Cambridge Hanover purchased for $1 million during opening session in Harrisburg

The brother to Maryland was purchased by trainer Andrew Harris from the Hanover Shoe Farms consignment. The first-day gross of $16,558,000 was up 8.8 per cent and the average of $110,387 was up 11 per cent over 2023.

by Ray Cotolo

The Standardbred Horse Sales Company sold the first seven-figure yearling in its 86-year history on Monday (Nov. 4), during the opening session at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg.

Bidding soared on Hip #104, a Walner colt named Cambridge Hanover who is out of the stakes-winning mare Crucial, making him a three-quarter brother to $1.1-million earner and Breeders Crown champion Maryland. He circled the ring as the auctioneer scatted swiftly into six-figure territory, reached in part by Andrew

The bidding was often intense during the opening session.

Harris as he stood nestled along the wall of the sales arena wing, his iPad held over his face, upping the ante. Harris continued nodding even as Cambridge Hanover eked over an $825,000 bid, which was the all-time sales record when John Cancelliere bought Donato Hanover's full brother Detour Hanover in 2011.

When the price reached $900,000, Harris kept up his end of the bidding war until the hammer dropped at $1 million. Harris, acting as agent for Bill Pollack and Bruce Areman, then signed what is tied for the second-most expensive yearling sold at auction in standardbred history. At the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale in 2019, Maverick sold for $1.1 million, followed by Damien at $1 million.

"My knees were shaking," Harris said with a laugh after the purchase. "You don't get used to those prices, but, at the same time, you watch the video and then you went to the sale to see him. I went to Hanover and watched him in the field and I've never seen a horse move like that. I predicted that this would be the highest-selling one. I told my guys that this could be a seven-figure horse. I was hoping $800,000, but I said it was possible it could be a seven-figure horse."

Harris also trains the half sister to Cambridge Hanover's dam Crucial, a now 2-year-old trotting filly named Voguish who has over $150,000 earned.

"This was one I had to have," Harris said. "I love this horse. I loved him when I saw him out in the field. I loved everything about him. When a horse can move like that, it's hard to find those types... and especially with the family. I wanted that one."

Increased opportunities for young trotting colts with races like the Mohawk Million also encouraged Harris to stay engaged as the bidding treaded into uncharted territory. Four of the five richest trotting 2-year-olds have produced million-dollar campaigns just in the last three years. Aside from Venerable, who earned over $1 million in her freshman season in 2021, Mohawk Million victors T C I and Maryland had seven-figure seasons as did eventual Hambletonian winner Karl.

"There's so many more purses for these trotting colts," Harris said. "You have more chances to get out on them. You've still got to get there and you've got to prove it, but if there was one that I wanted to spend more than what I'm comfortable spending on, it would be this one."

The million-dollar purchase came within an hour of Harris paying $400,000 for Hip #81, a Captaintreacherous filly named Abriella Hanover, also sold by Hanover. The filly is a full-sister to millionaire Blue Diamond Eyes as well as stakes-winner Captain Kirk and this year's Metro Pace champ Fallout. She was Harris' only other purchase from the opening session and adds to the 15 he took from the Lexington sale in Bill Pollock and Bruce Areman's continued investment and commitment to finding a champion racehorse.

"I learned so much last year and these horses taught me a lot," Harris said. "So, this year it'll just be a continuous process of going forward and getting better at it. You continuously learn. You never stop learning. If you stop, you should stop the game. Obviously, these guys are supporting me with amazing horses, so we'll hit on one of these guys."

Earlier in the session, Richard Gutnick popped eyes from the back row of the sales arena. He scored the winning bid on Hip #53, a Walner filly named Swinging Loyalty consigned by Concord Stud. Out of the RC Royalty mare Swinging Royalty, she is a three-quarter sister to two Canadian Trotting Classic winners in Ahundreddollarbill (winner in 2021) and Slay (winner in 2022) as well as Royal Mission and Royal Filly, who both have earned a quarter-million dollars. Gutnick, seated through the bidding alongside ownership partner Brad Grant, the filly's trainer Linda Toscano and Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky, signed the ticket for $760,000.

"This time, we wanted to get our top choice," Gutnick said. "[We] didn't think we were going to get it and I'm insane. I expected it to go $650,000 to $700,000. I was prepared for that. I wasn't really prepared to go as high, and Linda kept saying, 'It's hard to get your money back, when you go for one this high,' but I didn't listen this time. I have some partners that say, 'If you're in, we're in' so that makes life a lot easier for me.

