, Miss I La has now earned $59,250 for owner Kenneth Jacobs. The win by the Walner filly gave Noel Daley, to that point, his second win of three in Bluegrass action. She paid $18.96 to win.

Each division of the Norman Woolworth Memorial Bluegrass Stakes was sponsored by Arden Homestead Stable, ET Gerry and Peter Gerry, Margareta Wallenius-Kleberg, Stoner Manor Inc., Menhammer Stuteri AB, Jorgen Jahre Jr., LST Stables, Lawrence DeVan and William DeVan.

Confederate leads gangbuster Bluegrass card today

by Ray Cotolo for Red Mile

The Red Mile will host North America's best sophomores in competition today (Sept. 30) in Bluegrass action, including the sport's current No. 1 horse Confederate when he starts in race 6, the first division of Bluegrass for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

Confederate cruises into his racing twilight with just a couple of races left before stallion duty calls at the end of his 3-year-old season. The winner of $1.5 million starts from post 6 in the opening division of the $219,000 Captaintreacherous Bluegrass Stakes in rein to Tim Tetrick for trainer Brett Pelling. He enters off a six-race win streak with his most recent victory on Sept. 17 in the $400,000 Kentucky Sires Stakes final. He meets his stablemate Christchurch, who starts from post 1, along with Little Brown Jug heat winner Ken Hanover from post 3.

Following the trend of champions on track, the race following features Hambletonian champ Tactical Approach in the second of three divisions for the $234,000 Greenshoe Bluegrass Stakes. The Nancy Takter-trained colt by Tactical Landing will try to rebound off a loss at 1-5 in the $400,000 Kentucky Sires Stakes final on Sept. 17. Scott Zeron has the drive from post 7 as he faces off against Air Power, the Marcus Melander-trained colt by Muscle Hill once atop the ranks on the road to the Hambletonian who has since rebounded resoundingly to the tune of a 1:51 effort in the $275,000 New Jersey Classic on Sept. 8.

Earlier on the card, the Hambletonian Oaks champ hits the track with Heaven Hanover starting in race 3, the first of three divisions for the $234,000 King Of The North Bluegrass Stakes. The filly by Father Patrick will also be trying to rebound; her most recent effort was a fifth-place finish in the $252,000 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes championship on Sept. 3. She encounters a contingent of fillies also looking to get back to the winner's circle including Quick Stop, recently scratched from the $281,940 Elegantimage final; Rose Run Yolanda, the Ohio champion who was fifth in the Elegantimage; and Walner Payton, who won an elimination for the Hambletonian Oaks but has since missed victory and was more recently sixth in the $400,000 Kentucky Sires Stakes final.

And then in the race following, race 4, comes a showdown among the sophomore pacing fillies. The second division of the $159,000 Papi Rob Hanover Bluegrass Stakes pits Sylvia Hanover from post 6 against her main rival Twin B Joe Fresh from post 7. But that's not all: those two have to contend with Kentucky Sires Stakes runner-up Strong Poison from post 2, Kentucky Sires Stakes third-place finisher Charleston from post 3, Adioo Volo winner Always B Naughty from post 4 and Simcoe winner Bellissima Hanover from post 5; not to mention Kentucky Commonwealth winner Hungry For Love starting from post 1.

Today's card opens with the first division of the Papi Rob Hanover where McSeaside will look to continue building off her upset loss in the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes championship. Dexter Dunn grabs the drive on the Ron Burke-trained Downbytheseaside filly off a 1:51.4 victory in Delaware, OH and has the likes of James Lynch consolation winners Mollop Hanover and Front Page Story to face among three other fillies entered.

Race 2 is the opening division of three for the Greenshoe and features 2022 Peter Haughton winner Kilmister on the comeback trail. The Chapter Seven colt trained by Marcus Melander lands post 1 with driver Brian Sears off a second-place finish to Ari Ferrari J in the $400,000 Kentucky Sires Stakes championship. Also drawn into this division are Espresso, a 1:53.3 winner last season on the Grand Circuit in Lexington, along with Hambletonian elimination winner Point Of Perfect and Kentucky Commonwealth champ Prince Of Honor.

The second of the three divisions for the King Of The North goes as race 5 and gathers two state champions into competition. Railee Something, the Pennsylvania champ, starts from post 2 and right to the inside of Mommamia Volo, the upset winner in the Kentucky championship, from post 3. Yannick Gingras drives Railee Something for trainer Ron Burke and Todd McCarthy has the call on Mommamia Volo for conditioner Carter Pinske. Their competition also includes Ake Svanstedt's Walner filly Special Way, last year's Breeders Crown champ who was upended by 1-1/2 lengths in the Kentucky Sires Stakes final at odds of 2-5.

Adios Pace winner Cannibal starts in race 8, the second of three divisions for the Captaintreacherous. The Sweet Lou colt comes in off a brutal mile in the Little Brown Jug final where he was parked through opening fractions of :25.4 and :53.3 before folding. Yannick Gingras stays with the Nancy Takter trainee from post 2 against a bunch that includes Kentucky Commonwealth winner Admiral Hill from post 7 in rein to Dexter Dunn for trainer Chris Ryder.

Mambacita, another who excelled over the clay as a freshman, will try to rekindle that spark from post 7 in race 9, the third division for the King Of The North. The Tony Alagna pupil by Tactical Landing scored back-to-back wins in the Kentucky Sires Stakes back in August and enters off a fifth-place finish from a parked mile in the $400,000 final. Scott Zeron has the drive from post 7.

The last division of the Captaintreacherous, race 10, gives some class relief to Command as he escapes his stablemate Confederate off a runner-up effort in the Kentucky Sires Stakes final. Todd McCarthy drives the Brett Pelling trainee from post 1 against the likes of Act Fast, who was foiled as the 9-5 favorite in the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes championship, and El Rey, who was foiled as the 6-5 favorite in the $100,000 Kentucky Commonwealth final.

Today's Bluegrass action wraps with the last division for the Greenshoe and draws Hambletonian runner-up Oh Well into post 7 in the field of eight. Tim Tetrick drives the Marcus Melander student as the 8-5 choice on the morning line against a bunch including Ake Svanstedt's Kierkegaard K from post 8, Dire Straits from post 3 and Little Expensive from post 1 among others.

Each division of the Captaintreacherous Bluegrass, Papi Rob Hanover Bluegrass and Greenshoe Bluegrass are sponsored by their respective stallion syndicates and Hanover Shoe Farms. Each division for the King Of The North Bluegrass is presented by Kountry Lane Standardbreds.

Today's card has 13 races total going postward beginning at 1 p.m. (EDT). Red Mile features a $5,000 guarantee in the Pick-5, starting in race 3, and a $10,000 guarantee in the Pick-4, starting in race 6. Both the Pick-5 and Pick-4s feature an industry-low takeout of 12 per cent.

Jimmy Freight: The stallion, the stake, the comeback – Part 3

by Melissa Keith

This week, Woodbine Mohawk Park circulated a reminder of conditions for the upcoming Jimmy Freight Stakes, slated for Saturday (Oct. 7).

