Pair of $700,000 yearlings spark opening session of Harrisburg yearling sale

by Ray Cotolo

Auction action returned to the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg, PA on Monday (Nov. 3) for the 2025 Standardbred Horse Sales Company sale. The opening session, with 170 yearlings cycling through the sales ring located in the belly of the complex, saw two yearlings sell in the $700,000 range.

Climatic Hanover, selling as Hip #94, earned the title of session topper at the slam of a $725,000 bid by Tor Hagmann. Hagmann purchased the three-quarter sister to millionaire Maryland for Kjell Anderson, whom Hagmann has worked for over the last few years. Anderson rose to prominence starting in 2021 when his Muscle Hill colt Rebuff won the Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt Hip #94 Climatic Hanover, a Walner filly out of Crucial, topped Monday's opening session of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale with a bid of $725,000 by Tor Hagmann. The filly was consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms, which sold nearly $5.2 million worth of horses during the session to lead all consignors.

Claus Andersen

Determination's Serge Godin led all buyers, spending $2.38 million, total, to purchase 10 yearlings.

Trot and then the Kentucky Futurity the year after – a redemptive win from his sixth-place finish as the odds-on favorite in the 2022 Hambletonian.

"We've still been buying nice horses every year," Hagmann said.

On the yearling he bought for Anderson, Hagmann said, "She is a very good-bred thing; it's a beautiful filly. I think it'll be a great racehorse and hopefully a great prospect for a broodmare."

Aside from direct blood to last season's Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year Maryland, Climatic Hanover is out of the Father Patrick mare Crucial, who herself is a half-sister to Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Venerable. Hagmann also said the plan is to send Climatic Hanover to Lucas Wallin, who won his first Breeders Crown with Kjell Anderson on Rebuff, for training.

Andrew Harris emerged with another high-ticket item a few horses earlier when winning the auction for $700,000 on Hip #85, a Chapter Seven colt named Seven Pledges that Harris said was one of two horses that were "must take-homes." The other – a filly named Sootie Hanover – went for $485,000, the fourth-highest price of the session.

"Bill [Pollock] said, 'Get what you want, so if you want those two the worst, make sure you get those two,'" Harris said. "Then, we set prices on the rest and try to stay within those prices on the other ones. We were underbidders on a couple and there were a few we didn't get our hands on, but those two were the two I said I wanted the most coming here."

Seven Pledges is the first foal from the Resolve mare Clockwork Orange, who is a half-sister to last season's Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Trotting Filly of the Year Allegiant, a million-dollar winner that has since raced overseas in Sweden as a 4-year-old.

"I didn't think he would go that high; I was shocked," Harris said. "I saw that Torgen [Hagmann] and all of those guys were bidding on him and, you know, he's just a fantastic colt and the Chapter Sevens you can see today – they are paying for Chapter Sevens. It costs a lot to buy a Chapter Seven right now. He's the best sire in the game right now, so you've got to pay for them."

Harris and company acquired Sootie Hanover earlier in the day. Selling as Hip #27, the daughter of Bulldog Hanover is the third foal from the Captaintreacherous mare Shining Beauty, who is out of two-time O'Brien Award winner and Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Pacing Filly of 2012 American Jewel.

"I thought it was one of the best families and the individual herself, she was just amazing," Harris said. "If you look at all the people who were the underbidders on her, they're the people you want to see as underbidders on a horse like that. I didn't want to pay that much, but it does make you feel good that other people are chasing her also for that much. It's just one of those things, that you've got to pay a big price for a filly like that."

The two high-budget yearlings, part of the total five Harris walked away with on Monday, continue an investment by Bill Pollock and Bruce Areman to specifically buy yearlings out of proven families often at any cost necessary. Last year, the team made Harrisburg history when buying the sale's first million-dollar yearling in Cambridge Hanover, who himself is a three-quarter brother to Maryland and therefore a full brother to the 2025 session topper Climatic Hanover.

