Bob "Hollywood" Heyden gives the thumbs up to the Grand Circuit meet at The Red Mile.

Let's take a look at some numbers and records from year #150 at The Red Mile in Lexington, KY.

1. History's first sub-1:50 trotting daily double: Date Night Hanover (1:49.2) and Periculum (1:49.3) to start things off on Futurity Day (Oct. 5). Marcus Melander trains both. It was 25 years and two months after the pacing equivalent was set in August 2000 at The Meadowlands.
2. Ron Burke establishing new freshman world records with colt Al Papi (1:48.1) and Loua Dipa (1:48 flat) on the filly side.
3. Eleven straight different trainers have won the Kentucky Futurity as Luc Blais joined in the fun with Determination Stable's homebred Emoticon Legacy.
4. Maryland, after his runner-up finish in the Futurity, has 485G on the season without a victory: 8 0-6-1, averaging over 60G per.

5. Yannick Gingras with a unique driving double, finishing second in consecutive Triple Crown races with a different colt: Super Chapter in the Hambletonian and Maryland in the Futurity. It was Gingras' first time with each.

6. Hats off to Ake Svanstedt, the only driver/trainer in action on Futurity Day.

7. Emoticon Legacy with an all-time first, two straight races, two different countries, two sub 1:50 victories: 1:49.4 in the Canadian Trotting Classic at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and 1:49.2 in the Kentucky Futurity.

8. Emoticon Legacy's 1:49.2 in the Futurity was just a fifth off the seven-year world record set by Six Pack in the same race of 1:49.1.

9. Muscle Hill's fastest 3YO credit came in the 2024 Futurity with Sig Sauer (1:49.3), now Walner's quickest came in the same race with Emoticon Legacy at 1:49.2.

10. Father-and-son sires took home $475,000 of the half million $ Futurity purse with Walner (1) and Chapter Seven (2, 3, and 4).

11. Emoticon Legacy was the only post 10 winner of the week and he started the rare 10-11 exacta with Maryland.

12. This year's Futurity landed 41 years to the day of history's first Breeders Crown ever, also at The Red Mile. Workaholic won it with Berndt Lindstedt.

13. Can you say photo-op days? The last two days at The Red Mile required 15 photos, a half-length or less, in the 24 races, including a neck in the Futurity.

14. How many trotters on Futurity Day were race-timed in sub 1:50? A total of 10.

15. Dexter Dunn needed less than 48 hours to post the two quickest freshman miles at two different tracks: Melanie and Peter Wrenn's Odds On Mr Mamba (1:47.4) at Hoosier Park and then Ron Burke's Al Papi (1:48.1) at The Red Mile.

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

Smaller catalog keys Buckeye Classic average increase

by James Platz

Trotting sire In Range dominated Ohio racing this season, and as a result, his offspring have garnered significant attention at the sales this fall. So, it came as no surprise that a colt from his second crop topped Tuesday's (Oct. 7) Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale. Respectable Son, Hip #209 in the catalog, was hammered down for $60,000 to lead a contingent of 242 babies sold at the Champions Center Expo in Springfield, OH. Total sales for the 11th annual sale topped $2.57 million. Offering nearly 100 fewer horses than in 2024, the average climbed to $10,634, up more than 20 per cent from a year ago.

Respectable son is the fifth foal from And Away We Go mare Beautiful, a seven-time winner on the track. The colt is a brother to six-figure earners Irresistible Son 3, 1:54.3f '24 ($199,118) and Grateful 3, 1:54f '24 ($141,562). Consigned by Trackside Farm for Leon Troyer, the colt was purchased by Ryan Stahl.

In Range filly Soaring Sophia was next on the sale sheets, bringing $50,000 for Dundee Stables. Cataloged late in the sale as Hip #248, the bay is out of Manofmanymissions mare Devils Advocate, an Ontario Sire Stakes Gold leg winner that has produced three winners from her first four foals. Soaring Sophia was sold to Joyce McClelland.

A group of 26 yearlings by In Range were offered Tuesday, averaging just shy of $15,827. Six babies brought $20,000 or more.

Next in the results was Rose Run Cash, a son of What The Hill, which brought $47,000. Consigned by Rose Run Farm, he is out of a Credit Winner mare that has three winners from three living foals. Wayne Mast, Jr. signed the slip for the colt, sold as Hip #136 in the catalog.

Mast was one of the more active bidders during the session. He signed eight tickets in total, spending $219,000. One of his selections, The Fire Profit, led all pacing yearlings with a $47,000 final bid. The Catch The Fire filly, Hip #186, is the second foal from Sweet Lou mare Windfall Profits. She is a sister to sophomore Hungry For Profits, a five-time winner. The Fire Profit was consigned by Abby Stables acting as agent for CT Stables and Thomas Cave. A total of 19 from Catch The Fire were sold for an average of $14,816.

Mast also went to $45,000 for Ready For Moni colt Max The Moni. Offered as Hip #73 by Dublin Valley Farm, the yearling is a sibling to near-$500,000 winner The Mighty Hill and freshman winner Max The Mighty 2, 2:00.4h -25, BT1:54.3f-25 ($106,750). A group of 11 yearlings by Ready For Moni passed through the ring Tuesday averaging $18,955. Only one baby failed to reach five figures.

Trainer Rosy Weaver was also busy throughout the session, purchasing a total of nine yearlings. Her top purchase came very late in the session when she bid $37,000 on Krazy Caviar. The Triumphant Caviar colt was consigned by Pine Grove Acres. Weaver's purchases totaled $152,000. Nisonger Stables added eight yearlings while spending $109,500. The top selection was In Range filly Ranger's Babe, a $29,000 acquisition. Stahl not only bought the session topper, but he added two more babies for total purchases of $111,000.

Dublin Valley led all consignors in number sold (53) and gross sales ($529,500). The combined effort of Trackside Farm and Martz Creek Farm led all consignors in average, with five yearlings averaging $22,800. In addition, Trackside's individual consignment of 12 babies averaged $18,167. The five-yearling offering from Pine Grove Acres averaged $20,600, while a pair of yearlings from Rose Run Farm sold for an average of $33,000.

Of the first crop sires represented Tuesday, Monte Miki topped the list in average. A group of 15 from the Breeders Crown champion averaged $12,000. Cuatro De Julio babies (17) averaged $9,588 while those from the first crop of Coach K Hanover (12) sold for an average of $9,375.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Super stakes weekend in Europe

by Thomas Hedlund

It's a weekend for the ages in European harness racing – the $480,000 European Derby for 4-year-olds in Stockholm on Saturday (Oct. 11), and Italian Derby Day for 3-year-olds in Rome on Sunday (Oct. 12).

Fans could hardly ask for a better lineup than what Solvalla will present on Saturday. The total purse money of $2.6 million (SEK 28 million) exceeds even Elitloppet Day, and many are calling it the best race card ever assembled in Sweden. Saturday's program features the $500,000 Swedish Oaks for 3-year-old fillies, the $700,000 Swedish Trotting Kriterium for 3-year-olds, the $560,000 UET Elite Circuit final for Europe's top older trotters, and the $480,000 UET Grand Prix (European Derby) for 4-year-olds.

In addition, Solvalla will host 10 more races, including the V75 finals with a minimum purse of $50,000 each – making it a truly spectacular day of trotting. Headliners include Idao de Tillard, Don Fanucci Zet, Borups Victory, and Inmarosa – stars from across Europe converging on Stockholm for a day to remember.

Meanwhile, the Italian Derby at Rome's Capannelle Racetrack on Sunday offers an impressive $880,000 purse for 3-year-olds bred in Italy. Top contenders include Ginostrabliggi, Golden Boy, and Guglielmo Jet, who will battle it out over 2,100 meters. In the $280,000 Italian Oaks, trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro conditions six of the 14 starters and will drive the field's most accomplished filly, Glamour Queen. Older stars will also take center stage in the $165,000 Gran Premio Gaetano Turilli, where Gocciadoro again has six of the 11 starters.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Ryan Sanderson looks to keep dream season rolling in Victoria Cup with Bay Of Biscay

But the young driver knows he has big shoes to fill taking over the mount from Cam Hart.

by Adam Hamilton

It is not often you get to step into the shoes of your idol.

But that's exactly what top young Victorian driver Ryan Sanderson will do over the next two weeks.

The 22-year-old Sanderson was just in his mid-teens when he first met Cam Hart, then still a teenager himself.

Hart, who grew up in the NSW Riverina town of Junee, moved to the big smoke to try his luck and landed a job with Sanderson's father, Shane Sanderson, who was then training a team out of the fantastic on-course Menangle complex.

Fast forward about seven years and a then untapped but ambitious Hart has now become one of Australasia's best drivers.

Hart, 26, boasts almost 1,400 wins, including 16 at Group 1 level.

But it's the quality of those major wins and the horses Hart has driven which has quickly built his brand.

Champion stayer Swayzee has been his megastar. Hart has driven him to win iconic races like the New Zealand Cup (twice), Hunter Cup, Victoria Cup, and Blacks A Fake.

More recently, Hart became the regular driver for the regally bred and exciting young star Bay Of Biscay.

They first created a splash winning Australia's premier 4-year-old race, the Group 1 Chariots Of Fire, at Menangle back in March.

Hart trumped that when he returned to Menangle with Bay Of Biscay early last month to win the richest harness race in the world, the $2.1million TAB Eureka.

The pair have just clicked. Hart's 11 drives on the 4-year-old have returned five wins, three seconds, a third, and a fourth. He's won three of his past four drives on him.

But the partnership was never set in concrete.

It couldn't be because of the inevitability that Bay Of Biscay would surge to an open-class feature race and clash with Swayzee.

As much as Hart loves Bay Of Biscay, Swayzee is like family.

That moment has come with Bay Of Biscay and Swayzee both headed to next Saturday's $250,000 Group 1 Victoria Cup at Melton.