“Any 2-year-old colt, gelding or filly sired by Jimmy Freight is eligible to enter,” it stated. “No starting fee is required. The AGCO added money qualifying standards do apply for the Jimmy Freight Stakes.”

If fewer than five sons and/or daughters of Jimmy Freight are entered, it will be canceled. The $100,000 purse will instead be distributed among the stallion’s top five offspring by earnings. The entry box closes on Tuesday (Oct. 3) at 10:30 a.m.

Entrepreneurial owner Adriano Sorella said he originally got the concept for the Jimmy Freight Stakes back in 2019.

“I was talking to a friend of mine out in Florida – this is before the breeding season – and he mentioned that back in the day, somebody tried this,” Sorella said. “They tried it with another stallion and they had some sort of success with it... That’s basically where it all developed: From a conversation with a friend of mine, Bill [Bigler]... He used to train horses.”

Looking at the Ontario landscape for pacing stallions, he wanted to give Jimmy Freight a unique way to stand out. No other stallion had a race restricted to his own offspring. Enter the $100,000 Jimmy Freight Stakes, inaugural edition.

“Once you remove Bettor’s Delight, the whole entire range for pacing stallions is basically that $8,000 and down to $5,000, $6,000,” said Sorella, who sponsored the purse and advertising himself. “So, I thought it was a great idea. I don’t mind putting up the money. You know, I owned the horse; we’d get some breedings out of it. I knew it would be a good promotion, something different. I’m always looking to do something different.”

In 2020, the Sportswriter—Allamerican Summer stallion was well-received in his first season at Winbak Farms of Ontario.

"We actually had 138 mares booked to him," said Sorella, who bought Jimmy Freight when the stallion was a colt racing in Iowa. "He had a full book... It was one of the first books that were closed in Ontario. That [popularity] obviously wasn't just the race. It was me consistently on social media, and just putting out ad after ad, pushing, pushing, pushing. People tend to like the story of him, because it shows you can find a horse anywhere and small owners can always be successful."

Last year, Jimmy Freight's ownership expanded to include Eric Cherry's Let It Ride Stable of Boca Raton, FL; Robert Cooper Stables LLC; Jesmeral Stable; and Howard Taylor, along with Sorella. The stallion injured himself after a deal was brokered for the group to race and breed him. (The story was reported here in HRU last August).

For various reasons, the first crop of Jimmy Freight consisted of just 24 live foals; to date, 15 have made one or more starts. They are led by the filly Resilience (p, 2, 1:52s; $74,936), winner of one Ontario Sires Stakes Gold and two Grassroots legs at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and the colt Cowboy Cargo ($34,828), who missed by a neck in his OSS Gold debut, July 10 at Mohawk. He has since been race timed in 1:52.2s there, finishing second to Chain Gang again in an Aug. 19 Gold leg.

"After getting the first group of mares coming to him, we started to notice there was an issue with his semen," Sorella said. "Originally, he went down to Select Breeders Services down in Maryland, where Winbak is... He went down for a month and they did all this [routine] semen testing... We did some other testing afterwards... Texas A&M University came back with a report after doing all the tests on frozen semen, spun semen, fresh semen."

Sorella said the latter facility recommended that Jimmy Freight's semen be centrifuged for best results, "but at that point, the season was over."

Sorella said cross-border commuting didn't help the stallion's career in the breeding shed or on the track. "After he started going to the breeding barn and racing, he was doing that back-and-forth, he started to get antsy on the trailer," he said.

Feb. 18, Jimmy Freight won his 2023 comeback in 1:50 flat at The Meadowlands. The immediate objective was the MGM Borgata Series at Yonkers Raceway.

"He had three seconds and a win," Sorella said. "He was pretty consistent there. He was going to be in that final."

Unfortunately, in Borgata Leg #4, "he came up lame after that race," ending up a vet scratch in the $50,000 fifth leg on April 17.

"He was trying to chase down Backstreet Shadow," Sorella said. "He's one of those horses that just doesn't want to give up."

"They thought it was a pus pocket and we kept waiting for it to go away, and couldn't figure it out. He had a little tear and we couldn't find it on any x-ray... They had to do a little bit of a scan on it and that's when they found it... He just needed the time, but it sucked. It came at the worst possible time."

Jimmy Freight recovered and trained back at a smaller farm before returning to Brett Pelling.

"The partners have to try and make their money back somewhere, because he hasn't raced a lot for these new guys because he got hurt," Sorella said. "We thought he would be ready for the [Canadian] Pacing Derby [Sept. 2 at WMP], but we didn't really want to push him and jam him right in against those horses, going those speeds. That wouldn't be fair to him. So, we said, 'Let's just take our time. He can come back, we get him winter-raced a bit, and just see what happens for 2024.'"

Jimmy Freight qualified last Friday (Sept. 22) at Mohawk, winning for Louis-Phillipe Roy in a comfortable 1:53.3. It was his first charted line since the Borgata scratch. He was expected to qualify again Sept. 29 at Mohawk.

"They know 'the race' is the following week," Sorella told HRU Wednesday (Sept. 27). "If all systems are go, his first race will be on the night of the Jimmy Freight Stakes. We figured even if he doesn't race that night, it would be nice to just bring him out to the racetrack for that night."

Sorella said his partners agreed.

"We should just send him back to where he had all his success and take our time with him," he said.

The Jimmy Freight Stakes could be renewed in the future, although likely at a different track.

"When his race career is over and he gets a few more years of breeding and we do it again, we already know what to do," Sorella said. "We're all kind of on the same page when it comes to that right now: He's going to continue to race... I honestly think he's going to end up in Ohio. He's going to love all those little tracks down there. I mean, today [Sept. 27] was his anniversary of winning the [2019] Dayton Pacing Derby."

In the meantime, Sorella said he'll be at WMP Oct. 7 with his family, Jimmy Freight, and plenty of promotional giveaway items on the stallion's big night.

Alrajah One IT set for Dayton visit

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

After setting a Canadian record with his 1:50.2 win in the Maple Leaf Trot on Sept. 2, Alrajah One IT will make his next start tonight (Sept. 30) when he meets eight rivals in the $250,000 Dayton Trotting Derby for older male trotters at Hollywood Dayton Raceway.

The Italian-bred star, who was a multiple Group 1 stakes-winner in Europe, is undefeated in four races since arriving in the U.S. last year. No horse has been nearer than 1-1/2 lengths of Alrajah One IT at the finish line of any of those races.

Tonight, the 7-year-old stallion will start from post 9 with Dexter Dunn driving for trainer Ake Svanstedt.

Svanstedt, who won the previous two editions of the Dayton Trotting Derby with Back Of The Neck, will also send out Charlie Hill Memorial winner Incommunicado and Sebastian K Invitational winner Southwind Tyrion in this year's event. Andy McCarthy will drive Incommunicado from post 7 while Svanstedt will drive Southwind Tyrion from post 6.

Tonight's card also features the Dayton Oaks Derby for older female trotters, Dayton Derby for older male pacers, and Dayton Distaff Derby for older female pacers. Each of the three races go for a purse of $250,000. First-race post time is 5 p.m. (EDT). The derbies are the final four events on the 14-race card.