"The individual has to match the page and that's why they are the big prices, because everybody can see the page and see that they are nice," Harris said. "That's what you want. Everybody can buy a Mustang, but if it doesn't have a 5.0 engine then you're not winning any races. The page is the engine and you have to see that the components for the engine are there. That's what these pages prove – yeah, these pages can go fast and now you need the individual to match it.

"Unfortunately, when we like the individuals, so does everybody else and so they all sell really high. That's just part of it. It's still a crapshoot after that. We don't know tomorrow if they are worth five dollars or if they will be worth a million. It's hard to tell, but that's the gamble of this business."

After splashing onto the sales circuit with deep pockets and hunger to succeed, Harris also said that he and his team of Pollock and Areman continue to evolve their approach to complement the lofty investments they've already made with the budding breakthroughs some of their horses have made, most notably their Downbytheseaside colt Brandon Blvd who went for $425,000 last fall in Lexington but has since set a Canadian record when winning his Breeders Crown elimination as part of a campaign with nearly a half-million dollars in the holster.

"We bought a lot of fillies last year so we have future broodmares and stuff like that," Harris said. "We had a really good year with the horses like Brandon Blvd and he's a potential stud prospect, so now we're looking at it like we've got a lot of fillies and so we need to add, hopefully, some of these trotting bloodlines that can maybe turn into studs, too.

"Eventually, down the road, that's where the money is at. If you get one of those, it pays for everything we've ever done. The goal is to definitely hit on one of those and you end up with a superstar trotter and it pays for everything we've ever done in the game. That's the goal."

Between Harris's two purchases and sales topper Climatic Hanover, one horse sold for $500,000 – Hip #152, a Gimpanzee colt named Command Center. Robert Lindstrom purchased the colt, the sixth foal from world champion Mission Brief, and will send him to Marcus Melander, who has trained every other foal from Mission Brief including this year's Mohawk Million winner Apex. "Staying with the family," Melander said.

MONDAY NUMBERS AND NOTES

The opening session of the Black Book Sale grossed $16,293,000 from 170 sold, down 1.6 per cent year-over-year, with an average of $95,841 – a 13 per cent decrease from 2024. Last year's sale saw 150 horses go through the ring.

"I think it was a buyers' market today, I really do," said Dale Welk, president and director of operations for the Standardbred Horse Sales Company. "I think there were some great buys made today and I'm hoping some great things come out of it. Because that really helps the whole situation – not just the sale, but it helps all of our consignors and owners that sold with us, in the long run, it's good for the buyer but it's good for them, too. It's good, in a way, for everyone, but it's tough on breeders and owners

Dave Landry

Trainer Andrew Harris was the session's second leading buyer. He spent nearly $1.8 million, total, to purchase five yearlings now to sell them at a discount price, so to speak. It's happened with everyone, probably in this building. They've sold some for $10,000 that's won $500,000 or $600,000, then the next year they sell the brother or sister for $100,000. It's one of those kind of things."

Welk also noted the opening session showed that the middle market continues to appear absent from the purchasing, with the top-stock horses selling for expectedly high prices but other horses slipping through the ring at polar-opposite figures.

"It was a strange, strange day," Welk said. "Talk about a rollercoaster... you'd sell one for $300,000 or $400,000, then the next five would sell for $10,000 or $12,000 and then we'd get another one for $500,000. It was a very weird sale, I guess.

"The middle market is virtually not there. There's no middle; the middle fell to the bottom. Tomorrow, we've got a ton of real good Captain Coreys, so hopefully tomorrow will be okay. I hope, in the end, I'm not down 14 per cent altogether, but it's one of those things... they've spent more than $100 million on yearlings already at other sales. It's a little depressing, but it's the market. We can only sell what we're brought, and we can't make people raise their hand."