Bay Of Biscay will cap his preparation for the Cup in Saturday (Oct. 11) night's Smoken Up Sprint at Melton.

With Hart having a strong book of drives at Menangle on the same night and being committed to Swayzee a week later, the time came for Bay Of Biscay's connections to pick a new driver.

Ryan Sanderson is that man.

It's fitting recognition and responsibility for what's been a breakthrough season for the young fella from Murchison in central Victoria.

“I’ve looked up to Cam [Hart] ever since he first came and worked for [my] dad [at Menangle]. He’s a terrific guy and someone I’ve always looked up to as inspiration, a role model if you like... He’s already pretty much done it all. If I could get anywhere near his level I’d be thrilled. Just to be asked to fill his shoes and drive Bay Of Biscay is quite an honor.”

~ Ryan Sanderson

Although Ryan has driven over 100 winners three seasons, he’s on target to smash that in 2025 with a stunning winning strike rate of 19 per cent, compared to 14 per cent across his career.

And the quality of horses Ryan has driven and his wins has gone to another level.

Much of that is due to the relatively recent support from Bay Of Biscay’s trainers, the powerhouse combination of Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin.

“The opportunities they’ve given me have been amazing,” he said. “It’s what every driver strives for and I’m pinching myself a bit that it’s happening.”

A buzzing Ryan said the Victoria Cup drive was a dream come true.

“I thought getting a drive in the TAB Eureka was amazing [with Fox Dan for Stewart and Tonkin] and running second made it an incredible night, but the history of the Victoria and Hunter Cups are what you grow up hearing about and watching replays of,” he said. “The Victoria Cup is always talked about and has been won by some of the greatest horses in the game.

“To think, I’ll even be driving in it is so exciting.”

For all of Ryan’s success, his biggest win so far has been the $60,000 Mildura Cup at Group 3 level in regional Victoria.

Although he cites a heat of the 2024 NSW Inter Dominion series as the most special.

“Well, I have it on par with that second in the TAB Eureka now,” he said. “I won that heat on Dangerous, our family horse trained by Dad.”

And for the drive to come on Bay Of Biscay, a horse Hart has helped make, adds to the enormity of the occasion over the next few weeks.

“I’ve looked up to Cam ever since he first came and worked for dad [at Menangle],” Ryan said. “He’s a terrific guy and someone I’ve always looked up to as inspiration, a role model if you like.

“It’s been great watching Cam go on and do things he’s done, winning all those big races and driving some great horses. He’s already pretty much done it all.

“If I could get anywhere near his level I’d be thrilled.

“Just to be asked to fill his shoes and drive Bay Of Biscay is quite an honor.”

Ryan is no stranger to Bay Of Biscay.

“I did drive him to win a trial a few months back [on June 10] when he was preparing for a big race in Queensland [the Group 1 Rising Sun], which he didn’t end up going to because they couldn’t get a suitable flight. I knew I was just warming the seat, though,” Ryan said. “He’s a lovely, big strong horse with speed, strength and class.

“He’s got his work cut out against Leap To Fame this week, especially from their barriers [Leap To Fame has 6 and Bay Of Biscay 7], but it’s more about getting a good run into him before the Victoria Cup the week after.

“Hopefully he can draw better than Leap To Fame next week to give us some sort of chance, but he’s something else [Leap To Fame]. I’m pretty sure he’s one of the best we’ve ever seen.”

In another twist, Ryan and Bay Of Biscay will be against the family horse, Dangerous, in Saturday night’s race.

Ryan’s sister, Abby, who has driven 86 winners, now drives Dangerous at the races.

“Abby’s doing a great job,” Ryan said. “She’s just started full-time work in real estate, but she still helps out at home with the horses every chance she gets.

“We usually work between 10-15 horses at home, but the other side of the business is pre-training thoroughbreds.

“We moved from Charlton into this Murchison place about 10 months ago. We’ve got a really good farm set-up, with a water-walker and everything else, as part of Willowood Racing. Paul and Danny Lowry are the main people behind it.

“It’ll be a big night for mum [Naomi] and dad [Shane] with us both in the race.”

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Third generation horseman Kyle Ruhl always found his way back to the track

by Matthew Lomon

No matter where life steered him from adolescence to adulthood, standardbred racing was never more than an arm's length away for Kyle Ruhl – after all, the game was coded in his DNA.

A third-generation horseman on both his mother's [Chris] and father's [Paul] side, Kyle did his best to balance life on the ice with life on the track.

"I love hockey, but horse racing was the passion," said the former University of Guelph goaltender. "When I was playing junior hockey, I was trying to train a couple horses at the same time too, but you've got to make a choice."

It was after graduating university that Kyle – who had spent every summer since age 12 working around various barns – made his decision.

The Tara, ON, native's foray into horse ownership started in 2018, when he teamed up with trainer Anthony MacDonald – whose house he was renovating at the time – to buy Screaming Hawk.

While Kyle only had the bay son of Angus Hall – Screaming Prayer for one year before selling, Screaming Hawk helped pave the way for the next step in Kyle's harness racing career: obtaining his trainer's license.

"I started buying yearlings myself in 2020, which is when I got my license," said Kyle, who's familial ties to the industry remain strong through his dad Paul, the track manager at Golden Horseshoe Training Centre. "The first one I bought when I got my license was off my uncle [Jim Ruhl], who was heading towards retirement."

That horse was Halliday Dream, who hailed from a familiar bloodline.

"He was an Angus Hall," Kyle said. "We've always had Angus Halls because my uncle bred a lot too, so I had experience with the pedigree and was ready to take a crack at doing this myself."

Kyle, in his words, found "some success" with the bay out of the Striking Sahbra mare Always Dreaming, compiling a 4-1-1 line from 19 starts.

"I've always been a little more cautious or conservative with my animals. I have no problem scratching a horse that's a little sore somewhere and missing a few starts. These are athletes, you're not going to send out an athlete with a broken foot to play a hockey game, so why would I send a horse out to race if they're not feeling right? That's one thing I'll always stick to: treat an animal like how you want to be treated."

~ Kyle Ruhl

Numbers on a stat sheet, however, cannot adequately capture Halliday Dream's true value.

"He was a handful," Kyle said with a laugh. "That was the first full-in, hands-on, you've got to pay attention to everything, horse that I had. It's not when I was a kid working for my dad, or Frank O'Reilly – my grandpa used to own horses with Frank when he was still training."

"I liked going to the barn and jogging horses in high school, but you're not really indulging in the life yet."

Kyle relied on both his family and time between the pipes to navigate his days as a neophyte trainer.

"I've preached this for a while – there is a major connection between athletes and good trainers," he said. "Your horse is an athlete, so being able to spot and develop talent is a major part of it."

"We see it with drivers, and being a catch driver, too. All those guys are good athletes – James [MacDonald], Dougie [McNair], Todd [Ratchford], all the guys on the Mohawk scene were good hockey players, good athletes all around."

Kyle's athletic background continued to serve him well during his conditioning career, particularly from a scouting perspective.

Standing at the 2023 London Selected Yearling Sale, Kyle, with his father, identified a Green Manalishi S filly by the name of Show Me The Green as their prized prospect.

"She was my dad's top ticket of the sale," Kyle said. "I have a cap on what I want to spend on babies, and didn't think she was going to be in my price range. Dad was more wait-and-see."

“I’ve preached this for a while – there is a major connection between athletes and good trainers. Your horse is an athlete, so being able to spot and develop talent is a major part of it. We see it with drivers, and being a catch driver, too. All those guys are good athletes – James [MacDonald], Dougie [McNair], Todd [Ratchford], all the guys on the Mohawk scene were good hockey players, good athletes all around.”

~ Kyle Ruhl

Ultimately, the junior Ruhl’s intuition proved spot-on, as Show Me The Green fetched a price tag of $59,000 – over double his budget – leaving him with no choice.

“We let her go,” he said.

While difficult at the moment, Kyle knew the talent evaluation process doesn’t end with the sale.

“We still had our eye on her at 2 when [Marcel] Barrieau had her,” Kyle said. “She still wasn’t trotting great, but we wanted to keep an eye on her at 3, and saw she was popping up in a qualifier.

“I’ve been partnered with Carl Kuepfer of Triple S Equine for a few years now, and one day dad and I were heading back home and called Carl to ask if he was at Mohawk. He was, so we asked him to go see how much they wanted for Show Me The Green because she made a break.”

With Kuepfer on the case, Kyle was finally able to bring the brown filly home after the former acquired her from trainer Gabriella Sasso for a modest figure.

Moving swiftly to make up for lost time, Kyle had Show Me The Green in training within two days of bringing her home.

After a few tweaks, the 3-year-old made her first qualifying appearance for Kyle with driver Scott Young at the helm on June 25 at Grand River Raceway.

Both agreed afterwards that further adjustments were necessary.

Once the tinkering, which included tightening the hobbles, was complete, Show Me The Green was ready to debut for her new trainer.

The only catch, however, was that Young was unavailable the night of July 4.

In stepped Daryl Thiessen, following a single instruction from Kyle.

“I said, ‘Daryl, I don’t care if you’re five-wide this whole race, you will not get beat tonight,’” Kyle said. “He goes, ‘I don’t know, man. She doesn’t have a flat line in 15 months.’ I’m like, ‘Dude, I’m telling you, she will not get beat tonight.’ She won that night in [1]:58 – down the road, plugs in, and she’s been a lot of fun since.”

The impressive tally in 1:58.4 at Grand River sparked a sizzling run of six straight victories for nearly $23,000 in prizes.

While Kyle was hoping for lucky number seven in an Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots leg on Aug. 13 at Grand River, Show Me The Green’s unbeaten streak ended with a hard-fought fourth.

“We didn’t quite get the job done, but she still raced huge,” he said. “We had to wait for her, and we lucked out. She’s been really good for us.”