Alrajah One IT, a son of Maharajah—Mariu owned by Scuderia My Horse Inc., has won 17 of 38 career races and earned $1.70 million. His triumph in the Maple Leaf Trot followed a nearly 13-month layoff because of injury.

"He came out of the race good, and everything is normal with him," Svanstedt said. "He's trained good."

Svanstedt has developed a reputation for having horses primed for big performances off lengthy respites. Alrajah One IT captured his North American debut, the Crawford Farms Open Trot, by 2-1/2 lengths in a then stakes-record-equaling 1:50.4 (with a :25.3 last quarter-mile) in July 2022. It was his first start in a little more than seven months following his arrival from Europe.

"He's not a horse that needs to go races to come into form," Svanstedt said. "You can train him into top form."

He added about his general approach to preparing horses, "I want to train them into form, I don't want to race in a couple of overnights before they race. I want to save them for the big races. I want to have them sound and healthy, and ready mentally also.

"There are different styles for different trainers. [Ron] Burke has his own style, and he is very successful. His horses race every week, and they race good. I can't do it that way. My style is to not race them so often and have them ready for the big purses. That is my style."

Burke has two horses in the Dayton Trotting Derby, It's Academic and Hillexotic. Burke won the 2020 race with the mare Atlanta.

It's Academic has hit the board in 12 of 13 races this year, winning eight. His victories include a stakes-record 1:50.2 score in the Crawford Farms, the John Cashman Memorial, Spirit of Massachusetts, and this past week's Caesars Trotting Classic. He finished second in the Maple Leaf Trot. He will start today from post 5 with driver David Miller. Hillexotic, who won this year's Maxie Lee Memorial, leaves from post 3 with Yannick Gingras.

Svanstedt and Burke also have top contenders in the Dayton Oaks, with Svanstedt-trained Jiggy Jog S starting from post 7 with Dunn, and Burke-trained M-M's Dream starting from post 9 with Miller.

M-M's Dream has won seven of 10 races this year and brings a three-race win streak to Dayton. She is a nose from being undefeated in her past six starts and has beaten Jiggy Jog S in their only two previous meetings this season.

Jiggy Jog S has finished no worse than second in seven races this year, winning four. She heads to Dayton off a second-place finish in the MGM Yonkers International Trot.

"She is only a 4-year-old and was racing against all tough horses that have been to the Prix d'Amerique and Elitloppet, so she did very good," Svanstedt said. "She came out good from the race. She's raced good every time. I hope she is ready for another good one."

Prohibition Legal looks to move forward in Dayton Distaff Derby

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Prohibition Legal was an O'Brien Award-winner at age 2 in 2021, when her only loss in nine starts was a second-place finish behind Dan Patch Award-recipient Niki Hill in the She's A Great Lady Stakes. Following a one-win campaign last year, trainer Nick Gallucci gave the female pacer an extended rest before sending her into action this season.

As the 4-year-old mare prepares for tonight's (Sept. 30) Dayton Distaff Derby, so far so good. In three races since her August return, Prohibition Legal has posted a win and two seconds. She finished behind Silver Label, a Gallucci trainee who earlier this season spent four weeks ranked in the sport's Top 10, in a fillies-and-mares FFA at Woodbine Mohawk Park before turning the tables on her stablemate two weeks later.

Most recently, Prohibition Legal finished second to Grace Hill, another former Top 10-ranked horse, in the Milton Stakes on Sept. 16 at Mohawk. Grace Hill won the Milton in a stakes-record 1:48, just one-fifth of a second off the Canadian record she set in June.

Prohibition Legal's effort gave the Ontario-based Gallucci reason to be pleased.

"She really impressed me in the Milton," Gallucci said. "That was only her third start back from a big layoff. I'm really excited to see what she does [tonight]. We'll see how she can do moving forward against the best mares in North America."

As for her extended break, Gallucci said, "She didn't really have the best year and she had a couple little issues that were ailing her. It seems like time is a big healer. I'm really happy how she came back. I just think she needed a little extra time going from 3 to 4. It seems like we're moving in the right direction."

Is Prohibition Legal back to being her former self?

"She's like a better version of her 2-year-old self," Gallucci said. "I hope, anyway."

Prohibition Legal, Silver Label, and Grace Hill all will meet again in the $250,000 Dayton Distaff Derby for pacing mares. Grace Hill, a 5-year-old, will start from post 9 and is the 9-5 morning-line favorite for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. and driver Doug McNair.

Silver Label, who is 4, will leave from post 2 with driver Scott Zeron and is the 3-1 second choice. Prohibition Legal, also 4, starts from post 3 with driver Louis-Phillippe Roy and is next on the morning line, at 9-2.

Tonight's card also features the Dayton Derby for older male pacers, Dayton Trotting Derby for older male trotters, and Dayton Oaks Derby for older female trotters. Each of those three races also go for a purse of $250,000. First-race post time is 5 p.m. (EDT). The derbies are the final four events on the 14-race card.

Grace Hill has finished no worse than third in all 11 of her races this year, winning eight and earning $411,526. The daughter of Always B Miki—Western Silk has missed the board only once since August 2022, a span of 21 starts. For her career, she has won 27 times in 57 races and banked $1.57 million for owner Tom Hill.

Silver Label has hit the board in 13 of 15 races this season, winning eight and earning $336,920. Her triumphs include the Lady Liberty and Perfect Sting stakes, both against fields that included Grace Hill.

The homebred daughter of Bettor's Delight—Hidden Gem has won 20 of 37 lifetime races, including an Ontario Sire Stakes championship, and earned $1.23 million Canadian ($988,168 U.S.) for owner Millar Farms.

She finished fifth in the Milton after setting the early pace.

"She kind of threw in a clunker in her last race," Gallucci said. "She's never really been the best mare to race on the front. It seemed like, especially when she was at The Meadowlands, that off the pace was more her forte."

"But she's been such a pleasant surprise. I was just hoping she would be a nice preferred [level] horse to race around at Mohawk. She's really turned herself into one of the Grand Circuit mares. She's just a sweetheart to drive, does whatever you want her to do, and it seems like she's got a nice turn of foot to her. I couldn't be happier with the year she's had."

Millar Farms also bred and owns Prohibition Legal, a daughter of Big Jim—Catch A Wish. She has won 10 of 20 career races and earned nearly $900,000 Canadian ($697,865 U.S.). Her trip to Dayton will be her first away from Ontario and only her second away from Mohawk.

"Hopefully that doesn't bother her too much," Gallucci said. "I was really happy with the draw, and it seems like both horses are coming into the race pretty good. Hopefully they both get themselves set up early in the race and have a good shot turning for home."

Tattoo Artist, the winner of four consecutive starts including the Canadian Pacing Derby and Jim Ewart Memorial, is the 2-1 favorite in the Dayton Derby. The field also includes Hoosier Park Pacing Derby champ Allywag Hanover and multiple Grand Circuit-winners Charlie May and Bythemissal. Alrajah One IT is the 5-2 favorite in the Dayton Trotting Derby and M-M's Dream gets the 9-5 nod in the Dayton Oaks.