Session two of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction will start today (Nov. 4) at 10 a.m. Hip numbers 181 through 559 will go through the ring.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Miia Salminen is an advocate for harness racing in Finland

by Victoria Howard

I returned recently from Ireland and Wales where I was a guest at an equine book signing for several horse books I wrote or co-wrote.

The enthusiastic fans purchased the books, Meadow Skipper, Roger Huston, Harness Racing in PA, and Roosevelt Raceway. It was a real honor to educate them on some of our greatest superstars (two and four legged ones) and famous racetracks through my books.

Besides meeting the wonderful Delaney's who founded and run the VDM (Vincent Delaney Memorial), I visited the amazing country of Ireland where the grass is emerald, green; the people are extremely kind and accommodating, and attended the races at the Tir Prince in Wales.

I befriended several female drivers who participated in the ladies' race, the Bernie Kelly Memorial, one of whom I already wrote about.

I've always been curious about how harness racing is on the other side of the pond, discovering their culture, and style of racing. I hope you enjoy this as much as I did.

Miia Salminen competed in the VDM representing her home country of Finland. After the VDM Salminen appeared on TV discussing her experience at the VDM.

"I was born in Turku, located in southern Finland," she said. "I have been involved with horses since I was 4 years old. My parents owned a farm where I got my start, and they still own and live there. My father had always been passionate about horses and would take me to the barn where I got my first ride in a cart.

"When I was young, I worked at Mikko Rivinoja's stable before starting my own company [liikkeelle.com] where I collaborate with Finish Hippos, Racetracks, and Fintoto, too, where I organize various events, as well as marketing and sales. My mission was and remains to bring trotting sports to people in Finland.

"I race and tour the Amateur League in Finland, as well as the Lady League [a league for female drivers]. I am also the organizer of the league. This year there will be 25 races and the final will be in Vermo this November.

"I also organize the activities of the Vermo Trotting School, located at Finland's main racetrack in Vermo. We collaborate with Harjun Oppimiskeskus/Harju Learning Center where the student's study to become horse groomers. We also offer different courses for children – young and adults – there is something for everyone.

"When I was 16, I drove in races a few times a year, but there were breaks of silence in between for several reasons. Since 2018, I have driven more and in 2021 I won the Finnish Championship for female drivers.

“Life itself and all the great experiences have taught me the most. I haven’t driven in the USA but am hopeful that the opportunity will soon come. I would love to one day drive in the USA, Canada, and Australia and learn their culture as well.”

~ Miia Salminen

“I am blessed to have raced in eight different countries. The biggest race I raced in was this year’s Prix de Amerique Amateur race and last year in the Elitloppet Amateur race in Sweden. As far as my best experience, I’d say it has been driving in the Bernie Kelly Memorial this year at Wales.”

Where do you train your horses, and what is your style of exercising and training them?

“At the moment I only have one horse of my own to train who is stabled at the Vermo Trotting School. I had three horses but downsized to have more time to coach and drive. 2021 has been my best year as a coach, where we won 16 times with a winning percentage of 34 per cent.”

Where do you race?

“I mainly race in Vermo and other trotting tracks in southern Finland. My favorite race is St. Michel in July where the sun is shining and there are fast horses competing.”

Trotting is popular in Finland. What are some of the big races?

“Trotting is the second most popular sport in Finland, after ice hockey. Here we have trotting races every other day except on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. The biggest races with the highest purses are the International Finlandia Race and the Derby in Vermo.

“The biggest trotting event is Kuninkuusravit where there are the King and Queen Races for Finnish Cold-Blooded.”

What is your style of training and conditioning?

“I train horses individually. I drive intervals to the gentle uphill and same downhill. During the training season I do longer intervals of 700-900 meters and during the racing season I do shorter intervals of 400-500 meters.

“I believe in giving the horse the best care possible, so regularly I treat them with laser and massages.

“I have personally competed in running and cross-country skiing and brought that style to horse training. It’s very important to warm up your horse before racing. I usually warm up for five-to-six kilometers before racing and after the race a two-to-three kilometers recovery jog.”