"Dr. J loved her also. And Linda loved her," Gutnick said. "When we saw her at Concord Stud, we loved a couple of them. I got [Hip] #3 and this was my top choice all the way along. I tried to save bullets for it and now I've got to rob the piggy bank."

Toscano, wandering off while Gutnick waited and then signed the ticket, returned to the group and said jokingly, "I ran away. I don't know how to train a horse that expensive!"

STAYING WITH FAMILY

Jeff Snyder registered the third-largest purchase of the afternoon with Hip #82, a Walner colt out of world champion Mission Brief named Apex, sold by Hunterton Farm. Snyder, sitting next to trainer Marcus Melander when the hammer fell, also owns the colt's half-sister Kadena, whom Melander purchased as agent for $800,000 at the 2023 Lexington Sale. Melander also trained Apex's full sister Jaya Bae, who raced for Anders Strom's Courant Inc.

"This one was more racey looking and also more [money] than Jaya Bae," Snyder said. "We went over her, x-rayed her and she checked all the boxes. The whole family is wonderful. I thought he'd go for more, actually. The fillies seem to be bringing much more money than the colts, but we're happy."

Melander purchased a pair of the afternoon's toppers as agent. Late in the session, he struck the $525,000 winning bid on Hip

#133, a Gimpanzee filly named Art Of The State, in a million-dollar spending spree over 10 minutes. The filly, a half-sister to Melander's millionaire Periculum, consigned by Concord Stud, sold between a pair of $300,000-plus acquisitions for Melander in Hip #130, a Greenshoe filly and the second foal from triple millionaire Hannelore Hanover named Heiress Hanover, and Hip #134, a Greenshoe filly named Hot Shot Hanover who is a three-quarter sister to 2023 Hambletonian Oaks winner Heaven Hanover.

And well before Marcus Melander thrice scribed his John Hancock, he secured Hip #79 for $375,000. The filly, named Myths And Legends, is a full-sister to Gimpanzee, the double-millionaire who thrust Melander into the Grand Circuit limelight in 2018. He bought as agent for SRF Stables, who also co-owned Gimpanzee. Myths And Legends was sold by Concord.

When asked if the filly's family left him any doubt on whether he'd take her home, Melander said, "You never know. These prices for these trotting fillies, it's crazy. You never know what they are going to go for, but I think... $375,000 is a lot of money, but she has a lot of value. She was born a little late, so she's a little small, but she'll catch up. She still has a lot of value as a broodmare in the end."

Trainer Nancy Takter also purchased a pair with familiar bloodlines. She first acquired Hip #28, a Walner half-sister to Team Takter's world champion and triple millionaire Manchego, named Sorcery Hanover for $460,000. Takter also trains the filly's three-quarter sister Pink Chou Chou, who has banked nearly $200,000 through her 2-year-old season.

"[She has a] solid family, producing family, and she's worth every penny of what we just paid for her – as far as a broodmare in the future, so we're really happy with her," Takter said. "I actually think I paid less than I expected, so I was way underbudget, so I'm pretty happy with that and happy with my bidding."

Takter later bought Hip #58, a Walner colt named The Old Man, for $450,000 from Peninsula Farm. A half brother to stakes winner R Dutchess, The Old Man is out of Team Takter graduate The Ice Dutchess, who earned over three-quarters of a million dollars and is a full sister to Ake Svanstedt's world champion trotting mare Ice Attraction.

"I've never trained one of The Ice Dutchess' babies, but I trained her and she was a beautiful filly," Takter said. "This is a really nice colt. I actually saw him in Lexington, before the Lexington sale, so I knew he was here and kind of had my eye on him since then. He's grown nicely from when I saw him earlier in Lexington, so I was really happy with how he looked here at this sale and was able to put a group together to get him."

Pebble Beach's three-quarter brother also attracted a large sum when David McDuffee struck the winning bid from the complex's West Hall. McDuffee acquired Hip #26, a Captaintreacherous ridgling named Sea Bistro Hanover, for $410,000.

"Pebble Beach... was a little smaller than this one, so I kind of like the fact that this one is a little bigger and stronger looking," McDuffee said. "You've got to pay for good horses. We thought he'd go right around $400,000, so I guess we had him pegged and someone else must have thought so, too."

McDuffee said the ridgling will go into training with Brett Pelling.

OPENING SESSION WRAP

"It's been a stellar day, just amazing," said Dale Welk, president and director of operations for the Standardbred Horse Sales Company. "I can't thank the buyers enough. I know for a fact that Hanover's up 40 per cent over the first day last year. They've had a tremendous day. I didn't get to look [yet] at a lot of the others, but all the consignors that have been in have been very happy."