Momentary Control wins big before the Super Finals

by Kara Martin for Ontario Racing communications

Momentary Control won the third race Thursday (Sept. 28) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, a $101,300 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold division for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Tyler Jones kept Momentary Control (Control The Moment) off the pace set by leader Savethelastdance (Bettor's Delight) and driver James MacDonald, through fractions of :26.2, :56.0, and 1:24.3.

On the backstretch, Momentary Control overtook Savethelastdance to take the lead but quickly lost the advantage in the far turn.

Then in deep stretch, Momentary Control rallied back to cross the wire first in a time of 1:51.1.

Talk Curdy To Me (Betterthancheddar) driven by Louis-Philippe Roy, challenged Savethelastdance late in the race to win the battle for second place.

Savethelastdance completed the podium in third.

"I think she matched up well with the Gold fillies all year," said Jones. "She's been racing really, really well in her last three starts, and it gave me extra confidence going in that I beat out some of them last week."

The Control The Moment filly has made $198,216 over the course of her career for co-owners Andrea Lea Racingstables Inc. and Colin McKenna.

Momentary Control has also collected $76,906 in OSS earnings this year and is trained by Dustin Jones.

"We focused on OSS this year and we thought if she was going to be good enough, she was going to make her money in this program," said driver Jones. "It's one of the best in the world."

Talk Curdy To Me is trained by Chantal Mitchell, and the filly's second-place finish doubled her OSS earnings this year to $45,552 for co-owners 9261-7620 Quebec Inc., and Mitchell Di Cenzo.

Third place Savethelastdance has collected $63,341 in OSS earnings this year for owner Millar Farms and now has earned over $253,451 in her career.

The Bettor's Delight filly is trained by Nick Gallucci.

Momentary Control's Gold win paid $9.00.

"We are pretty confident in the OSS program, and now we're sitting pretty good for the Super Final," said Jones.

The second division of the night for 3-year-old pacing fillies was race 8 on the card, and One Last Wish (Bettor's Delight) driven by Paul MacDonell came away with the win crossing the wire at 1:51.1.

MacDonell took One Last Wish straight to the front out of post 1 and kept the lead through fractions of :27.1, :56.1, and 1:23.3.

She was challenged late in deep stretch as they were three across at the line, but One Last Wish proved too strong.

Mist Amber (Betterthancheddar) driven by Sylvain Filion finished in second while Lyons Bettorday (Bettor's Delight) piloted by Doug McNair finished in third.

"She's come back phenomenal this year," said MacDonell. "Right from the start she was strong, a lot stronger than last year, and she's carried it right through the year."

One Last Wish has made $297,802 over the course of her career and $224,544 in OSS earnings this year for co-owners Brian Legge, and Dr. David Legge.

The Bettor's Delight filly is trained by Ken Sucee and paid $5.90 for the win.

Fresh off Delaware Fair track record, Herodotus trots even faster in Meadows Keystone Classic

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

Fresh off his 1:53.1 Delaware Fairgrounds track record, Herodotus was even faster in Thursday's (Sept. 28) $48,950 Keystone Classic for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows, scoring under wraps in a career-best 1:52.4. Spitfire Oversees was an overwhelming winner in the other division, giving Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. a Keystone Classic sweep.

Players hammered Herodotus down to 1-2 off his Old Oaken Bucket triumph, and he did not disappoint, seizing the early lead and staying there. Even when Sinatra De Vie loomed large in the lane, Wrenn never so much as shook the reins at the Bar Hopping—Regal Woman gelding, who defeated Sinatra De Vie by a length and lifted his lifetime bankroll to $282,193. Big Boy Ernest finished third.

"He trotted 1:52.4 pretty easy today; the plugs were still in," Wrenn said. "Today was a little bit lesser competition for him, but he handled it pretty well. I had to steady him a bit in the turns, but I was pretty much just along for the ride."

Wrenn sent Spitfire Oversees on an extended quarter-pole move that didn't end until he crossed over near the half. But the son of International Moni—Legal Lady was more than up the task, drawing off to a 7-length cakewalk in 1:53.2, matching his lifetime mark. Open Bar and HS Winchester rounded out the ticket.

"He still has the Breeders Crown on the table; I don't know if he'll be good enough to head that way," said Tim Twaddle, who trains the winner — who now boasts a career bankroll of $146,504 — for TheStable Spitfireoveresses Group. "That's only his fourth win, so he can terrorize them in conditions here over the next few weeks."

KEY MOVE EARNS TIPSY MONI EASY WIN IN MEADOWS $52,750 KEYSTONE CLASSIC

Tipsy Moni, the 4-5 favorite, made the decisive move at the quarter pole and jogged from there, easily capturing Wednesday's (Sept. 27) $52.750 Keystone Classic for 3-year-old filly trotters at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

Sheer Faith already was out and moving near the quarter when Wrenn slipped Tipsy Moni off the cones from third to follow.

"I didn't want to be shuffled to fourth, and I knew there were a couple other good fillies in there, so I didn't want to get away too far back," Wrenn said. "Leaving from post 2 really helped; the other favorites drew 8 and 9, and that really helped me get good early position."

Once the daughter of International Moni—Seaside made the point near the three-eighths, she faced no serious challengers and scored in 1:55.4. Over Board shot the Lightning Lane for second, 1-1/4 lengths back, while Sheer Faith saved show.

D.R. Ackerman, who owns and trains Tipsy Moni, said the filly has three races remaining this season: the Colonial, the Simpson and the Liberty Bell. As for any plans for next year, Ackerman said: "We're trying to get through this year. We'll figure that out later."

Wrenn and Brady Brown each piloted three winners on the 13-race card.

Burke, Ducharme double-up in Massachusetts Sire Stakes

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The second day of the $3 million Massachusetts Sire Stakes held at Plainridge Park on Tuesday (Sept. 26) featured 2-year-old performers of both gaits and genders and dominant winners prevailed in most of the events. The fillies went one $75,000 race each on the trot and pace while the colts and geldings had split divisions for both gaits that were valued at $40,000 apiece. Ron Burke brought a pair to Plainridge and both were decisive winners. He started the day winning the $75,000 division for pacing fillies with Every Man's Desire (Always B Miki—Lindy's Nightmare) in one of the two non-betting events. Yannick Gingras got away second with Every Man's Desire and followed Beantown Ace (Scott Zeron) through quarters of :28.4, :58 and 1:27.2. When the race entered the last turn, Every Man's Desire exited the pocket and paced past Beantown Ace before they even hit the stretch. When Every Man's Desire turned for home, she sprinted away to a 2-3/4 length win in 1:55.1.

It was the fifth win of the year for Every Man's Desire, who is owned by Thomas Dillon and Scott Dillon. Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred the winner. Dillon and Dillon also owned Burke's second victor, Rocknroll Lou (Sweet Lou—Beautiful Lady) who himself was a runaway winner in a $40,000 division for pacing males. Gingras went right to the front with Rocknroll Lou and controlled the race from there. With no solid threat from behind, Rocknroll Lou cruised on top by as many as four lengths and got to three-quarters in a tepid 1:28.2. Gingras hit the gas at the point and Rocknroll Lou flew home in :27.1 to win by four in 1:55.4, getting his first lifetime win. Rocknroll Lou ($2.20) was bred by Lester Gelardi and Anthony Passafaro. The other $40,000 colt and gelding pace was won by Poker Sy (Captaintreacherous—Hidden Land), who also got his first lifetime victory. Jason Bartlett had an easy time taking the lead and then rated Poker Sy perfectly. After slowing the half to 1:00.1, Poker Sy scooted home in :57.2 to win by 10-1/2 lengths in his first lifetime win. Poker Sy ($2.10) is owned and bred by Jesmereal Stable and is trained by Christie Collins. George Ducharme did his best work in the trots and captured both $40,000 divisions for colts and geldings.