Joining Show Me The Green in Kyle’s modest two-horse stable is Clare Island – a rookie My MVP filly also owned by Kuepfer’s Triple S Equine.

Whether he had two or 20 competing for him, Kyle would coach his equine athletes the same way.

“I’ve always been a little more cautious or conservative with my animals,” he said. “I have no problem scratching a horse that’s a little sore somewhere and missing a few starts. These are athletes, you’re not going to send out an athlete with a broken foot to play a hockey game, so why would I send a horse out to race if they’re not feeling right?”

“That’s one thing I’ll always stick to: treat an animal like how you want to be treated.”

Finding his footing in the game that generations of Ruhls excelled in before him has been a full circle endeavor for the netminder turned trainer.

Reaching this point involved some detours, but Kyle is exactly where he is supposed to be.

“I’m pretty content with where I’m at, to be honest with you,” he said. “I’m very busy with work outside of racing, but if I can just stay at this level of involvement – one, two, three horses moving forward, while I build a company and do all sorts of other stuff, then I’m happy.”

“You try to leave, and you just can’t. I just turned 35, but most of my 20s, I was kind of out of the game finishing school and figuring out what I want to do with my life, and then once the dust settled, I kept finding myself at the track.”

Open letter from Jeff Gural to the industry

[Tonight] in conjunction with the New York Breeding Fund there will be four $250,000 finals for New York-bred 2-year-olds. Twenty years ago, I received a call from the horsemen at Vernon telling me the company that owned the facility had gone bankrupt, the state had pulled their license, and the electric was about to be shut off. They begged me to buy Vernon out of bankruptcy even though it was five miles from Turning Stone and I assumed it would be unprofitable. Fortunately for them, I realized that almost all of the horsemen who were stabled year-round live in the area and if the track closed it would be devastating to the horsemen as well as the community. Stupidly, I spent about $38 million to buy it out of bankruptcy and complete the conversion into a racino. As expected, it was a financial disaster and currently I lose about $1 million a year. The joke is that when I found out there was a law that would prohibit me from racing my horses at Vernon and Tioga other than in stakes [SOA of New York president Joe] Faraldo had his lobbyists oppose the legislation and it never got off the ground. Recently, I decided that we had to replace the lights because the existing lights were terrible making for a lousy signal and unsafe conditions and asked [the SOA of New York] to split it. Once again, they said no.

So, basically, it is costing me $1 million a year to keep Vernon open so the horsemen have a place to race, and I am not even allowed to race there. How stupid is that? Luckily for them I breed trotters, and I think it is important that Vernon and Tioga were opened out of bankruptcy so that we could race our young trotters on a bigger surface.

I think one of the finals at Batavia this year for 2-year-olds saw half the horses break. In 2011, I received a call from Tommy Luchento telling me that the Governor [of New Jersey] was going to announce the closing of The Meadowlands at the end of the week and begged me to go with him to try to convince them to lease me the facility. Once again, I was successful, with the help of the SBOA [of New Jersey]. They agreed to lease me the facility, and we agreed to build a new grandstand at a cost of around $120 million. When I could not raise all the money needed, I loaned the property $17 million of which I am still owed $13 million. Even worse, I made the loan interest free since we could not afford to pay interest on it.

Once I took over the horsemen reached out to me to ask me to clean up the drugs. Fortunately, I hate dishonesty and eventually hired Brice Cote and 5 Stones. As a result, 30 people were arrested and all but two pleaded guilty. The two who went to trial Seth Fishman and Lisa Gianelli were quickly convicted by a jury. The transcripts of that trial were available, so we knew exactly who purchased the illegal medication from Fishman and Gianelli. That information was provided to all of the state regulators who until recently ignored it, but fortunately Delaware hired Robert Schiewe who seems to actually care about cleaning up the sport.

I realized that the state regulators didn't care and the only hope we had was to get it out of their hands, so I worked closely with Churchill to get the HISA legislation passed in congress and signed by the President. Shockingly, I thought the industry would welcome getting the task of regulating the sport out of the hands of the state regulators who everybody knew did nothing into a new private entity that I think would have cleaned it up. The horsemen who told me to clean it up then backed the effort by the U.S. Trotting Association to have the law declared unconstitutional so that once again it would be regulated by the state. Anyone with half a brain knows that the states have been regulating the sport forever and we saw how that worked out.

When our losses on racing started increasing dramatically it became obvious that the only way for me to remain open at The Meadowlands was to get legislation passed that would allow me to convert over to a casino. In the unlikely event that would fail the other option would be for the state to subsidize the losses in order to preserve the jobs. In any case, I told John Campbell that I did not want to exercise the option to extend our contract on the Hambletonian for five years without knowing whether or not we would be able to remain open. In appreciation of all my efforts they then decided to take bids on relocating the Hambletonian rather than work with me to try to help get a casino license. I spoke to John in Lexington and told him that I would extend the contract for another year since I really don't think anyone wants to see the Hambletonian leave The Meadowlands. He called me today and told me that his board rejected that proposal.

When we try to understand why the industry continues to see a decline in handle and the yearling sales seem to be declining all one has to do is look at the people who are the leaders of the sport. Dumbest thing I ever did was open Vernon Downs and The Meadowlands. All I have done is lose money.

Ontario's best set to do battle in $2.4 million OSS Super Finals this weekend

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

It pays to be at Woodbine Mohawk Park this weekend for $2.4 million worth of Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Super Finals to be contested over two nights – tonight (Oct. 10) for the four $300,000 2-year-old events and Saturday (Oct. 11) for the four $300,000 3-year-old events.

Customers who come early to the Campbellville, ON track on either night may receive a $10 betting voucher at the door courtesy of Ontario Racing (limited quantity, one per customer per night). Also, those that place a bet on either night via an on-site betting machine automatically have a chance to win a golden ticket good for a betting credit worth up to $500. The golden tickets will be available in the following values: 2x $500, 5x $200, 10x $100, 20x $20 and 150x $45.

As for the races themselves, the weekend is primed to be a showcase both of the very best of Ontario-sired equine stars and the top participants racing those horses in the program.

The Johnston and Lampman Cup races to determine the top OSS trainer and driver, respectively, will be decided this weekend.

In the Johnston Cup, six-time winner and defending champ Gregg McNair leads with 191 points, followed by Tony Beaton (152), Rob Fellows (150), Dr. Ian Moore (137) and Nick Gallucci (126). All five trainers are in action this weekend.

Bob McClure (360 points) has a narrow lead in the Lampman Cup race over Louis-Philippe Roy (351). Both have won the top OSS driver title one time before – Roy in 2018 and McClure in 2020. This year, they are followed by three-time champ James MacDonald (327, winner 2021-23), Tyler Borth (298) and defending champ Doug McNair (292). All five have serious chances to add to their total points this weekend.

As for the horses, on Friday, Beau Jangles will put his nine-race undefeated streak on the line in the Super Final for 2-year-old pacing colts carded as race 9. The son of Cattlewash out of Mrs Major Hill has drawn the rail in the field of nine and has been installed as the 1-5 morning line favorite. Bob McClure will be in Beau Jangles' sulky for trainer Dr. Ian Moore. Beau Jangles swept all five OSS Gold legs and also won both the $1 million Grade 1 Metro Pace and the $140,000 Battle of Waterloo at Grand River Raceway. Beau Jangles has earned $1,042,125 and has a mark of 1:49.1 earned in the Metro.

A Clean Deal has been installed as the 6-5 favorite in the Super Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies (race 7 tonight). The daughter of Cattlewash out of Ideal Talker won four of the five Gold legs this year for the team of trainer Rob Fellows and driver Doug McNair. Just like Beau Jangles, A Clean Deal has drawn the rail.

She sports earnings of $304,464 and has a record of 5-0-1 in six starts.

Flowing Tribute (4-5) is also a four-time Gold champ. The daughter of Green Manalishi S out of Watch The Show, trained by Paul Reid and driven by McClure, leads the 2-year-old trotting fillies' Gold division 225 points over two-time Gold winners Bingo Night (149 points) and Cher Hill (117).

The Super Final will go in race 6 tonight.

The 2-year-old trotting colts' Super Final (race 8 tonight) appears to be wide open. Seven horses in the group have posted a long Gold win this year. Division leader Strobe Lite (Alarm Detector—Shine Bright) is the mild favorite in the morning line at 7-5 just ahead of third-ranked Touchedbyanangel (9-5, 86 points, Archangel—Rubys Are Nice) and second-ranked Another Great Mass (9-2, 91 points, Muscle Mass—Incredibility).

On Saturday, defending Canadian Horse of the Year Chantilly, the 2024 Super Final champ, has been installed as the 1-5 favorite in the 3-year-old pacing fillies' division (race 7). Despite some battles with illness this year, Millar Farms' homebred daughter of Big Jim out of Shiraz Seelster — trained by Gallucci and driven by MacDonald — still led her OSS Gold division with 153 points and three Gold victories. Perfectly Chic, second in the division with 120 points, is second choice at 8-1 for McClure and trainer John Pentland.

P L Spencer, a three-time Gold champ in 2025, leads the 3-year-old trotting colts' division with 200 points and is the 6-5 favorite in Super Final (race 8 on Saturday). The gelded son of Resolve out of P L Indyanaca, trained by Steve Bossence and driven by McClure will start from post 8. LMC Wagon Wheel (Wheeling N Dealin—Hola Lola), second in the division (104 points) and the morning line (9-2) will start from post 10 with Tyler Borth in the bike for trainer Ben Baillargeon.

In the sophomore pacing colts' division in race 9 on Saturday, 2024 Super Final champ Crack Shot (Bettors Delight—Beautyonthebeach) has been installed as the slight morning line favorite at 6-5 over Allstar Maniac (8-5, All Bets Off—Shes A Maniac). Each horse won two Gold legs this year, with Crack Shot, driven by Doug McNair for his father, trainer Gregg McNair, earning 158 points. Allstar Maniac, driven by MacDonald for Gallucci had 120 points this year.