What is the fastest horse you have driven?

“The fastest horse is one I own named Zumuman. He won in 1:12.2 (mile) and earned just 5,000 Euros. Last Saturday there was a 200 meter speed race at Vermo. Zumuman won the qualifying round and finished second in the final.”

How did you like racing at the VDM?

“I loved it. It was the first time I ever drove a pacer, for there are no pacers in Finland.

“Out of the gate I tried to leave and go to the front but the horse on the rail was faster, so I fell in and sat behind it. My horse, Crosshill Diablo gave his best and finished fourth.”

Is there someone you credit for your success?

“It is driver Antti Teivainen – the second winningest driver in Finland. He taught me many lessons and after a race he always told me his opinion on what I did and could do better. He still teaches and advises me.”

What is the best experience you’ve had in the sport and what are your future plans?

“Life itself and all the great experiences have taught me the most. I haven’t driven in the USA but am hopeful that the opportunity will soon come. I would love to one day drive in the USA, Canada, and Australia and learn their culture as well.”

Hall, Jr. remains on top at WDC; Beckwith tied for sixth

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Australia's Gary Hall, Jr. maintained his spot at the top of the standings at the World Driving Championship in New Zealand after Monday's (Nov. 3) second round, with Canada's James MacDonald moving up from sixth to second. Brett Beckwith, representing the U.S., was equal on points with sixth-place Santtu Raitala from Finland.

There were two WDC races Monday at the Kaikoura Trotting Club, which were won by Jaap van Rijn from the Netherlands and Michael Nimczyk of Germany.

Beckwith overcame traffic trouble in the stretch to get a third-place finish with Miki's Courage in the second of the day's two dashes. He was 10th in the first race after his horse made a break.

MacDonald, who won the WDC in 2017, finished second in both of the day's events.

Fifteen races remain in the World Driving Championship, which, after an off day on Tuesday in New Zealand, resumes action Wednesday at Cambridge with five dashes. Racing begins at 5 p.m. at Cambridge (11 p.m. EST Tuesday in the U.S.).

Following the races at Cambridge, the WDC goes to Addington on Nov. 7 and Winton on Nov. 9 before concluding with a single race back at Addington on Nov. 11, New Zealand Cup Day.

Busy Miss Lissy S, Twin B Seven Sins capture Kindergarten Trot finals

by Frank Cotolo for The Meadowlands

Busy Miss Lissy S and Twin B Seven Sins sailed to win their respective $125,000 finals for the Grade 3 Kindergarten Series Trot at The Meadowlands on Saturday (Nov. 1).

Sent off the favorite in the filly bout, Busy Miss Lissy S, driven by Johnathan Ahle, took an easy spot in fourth on the pylons as Kate, All Time Trot S, and outside-leaving Kickan lined up to take the group into a :27.3 first quarter. Kate took the early lead off the moderate quarter and strolled up the backstretch as Busy Miss Lissy S left the cones to advance on the leader into a :56.4 half.

Busy Miss Lissy S (Johnathan Ahle) winning the $125,000 Kindergarten final for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Ahle steadily gained on the outside and caught cover through the turn once All Time Trot S edged out of the pocket to press Kate to three-quarters in 1:25.4. Into the stretch, All Time Trot S took the lead, though Ahle motored Busy Miss Lissy S into charging position and marched to the wire under a strong hold in a lifetime-best 1:53.3. All Time Trot S finished second, beaten a neck, with Kickan finishing third and Flying Copper coming on late for fourth.

The Denmark-bred daughter of Calgary Games — out of the Muscle Hill dam Hill's Angel S — won her sixth of eight races and her second in a row this season with Johnathan Ahle in the bike.

"We have started using [Ahle] the last couple of months," said co-trainer Sarah Svanstedt, "and he's a great driver, so when it works out you better keep going with it. [This filly] has a great attitude and big heart — she's very small, but she loves to race and that goes a very long way when they are 2-year-olds."