The first win came with Keep Asking (Chapter Seven—Sensibility) who simply dominated his group in another non-betting event. Zeron set a modest :59.2 half on the point and then opened up four lengths at three-quarters. Dashing around the turn, Keep Asking kept going and opened up a seven-length gap at the line, winning in 1:59.

Keep Asking got his third win of the year for owners W Donovan, Joe Sbrocco, Jim Winske and the George Ducharme Stable. Sbrocco, Winske and Ducharme also bred Keep Asking. Ducharme's second score was Foreign Moni (International Moni—Dancing Coed) who won by an even greater margin. Jay Randall sat chilly on top by a length with Foreign Moni through very even fractions of :30.1, 1:01 and 1:30.4 as International Law (Gingras) pushed the third panel after recovering from an earlier break. The pair spun around the last turn and then headed down the lane side by side until International Law made another break, leaving Foreign Moni home free by 9-1/2 lengths in 1:59.

Foreign Moni ($8.40) won his fourth in a row for the breeding and ownership team of Ducharme and Winske. The other $75,000 division was for filly trotters and Dawn Of Lindy (Walner—Moni From Heaven) won in a hard-fought victory. Gingras got away third with Dawn Of Lindy while The Great CB (Jeff Gregory) and International Gift (Zeron) traded leads to the quarter. After International Gift finally settled on the front, she led a single file field to three-quarters where Dawn Of Lindy pulled from third and started towards the top. As they headed down the lane, International Gift was still on top, but Dawn Of Lindy was closing on the outside while the Great CB was motoring up the pylons. As the wire drew closer, so did the trotters and they hit the line with only a head separating all three, leaving the photo to show Dawn Of Lindy getting the nod for her first lifetime win timed in 1:57.3.

Dawn Of Lindy ($11.00) is owned by her trainer Paul Kelley along with Matt Lamonte, Thomas Pontone and Neil Goldstein. This was the third stakes victory of the day for Gingras, but he added two overnight wins giving him a five bagger for the afternoon.

The Massachusetts Sire Stakes will reconvene at Plainridge Park on Monday (Oct. 2) at 2 p.m. when the second leg of 3-year-olds will go postward. Log on to the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts website at sominc.net or visit their Facebook page for information and updates as the stakes continue into October.

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Daburg delights in Harrington DSBF trot

James Craparotta and Pat Berry Racing's Daburg ($2.10, Berry) was the fastest of five Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) 2-year-old trotting stakes winners Wednesday (Sept. 27) at Harrington Raceway with a 2:02.1 triumph.

The first of two $20,000 DSBF legs were contested with the top eight point earners returning to compete in the $110,000 final on Oct. 11.

Daburg assumed command near the opening quarter mile and stayed there comfortably save for a game late challenge by Going Platinum, who was second. DE Platinum was third. Daburg, a daughter of Anders Bluestone, improved to 2-for-2 lifetime for trainer Traci Berry.

Jane Dunavant's Glide Along ($15, Cody Polisen) sprung an upset in the first filly division with a 2:02.3 win over favorite Marino's Prize and Wolfpack Wilma. The Glidemaster filly made her first career start a winning one for trainer Carlo Polisen.

Andrew Glassmeyer's Lovie's Place ($9.60, Montrell Teague) won the final filly division in 2:04.3 over Platinum Proposal and Rip Away despite an early miscue. It was her first career start for her owner/trainer.

Pam Wagner's Ronnie Ridge ($3.40, Victor Kirby) won the first colt and gelding division in 2:04. The El Platinum gelding led all the way for trainer/driver Kirby in achieving his first career win. Lg's Jaxon was second with Bonnies Blue Rock third.

The final DSBF division on the card went to Deborah Warnick's Royal Beep Beep ($12, Allan Davis) in 2:04.2. The Yankee Royalty gelding was a front-end winner for trainer Jason Skinner over Its Oliver Now and Pulsator.

In the overnight feature, the $20,000 open trot, Nick Callahan, Yorwollahan Racing and Greg Godbout's Star Razor ($9.40, Corey Callahan) won his third straight race in 1:57.1 over Fifty Ways and Not For Moni. The 5-year-old Dejarmbro gelding seized control early from post 8 and appeared to be tiring in deep stretch but held off all comers in a blanket finish for his fourth win of the season.

DESIGNS ON YOU AMONG DSBF HARRINGTON WINNERS

Rodney Wyatt, Kevin Peck and Gerald Burbage's Designs On You ($2.20, Allan Davis) was the fastest of three Delaware

Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) 2-year-old stakes winners for pacing fillies Tuesday (Sept. 26) at Harrington Raceway.

The Eddie Dennis-trainee was a 1:58.2 winner as the short-priced favorite over American Marvel and Slipinsidewayz. It was the first career win for the Badlands Hanover filly.

Eddie Davis' Nova's Baby Girl ($3.40, Davis) won the first division in 1:59.2 by open lengths over Classic Diamond and Bad Nella Monella. The Nova Artist filly earned her first lifetime win.

Jo Ann Looney-King's Curtsyforpurrseco ($2.10, Ross Wolfenden) won the remaining division in 1:59 over Bella's Dream and Seamsalilsassy. The Roddy's Bags Again filly notched her second career win for trainer Jim King Jr.

Brenda Teague Inc's Tae ($3.60, Tony Morgan) was a 1:53.3 winner in the $20,000 fillies and mares open. The 8-year-old daughter of I'm Gorgeous led most of the way in her fourth win of the season for owner/trainer Teague. Best Head West was second with Divine Deo third.

Morgan had four wins on the card, while Allan Davis had three.

Live racing will continue on a Monday through Wednesday schedule until Oct. 18.

Maine trotters shine at Cumberland Fair

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

Maine-sired sophomore trotters got their day in the spotlight on Wednesday (Sept. 27) at Cumberland Fair, with the diagonally gaited set giving fans and bettors some thrilling finishes to cheer about.

The Tardif Taskforce sent Outlawofthevalley into the $14,941 Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, with the underdog finally getting some bragging rights over his nemesis and wagering favorite Wabanaki (Ivan Davies).

Although it is a friendly rivalry, it has been a season-long battle between two of the best male sophomore trotters in the Pine Tree State, with Wabanaki holding a three-win lead over Outlawofthevalley. However, the latter reduced that margin to two as his regular pilot Kevin Switzer, Jr. sent the son of Pembroke Slugger right out to the lead from post 4, dashing to a :29.2 opening panel.