Finally, in the 3-year-old trotting fillies' Super Final, Stormont Beautiful (post 2) has been pegged at 2-1, a slight favorite over Monalishi (5-2, post 9) in race 6 on Saturday. Stormont Beautiful — a daughter of Resolve out of Stormont Fried, trained by Kevn Benn and driven by McClure — finished third in tight Gold standings with 73 points. Monalishi (Green Manalishi S—Pretty Phylly G), lost to Lil Sweet by a neck in the 2024 Super Final.

American breeders bullish on Ontario

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

U.S. Standardbred breeding titan Joe Thomson said there is a simple reason he's bullish on producing horses in Ontario.

"Ontario has one of the best programs in North America," said Thomson, the owner of Winbak Farm that has breeding operations in New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and, yes, Ontario where Winbak is currently leading the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) breeders' list with more than $1.2 million in earnings – more than double the next closest breeder.

In the last nine years, Winbak – which stands nine stallions at the location of the former Armstrong Bros. Farm in Brampton, ON – has been the leading breeder in the OSS program eight times, has surpassed $10 million in total progeny earnings in the program, and has exceeded $1 million annually eight times.

Heading into next week's London Classic Yearling Sale (Oct. 14-15 at the J-AAR Expo Centre at Western Fair District), it's important to note the OSS program is on solid financial footing for 2026. In 2019, the provincial government signed an agreement that guarantees $10 million annually in funding directly to the province's Horse Improvement Program (HIP) that supports the OSS, a program that will feature nearly $14 million worth of purses in 2025. Outside of the program, the horse racing industry's Long Term Funding Agreement (LTFA) with the province, that runs through 2038, injected some $43.5 million, total, into standardbred purses in Ontario in the most recent fiscal year.

Even factoring in the difference in currency between the U.S. and Canadian dollars, Thomson said the OSS program is excellent and worth the investment in Ontario-sired horses.

"If you didn't have the currency problem, then you'd be killer, but I still think [the OSS] is the best," he said. "And you know, if you stay in Canada and use Canadian people and use Canadian resources and so forth, then it all works its way out. So, if you win races and you leave the money up there to operate, it's good for Canada, it's good for the guy that's doing it, and he's operating in one of the best programs."

There are other reasons Thomson has enjoyed doing business in Ontario for nearly a quarter century.

"We've always had good relationships with Canadians," Thomson said. "They love to have horses."

KENTUCKY BREEDER JIM AVRITT, SR. LOVES THE OSS

Kentucky-based breeder Jim Avritt, Sr. is similarly smitten with Ontario.

"It's not just circumstance, I have a definite affinity for the program," Avritt, Sr. said. "I really can't tell you when I first started breeding in Ontario, but it was many, many, many years ago and it has treated me really well."

"It doesn't cost an awful lot to race in it for one thing, and, of course, you have the Grassroots and the Prospect and the Gold. To me, it's just ideal."

Thirty years ago, Avritt, Sr. purchased a Canadian pacing mare named Dominique Semalu as a broodmare prospect and she became the foundation mare of his wildly-successful boutique breeding operation. Dominique Semalu produced Precious Beauty, dam of Pepsi North America Cup winner Sporstwriter and $800,000+ winner Precocious Beauty, the dam of $2 million U.S. Horse of the Year and Ontario-sired stallion Tall Dark Stranger. Precocious Beauty also produced Beautyonthebeach, the dam of current OSS star Crack Shot.

"If it hadn't been for Dominique Semalu, probably nobody would have ever heard of me, especially through her daughter, Precious Beauty, who not only has a 2-year-old daughter racing, but she also has a 3-year-old grandson in Set Shot and a 3-year-old great grandson in Crack Shot."

Avritt, Sr. has also raced in the OSS program, mostly through his long friendship with top Ontario trainer Gregg McNair.

More than 30 years ago, McNair purchased a yearling from Avritt, Sr. in Kentucky.

"I try to follow up on everything I sell," Avritt, Sr. said. "I followed up on that horse and became acquainted with Gregg. Then, I had an Ontario eligible that I kept and gave to him, and it blossomed from there."

CATTLEWASH'S BILL DONOVAN: OSS HAS TWO HUGE ADVANTAGES

The Ontario breed has been revitalized in recent years with the addition of several young stallions.

The Swedish owners of Green Manalishi S began standing the trotter at Tara Hills Stud in Port Perry, ON in 2021. Green Manalishi S is the leading trotting stallion in the OSS program with nearly $2 million in progeny earnings this year from his first two crops.

Tara Hills is also standing Cattlewash, the leading pacing stallion in the OSS with progeny earnings approaching $1.5 million. Those numbers are sure to increase with the lucrative Super Finals still to come this weekend (Oct. 10 and 11 at Woodbine Mohawk Park).

Cattlewash – the sire of undefeated 2-year-old millionaire Beau Jangles – is leading the provincial program despite the fact he only has 2-year-olds on the ground.

The son of the Ontario-sired legend Somebeachsomewhere, Cattlewash was bred and was originally owned by Boston native Bill Donovan before being syndicated. In 2021, Donovan both raced and bred Cattlewash to a small book of mares in New Jersey while deciding where to stand the winner of over $1.3 million when the pacer's racing career was finished.

"I made the decision that Ontario was probably the best place for him, and I absolutely don't regret that decision," Donovan said. "I think it's turned out to be the perfect place for him. I'm happy for the breeders and the owners up there that he's there and that he's had the success that he's had. Hopefully, it continues."

Donovan said he's long loved the OSS program.

"For years, I've bought a few Ontario-breds each year," Donovan said. "The program has two huge advantages in my view: You don't need to leave the province – there's your proof right there with Beau Jangles [who has never raced outside of Ontario] – and you can race the whole season and you don't get killed with stakes nominations and fees."

Historically, the OSS has had one of the lowest costs to entry when compared to other jurisdictional programs. It costs $100 to nominate a yearling to the OSS, $600 to sustain a 2-year-old to the program. Starting fees are $900 in the Gold Series, $400 in Grassroots and $100 in Prospect and there are no starting fees in year-end finals and consolations.

BULLDOG NIPPING AT CATTLEWASH'S HEELS

Second in the pacing sire race is Ontario-sired Bulldog Hanover, the fastest standardbred in history. He, too, only has 2-year-olds racing, so far.

Bulldog Hanover, who stands at Seelster Farms in Lucan, ON, has OSS progeny earnings of some $1.2 million despite only having a small first crop racing. Bulldog Hanover's first full commercial crop is selling this year at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, the London Classic Yearling Sale and the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA.

The results of his first small racing crop have been so successful that Bulldog Hanover offspring were a hot item last week at the Lexington sale. Bulldog Hanover led all pacing sires with gross sales of just over $3.5 million for 45 yearlings sold, which means they averaged a price of nearly $78,000. Nearly half were purchased by U.S. owners.

"We're really super excited," said Karen Favacho, the farm manager at Seelster. "I think Bulldog and Cattlewash really set the pace for 2-year-olds this year. As far as percentage of starters, they're both fairly equal, though Bulldog had a smaller crop than Cattlewash. So, I think from the quality of mares that [Bulldog Hanover] got his first year, he's really showing that he's going to make a great sire."

"The Ontario buyers, of course, will be interested in the Bulldogs, but we're looking to make sure that he is looked at by the U.S. trainers as well. And so, I think if they don't come up to Ontario very often, then I think being dual eligible [in Kentucky as well as Ontario] is good for him."

"The sky's the limit for him, as far as the mares that he got last year or that are producing these yearlings this year, so we hope that continues."

THE DARLING OF ONTARIO

Ontario trainer Jack Darling is the man that plucked Bulldog Hanover out of the 2019 yearling sale in Harrisburg for $28,000 and then campaigned the Ontario-sired son of Shadow Play to earnings of nearly $2.8 million and a breed-leading speed mark of 1:45.4. Darling and Bulldog Hanover's co-owner Brad Grant then decided to stand the horse in Ontario.

"It's so exciting for us in little Lucan, ON," Favacho said. "We are just so happy that we had that connection with Jack [Darling] and with Brad [Grant] and that [Bulldog Hanover] stayed in Ontario. We tout his accomplishments all the time."

Darling said he's really pleased with what Bulldog Hanover has accomplished from a first crop that was around 50 foals. His first commercial crop of foals – the ones selling this year – numbered over 130.

"For the mares he bred, he's done a really good job," Darling said of that first select crop currently racing in the OSS program as 2-year-olds.

"You're always hoping for the best, but you never know for sure who's going to make a sire and who isn't. But he just seems to be throwing all of his good points – the speed, the talent, and he is such a smart horse. He had so much try to him and he didn't get tired. He has that great breathing system, his lungs and everything."

In fact, Darling said he is only planning to purchase Bulldog Hanover offspring this year to race.

Meanwhile, the trainer said he's not surprised American buyers have taken to Bulldog Hanover.

"He's the fastest horse in the world," Darling said. "They want the best, and they're going for it."

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Tom Melanson

My Degenerate (Andy Miller) winning the $75,000 Massachusetts Breeders Stakes for sophomore trotting males in 1:53.1 on Tuesday at Plainridge Park.

My Degenerate sets multiple records in Mass Breeders Stakes at Plainridge

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The $2.4 million Massachusetts Breeders Stakes returned to Plainridge Park on Tuesday (Oct. 7) with seven events featuring 3-year-old trotters and pacers. The undoubted star of the show was My Degenerate (Muscle Hill—Decadence), who set new stakes and track records and became the fastest 3-year-old trotting gelding ever bred in the Bay State after going gate-to-wire in the lone $75,000 trotting division for colts and geldings, stopping the clock in 1:53.1.