On the million-dollar yearling, Welk said, "I jokingly told [Hanover owner] Russell [Williams], 'I'm retiring.' That was a goal and something I wanted to do – to sell a million-dollar horse here and it was... I'll be very honest, I got emotional. I'm still a little choked up about it when I talk about it. It's a great feeling, especially with all the other ones we sold. We sold another one for $760,000. There were a lot of horses over $400,000 and that's pretty amazing."

Figures from Monday's session increased year over year. The 2024 opening session grossed $16,558,000 from 150 horses sold for an average of $110,387 – an 8.8 per cent increase from 2023's opening-session gross of $15,223,000 and an 11 per cent increase from the average of $99,497. Monday's figures came 16 per cent shy of the record gross of $19,716,000 set in 2022 and 15 per cent away from the record average of $130,368 set in 2021.

"I'm just happy for all the consignors," Welk said. "After a year like last year, it makes you feel really good. Like I said in one interview, I take all of that stuff personally, even if there's nothing I can do about it. I take it personally and I'll take a pat on the back after a day like today."

The sale's second session today (Nov. 5) will sell nearly 500 yearlings in a selection Welk is excited to present.

"I really think [the market] may be a little stronger than I was thinking," Welk said. "I was optimistic, but cautiously optimistic, as I've said a couple of times. We always have a little bit of trouble in a presidential election year, but there's a lot of money here. A lot of the right people and a lot of great people and they are supporting everything. Like, one guy told me, 'if I'm going to lose all my money, I'm going to have fun doing it!'"

"[I] really feel good about [Tuesday]. I think our middle market is going to be just fine. It kind of fell off in Lexington a little bit, but that's expected with the number of great horses they had. I think our middle is going to be strong. We've got real good yearlings to sell and almost every consignor has something real good to sell tomorrow. I probably could've put 50 or 60 more today, but you want to get out of here at a decent time. Tomorrow is going to be a little longer. It'll be a damn-near 10-hour sale tomorrow."

Today's session begins at 10 a.m. (ET).

Heather Takes Harrisburg

Heather Vitale covers history in Harrisburg

Heather Vitale was on the scene on Monday (Nov. 4) in Harrisburg to capture all the excitement of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's first million-dollar yearling, Cambridge Hanover, selling to Andrew Harris out of the Hanover Shoe Farms consignment, as well as all the other high-priced sellers.

Watch her video recap of the entire day on HRU's YouTube page or via HRU's special SHSC yearling sale page.

Vitale will be covering all five of this week's sale sessions.

A Fresh Breeze blew into Twinbrook Farms at the right time

by Matthew Lomon

Some believe good luck is the universe's reward for doing things the right way. Others see it as the product of being in the right place at the right time.

For Rob and Tammy McNiven of Twinbrook Farms, good luck is a bay pacer named Fresh Breeze.

Since being purchased at the 2019 Standardbred Horse Sales Company mixed sale in Harrisburg, PA for $21,000, the unraced mare has been nothing short of a marvel for the family-first breeding operation (as also covered by Heather Vitale for this year's sale preview video).

"We were in the market for broodmares after the yearling sale a few years ago, as most breeders and consignors are, and our daughter, Jenna, who is our farm manager, was walking along and saw Fresh Breeze in the lineup going to the sales ring at [Preferred Equine's] consignment," Tammy said.

"She then called my husband and said, 'I found our mare, I found her.'"

While Tammy and Rob were also impressed with Fresh Breeze, particularly her strong lineage (Captaintreacherous–Fresh Look) and standalone prospects as a broodmare, Rob recalled that they almost bypassed her altogether in favor of a racing filly.

But Jenna was positive that Fresh Breeze was indeed the one – a call that will forever be a part of Twinbrook lore.

At the time, the then 3-year-old was already in foal with a Roll With Joe baby.

Although that was not the reason they bought her, it ultimately proved to be a gamechanger for the Emboro, ON outfit.

That foal turned out to be 2024 Horse of the Year frontrunner Twin B Joe Fresh. Although Twin B Joe Fresh was bred by

~ Tammy McNiven

Versailles, KY’s Brittany Farms, she earned the ‘Twin B’ moniker because Twinbrook raised, named and sold her (originally with the name Twin B Euchre).