Panamera Racing owns Busy Miss Lissy S, who raised her first-season bankbook to $149,215. The Ake Svanstedt trainee paid $4.60 to win.

In the Kindergarten Colt Trot, Scott Zeron steered a masterful inside trip with the 87-1 shot Twin B Seven Sins to shock the nine colts and their backers in a lifetime-best 1:53.3.

Twin B Seven Sins (Scott Zeron) winning the $125,000 Kindergarten final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

The Noel Daley-trained son of Chapter Seven, out of the Deweycheatumnhowe mare Affair Hall, was placed well in third behind race-favorite Magic Punk and longshot Lindy Living heading past a :27.3 first quarter. After a :56.3 half and nearing the second turn, Highball Hanover took to the outside to chase and entered a nose-to-nose duel with Magic Punk coming to three-quarters in 1:25.1.

Stalking the battle for the lead, Zeron hugged the inside with Twin B Seven Sins turning for the finish and found room to pass Magic Punk and win by 1½ lengths while Al made a strong bid down the center of the track and got up for second. Magic Punk tired to third and Highball Hanover held fourth.

Zeron, driving the colt for the first time, said, "He raced sensational. Noel told me 'Don't sleep on him because he can go with these horses.' Having the rail helped out, I was sitting third at the quarter pole following two very talented horses, so it was just hoping my horse was good on this given day and he was."

Patricia Stable, Caviart Farms, Allister Stables and LA Express Stable LLC own Twin B Seven Sins, a now five-time winner from 11 starts with $109,380 earned. Sent off the third longest shot in the betting, the Twinbrook Limited bred paid $177.40 to win.

Ken Jacobs sweeps Kindergarten Pace finals

by Ray Coto for The Meadowlands

Owner Kenneth Jacobs took home a pair of winner's circle pictures and winner's checks when his gelding Bookie J and filly Prtynproud Hanover won in their $125,000 Grade 3 Kindergarten Series pacing finals on Saturday night (Nov. 1) at The Meadowlands.

Bookie J brushed early to the fore and endured through a sprint to the finish for a 1:51.2 victory in the $125,000 Kindergarten Series final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

Driver Dexter Dunn eased off the pylons from third with Bookie J rounding the first turn and pushed towards early leader Rocknacious through a :28.1 first quarter. Bookie J cleared command into the backstretch and cruised steadily to a :57.1 half while Signal Caller, the 4-5 favorite, readied a first-over attack to the far turn.

Signal Caller surged up the rim through the turn as Dunn gradually accelerated with Bookie J. The two matched strides through three-quarters in 1:24.4 and spinning into the stretch until Signal Caller leveled off nearing the final eighth. Toast Of The Town tipped off Signal Caller's cover late and lunged after Bookie J, though Bookie J responded to the challenge and extended for the finish to bag the victory by a neck. Apocalypsebluechip emerged from a shuffle for third and Signal Caller settled for fourth.

"The two [Rocknacious and Apocalypsebluechip] got out of there pretty good and the pace sort of backed up, so I moved him a little earlier," Dunn said after the race, "but he's really been racing good this year and getting better all the time. I feel like every time I sit behind him, he's matured more and more. Early on in the year his gait wasn't 100 per cent, a few steering issues, but Chris [Ryder] and the team have got him sorted out. Tonight, he was perfect; he felt great. I think he's going to keep maturing and be a nice 3-year-old."

Chris Ryder trains Bookie J, a gelding by Perfect Sting—Skyy, for owner Kenneth Jacobs. The filly notched her fourth victory from 11 starts in her career and has accrued $208,680 in earnings. She paid $10.40 to win.