Andy Miller sent My Degenerate to the front and set fractions of :27.3, :57.1, and 1:24.3 while stablemate Te Quiero Lindy (Tyler Miller) followed in step. As they made their way through turn three, My Degenerate started to pull away and when he did, Te Quiero Lindy tried to keep up and made a break that took him out of contention. That left My Degenerate loose on the lead in the stretch, where he jogged to the line easily in 1:53.1.

My Degenerate ($5.60) is owned by Knutsson Trotting, Little E, Lindy Farms of Connecticut, and Andy Miller Stable.

K R Breeding and Preferred Equine bred My Degenerate.

The previous stakes and track record of 1:53.2 was set just last week by My Degenerate's stablemate Te Quiero Lindy, and the previous overall Mass-bred speed mark of 1:54.2 for a 3-year-old trotting gelding was established by Double Dealing in 2020.

The day started out with two non-betting events. The first was a $45,000 division of pacing fillies that saw Beantown Deuce (Huntsville—Don't Think Twice A) go gate-to-wire in a career performance.

Matt Kakaley took a quick lead at the start and led a single-file field through quarters of :27.4, :56.2, and 1:24.3. As she made her way through the turn, Beantown Deuce began to separate from the field and when she entered the top of the stretch, bolted home in :28.2 to win by seven lengths in a lifetime best, 1:53.

Beantown Deuce is owned by Michael Goldberg Racing, who also bred the filly in partnership with Andrew Harris Racing.

The second pre-card field was a $45,000 split of trotting fillies where Global Heritage (International Moni—Birthright) made her first Massachusetts stakes start of the year a winning one.

Global Heritage (Dexter Dunn) lined up second behind R Lady W (Kakaley) through quarters of :27.1, :56.1, and 1:24.4 in a two-horse breakaway. At the top of the last turn, Dunn tipped Global Heritage and eased by R Lady W on the way to the wire, where she won by 1¼ lengths in 1:53.1.

Global Heritage is owned and bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut.

The regular card kicked off with the first $45,000 division of colt and gelding pacers and Jon I Love Dat (Downbytheseaside—Franney Love Dat) set a new stakes record, tied his lifetime mark, and tied Apache Max (1994) as the fastest 3-year-old pacing colt ever bred in Massachusetts.

Jon I Love Dat (Yannick Gingras) drafted third behind Digging For Gold (Nick Graffam) through quarters of :26.2, :55.2, and 1:23.1. As the race was in the turn, Gingras tipped Jon I Love Dat, drew alongside Digging For Gold at the top of the stretch and then pulled away by $3\frac{3}{4}$ lengths while Gingras sat chilly and won in 1:51.

Jon I Love Dat ($3.20) is owned and bred by Robert Lovett and trained by Janice Connor.

The next event was the second $45,000 split of pacing fillies with Wassail Blue Chip (Courtly Choice—Baccara Hanover) winning her second straight stakes start.

Cindy's Faith (Bruce Ranger) set up on the point while Wassail Blue Chip (Gingras) settled in third as they made their way to the half in :55.2. As the fillies entered the backstretch, Gingras tipped Wassail Blue Chip and crossed-over to the lead before three-quarters. Treacherous Idol (Graffam) made a mild bid as they rounded the far turn but it had no effect on Wassail Blue Chip, who paced to the wire clear by $3\frac{1}{2}$ lengths in 1:52.3.

Wassail Blue Chip ($4.40) is owned by Ervin Miller Stable, Andray Farm, and David J. Miller and trained by Alicia Gray. Blue Chip Bloodstock bred Wassail Blue Chip.

Next came the second $45,000 split of trotting fillies where Tactical Moni (Tactical Landing—All Our Moni) made it two in a row in Massachusetts.

After an early four-horse dash, Bridgeoverbroadway (Mitchell Cushing) took the first lead, but soon relinquished it to Tactical Moni (Dunn) who pulled from third to take control. Tactical Moni opened up a gapped advantage on the backstretch, but Corner Store (Brett Beckwith) was out and moving and found herself right on Tactical Moni's back as they came out of the final turn. When they entered the stretch, Corner Store tipped to go, but Tactical Moni was already gone, and trotted home on top by $1\frac{3}{4}$ lengths in 1:53.4.

It was the fourth win in a row for Tactical Moni ($2.10) who is owned and bred by Moni Maker Stable and trained by Domenico Cecere.

The next race was the second split of pacing colts and geldings and RJs Red Devil (Huntsville—Ruthie J Killeen) made a bold backside brush pay big dividends at 11-1.

Courageous Warrior (Matty Athearn) and Sweet Lucky Lou (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) battled side by side through quarters of :27.3 and :55.2. Then as the race approached five-eighths, Kakaley tipped RJs Red Devil from last and blew by the entire field, opening up a three-length lead at three-quarters. RJs Red Devil then rounded the turn and flew home under tippy-tap urging to win by four lengths in 1:52.

RJs Red Devil ($24) is owned and bred by Fiddler's Creek Stables and trained by Travis Alexander.

Drivers Dunn, Gingras, and Kakaley, along with trainer Cecere, all had two wins in stakes action on Tuesday.

LIFETIME EFFORTS GALORE IN MASS BREEDERS STAKES AT PLAINRIDGE

The $2.4 million Massachusetts Breeders Stakes were back at it on Monday (Oct. 6) at Plainridge Park with seven events featuring 2-year-old trotters and pacers in competition.

Highlights of the card included one stakes and track record being tied and six of the seven winners in the stakes events realizing lifetime marks. Also, drivers Yannick Gingras and Bruce Ranger along with trainer Melissa Beckwith, all had two wins in the series on Monday.

The first non-betting race was the first $45,000 division of pacing fillies that was won by Two Twenty Swift (Huntsville—Jag Out) who put forth a career best effort.

Brett Beckwith put Two Twenty Swift on the point and led with authority as Forwhomthebello (Matt Kakaley) and Vainglorious (Dexter Dunn) followed in line. Two Twenty Swift cut quarters of :26.4, :56.2, and 1:24.4 before making the turn and pacing home clear by a length in a lifetime best, 1:53.1.

Two Twenty Swift is owned by Donald Mac Rae and Beasty and trained by Deborah Daguet.

Ross Bonafield bred Two Twenty Swift.

The second non-bettor was the second $45,000 pacing filly division and Perfect Lynn (Perfect Sting—Meghan Lynn) remained perfect in this series after winning her second straight in very handy fashion.

As Just Delightful (Ron Cushing) was leading the field to a tepid :28.3 quarter, Gingras was rolling up the rim with Perfect Lynn and took control of the field in front of the stands. From there, Perfect Lynn continued the modest pace, reaching the half in :57.4, but then sped up three-quarters in :28 flat. From there, Gingras had Perfect Lynn completely wrapped-up and she strode out to a five-length advantage and cruised to victory in 1:54.4.

Perfect Lynn is owned and bred by Tom Dillon and Scott Dillon and trained by Burke.

The regular betting card then got underway with the first $45,000 division of trotting fillies where Adios My Lindy (Walner—Adios Lindy) registered her first stake victory.

Ranger got away last with Adios My Lindy as Essential (Dunn) and Fairytale Moni (Nick Graffam) battled for the front at the quarter. But passing that station, Fairytale Moni made a break and Essential took command in front of the stands before trotting around turn two and onto the backstretch. As they passed five-eighths, Ranger put Adios My Lindy into play and advanced on the outside until she drew alongside Essential in the final bend. When the fillies straightened for home, Adios My Lindy quickly drew clear and won by $1\frac{1}{4}$ lengths in a lifetime best, 1:58.3.

Adios My Lindy ($13.60) is owned by her trainer, Paul Kelley, in partnership with Go For Glory Stable, Matthew Lamont, and Tom Pontone.

Adios My Lindy was bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut.

The second $45,000 division of trotting fillies was next and won by Cash Out Express (International Moni—Maliziosa) who led from gate-to-wire.

After making a break last week, Kakaley took no prisoners this time with Cash Out Express, who seated the field and marched through quarters of :27.3, :57.2, and 1:25.4. Then in the last turn where R Candy (Gingras) pulled the pocket to challenge, Cash Out Express rebuffed her advance and trotted home under no urging whatsoever to win by 2¾ lengths in a career best, 1:54.1.

Cash Out Express ($15.40) is owned by her trainer, George Ducharme, in partnership with James De Armonde, Jim Winske, and Sal Vullo.

Lindy Farms of Connecticut was the winning breeder of Cash Out Express.

The trotting colts and geldings lined up next in the lone $75,000 dash for that group and Mother's Moni (International Moni—Mother Theresa) equaled his own stake and track records set last week, as well as his own lifetime mark.

Mother's Moni (Dunn) sat second behind Geologic (Gingras) through quarters of :28.1, :57.2, and 1:26.2. Then halfway through the last turn, Dunn tipped Mother's Moni and incrementally advanced past Geologic in the stretch en route to a 1¼ length win in 1:55.

Mother's Moni ($2.20) is owned and bred by K R Breeding and trained by Domenico Cecere.

The final two stakes events of the day were split divisions of pacing colts and geldings, each vying for $45,000.

In the first, Manador (Bulldog Hanover—Count To Three) scored his third consecutive victory while taking a new lifetime mark.

Manador (Gingras) got away last as Mr McTygue (Beckwith) led the field to the half in :56.3. As the race proceeded up the backstretch, Alcatraz Blue Chip (Heath Campbell) pulled first-over with Manador right on his back. As the entire field was within three lengths of each other heading around the last turn, Alcatraz Blue Chip paced past Mr McTygue, but then Manador tipped off cover to beat Alcatraz Blue Chip at the line by a-quarter-of-a-length in 1:54.4.

Manador ($3) is owned and bred by M And L of Delaware.