Trainer/owner Chris Ryder bought Twin B Euchre for $65,000 at the 2021 SHSC yearling auction. Though, he and the rest of her ownership group changed her name, they retained the Twin B part. That gesture is not lost on the McNivens.

“Everybody knows that she was bred by Brittany [Farms] and probably wonders why she has the Twin B name,” Rob said. “Whenever she was winning, it was always, ‘Bred by Brittany.’”

“So, for us, we feel so lucky that Chris Ryder and his group kept her name. It’s made it a pretty amazing ride.”

For Tammy, seeing a horse with the Twin B tag dominate the Grand Circuit is a reminder that her family’s tireless efforts are all worthwhile.

“It’s pretty remarkable that a farm like ours, which is family oriented — it’s fourth generation — our daughters are taking over for us, and we put every ounce of everything we have into it,” she said. “All our time, our effort, our money, this is what our family is. And when we have a horse like ‘Joe Fresh,’ it’s pretty surreal to tell you the truth, because this is what everybody else does. This isn’t what we do.”

“But it sure is validating everything that we’ve done in our life so far, because being foaled and raised in Ontario is incredible for us.”

The 4-year-old pacer all but cemented her case for top year-end honors with a front-leading Breeders Crown victory on Saturday (Oct. 26), at The Meadowlands.

In just her second professional campaign, Twin B Joe Fresh owns a 12: 10-2-0 line with earnings exceeding $1.1 million.

This, however, is just where the fun started for Twinbrook.

Now working with a top mare, the McNivens first bred her to the sport’s top money-winning sire, Bettors Delight.

The first of two Bettors Delight—Fresh Breeze foals was bay filly Twin B Roulette. The second was a colt by the name of Twin B Fresh Bet.

At the 2022 SHSC yearling sale, the former fetched $110,000.

One year later, at the 2023 edition of the sale, the latter sold for $500,000 – the most expensive price tag ever attached to a Twinbrook yearling.

“It’s pretty hard to sell a yearling for that kind of money, trotter or pacer, but for us, selling that in Harrisburg from Ontario, it was our home run,” Tammy said. “That was our Breeders Crown.

“We still are smiling because it’s still unbelievable, and it’s just remarkable. There are no words that can describe the thrill that you feel.”

A quick tap of the calculator says that’s three yearlings – Twin B Joe Fresh, Twin B Roulette, and Twin B Fresh Bet – who sold for a total of $675,000.

Not too bad for what started as a $21,000 investment.

The record sale was especially impactful for Twinbrook, as it allowed them to add another premier talent to their already standout roster.

“Everything we make in this business goes back in,” Rob said. “By selling that yearling for $500 [thousand], it enabled us to go out and buy Sylvia Hanover’s 2-year-old Downbytheseaside sister [Sula Hanover], who we knew would be a lot of money, but a great asset in the future.

“Right now, I think we have the two best families going.”

Even in the face of great success, Twinbrook has still dealt with its fair share of unfortunate turns.

Twin B Fresh Eyes, Fresh Breeze’s fourth foal and first sired by Perfect Sting, broke a P1 and P2 pastern in December 2023 – one month after Twinbrook’s historic Harrisburg sale.

Fortunately, the youngster is fully healed and was given the green light from her surgeon to pursue racing.

Rob and Tammy haven’t yet decided which direction to go with Twin B Fresh Eyes, whether it be to sell or race the bay filly.

In the meantime, the pair is more than content to hold onto their highly thought of yearling.

November 4 – 6

Pennsylvania State Farm Show, Harrisburg, PA

“Some people think we stole Fresh Breeze out of that sale, and I think we probably we did. That was the steal of a century.”

~ Tammy McNiven

“This way, we can decide if we sell her, if somebody comes with an offer, or if we race her, or whatever we feel is best,” Tammy said. “It’s much better, her destiny is in our hands.”

The McNivens endured another tough turn when Fresh Breeze was bred to the legendary Bulldog Hanover last year.

“Unfortunately, she was pregnant to Bulldog with twins,” Rob said. “We tried to pinch one, and then we couldn’t. So, we gave her 35 days, but we had to abort her because she had two going for 35 days.”

In more hopeful news, Fresh Breeze is currently pregnant with a Kentucky eligible from Confederate.

The same goes for Sylvia Hanover’s sister, Sula Hanover.

While Rob acknowledged that the odds of producing the next Twin B Joe Fresh are minuscule, he remained quite bullish on their 31-yearling consignment ahead of the 2024 Harrisburg Sale.

As for Tammy, who’s equally enthused, she’s looking forward to maintaining steady growth within Twinbrook’s catalog.