Prtynproud Hanover (Yannick Gingras) winning the $125,000 Kindergarten Series final for 2-year-old fillies on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Prtynproud Hanover secured a pocket ride and pounced past weary pacesetter Darlin's Angel to claim a 1:51.1 victory in the $125,000 Kindergarten Classic final for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Driver Yannick Gingras moved Prtynproud Hanover forward to take the top from 1-2 favorite Darlin's Angel after a :26.2 first quarter. Once on the lead, Prtynproud Hanover settled and slowed, prompting Darlin's Angel to pull outside and circle back to the lead before a :55 half. Darlin's Angel cruised through the last turn while Prtynproud Hanover swelled in the trail, with Gingras eventually nudging his charge to the outside passing three-quarters in 1:23.1. Prtynproud Hanover locked onto Darlin's Angel in the stretch and lunged smoothly in the final eighth to scoot away and win by 2½ lengths. Fabulous Hanover rallied from second over for second with Darlin's Angel holding third and Wave Dancer charging through traffic off a ground-saving trip for fourth.

Jacobs, who purchased the $10,000 yearling in late July out of the Andrew Fulton barn off a sweep of the Bucky Gray, Jr.

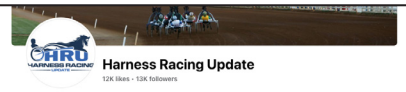

Memorial Pace at Ocean Downs, said of the filly, "I watched a couple of races, and I really fell in love with the horse. She's got long legs, she's just a pretty horse, and she has some go. I know she only beat half-mile horses, but I figured with her breeding she could go [1]:51 or [1]:52, [1]:53 as a 2-year-old. And they were good people too – they took care of the horse."

Joe Bongiorno trains Prtynproud Hanover, a filly by Downbytheseaside—Pretty N Fast who now has six wins from nine starts and $101,307 earned. Sent off as the third choice in the betting, she paid $19 to win.

A LITTLE MORE: There were no winning tickets sold on the 20-cent Pick-6, creating a carryover of $7,950 for Thursday's (Nov. 6) card. Those with five correct collected $226.32... Johnathan Ahle, Dave Miller and Yannick Gingras led the driver colony with two winners apiece... Ron Burke topped the trainers with a pair of victories... All-source handle on the 14-race program totaled $3,198,548... This week is the first of three this month with Thursday racing. That's when live action resumes at 6:20 p.m.

Maximus Miki outlasts Nijinsky in G3 Potomac

by Rosecroft Raceway

After being stretched out through a :26.2 first quarter and fending off a stern first-over challenge from Coaches Corner through the far turn, John Cancelliere's Maximus Miki outlasted an inside challenge from pocket rival Nijinsky to seal a narrow 1:48.2 victory in the Grade 3 $125,000 Potomac Pace on Sunday (Nov. 2) at Rosecroft Raceway.

In line to Scott Zeron, Maximus Miki pushed forward from post 8 to clear 2024 North America Cup winner Nijinsky (driven by Dexter Dunn) on the first turn while Coaches Corner (Jason Bartlett) secured a 3-hole ride from the pole. Coaches Corner angled off the pegs on entry to the clubhouse turn and inched closer to Maximus Miki through a :55 half before advancing to engage the pacesetter through a :26.2 third-quarter duel.

Off the corner for home, Maximus Miki dug in to keep third-place finisher Coaches Corner at bay and also held off a late charge from 7-5 favorite Nijinsky up the open stretch by a scant nose to score his sixth win of the season.

Abuckabett Hanover, last year's Potomac winner, finished fourth, beaten 3¾ lengths.

Maximus Miki, whose other major conquests this season include the Canadian Pacing Derby and the Harrah's Hoosier Park Pacing Derby, is trained by Tom Cancelliere. As the 4-1 third choice, the 6-year-old Always B Miki gelding paid $10.20 to win.

Zeron also won the undercard feature, the $25,000 Pete Medhurst Legacy Pace, with Sheer Terror. The 5-year-old Always B Miki gelding made a middle move from third to take the lead just beyond a :54.2 half before evading late pursuers A Major Attitude and Layton Hanover by three lengths to win in 1:50 for trainer Willard Reynolds and owner Mark Howard.