Following a 1:00.4 half-mile breather Outlawofthevalley was prompted to a 1:29.4 third stanza and put five lengths between himself and his pursuers, with Wabanaki leading the rest of the pack. At the head of the stretch Davies had Wabanaki within two spans of the pacesetter and continued to gain ground.

The wire came just in time for Outlawofthevalley who prevailed by a nose in 2:00, a new lifetime best.

Owned and bred by Leighton Property, it was his fourth seasonal victory and paid his backers $9.60 for the win.

Pembroke Traveler (Heath Campbell, Valerie Grondin) finished third.

In the $14,952 3-year-old filly trot, Ivan Davies had his star distaff Wild Ending in gear and on point and sent her out to a wire-to-wire romp in 2:02.3, winning by five open lengths.

Owned by Anita 'Bunny' Anastosopoulos-Andrew, and bred by the late Mike Andrew, it was Wild Ending's seventh win of the season, where she paid $2.20 to win as the heavy favorite.

She'salilbitmouthy (Mike Cushing) finished second; Melania's Best (John Nason) was third.

'Double Digit' Dave Ingraham scored three times on the afternoon program, however none of those victories entered the double-digit category.

Harness racing at Cumberland Fair continues with a special 11 am finale slated for Sunday (Oct. 1).

The Maine Sire Stakes highlight of the week will be all four $50,000-plus divisional Maine Sire Stakes freshmen finals on Saturday (Sept. 30), with three of the divisions on the talent-packed 13-race card, and one early non-bettor at 1:10 pm.

First Tracks Cumberland's winter festival reconvenes on Sunday, November 5, abiding by a weekend racing schedule through Christmas Eve (Dec. 24). Winter post times will be 11 a.m.

More information can be found on our website: <https://firsttrackscumberland.com> and on our Facebook page: First Tracks Cumberland.

Racehorse Health and Safety Act introduced

Coalition introduces bill to bring safety to the industry as an alternative to HISA.

by The Ingram Group

On Tuesday (Sept. 26), horse racing industry groups representing over tens of thousands of horsepeople, joined Congressman Clay Higgins (LA-03) to introduce the Racehorse Health and Safety Act (RHSA) to bring safety to the industry. The bill is endorsed by the National Horsemen's Benevolent & Protective Association (HBPA), the United States Trotting Association (USTA), the North American Association of Racetrack Veterinarians (NAARV), and others. The RHSA would establish an interstate compact to develop nationwide rules governing scientific medication control and racetrack safety for horse racing as another option to the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA).

"I grew up on a horse ranch," said Congressman Clay Higgins. "I love horses, and the horse racing community is special to me. It's part of who I am. While the federal government may have had good intentions in passing HISA, in practice it ended up obstructing best practices in the horse business. I will not sit by and allow horses to be harmed while government crushes the families that have built their lives around the horse racing industry."

The bill establishes the Racehorse Health and Safety Organization (RHSO), with a board of directors appointed by the state racing commissions. Five board members will be appointed by the racing commissions in the states with the most racing days, and four members will be appointed by racing commissions in the remaining states. The RHSO board will establish three Scientific Medication Control Committees, one for each racing breed: thoroughbreds, standardbreds, and quarter horses. Committee members will be selected by industry associations and the board. The RHSO board will also establish one Racetrack Safety Committee comprised of board appointed members and industry appointed members that will recommend breed specific rules to the board. The board will have the final say on all rules adopted, but it must justify its decisions with scientific evidence. Further, the RHSO will be granted the power to investigate rule violations, but the state racing commission of each participating state will retain enforcement power unless it requests the RHSO to assist with enforcement. Finally, the RHSO will be funded through annual fees from the participating state racing commissions, which will be specific to each breed.

States will have two years to decide whether to participate in the compact, and only participating states will be allowed to export simulcast signals for interstate, offsite betting. The RHSA, if passed, would also repeal HISA, which was passed in 2020 to bring safety to the horse racing industry.

After HISA was fully implemented this May, 12 horses died in six weeks at Churchill Downs Racetrack, home of the Kentucky Derby. Even though HISA admitted the racetrack was in "full compliance" with its racetrack safety rules, Churchill Downs was shut down, and races were moved to another track. Under HISA's watch other racing fatalities occurred at Triple Crown racetracks and at prominent tracks in Maryland and New York. Despite spending $66.5 million this year, the HISA Authority recently failed to identify the cause of the problem.

As the HISA Authority concluded, "Horse racing has reached an 'all-hands-on-deck' moment requiring more than ever a truly unified effort for the horses. All stakeholder groups must participate in bringing the appropriate recommendations to fruition and being part of the solution." Higgins believes the RHSA is that solution.

Doug Daniels, DVM and president of the National HBPA, praised the RHSA:

"The RHSA is a law that works from the ground up and brings all horse racing industry entities to the table in a collaborative, consensus-driven approach. It's a sensible piece of legislation that will cost horsemen much less than HISA because it will utilize resources already existing in the states. And it will be constitutional and democratic, allowing everyone in the industry to have a voice in the rule-making process."

"This bill is not based on optics but on sound veterinary science, accountability, and transparency," said Russell Williams, president of the USTA. "The RHSO must ensure that all horse racing rules are based on generally accepted scientific principles and methods, and to the extent possible, on peer-reviewed scientific data and studies. This will keep the health of the horse at the forefront of everything it does and simultaneously provide proper justification for the rules to the industry."

Donald Smith, president of the NAARV board of directors, said, "The North American Association of Racetrack Veterinarians (NAARV) is supporting the Racehorse Health and Safety Act because the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority is a flawed institution which not only is harmful to the horse racing industry but has serious implications as a precedent to challenge our basic Constitutional liberties and protections."

Attorney General Jeff Landry (LA), said, "Lo and behold, despite all the grandstanding and potentially good intentions of those who lobbied for HISA, its implementation has been an absolute failure by every metric."

"In pushing a one-size-fits-all program that effectively grants control of an entire industry to a handful of elites within a private entity, the federal government's plan has collapsed from underneath it – at the expense of the American racehorse and those who work the hardest within this industry. That is why it is time to repeal and replace HISA with something designed by horsemen for horsemen.”

Antonacci family purchases Kentucky farm

The Antonacci family of Lindy Farms is pleased to announce the purchase of a new standardbred and thoroughbred farm on Bryan Station Road in Lexington, KY. The farm dates back to the very founding of Lexington, serving as the backdrop for the Siege of Bryan Station during the American Revolution. In a nod to that tradition and legacy that Lindy Farms is proud to carry on, the new farm will be named Lindy Farms at Bryan Station.

The family first came to Lexington in 1969 to race its 3-year-old colt champion, Lindy's Pride, in the Kentucky Futurity. In 2000, in partnership with Brittany Farms and Winbak Farm, the Antonaccis purchased the Red Mile to preserve and promote the racing legacy of Lexington. Since that time, the Red Mile, in joint venture with Keeneland, has brought considerable value to the racing and breeding of both breeds. Kentucky, and specifically Lexington, is securely positioned to remain as the preeminent horse country in the world.

The purchase of the Bryan Station farm is the next step in the family's involvement and commitment to the Bluegrass and Lexington communities. Lindy Farms at Bryan Station will be a world class dual-breed facility combining the rich equine history of Lexington with the esteemed racing and breeding legacy of Lindy Farms. We will be mindful stewards of the land and look forward to deepening our commitment to this wonderful community and making the City of Lexington, Fayette County, and Commonwealth of Kentucky proud.