“If anybody has followed us in the past, they’ve known we’ve upgraded our broodmare band,” she said. “Every year, we’re buying two or three new mares. As we’ve progressed, our yearling consignment has progressed, too.”

“It makes for better yearlings. Every year we have a little more to offer everyone and that’s the exciting part, the new, up-and-coming mares.”

It hasn’t always been a breeze, but the emergence of Fresh Breeze as a top-tier producer has indeed been a boon for Twinbrook.

“We’ve never been able to afford the high-priced good race mares,” Rob said. “Instead, we continue to look at families. It’s worked for us so far. Unraced mares have not hurt us at all.”

Nor has a daughter with a keen eye and passion for the industry.

“Without Jenna, there wouldn’t be a Fresh Breeze at our barn; she was the one that found her and said, ‘We have to have her,’” said Tammy, adding with a laugh, “My other two kids said Jenna’s the favorite.”

“But Jenna is the farm manager, and she works with us, so from the outside looking in, I’m sure she does seem to be the favorite, but she’s here 24/7 and doing the best she can for our whole family.”

Life is good these days for team Twinbrook.

They are hopeful there are many more to come.

“I feel like because our broodmare band is continuously getting better, and we feel like we’re breeding to the top stallions that can compete with everybody, we’re hoping we can compete,” Tammy said. “We feel we can raise a good horse.”

Fresh Breeze, for instance.

For both Tammy and Rob, the horse with the modest price tag has made them feel like they hit the harness racing jackpot.

“Some people think we stole Fresh Breeze out of that sale, and I think we probably we did,” Tammy said. “That was the steal of a century.”

Rob said, “My saying is, ‘You have to be lucky to be good; and I think that’s true for everybody.”

Stars shine in Alberta Sires Stakes Super Finals

by Standardbred Canada

Alberta's Challenge of Champions Night was a showcase of the stars of the 2024 Alberta Sires Stakes season with the top performers taking their divisional Super Final titles on Saturday (Nov. 2) at Century Mile.

Trainer Jamie Gray's homebred Custard Dolce has dominated the 2-year-old pacing fillies in stakes action all season long and she extended her win streak to eight in the evening's first of four $80,000 Super Finals.

After letting the dust settle through a :28 opening quarter with a potential threat on his helmet, driver Phil Giesbrecht made his move down the backstretch with 1-9 favorite Custard Dolce and swept from fourth to first by the half in :58.2. Mademechangemymind (Nathan Sobey), the 9-1 second choice, was towed up into contention and offered up a challenge to three-quarters in 1:27.1, but Custard Dolce gave her the cold shoulder and drew off down the stretch to win by 5¾ lengths in 1:55 over the 'good' track rated one second off. Imashipwreck (Brandon Campbell) won the race for place, rallying off Mademechangemymind's cover.

"I wanted to let the dust settle a little bit," said Giesbrecht of the winning move down the backstretch. "We were going fairly slow at that point, and I had probably the one that I was more worried about on my back. So, I said, I'm going to take my shot and see if we can stretch her legs out down the backside, and she just did the rest. She's an absolute treat to drive."

Custard Dolce's earnings soared past the $100,000 mark, reaching $139,437 after a near-perfect rookie season.

Gray shares ownership of the standout Custard The Dragon—Blue Star West filly with Alberta partners Jackson Wittup of Calgary, Max Gibb of Millarville and Derek Wilson of Heritage Pointe.

"She's been pretty special, really, really special," said Wilson. "Best horse I've ever been associated with, and eight wins in a row is pretty darn sweet. Phil gave her a great drive. Jamie's done a great job with her all year."

Custard Dolce won every stakes race she competed in, with her only loss being a fourth-place finish when she debuted in a maiden race on July 12. In addition to sweeping all three Alberta Sires Stakes legs, her highlights included winning the ASHA Filly Pace in a 1:54 divisional track record at Century Downs.

Custard Dolce paid $2.20 to win as the overwhelming bettors' choice.

Driver Giesbrecht swept the 2-year-old divisions with the Marie Brooking-trained streaking colt Custers Stand bringing him right back to the winners' circle.

Custers Stand entered the Super Final with some winning momentum of his own, but it was a fight to the finish to deliver the special victory for his connections.