In the second split, Coach Cry (Downbytheseaside—Elliesjet N) led at every station to register his first lifetime win.

Ranger pushed Coach Cry off the gate and seated Pasternak (Frank Affrunti) at the :27.2 quarter. From there, Coach Cry went :57.3 and 1:26, put away a challenge from Mia's Boy (Matty Athearn) in the last turn and pulled away to a 2¼ length win in 1:55.1, establishing his first lifetime mark.

Coach Cry ($3.60) is owned by William Hartt, who also bred the gelding in partnership with Foulk Stables.

Delaware SIRE STAKES REPORT

DSBF trotters complete second Harrington leg

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

The second leg of Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) action for 2-year-old trotters highlighted a 15-race program Wednesday (Oct. 8) at Harrington Raceway.

A quartet of $20,000 divisions were contested, two apiece for males and females.

Whodathunkit Stable's Dancing Willow ($3.80, Jason Green) was a 2:01 winner for trainer Cliff Green in the first division for fillies. The Dusty Winner filly won for the second straight week over Wolfpack One and Rainingrainbows.

Also completing an elimination sweep was Don and David Wiest's Tuis Star ($2.20, Corey Callahan), who won the second filly division in 2:01. Trained by co-owner Dave Wiest, the homebred E L Platinum filly notched her second win in six career starts.

Thomas Lail's Swee'pea ($3.60, Corey Callahan) was a 2:01.1 winner in the first male division over Pappy's Deal and Winging It. The Top Flight Angel gelding recorded his first career win. It was one of three wins on the card for Callahan.

The scourge of the male division is Thiskissformaryell ($2.10, Jim Morand) who was a 2:01 winner over Come On Miller and Whitesville D Hill. The Iron Mine Bucky gelding completed a sweep of his eliminations for trainer Les Givens and owners Nanticoke Racing, Jim Magno, and Joe Fonte.

Austin Stafford and Wyatt Starkey's Navy Blue ($7.40, Art Stafford, Jr.) won the overnight feature in 1:55.1 in the $18,000 open trot. Trained by Stacy Johnson-Stafford, it was his 20th career win.

The top eight point earners from the two rounds of DSBF eliminations legs will return for the $110,000 finals on Oct. 13-15.

Live racing will continue on a Monday through Wednesday schedule (post time 4:30 p.m.) until October 22.

TETRICK, FAVORITES ROLL IN DSBF HARRINGTON SPLITS

Just Applause and Odds On Put Option, both driven by Tim Tetrick, won their respective $20,000 Delaware Standardbred

Breeders Fund divisions for 2-year-olds Tuesday (Oct. 7) at Harrington Raceway to complete a sweep of the two elimination legs.

Let It Ride Stable's Just Applause ($2.10, Tetrick) was a 1:56.3 winner in the first division. Lovers Cay was second with Philly View third. Trained by Linda Toscano, the He's Watching filly improved to two-for-four lifetime, triumphing off a pocket trip behind pacesetter Lovers Cay.

In the remaining division, Odds On Racing's Odds On Put Option ($2.10, Tetrick), prevailed on the front end impressively in 1:56.1 over Burlesque Belle and Sucha Sporty Girl. The He's Watching filly improved to two-for-two lifetime for trainer Scott DiDomenico.

The top eight point earners from the two legs of DSBF action will return to compete in the $110,000 finals on Oct. 13-15.

On the undercard, Kelvin Smith and Jonathan Hutson's Lofty Treasure ($9, Pat Berry) was a 1:53.1 winner in a $14,500 winners-over pace for trainer Joe Hundertpfund, Jr.

WATCH EM WIN HEADS MONDAY HARRINGTON DSBF WINNERS

A trio of second leg $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) action for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings highlighted the Monday (Oct. 6) 15-race Harrington Raceway program. Burke Racing, Knox Services, Phillip Collura, and Weaver Brusceci's Watch Em Win ($2.10, Tim Tetrick) was a menacing landslide winner in the fastest division (1:53.1). The Ron Burke-trainee notched his fifth win in seven career starts. A He's Watching colt, Watch Em Win was an open length winner over He's Webster and Kd's Song.

John Dixon and Bryan Truitt, Jr.'s Stained Glass ($2.60, Ross Wolfenden) was a 1:56.1 winner in the first division of the card over Roman Raider and Arette. The Roddy's Bags Again gelding notched his first career win for trainer Bryan Truitt with a front-end score. In the final division, C Millertimeagain ($3.40, Corey Callahan) marched to a 1:53.2 win for co-owner/trainer Erv Miller, Joellen Frowley, and James Knowlton. The Roddy's Bags Again fought off a game first-over charge from Slugger On Deck, who had won four straight, en route to his first career win. Slugger On Deck was a strong second, with South Of The Hood third.

The top eight point earners will return to compete in the $110,000 final on Oct. 13.

In the $18,000 open, Andrew Glassmeyer's Sweet Angel Boy ($8, Ross Wolfenden) won his fifth race of the year on the front end in 1:51.4 over Master Rigger and Steven's Saloon.

Oh Well joins the Dr. J Stallion Management roster

Dr. J Stallion Management is proud to announce the latest addition to their stallion roster. 2022 Mohawk Million winner Oh Well 3, 1:51.2 $1,566,614 will stand the 2026 season at Premier Acres in Middlebury, IN for an introductory stud fee of $4,000. A son of Muscle Hill from the fast Cantab Hall mare Fine Tuned Lady, Oh Well is a former $550,000 yearling. In addition to his dominant score in the 2022 Mohawk Million, Oh Well also won the New Jersey Sire Stakes final and New Jersey Classic as a 2-year-old. At 3, Oh Well captured the Stanley Dancer Trot, the Bluegrass and was second in both his elimination and final of the Hambletonian. As a 4-year-old Oh Well went on to be a major player in the FFA trotting ranks finishing second in the Maple Leaf Trot, Ceasars's Trotting Classic and a fast closing third (by a neck) in the Hambletonian Maturity.

Oh Well's fertility has been tested, and he passed with flying colors. Shares with very favorable terms will be sold. Please contact Dr. J at 717-578-7395 or drjablonsky@drjstallionmanagement.com for more details. Oh Well will be available for inspection at the upcoming Midwest Standardbred Horse Sale at the Indiana State Fairgrounds on Wednesday (Oct. 15) from noon to 3 p.m. Breeders are encouraged to come and see this magnificent individual in person and talk to Dr. J about the syndication details and securing a booking for the 2026 breeding season.

Deo Volente Farms to stand Captain Optimistic in 2026

Captain Optimistic, winner of such prestigious races as the Governor's Cup, Triple Crown leg Cane Pace and the Bluegrass Stake, will join the stallion ranks of Deo Volente Farms in 2026.

"We are thrilled to have Captain Optimistic standing at our farm" said Michael Gulotta, Deo Volente Farms CEO. "We were super impressed with his athleticism, his tremendous speed and superb stamina. He actually reminds me very much of his sire, Captaintreacheros. With his great bloodlines, great conformation, and terrific racing attributes, he has all of the right stuff to be a very successful stallion. No question, we are big believers in him. Plus given the significant enhancements in the New Jersey Sires Stakes program, we know that breeders who send their mares to him will be well rewarded for doing so."

Nancy Takter, who trained Captain Optimistic throughout his racing career, totally agrees that he has the attributes that breeders, trainers, and owners look for in a stallion.

"He's a big, strong colt," Takter said. "He's great gaited and he gives you everything he has every time he goes on the racetrack."

Captain Optimistic will be the first son of Captaintreacheros to stand in New Jersey and is extremely well bred on both his paternal and maternal lines. He is out of the stakes winning mare, Cinamony (by Art Official), who has a mark of 1:49.3f, earnings of $532,404 and is the sister of $1.5 million winning Fear The Dragon. Cinamony's second dam is Mattaroni, p, 3, 1:52.3m, $744,481.

Throughout his racing career, Captain Optimistic campaigned at the highest levels and produced multiple, eye-catching performances. He has a 2-year-old mark of 1:49m, a 3-year-old mark of 1:48m and earnings of $872,328 (to date with several major stake races to come).

In 2024, at 2, he won the New Jersey Classic final in 1:50.1 (a personal best at the time); set a track record mile of 1:49 in a Breeders Crown elimination at The Meadowlands; and captured the prestigious Governor's Cup in a sharp 1:49.3 mile, securing a $382,200 purse.

In 2025, he won the 3-year-old Triple Crown Cane Pace in 1:48.1 and the 3-year-old Bluegrass stake in 1:48.

Captain Optimistic's arrival at Deo Volente Farms dovetails with upcoming racing incentives designed to bolster New Jersey-sired horses. Beginning in 2026, the New Jersey Sire Stakes board will launch a Silver Series, adding to the existing Platinum (formerly Premier) Series, to expand racing opportunities for NJ-sired 2- and 3-year-olds.

For more information about Captain Optimistic's stallion career contact Linda Petrenko, Deo Volente Farms at 908-782-4848 or email linda@deovolentefarms.com.

Streaks on the line during Hoosier Champions Night

The stage is set for Indiana's richest night of racing, Hoosier Champions night at Harrah's Hoosier Park tonight (Oct. 10). Twelve new Indiana Sire Stakes champions will be crowned on a 15-race program with just shy of $2.4 million up for grabs and a trio of lengthy win streaks on the line.

With a first post of 5:30 p.m., the first of eight consecutive $250,000 INSS Super Finals for 2- and 3-year-olds will be the glamour boy division in race 5 where the undefeated Rock Shines Again looks to stay perfect during his 3-year-old campaign. Owned by Richard Redder and T G Stable, Rock Shines Again has reeled off 12 straight entering tonight's card, including wins in the last five legs of Indiana Sire Stakes and $84,750 Hoosier Cup final for trainer Tyler George. Leading driver Trace Tetrick gets the call from post 5 for the 7-5 morning line favorite.