Eric Davis and Russell Foster led all drivers with three wins apiece on the 13-race card.

Live racing at Rosecroft resumes Thursday (Nov. 6); first post is 7:15 p.m. (EST).

Bangor Raceway achieves record handle in 2025

Bangor Raceway continued to buck nationwide pari-mutuel trends in 2025, reporting record handle numbers at the end of its recently concluded meet, while far surpassing record business numbers obtained during the 2024 season.

Over the course of its 38-day meet in 2025, Bangor Raceway accrued an average daily handle of $101,215, the highest in Bangor's history, besting the 2024 average ($88,985) by 14 per cent and continuing an upward trajectory which has shown solid year-to-year gains since 2021.

Daily handles in excess of $100,000 have now become a regular expectation at Bangor Raceway with 20 such occurrences realized in 2025, compared to 12 $100,000 handle days in 2024, and only two in 2023.

Bangor's average daily handle has incrementally grown by 31 per cent since 2021, while races per day have increased by 14 per cent and average daily purses ($41,497 in 2025) have increased by 34 per cent during the same period.

"Bangor's 2025 harness racing season was one for the record books" said Thomas Smith, Bangor Raceway's racing operations manager. "These results reflect the dedication of our team, fans, and the horsemen and horsewomen who continue to make Bangor a leader in Maine harness racing.

"Continued improvements to our simulcast signal, strategic post times, a commitment to providing a world class racing surface, and determination to offer competitive, full field cards have all combined to make Bangor Raceway an increasingly attractive wagering option on a nationwide basis. As we prepare to launch our 2026 season in the spring, we invite the wagering public to check us out. We're confident you'll like what you see."

Pending approval by the Maine Harness Racing Commission, live harness racing will resume at Bangor Raceway in April of 2026.

Twin B Tuffenuff makes it 50 at Red Shores

Ironsided invitational star Twin B Tuffenuff notched the 50th win of his career on Saturday afternoon (Nov. 1) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Twin B Tuffenuff ($4) was all business in the $5,100 race 11 feature right on the engine in 1:54.4. Gilles Barrieau put the 10-year-old Rock N Roll Heaven stallion on the point for trainer Ron Matheson and owner Pat Morris of Charlottetown and never looked back in fractions of :27.1, :56.4, and 1:26.2 with a :28.2 closer. Malignity (driven by Paul Langille) tracked and held second ahead of T H Boomtown (David Dowling).

Barrieau tripled up on the day as he also hit the wire first with a pair of horses from the Oakes Stable of Warren Grove. Rose Run X Con ($5.40) won race 8 in 1:55.4 with Barrieau driving for owner JD Racing Inc., of Cornwall, then Doctor Grenfell ($2.90) controlled every step in race 9 winning his third straight for owner Milton Young of Paradise, NL, this time in 1:56.2.

The Clifford Murphy barn teamed up with driver Ken Murphy for a training double with Abc ($2.30) in race 3 with a 1:57.4 clocking and Heres To Art ($12.70) who dug in bravely in race 7 for a neck decision in 1:57.1.

Driver Adam Merner scored a double on the day to now sit three wins shy of 1,000 lifetime. The Springvale driver won the Seniors Engagement Committee City Of Charlottetown pace with Freight Air ($5) in a sharp 1:56.1 for trainer Neil Bambrick and owner Alex MacPhee as well as with Mr Kelly ($3.20) in 1:57.3 from his own barn as the veteran son of Rollwithitharry went over $200,000 in career earnings.

The Merner trained Pendleton Rodeo ($3.20) also won race 6 in line to catch driver Corey MacPherson in 1:55.3.

Campbell hat trick highlights Bangor Raceway closing day

Heath Campbell rung the curtain down on a successful 2025 meeting at Bangor Raceway on Saturday (Nov. 1), scoring three driving wins during the chilly closing day program, while cementing his status as the second leading driver at historic Bass Park this season.