The Antonaccis would like to thank the Wood family for its many years of diligent stewardship of the historic farm and Bill Justice of Justice Real Estate for facilitating the transaction.

Tattoo Artist highlights Dayton Derby

An evening of premiere Grand Circuit racing quickly approaches Dayton Raceway as tonight (Sept. 30) the Dayton, OH oval will host four divisions of the Dayton Derby. All four divisions of the Dayton Derby will go for a purse of $250,000.

Highlighting the Dayton Derby for male pacers is 2-1 morning-line favorite Tattoo Artist for driver Louis Roy and trainer Dr. Ian Moore. The 6-year-old son of He's Watching has already enjoyed much success this season having won the likes of the Ewart Memorial at Scioto Downs and Canadian Pacing Derby at Woodbine Mohawk Park, bankrolling $794,472 in 2023. Tattoo Artist will leave from post 5 where he will look to add the Dayton Pacing Derby to his illustrious 2023 season. Moore is not a stranger to the Dayton Pacing Derby having won the elusive race in 2015 with State Treasurer.

Second choice Bythemissal clocks in at morning-line odds of 7-2 for trainer Ron Burke and driver Yannick Gingras. The Ohio-bred son by Downbytheseaside is seven-for-10 in his 2023 season having already captured the Charna at Northfield Park, Aria Invitational at Yonkers Raceway and Sam McKee Memorial at The Meadowlands.

Though having drawn the dreaded post 9, morning-line favorite Alrajah One IT, at odds of 5-2, will look to add the Dayton Trotting Derby to his resume for trainer Ake Svanstedt and driver Dexter Dunn. Having only made one start thus far in 2023, Alrajah One made his season's debut a winning one capturing the Maple Leaf Trot in record fashion at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Trainer Ake Svanstedt will also send out Southwind Tyrion whom he will pilot himself from post 6 and Incommunicado (Andrew McCarthy) from post 7.

Second choice It's Academic comes into the Dayton Trotting Derby fresh off a win in the Caesars Trotting Classic at Hoosier Park for trainer Burke and driver David Miller. It's Academic has already claimed victories in the Aldrich at Northfield Park, the John Cashman and Crawford Farms Trot at The Meadowlands and the Spirit Of Massachusetts at Plainridge Park. It's Academic will leave from post 5 at morning line odds of 7-2.

On the femme fatale side, highlighting the Dayton Distaff Derby for mare pacers is morning-line favorite Grace Hill from post 9 at odds of 9-5. Coming into the Dayton Distaff Derby in fine form Grace Hill has already tasted victory in the Milton and Roses Are Red at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the Cleopatra at Scioto Downs. The daughter of Always B Miki is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. and will be driven by Doug McNair.

Second choice, at odds of 3-1, is Canadian invader Silver Label who will leave from post 2 for trainer Nick Gallucci and driver Scott Zeron. Silver Label thus far in her 2023 season has claimed victory in the Lady Liberty and Perfect Sting at The Meadowlands.

The Dayton Oaks Derby will see heavily favored M-M's Dream as the 9-5 morning-line choice from post 9. The daughter of Swan For All who is seven-for-10 on the year comes into the Dayton Oaks Derby after winning her last four races in a row, included in those four victories are the Robert Miecuna Memorial Trot at Yonkers Raceway and the Hambletonian Maturity. M-M's Dream will be driven by Miller for trainer Burke.

Jiggy Jog S comes in as the second choice at 3-1 and will leave from post 7 for trainer Svanstedt and driver Dunn. A winner of the Graduate and Six Pack at The Meadowlands, Jiggy Jog has bankrolled $631,453 thus far in 2023 and enters the Dayton Oaks Derby having won four of her last seven starts.

Entries for the tonight's card of racing at Dayton Raceway are available here: <https://racing.ustrotting.com/chart.aspx>.

OSS Grassroots finals featured tonight at Woodbine Mohawk Park

Tonight (Sept. 30), the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots championships will bring big fields of 2- and 3-year-old trotting and pacing talent to Woodbine Mohawk Park for eight $75,000 finals.

Post time is 7:10 p.m. and the 2-year-old trotting fillies will kick off the championship action in race 2.

Among the 10 2-year-old trotting fillies vying for the title, Flirty Dancer (Lookslikeachpndale—Hola Lola) has four Grassroots victories, taking her 1:57.1 mark in the first divisional semi-final. Driver Scott Young stays with the Paul Reid trainee. Her closest statistical rival is Birthday Money (Resolve—Parkhill Nocredit), second in the standings. Trained/driven by Matt Bax, she finished third to Flirty Dancer at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Sept. 21, trotting her fastest individual mile (1:57.4).

Race 3 features 2-year-old pacing fillies. A winner of Grassroots Legs at three different tracks, Tribal Dancer (Sunshine Beach—That Day) returns to Jody Jamieson for the final. The Melissa Lamoureux trainee looks to return to the Woodbine Mohawk Park winner's circle after finishing fourth as beaten 4-5 favorite in the Grassroots semi-final.

Betterwithglasses (Betterthancheddar—London Eye) and driver Trevor Henry upset at 7-1 odds that race but must overcome post 10 tonight. Trained by Vic Puddy, she lowered her record to 1:52.2 in the semi-final. She is currently fourth by earnings in her division, only $100 behind Greatest Pleasure (Bettor's Delight—Twin B Imabeach), who starts from post 3 for driver Chris Christoforou and trainer Luc Blais in the final. She has three Grassroots victories, taking a 1:52 mark in Leg #4 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, then repeating in the 1:52.3 semi-final.

Two-year-old male trotters take center stage in race 4, led by divisional No. 1, Northernchancellor (Muscle Mass—Honor Grad). He was edged out by fast-closing Nzuri in a Sept. 21, win photo and seeks his first OSS win at Woodbine Mohawk Park tonight. The Bruce MacDonald-trained gelding won Grassroots Legs #2 and #4 at Grand River Raceway and Georgian Downs for regular driver Austin Sorrie.

To his immediate outside is 5-2 morning-line favorite Salem Seelster (Muscle Mass—Speak Of The Devil), who took his 1:56 record winning his Grassroots semi-final. Jody Jamieson catch drives the gelding, currently No. 6 in the standings for trainer Luc Blais. Salem Seelster surged past rival Ways N Means (Muscle Mass—Mariongotchocolate) at the wire last start. Paul MacDonell stays with the Mike Keeling-trained Ways N Means, who starts from post 3 tonight.

RACE 6

In race 6, win-streaking Smashin Racquets (Resolve—Princess Serena) headlines the 3-year-old filly trotting final for trainer Kyle Fellows. He also sends out Cardio Muscle (Muscle Mass—Cardio Pump), number 16 in the standings. Pretty Special (Resolve—Pretty Crafty) is morning-line favorite at 5-2. Trained by Camilla Christoforou and driven by Chris Christoforou, she is third on the leaderboard after lowering her mark to 1:53.3 in a going-away Grassroots semi-final victory.