Meanwhile the fastest 2-year-old in harness racing history, Odds On Mr Mamba, will look to conclude his 2-year-old campaign on top of the 2-year-old colt and gelding pace Super Final in the 10th race. Fresh off his world record 1:47.4 score in the last leg of Indiana Sire Stakes on Oct. 2, the gelded son of Odds On Equuleus—Honky Tonk Woman will once again have pilot Dexter Dunn aboard for trainer Melanie Wrenn. The Odds On Racing homebred finished fourth while pacing home in :25.1 in his career debut and has not tasted defeat in the six starts since, including a Grand Circuit win in the $93,750 Elevation where he chased down Melillo with a :53 second back-half. Odds On Mr Mamba has been established as the 7-5 morning-line favorite from post 6 while Dancingdreamer, who finished second to Odds On Mr Mamba in the world record mile, leaves from post 10 with Hall of Famer David Miller in the bike as the 7-2 second choice.

On To Norway will immediately follow up Odds On Mr Mamba, bringing a 16-race win streak into the Super Final for sophomore trotting colts and geldings in the 11th race of the evening. Leaving from post 2 with John De Long in between the wheels, the Muscle Massive—One Class Act gelding looks to complete the Indiana Sire Stakes sweep, having won all eight legs heading into the final to go along with stakes wins at The Horsemen at the Indiana State Fairgrounds and $90,000 Phil Langley. The Ron Burke trainee will leave from post 2 as the 9-5 morning line favorite with $301,844 already made on the year for owners Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, Black & White Stable, and Michael Rosenthal. Arch-rival, Operator, leaves just two slots over from post 4 with Kyle Wilfong in the bike as the 5-2 second choice.

The quarter-million-dollar Super Finals will be joined by $70,000 championships for the older male trotters and older mare pacers, along with $50,000 finals for the mare trotters and older male pacers with household names such as M-M's Dream, Little Rocket Man, Ponda Jet, and Walkin On Sunshine slated to compete.

For guests taking in the Hoosier Champions card in person, they are also encouraged to participate in the Progressive MegaBet Drawing promotion during the evening. Prior to each Super Final, one guest will be drawn to place a $125 MegaBet on a horse of their choosing in the selected race, with any unclaimed prizes carrying over to the following race. Guests may enter at a Trackside Promotional Kiosk beginning at 5 p.m.

Guests may also receive a Hoosier Champions cocktail set at the Trackside Promotions and Events Center from 5-7 p.m. The first 100 guests to show their Caesars Rewards card and proof of a $5 wager on any Hoosier Park race will go home with the complimentary set.

For those unable to join in person, race fans can tune into the Fox Sports 2 broadcast live from 7-10 p.m. with hosts Gabe Prewitt and Jessica Otten live on property providing commentary.

Bettors will also have a buffet of wagering options throughout the evening with $80,000 worth of guaranteed pools to take aim at including:

Race 1 – $10,000 Pick 5

Race 2 – $10,000 Pick 4

Race 5 – $10,000 Pick 8

Race 6 – $10,000 Pick 4

Race 8 – $10,000 Pick 5

Race 12 – $20,000 Pick 4

Race 15 – $10,000 Hoosier High 5

Free online racing programs will be made available on the Hoosier Park website under the Racing Tab along with free access to race replays. Qualifier replays are made available on the Hoosier Park AV YouTube Channel.

For more information on the 2025 live racing season at Harrah's Hoosier Park, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

$1 million on the line in Big Apple finals at Vernon on Saturday

Vernon Downs plays host to the Big Apple finals for 2-year-olds in all four classes on Saturday (Oct. 11). They will all compete for a purse of $250,000.

Fragment (Jason Bartlett) is the overwhelming favorite in the Big Apple final for pacing colts and geldings. He was dominant in his elimination race winning in 1:51.1. Hunting Glory (Jordan Stratton) is the second morning line choice with his elimination win. Lakewood Nick adds driver Yannick Gingras and could be right there in the end as well.

The final for trotting colts and geldings looks to be wide open. Titans Mischief (Matt Kakaley) was made the 2-1 morning line favorite. He is coming off a second-place finish in the eliminations. He has three wins and seven seconds in his 10 career starts. Read The Room (Dylan Huckabone-Miller) won the elimination and is a horse to be reckoned with. Elimination winner Twin B Seven Sins (Tyler Buter) and New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) winner Al (Gingras) will be strong contenders as well.

NYSS winner Liberty Style (Bartlett) is the morning line favorite for the pacing filly's final. Six-time winner Long Shore (Gingras) is coming off an elimination win last week and should be right there in the end. Odds On Monetary (Ridge Warren) won the other elimination and should be a top contender as well.

Nezuko Kamado S (Bartlett) leads the nine-horse field for the filly trotter's final after her easy win in her elimination. NYSS winner Sharp Seven (Jeff Gregory) should be her main rival. Storybook Love (Todd Ratchford) won the other elimination and could return to the Vernon Downs winner's circle again.

The 15-race card starts at 5:05 p.m.

For more information go to www.vernondowns.com.

Noble, Page shine in Buckeye Stallion Series consolations

On what was a beautiful night for harness racing in northeast Ohio, MGM Northfield Park played host to eight $25,000 Buckeye Stallion Series consolations on Sunday (Oct. 5).

Reinsmen Dan Noble and Chris Page together put on a driving clinic on Sunday, with all but one Buckeye Stallion Series consolation going to the pair.

Cruzin Tothe Pier (Downbytheseaside—Cruzin Tothe Dance) kicked the night off for Noble in the $25,000 consolation for 2-year-old filly pacers. They rolled from off the pace and won by three-quarters of a length in 1:55.2.

Things became dicey early as favorite Beach Babe Hanover (Chris Lems) was affected by a breaking Rhodena Blue before a :27.4 opening quarter.

Beach Babe Hanover was able to gather herself and worked to the lead before the half in :57.3.

Up the backstretch, Cruzin Tothe Pier began to roll and at the three-quarters in 1:26, she was at the throat of Beach Babe Hanover.

Cruzin Tothe Pier gained the upper hand on her foes in the stretch and won convincingly. Mandaloun (Chris Page) was second and Atom Heart Mother (Cameron McCown) was third.

Cruzin Tothe Pier is conditioned by co-owner Ron Steck, and owned by Anvil And Lace Farm, Taggart Farms LLC, and Steven Jefferis. The filly was bred by Anvil And Lace Farm.

Dublin's Breanna (Enterprise—Brimfull) won the Buckeye Stallion Series consolation for 2-year-old trotting fillies in 1:58.3.

Cast No Stones (Aaron Merriman) set up shop on the lead and controlled the tempo through fractions of :29.4, 1:00, and 1:29. Entering the far turn, Page stepped on the gas with Dublins Breanna as she motored past Cast No Stones, drawing off late to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:58.3.

Ranger Rosie (Tyler Angus) closed strongly to be second, while She's In (Noble) finished third.

Cast No Stones is owned by the 518 Group LLC and Ryan Smith. She is trained by Vernon Beachy, who conditioned Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Trotting Filly Allegiant last season.

Noble headed back to the winner's circle in the third $25,000 consolation for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters with Ready For Sunshine (Ready For Moni—A Ray Of Sunshine).

After clearing rivals entering the first turn, Ready For Sunshine motored to an opening quarter of :28.4.

As the field raced up the backstretch for the final time, it appeared as if Ready For Sunshine would win easily, but Uncle Danny (Anthony MacDonald) began to challenge the leader.

Turning for home, Uncle Danny and Dan's Victory (Chris Lems) both tried to collar the leader, but Ready For Sunshine dug down deep with the heart of a champion and won by a neck in 1:58.3.

Owned by Robert Laniewicz, the colt is trained by Jason McGinnis.

Noble wasted no time getting back to the winner's circle as he guided Aunt Lilly to a Buckeye Stallion Series consolation victory for 3-year-old trotting fillies, one race later.

Aunt Lilly (Uncle Peter—Chuckys Luckycharm) had the perfect trip. She fired off the back of Sienna Sunrise (Page) late to win by a half-length in 1:56.3.

Sienna Sunrise easily made the front entering the first turn and set modest fractions of :28.4, 58.3, and 1:27.

Through the stretch, Aunt Lilly proved to be dominant as she powered past her rivals.

The filly is trained by Steve Carter, and owned by KAD Farms LLC.

Rock Son (Page) used the rail to his advantage and won the Buckeye Stallion Series consolation for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

Rock Son (Pet Rock—Last Sam Standing) wasted no time defending pylon position, and cleared his rivals entering the first turn and got to the quarter in :27.4.

Tsunami Beach (Luke Hanners) tried to overtake Rock Son as the field approached the half in :57.4

At the three-quarters in 1:26.3, Page began to edge away from the field with Rock Son and drew off to win by 1½ lengths in 1:55.

Rock Son is co-owned by trainer Charles Neff and Greg Mackanos.

Countryofmars (Marseille—Pine Country) was victorious in the $25,000 Buckeye Stallion Series consolation for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters.

Heavy favorite Countryofmars made the front before the quarter in :27.3, but Skyway Slick (Jason Beattie), parked from the word go continued to apply pressure.

The pair battled through much of the final three-quarters-of-a-mile, but as the field turned for home Countryofmars was all class, winning by three lengths in 1:56.3.

He is owned by James and Patty Borowski and trained by Jason Borowski.

Bars And Notes made every pole a winning one in the $25,000 Buckeye Stallion Series consolation for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers.

Parked to the opening quarter in :27.3 by Moons Up (Aaron Merriman), Bars And Notes (Racing Hill—Pure Note) made the lead entering the far turn for the first time.

Page worked out a second quarter breather, arriving at the half in :57.2.