Campbell launched his barrage with a sterling gate-to-wire score behind the veteran trotter, Broadway Giant (2:02, $5.40). Owned and trained by Ronald Patoine, the 11-year-old son of Broadway Hall swelled up on the lead, collecting his 40th career victory while simultaneously elevating his lifetime bankroll past the $200K benchmark.

Choosing a different strategy, Campbell rode the pegs with the Mark Harris trained, Rose Run Slider (1:58.4, $6.60). Taking dead-aim at the front-running Press Time (Aaron Hall), who had been hounded by various combatants throughout, Rose Run Slider shifted gears off the final bend, propelling himself toward the leg weary rabbit, before extending out to a 1½ length margin at the wire.

Owned by Gayle Harris, the win marked the 39th career score for the 11-year-old son of Western Ideal.

Campbell had the fans tossing their hats into the 37-mile-per-hour wind gusts on Saturday as he turned a seemingly-impossible third-over journey into the winning strategy for Sweet Scarlett (2:03.2, $19). Overcoming a Rochester Fair-like 1:03.3 half, the 4-year-old Boston Red Rocks filly, who is trained by Kandace Niles for owner Carl Wharton IV, secured her second win of the season while cementing Campbell's third win of the day.

Campbell concluded his 2025 Bangor campaign with 53 driving wins, 13 fewer than the seasonal champion, Kevin Switzer, Jr. who, in unprecedented manner, now adds the Bangor driving crown to the hardware earned at all six of Maine's pari-mutuel fairs this year.

The leading trainer at the 2025 Bangor meet was Benson Merrill, whose 27 wins trumped fellow conditioners, Autym Sowers and Valerie Grondin who trailed the champion by four and five wins, respectively.

Pending approval by the Maine Harness Racing Commission, live harness racing will resume at Bangor Raceway in April of 2026.

Readers weigh in on Beau Jangles

RE: Brett Sturman's most recent Between the Lines column

I wholeheartedly agree that Beau Jangles should receive every award and accolade there is for him. You mentioned in the story "there's been no one else perfect this year." I would like to point out that here in the Maritimes there is a filly, Windemere Skye, that went 12-for-12 and in so doing won $124,975. She took her record of 1:53.3 over Red Shores at Charlottetown, a half-mile track.

I always enjoy your column, Brett. keep up the great work.

Kent Smith / Hunter River, PEI

More thoughts on Beau

Upon reading the article on Beau Jangles written by Brett Sturman, I agree with most of the points he presented. Beau Jangles was definitely the best 2-year-old pacer of the year. He defeated the best 2-year-old pacers that raced in the USA. His Breeders Crown victory was a show of both power and speed.

However, there's a reason why the term "home field advantage" has significance. Most of the horses from the USA have raced on several different tracks, which involves hours of shipping. Some have even shipped to Woodbine Mohawk [Park] more than once. All of this shipping has exposed them to more viruses and bacteria that can potentially cause sickness as well as shipping fever.

Meanwhile, Beau Jangles has enjoyed the comforts of his own home sleeping in his own bed [stall], eating his own grain, drinking the water he is accustomed to drinking, jogging on the same track in the same surroundings.

Your article mentioned Stockade Steelster and his memorable 2-year-old season. If my memory serves me correctly, after he started shipping to other tracks he wasn't as dominant as his 2-year-old season. Maybe the other 2-year-olds caught up to him at 3 or maybe the fact that he came to them played a difference. I don't know.

As I previously stated, Beau Jangles has proven he was the best 2-year-old pacer and is well deserving of being named the Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Pacer of the Year, however with Lexus Kody performing like he did this year shipping all across two countries winning multiple times in [1:49] and change and also winning the International Trot at an extended distance, I don't believe there's a resume that can compare to the accomplishments he achieved this year.