Momas Work Of Art (Serge Masse) got the first call leaving from the inside post with even-money favorite Outlawminutbyminut (Logan Gillis) firing across from post 7 alongside in the first turn and taking over command through the :28 opening quarter. Outlawminutbyminut continued to lead the field through a half in :57.3 before Giesbrecht sent Custers Stand first-over from fifth and battled with the favored pacesetter past three-quarters in 1:27.1. Custers Stand won that duel but had to contend with the re-emerging Momas Work Of Art, who was gaining to his outside. Custers Stand stood his ground through the stretch and was a game 1:55.4 winner by a neck. Westcoast McCoy (Kelly Hoerd) trailed most of the mile but closed well to complete the top three more than a half-dozen lengths behind.

Bred by James Rhodes of High River, AB, the Custard The Dragon—China Art colt was a $47,000 yearling purchase at the Alberta

Standardbred Horse Association Sale by Dianne and William (Willie) Neish of High River, and Len Denham of Westeros, AB. Custers Stand has been a bright spot for the Neish family and it was an emotional victory for his connections as they were able to watch and celebrate trackside after a year of dealing with health issues.

“There’s just a lot more to this whole story than just this horse,” said Giesbrecht after the race. «It’s been a trying year for every person in this family, and our family, with Willie, the way everything’s going with him. I’m just so, so happy with this horse. He fought. He fought every inch of that mile today, and it was all him. They did a fantastic job. I’m just so glad I could get the job done for these people.»

Custers Stand earned his third (consecutive) win from 10 starts and nearly doubled his bankroll, which now stands at $82,383.

Sent postward as the 2-1 second choice, Custers Stand paid $6.30 to win.

Parked from post 6 early on before landing in the 3-hole, Kelly waited until the top of the stretch to make his move with Outlawguns N Roses from behind the dueling leaders, drifting out as usual but making steady gains down the lane to prevail by 3¾ lengths in 1:54.3.

Defending Super Final champion Byby Baby Byby (Mike Hennessy) bested the pocket-popping Over Ice (Campbell) for second after setting fractions of :27.3, :56.4 and 1:25.2.

“She’s settled so nicely the last little while that I kind of wanted to be off the pace,” said Kelly of his winning trip. “We left out of there trying to get situated half close. And then we landed in the 3-hole, and it worked out really well. Because, I mean, when she comes off a helmet, she always kicks and, like I say, she’s just relentless. She just comes down the lane and she just tries harder and harder.”

Extending her current win streak to five, Outlawguns N Roses paid $2.20 as the 1-9 favorite.

Bred by Outlaw Stable, the Captive Audience—Gunslingin Gal filly is now 11-for-13 with $285,270 in earnings on the year for trainer Rod Starkeweski, who co-owns with Clauzette Byckal of Onoway, AB. A runner-up in last year’s Super Final, she collected her crown following wins in the Alberta Diamond and Princess legs.

Outlawguns N Roses improved her lifetime record to 15-4-0 from 22 starts and increased her bankroll to $380,810.

Glamour boy Grey Horizon asserted his divisional dominance and completed the Alberta Sires Stakes season a Super Final champion for trainer/driver Campbell.

Campbell set up Grey Horizon for the colt’s seventh-straight stakes victory when they retook the lead through a :28.3 opening quarter from his stablemate, 74-1 longshot leaver One Hot Minute, driven by Mike Hennessy. The 1-4 favorite remained confident on the lead through a :58.2 half with YYC On The Horizon (Dave Kelly) making progress first-over from the backfield, but Grey Horizon was getting away, up by three lengths at three-quarters in 1:27. Building an insurmountable lead in the stretch, Campbell let the star sophomore coast to the wire while YYC On The Horizon chased in second, finishing 1¼ lengths behind the 1:55 winner at the wire. Rum N Custard (Kelly Hoerd) finished third.

“Once he went by the stablemate going to the half, I thought he was in control, and that was okay,” said George Rogers, who co-owns the roan colt with his Calgary partners Jodi Loftus and Raymond Henry. “I didn’t want him in traffic, didn’t want him in trouble.”

A Super Final runner-up as a freshman, Grey Horizon has been a dominant force in the glamour boy division this year, winning nine of his 14 starts, including a last-out victory three weeks ago in the Western Canada Pacing Derby, and earning more than a quarter-million dollars.

“We’re thrilled to death to get a win,” Rogers said. “He’s won six in a row coming into this, you never know in a stakes race. You never know in a horse race, period. He’s been racing great, at his best. He is the best here, and I think he just proved it tonight. He may not have been at his best tonight, I don’t know, but he was good enough to get it done. We’re thrilled.”