While everyone seemed to take their shot at Bars And Notes, he managed to shrug them all off as he drew off in the stretch by 1½ lengths, winning in 1:53. Moons Up was second, Butchershop Buck finished third.

Bars And Notes is owned by the partnership of Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, and Knox Services. The sports leading trainer Ron Burke conditions.

Driver Cameron McCown was the only thing stopping Noble and Page from sweeping the Buckeye Stallion Series program as he scored in the final consolation with Lona Dune.

Jugette winner Rodeo Drive Deo headlines Courageous Lady

Rodeo Drive Deo will travel to MGM Northfield Park on Saturday (Oct. 11), where she will face eight other talented fillies in the Grade 3 $125,000 Courageous Lady. The race is an invitational for 3-year-old filly pacers.

Jugette champion, Rodeo Drive Deo has built a strong resume during her sophomore campaign.

Following a 1:51.2 victory in the $32,000 Home Grown Series at The Meadowlands, her connections sent her to Woodbine Mohawk Park to race in the Grade 1 $288,600 Fan Hanover.

She rebounded in the Fan Hanover final, after a tough trip in the elimination, by rallying late down the stretch and finished a game second to world-champion Miki And Minnie.

Rodeo Drive Deo had a runner-up performance in the $300,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final at The Meadows, she shipped to Delaware, OH, for the Grade 1 $280,000 Jugette, where she won both her elimination (1:51) and final (1:50.1) by open lengths.

In last week's $241,000 Glen Garnsey Memorial at The Red Mile, she was parked to a :53.4 half and tired late in the mile. She faded to eighth.

"We had a tough trip in the Garnsey, she came out of the race really well, and I expect her to be better on Saturday," said Ron Burke, the nation's leading trainer.

On Saturday, Rodeo Drive Deo will challenge some familiar competition, but also face some new shooters, who are taking their crack at Grand Circuit company for the first time.

"We're very pleased to get such a strong and full field of fillies, including the Jugette champion, to highlight our final stakes card of 2025," said Dave Bianconi, Northfield Park's director of racing.

The $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes champion, Prolific Fire, has her eyes set on a Grand Circuit prize, following a remarkable season, also highlighted by a victory in the Ohio Breeders Championship at the Delaware County Fair.

The Catch The Fire daughter has banked $280,820 as a sophomore. She is owned by Greg Luther Racing and trained by Todd Luther.

Her connections have watched their talented filly grow throughout the year and believe she is ready for the challenge on Saturday.

"She started training better after the last leg of the sires stakes and that's when I noticed her attitude start to change for the better in the barn," said Todd Luther.

Also competing on Saturday are Pennsylvania Stallion Series champion, Sammy Jo Hanover, Nadia Lobell champion, Odds On Chesapeake, Adioo Volo champion, Time Of The Season, New York Sires Stakes standout, Fansville, New Jersey Classic champion, Worklifebalance, Keystone Classic winner, Pilar Hanover, and freshman Bluegrass champion, Papi Grad.

The Grade 3 $125,000 Courageous Lady is one of nine stakes races on the power-packed 15-race program. The evening also features eight $50,000 Ohio Fair Championships and a pair of paces with all-female drivers.

From a wagering standpoint, guests will be treated to a pair of $20,000 estimated Pick-4 pools in race 8 and race 11. Both wagers feature a $1 minimum and a low 14 per cent takeout.

Extra incentives for patrons attending on Saturday include the Big Top Prize Drawings taking place from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Guests may begin entering their names at 5 p.m. Six names will be drawn each hour for a chance to play one of the three Big Top Games.

The popular Summerfest Grille Tent will be open on Saturday from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Lady Luck's Clubhouse will be open on Saturday night, featuring a buffet for $27.95. For reservations, contact 330-467-4101.

Post time on Saturday is 6 p.m.

Streaks on the line during Hoosier Champions Night

The stage is set for Indiana's richest night of racing, Hoosier Champions night at Harrah's Hoosier Park tonight (Oct. 10). Twelve new Indiana Sire Stakes champions will be crowned on a 15-race program with just shy of $2.4 million up for grabs and a trio of lengthy win streaks on the line.

With a first post of 5:30 p.m., the first of eight consecutive $250,000 INSS Super Finals for 2- and 3-year-olds will be the glamour boy division in race 5 where the undefeated Rock Shines Again looks to stay perfect during his 3-year-old campaign. Owned by Richard Redder and T G Stable, Rock Shines Again has reeled off 12 straight entering tonight's card, including wins in the last five legs of Indiana Sire Stakes and $84,750 Hoosier Cup final for trainer Tyler George. Leading driver Trace Tetrack gets the call from post 5 for the 7-5 morning line favorite.

Meanwhile the fastest 2-year-old in harness racing history, Odds On Mr Mamba, will look to conclude his 2-year-old campaign on top of the 2-year-old colt and gelding pace Super Final in the 10th race. Fresh off his world record 1:47.4 score in the last leg of Indiana Sire Stakes on Oct. 2, the gelded son of Odds On Equuleus—Honky Tonk Woman will once again have pilot Dexter Dunn aboard for trainer Melanie Wrenn. The Odds On Racing homebred finished fourth while pacing home in :25.1 in his career debut and has not tasted defeat in the six starts since, including a Grand Circuit win in the $93,750 Elevation where he chased down Melillo with a :53 second back-half.

Odds On Mr Mamba has been established as the 7-5 morning-line favorite from post 6 while Dancingdreamer, who finished second to Odds On Mr Mamba in the world record mile, leaves from post 10 with Hall of Famer David Miller in the bike as the 7-2 second choice.

On To Norway will immediately follow up Odds On Mr Mamba, bringing a 16-race win streak into the Super Final for sophomore trotting colts and geldings in the 11th race of the evening. Leaving from post 2 with John De Long in between the wheels, the Muscle Massive—One Class Act gelding looks to complete the Indiana Sire Stakes sweep, having won all eight legs heading into the final to go along with stakes wins at The Horsemen at the Indiana State Fairgrounds and $90,000 Phil Langley. The Ron Burke trainee will leave from post 2 as the 9-5 morning line favorite with $301,844 already made on the year for owners Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, Black & White Stable, and Michael Rosenthal. Arch-rival, Operator, leaves just two slots over from post 4 with Kyle Wilfong in the bike as the 5-2 second choice.

The quarter-million-dollar Super Finals will be joined by $70,000 championships for the older male trotters and older mare pacers, along with $50,000 finals for the mare trotters and older male pacers with household names such as M-M's Dream, Little Rocket Man, Ponda Jet, and Walkin On Sunshine slated to compete.

For guests taking in the Hoosier Champions card in person, they are also encouraged to participate in the Progressive MegaBet Drawing promotion during the evening. Prior to each Super Final, one guest will be drawn to place a $125 MegaBet on a horse of their choosing in the selected race, with any unclaimed prizes carrying over to the following race. Guests may enter at a Trackside Promotional Kiosk beginning at 5 p.m.

Guests may also receive a Hoosier Champions cocktail set at the Trackside Promotions and Events Center from 5-7 p.m. The first 100 guests to show their Caesars Rewards card and proof of a $5 wager on any Hoosier Park race will go home with the complimentary set.

For those unable to join in person, race fans can tune into the Fox Sports 2 broadcast live from 7-10 p.m. with hosts Gabe Prewitt and Jessica Otten live on property providing commentary.

Bettors will also have a buffet of wagering options throughout the evening with $80,000 worth of guaranteed pools to take aim at including:

Race 1 – $10,000 Pick 5

Race 2 – $10,000 Pick 4

Race 5 – $10,000 Pick 8

Race 6 – $10,000 Pick 4

Race 8 – $10,000 Pick 5

Race 12 – $20,000 Pick 4

Race 15 – $10,000 Hoosier High 5

Free online racing programs will be made available on the Hoosier Park website under the Racing Tab along with free access to race replays. Qualifier replays are made available on the Hoosier Park AV YouTube Channel.

For more information on the 2025 live racing season at Harrah's Hoosier Park, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

New Jersey Sire Stakes board of trustees asks to keep Hambletonian events in New Jersey

The Hambletonian and the Hambletonian Oaks through their history have demonstrated clearly and loudly the spirit of harness racing, an industry that New Jersey has proudly supported.

Continuing to hold these events at The Meadowlands is important to many fans and participants, and to the standardbred industry in general. The Meadowlands has been the home of the Hambletonian events since 1981 and is known for its excellent facilities, vibrant atmosphere, and its ability to be an excellent host track. The rich history and tradition associated with the Hambletonian races have helped make The Meadowlands a special place for harness racing enthusiasts.

The New Jersey Sire Stakes board of trustees is deeply disappointed that the Hambletonian Society is even considering the possibility of moving the Hambletonian to another state or to a province in Canada.

Over the years, we have worked tirelessly with The Meadowlands to benefit horse racing in New Jersey. Our collaborative efforts have strengthened the sport. We have brought significant economic benefits to the state. The thought of the Hambletonian being relocated from this cherished venue is like the thought of moving the New Year's Eve countdown from Times Square in New York City. It would be not only disheartening for fans and participants alike, but also the move will negatively affect the experience and the sense of community that has been built around the event for many years.

Let's remember that Jeff Gural and his team at The Meadowlands stepped up more than 15 years ago to save this world-renowned racetrack from closure and have continually supported the track and the industry, which includes the owners, the drivers, the trainers, the grooms, the farriers, and the countless others who derive their income and support for their families from The Meadowlands.

Moreover, we believe that moving this race from The Meadowlands will have a significant adverse economic impact on New Jersey which will negate the positive message we have been sending to the public as well as to our legislators and elected leaders.

The New Jersey Sire Stakes board of trustees strongly recommends that the Hambletonian Society reconsider the idea of moving the Hambletonian events and work together toward our vision for the future of horse racing in New Jersey by keeping this historic and revered race at The Meadowlands.