RACE 7

Race 7 sees 3-year-old filly pacers in the spotlight. Twin Delight (Bettor's Delight—Twin B Cheeks) draws outside again, following her hard-fought 1:52.3 Grassroots semi-final win from post 10. Bob McClure drives the winner of four 2023 Grassroots Legs, who was second in last year's 2-year-old Grassroots final. Conditioner Shawn Steacy sends out Twin Delight and three other finalists: Kuper Trooper (No. 20 in the Grassroots standings), Dance With Tabby (No. 16), and 3-1 morning-line favorite Century Jamila (No. 2).

RACE 8

Two-year-old pacing colts and geldings face off in race 8. Jody Jamieson catch drives 6-5 morning-line favorite T H McMurry (McWicked—Waasmula), a 1:51.4 July 10 Gold Series winner who remains undefeated in Grassroots competition. He held off Shawn Steacy trainee Unrivaled Hanover (Bettor's Delight—Upside Surprise) in their Sept. 21, semi-final. That rival hopes to build on a 1:56.1 maiden win in Grassroots Leg #3 at Grand River Raceway.

RACE 9

Race 9 brings together Grassroots semi-final winner New Rules (Lookslikeachpndale—Mini Her) and divisional frontrunner Resolve To Win (Resolve—Sensual Hall), the Sept. 22, place finisher. New Rules is second in the standings for 3-year-old male trotters, lowering his mark to 1:53 in Grassroots Leg #5 at Woodbine Mohawk Park for regular driver Austin Sorrie and trainer Marcel Barrieau. The 10-horse final includes 2022 2-year-old Gold Super Final champion DWs Point Man (My MVP—Yankeedoodlecandy), 13th in the 2023 Grassroots standings for trainer Marie-Hélène Dupont.

In race 10, Winmebak (Shadow Play—Winbak Speedi) debuts for Bob McClure in the 3-year-old male pacing final. The Nick Gallucci trainee was a co-leader in the division standings, undefeated in Grassroots Legs #4 and #5 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, plus his Sept. 21, semi-final. Ahi Sunshine (Sunshine Beach—Racey Miss) closed in on 1:51.2 winner Palladium Hanover (Artspeak—Pilgrims Witchie) late in the second semi-final. The Shawn Steacy and Jodie Cullen trainees show strong form going into the championship and will start from posts 3 and 6.

Batavia Downs boasting record handle at current meet

As the 2023 live racing season at Batavia Downs reached the halfway mark, the numbers show that bettors came out in full force and that may lead to the track's most profitable year since Western Regional Off-Track Betting reopened the property for racing in 2002.

Through the first 26 days of the scheduled 53-day summer/fall meet, the total handle is up 57 per cent over the first 26 days of the 2022 season, with an average nightly handle of $240,438, compared to $153,229 at this point last year. And Don Hoover, director of live racing, is expecting this surge to continue.

"Based on what we are seeing to this point of the meet, I believe these numbers will hold true throughout the remainder of the 2023 live season and easily eclipse the previous high-water mark [since WROTB purchased Batavia Downs] of $146,987 per night set in 2021," said Hoover.

"We had a very strong winter meet at the start of this year that set two daily handle records [for the WROTB era] on consecutive Wednesdays and the momentum for our product has clearly carried over to our current meet. As a result, I expect this substantial increase in wagering dollars to continue throughout the second half of the season."

Hoover is also quick to point out that it has been a total team effort that has resulted in this increase.

"More horses are stabled on the grounds at Batavia Downs right now than in previous years, directly resulting in more races and fuller fields that lead to more wagering opportunities," said Hoover. "And with the Tioga Downs meet recently coming to a close, we will most likely see more ship-ins from those horsemen as well, providing an even larger pool of horses to fill all our classes. And our simulcast department has been hard at work sending our races to more outlets throughout North America which in turn, exposes more customers to our product."

Batavia Downs is currently racing at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday right through October 28. Then the schedule changes to 6 p.m. on Wednesday and Saturday from November 1 through December 9, which is the final night of live racing for the meet.

Shenandoah Downs to host "Pink Power" fundraiser today; Virginia Breeder's Fund races kick off this weekend

Shenandoah Downs will host its annual "Pink Power" Breast Cancer Awareness fundraiser this afternoon (Sept. 30) as the Woodstock oval enters weekend three of its seven-week fall harness racing campaign.

Monies collected through a raffle featuring a booze wagon and other great prizes will benefit the American Cancer Society's (ACS) Harrisonburg, VA chapter. Four divisions in the U.S. Harness Drivers Club Fall Series will take place in races 6 through 9, and all driver shares of purse money today – and all meet – will be donated to the ASC as well. An initial donation check of $1,000 will be presented today.

Five female drivers will compete for bragging rights and the winner's share of a $5,750 purse in the "Pink Power Ladies Driving Challenge." Veronica Merton, Betsy Brown, Stacey McLenaghan, Devan Miller and Sierra Seidner will battle in the afternoon's third race.

Virginia Breeder's Fund competition gets underway today as well with $8,000 first leg divisions in the 3-year-old colt and gelding trot and 3-year-old filly trot categories. Both freshman champs return with hopes of repeating. Pamela Wagner and Scott Woogen's KJ Alexander captured the $90,600 male trotting final last October while Caviart Farms' Caviart Gwen won the $87,325 filly trot finale. Corey Braden will drive the former for trainer Alicia Hanners from the rail while Philip Scott Sonstebly will pilot the latter – which he trains – from post 3.

The initial prep/elimination Breeder's legs will continue in Woodstock for the next four weekends leading up to the $640,000 (est.) "Day of Champions on Sunday (Oct. 29).

Today's entire card – along with all race days the rest of the meet – can be wagered on online via Twinspires, TVG, Xpressbet and NYRABets, and at many OTBs and tracks around the country. Free Shenandoah Downs TrackMaster programs along with Derby Bill's Tip Sheet and race replays are available at shenandoahdowns.com. The fall season continues every Saturday and Sunday through October 29.

Gural on the new Racehorse Health and Safety Act

The USTA has gone out of their way to make their members believe that the introduction of the Racehorse Health and Safety Act (RHSA) has the slightest chance to be enacted into law. I have a better chance of walking on the moon than this piece of legislation has of being enacted into law.

It is obvious to me that the USTA is quite happy with the current arrangement where the states regulate the sport and everyone who wants to use drugs can do so. If we don't clean this up we are going to lose the subsidy as no politician is going to want to be associated with taking money from slots that could go to education or other uses and giving it to purses for standardbred racing.

Our industry has to make it clear that we want to clean it up and we are willing to opt into HISA provided they make the changes we need because of the difference in our breed. While I am sure everyone is grateful that I have stepped up and kept The Meadowlands open, unfortunately I am also very honest, and I am not going to tolerate drugs in our sport at my racetracks. The fact that the USTA is making it sound like this is actually going to happen is a disgrace. We better be prepared, once they find out how bad the drug problem is, to change our stance on HISA and let them take over so at least we have a chance of cleaning it up. It cost me personally $2.5 million to put 30 people in prison, but now it's time for the industry to pick up those costs as I have done my part.