Bred by Gigi Van Ostrand of Okotoks, AB, the son of Vertical Horizon out of Panagler has amassed $340,725 with 14 wins and six seconds from 22 lifetime starts.

Rogers noted that Grey Horizon will face a new challenge on the horizon.

“I think he’s a Meadowlands horse,” Rogers said. “So that’s where he’s going. Soon, not for us. We’re going to sell.”

Grey Horizon paid $2.70 to win.

Saturday’s undercard included $15,000 consolations for each division.

Trainer/driver Sobey’s 2-year-old pacing filly Captains Hideaway ($19.90) had the edge in a tight photo finish for place and inherited the consolation victory when the disqualified winner, Hazels Hazelnut, was placed fifth for causing confusion while racing on the lead into the first turn. Her maiden-breaking victory was clocked in 2:02.4.

Two-year-old pacing gelding Carving Credit ($26) cut a 1:58.1 mile to score his first career win in the colt and gelding consolation for trainer/driver Gillis and owner Nicole Hudak.

Trainer Jacques Lambert and Jim Wilson’s 3-year-old pacing filly Kellys Chase ($6.60) prevailed between a pair of rivals on the line in 1:58 with Giesbrecht in the sulky.

Three-year-old pacing colt Rememberthecustard ($3.40) was a repeat consolation winner, scoring in 1:57.1 with Campbell picking up the catch-drive for trainer Rod Hennessy and owner/breeder Lorne Duffield. His stablemate, Outlaw Game On, got the nod in a place photo 1½ lengths behind with Mike Hennessy driving.

'Champagne' has no problems in Big M's Kindergarten

Jim Doherty Memorial and New Jersey Sire Stakes champion Champagne Problems set herself up well for next week's Kindergarten Classic final by taking the first of two divisions of the series' final preliminary for freshmen filly trotters Saturday night (Nov. 2) at The Meadowlands.

The card saw seven $20,000 divisions of the fifth leg of the Kindergarten for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait as horses raced in an effort to get enough points to qualify for next week, when Saturday's (Nov. 9) four finals go for total estimated purses of $850,000.

A Nancy Takter trainee, Champagne Problems worked out a 4-hole trip to the five-eighths, made up ground gradually while racing on the rim first-over from there, before powering to the top and going on to an easy three-length victory in 1:54. Myonlylove was second with Sonmar Pond third.

"She's obviously a really lovely filly, and obviously wasn't on her game last week [when ninth in the Breeders Crown final] — shame for the connections — but she was back to good form tonight," said winning driver Dexter Dunn. "She was nice and relaxed and hit the line well."

A daughter of Tactical Landing—Miss Caviar who is owned by Rojan Stables, Family Business, Patrick J. Hoopes and Caviart Farms, Champagne Problems returned $3.60 to her backers as the 4-5 favorite. She's now won six of 10 lifetime outings, good for earnings of $378,704.

A HALF-DOZEN MORE: Here are the other six Kindergarten winners, with division, horse (sire—dam), driver, trainer, winning time and win payout:

- 2-year-old filly trot (Division two): Voguish (Gimpanzee—Jolene Jolene), Todd McCarthy, Andrew Harris, 1:54.4, $2.80 as the 2-5 favorite.
- 2-year-old colt and gelding trot (Division one): Cheers Hanover (Bar Hopping—Chez Lucie), Dave Miller, Ron Burke, 1:55.2, $3.40 as the 3-5 favorite.
- 2-year-old colt and gelding pace (Division one): Papis Pistol (Papi Rob Hanover—Bang Bang), Andy Miller, Sam De Pinto, lifetime best 1:49.3, $5.40 as the 8-5 second choice.

• 2-year-old filly pace (Lone division): Champagne Room (Papi Rob Hanover—See You At Peelers), Andrew McCarthy, Noel Daley, lifetime best 1:51.1, $9.80 as the 7-2 third choice.

• 2-year-old colt and gelding pace (Division two): Seaworthy Hanover (Captaintreacherous—Shortstory Hanover), Dunn, Jake Leamon, lifetime best 1:52, $39.20 as the 18-1 fourth choice.

• 2-year-old colt and gelding trot (Division two): Monserrate (Chapter Seven—Guinevere Hall), Miller, Harris, lifetime best 1:54.2, $7.60 as the 5-2 third choice.

A LITTLE MORE: Scott Zeron led the driver colony with four victories on the card... There were no winning tickets sold on the 20-cent Pick-6, creating a carryover of $7,689 for Friday's (Nov. 8) program. Those with five winning selections cashed in for $76.28... One shrewd handicapper took down the 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 all by themselves. After a sequence that saw winner's odds of 2-5, 3-5, 3-2, 8-5, 4-5, 7-2 and 8-1, the lone ticket was exchanged for $6,439.62... All-source handle on the 14-race card totaled $3,015,599, the 45th time this year from 71 programs that betting busted the $3-million barrier at The Big M... Racing resumes Friday at 6:20 p.m.

Rollthebet rolls in Autumn Series final

Rollthebet completed a perfect sweep of the Ontario Sired Autumn Series after winning the $24,800 final on Sunday (Nov. 3) at Flamboro Downs.

The Autumn Series event was the finale for 2- and 3-year-old Ontario-sired pacing fillies. The series featured non-winners of $10,000 lifetime with no allowances on earnings.

Bettors' choice Boots N Bling (Brett MacDonald) designated herself the pacesetter through the mile, posting splits in :28.1, :57.2 and 1:26.1. Rollthebet and Austin Sorrie got away sixth off the car, 11½ lengths off the leader. Sorrie moved the Rachel Andrew student to the outside, second over at the half, following the cover of Docs Love (Travis Cullen).

Rollthebet moved over once more to pull three-wide around her cover. Rollthebet and Boots N Bling separated themselves from the field as they battled to the finish. Rollthebet prevailed in 1:56.1 by a neck over Boots N Bling. Docs Love completed the triactor.

Curtain closes on Hippodrome 3R race meet

The curtain came down on the Hippodrome 3R (H3R) 2024 race season Sunday (Nov. 3) with a 12-race card that featured both a $6,500 preferred pace and a $10,000 pace for older Quebec-owned mares.

In the fifth race preferred pace, overwhelming 1-9 race favorite Light The Torch (Always B Miki) and driver Pascal Berube flew off the starting gate with Berube pulling the ear plugs to insure getting the lead.

With Aladdin (Stephane Brosseau) sitting the pocket seat, Light The Torch led to the quarter in :27.3. Then No Time At All (Francis Picard) came first-over with Perpetual Rock (Simon Delisle) second-over at the half mile in :57.2.

Never really challenged for the lead, Light The Torch led past the three-quarters in 1:26.4 and then held off Aladdin in the stretch to win with ease by 2½ lengths in 1:55. No Time At All was third.

It was the ninth win of the season for Light The Torch. The 4-year-old gelding is trained and co-owned by Marc-Andre Simoneau with Jean Fontaine. He paid $2.30 to win.

Then in the seventh race $10,000 feature for Quebec-owned pacing mares, it was Sauble Amber (Betterthancheddar) and driver Pascal Berube going down the road from post 5.

Sauble Amber cut fractions of :27.3 and :56.2 with Latte Seelster (William Roy) sitting on their backs and Dialmeup (Francis Picard) coming first-over. Then on the backstretch, Sauble Amber opened up on the field, leading by six lengths past the three-quarters in 1:26. She went on to win in a romp by 15 open lengths in 1:55.1. Compassrose De Vie (Stephane Brosseau) was second with Dialmeup third.

It was the second-straight win and 12th victory of the season for 5-year-old mare Sauble Amber, who is trained and owned by Michel Lagace and paid just $2.10 to win.

Driver Berube wrapped up his fifth straight driving title at H3R with a grand slam Sunday. He ended the meet with 76 wins with Marie-Claude Auger second with 52 wins.

Trainer Marc-Andre Simoneau, who captured his first training title at H3R, had a double (both driven by Berube) Sunday and ended the meet with 30 wins from his stable. Second was David Pilon with 23 wins.

During the race card Sunday there were three special presentations made to retiring horses.

Of the three venerable pacers, PL Gyro, was able to race one more time in the fourth race pace where the 14-year-old finished a game second place for driver Berube in his final start on the racetrack.

Also retired was Windsun Cheyenne, who has made his mark at H3R by winning a significant share of victories. He is also in the record books for having crossed the mile and a half race in 2.58.1 on Aug. 27, 2017, with Brosseau at the guides. He retires with a generous bank account of more than $230,000.

The third retiree this day was the pacer SOS Mach Xtreme. She won many races on the Regional Fair Circuit.

Each retiree made a final appearance in the winner's circle, had their front shoes ceremoniously removed and was presented with a monogrammed winter blanket.

Track Notes: Steeve Genois had a driving double Sunday. With the end of the live race meet for 2024, H3R will be open seven days a week featuring simulcasting from around North America. For more information, visit www.hippodrome3r.ca.
