Money changes everything

To get larger fields in the FanDuel Mares Championships you've got to show them the money.

by Debbie Little remember how long, nobody goes. Make it a million dollars and they have three divisions. You know, if you want to incentivize people, pay them.”

Toscano won the million-dollar Jug this year with It's My Show and she also won the Jugette – which went for $255,000 – with Ucandoit Blue Chip.

“There's a reason they call them the 'glamour boys,' Toscano said. “Back in the day, we didn't have a lot of mares and they struggled very, very much to get enough mares to have a mares division. When I first started racing horses, we had to race them

Having a 3-year-old in all four FanDuel Championships added a level of excitement to the races.

Twin B Joe Fresh won the Mares Pace while her trotting counterpart, Bond, finished second. As thrilling as those races might have been, the fact that they were just five-horse fields – four-horse fields without the 3-year-olds – took away some of the drama that a full field brings, not to mention they become less than palatable from a betting standpoint.

So, what needs to be done to attract more mares – or for that matter, fillies – to the FanDuel races?

One thought was to take a page from the TAB Eureka's book and let the 3-year-old(s) draw for inside posts. Some participating trainers liked that idea, but thought the answer to the question is much simpler: show them the money.

“If a bonus was given to a 3-year-old I think that would be a much better incentive [than an inside post draw],” said trainer Linda Toscano.

Toscano has long been advocating for better purses for mares.

“I've talked to owners and I've talked to them in the boardrooms about if you have to make the sustaining payments [for mares] higher, make the sustaining payments higher, but give them more money,” Toscano said. “Look at what happened at the Jug this year. They haven't had three divisions of the Jug in they can't against the boys and they could compete and they did compete. Then the mares division took off and it was better. It was nice to have a mares division, but it's not nice to go for as little as we do all the time."

Trainer Nancy Takter won the Jugette in 2022 with Treacherous Dragon when the purse was only $205,000 and thinks the current disparity between the purses for the Jug and Jugette is terrible.

"I mean, at least make the purse a half-a-million for the fillies," Takter said.

Takter sent out 3-year-old colt Tactical Approach to take on his elders in the FanDuel Open Trot, in which he finished second.

Even though Tactical Approach drew well in the seven-horse field, Takter wouldn't mind having the 3-year-olds have the option to draw inside.

"They should draw 1 through 6, like how they do the bye," Takter said. "Karl drew 1 through 6 in the Valley Victory because he had a bye to the final. So, I think that that would be fair. Although, actually, I think it should be 2 through 6 because nobody wants the rail. The rail sucks at The Meadowlands."

Takter agrees with Toscano that female races in general don't go for enough money and that the lower purses will discourage some from participating.

"It's a long season as it is and if you don't go for more money, it's not worth it," Takter said, "If you have a horse like Sylvia Hanover, she would have qualified to race in the [FanDuel] final. But, you know, she had a long year, it's not a lot of money and they're planning on bringing her back at 4, so, it's not worth it for them to bring a filly like her back for that.

"Another thing you have to consider, too, is when I raced my 3-year-olds in the FanDuel final, we're at home. I'm an hour from The Meadowlands. Whereas, other people, to use Sylvia as an example again, were they going to ship her all the way down from Canada again? So that makes it tougher."

Chris Ryder co-owns and trains Twin B Joe Fresh and even though the idea of drawing an inside post would have benefitted his filly, he thinks that he's already being benefitted just by being invited to race.

"We won the Glen Garnsey, which got us into the FanDuel, and then we had a $2,500 starting fee," Ryder said. "But we already had an advantage because we didn't make any payments to get in the race like all the other horses. So, we went into that race at less expense than the older horses. So, you've got an advantage there.

"So, then, if you also give them a preferential draw because they're 3, it's discouraging the older mares, because I'm trying to look at the big picture. So, horses that didn't go were horses like Grace Hill, who was tired, the filly from Canada didn't come down. I mean, $175,000 is okay but it wasn't enough to bring Sylvia Hanover, was it?"

Ultimately everyone agreed that the best way to ensure bigger fields was to do what they did with the Jug and increase the purse, especially when it comes to mares.

"I've always said this, too, I think it's a very archaic and outdated system that the mares go for less money in a lot of these stakes races," Takter said. "And it's a lot less money in most of them. I mean, even if you take the Hambletonian, the Hambletonian goes for a million and the fillies go for half-a-million, it costs you just as much to train a filly as it does a colt."

Ryder added: "The bottom line is you've got to look after the mares because that's the only place you get racehorses from. You can have stallions all day long, but if there's no mares, there's no foals."

Fair play in Ohio

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association broadcast nearly every one of the 65 Ohio fair race meetings, counting 128 programs and nearly 1,400 races in 2023. Some 1.5 million people were exposed to its live streams.

by Bob Roberts

There is nothing in North American racing that compares. Without a doubt, it's the ultimate equine caravan, the pride of Ohio horsemen. Hobby to some, lifeblood to others. And, while the Buckeye state has four pari-mutuel harness raceways, its 65 county fair race meetings and 128 programs, totaling nearly 1,400 races from June through October, is a treasure.

Remarkably, all the action in 2023 was seen live, from the first race through the last, on YouTube and Facebook, as presented by the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association.

"Well, we actually missed two cards this year," said Frank Fraas, the OHHA's outreach and public relations coordinator. "There was a rescheduled rainout (Aug. 15) at Zanesville [Muskingum County] and a conflict with three other fairs that prevented us from airing the final program [Sept. 4] from Van Wert [Van Wert County]. Otherwise, we had it covered."

Covered but good.

According to Fraas, the presentation racked up some incredible viewership numbers.

"It was unbelievable," said Fraas. "Using numbers from YouTube and Facebook, 1.5 million were exposed to our live streams. That includes 100,000 on Little Brown Jug Day and 252,000 for the five days of Jug week at Delaware. We were seen in 28 states and legitimately in 20 other countries."

While Fraas did commentary on 25 telecasts, Susan Schroeder, the OHHA's project coordinator, was the most familiar face, appearing on 50 shows. She even ran camera on one of them. Matt Clark, the OHHA's video production and media content creator, was behind the camera for 53 fairs.

Fraas said he put 7,100 miles on his car getting to the fairs and back home to Columbus this year. He smacks his lips when it comes to fair food, professing that nothing beats the Trojan Burger at the Hartford Fair in Croton. It's named for the area's Centerburg High Trojans and the stand is run by the school's athletic boosters.

"It's a Big Mac on steroids," said Fraas.

On the fair tracks, the champions were Jeff Nisonger, who led all drivers with 90 victories and Betty Clegg, the top trainer with 61 winners. Dunkin', the star of the Clegg barn, was the winningest fair horse with 15 scores.

"We raced at so many fairs that they kind of run together, but Dunkin' was special," said Clegg. "He was so consistent."

Nisonger was sulky supersonic. He drove at 29 different fairs in a season that was sometimes a blur.

"I was very busy, but it was a good year," he said. "Wilmington was one of my better fairs."

Nisonger dominated the Clinton County Fair at Wilmington on July 11 and 12, winning 13 races, including seven in a row. He had 22 drives over two days and was unplaced just once while adding five runner-up finishes and three third place showings.

Next to winning, Nisonger said you can't beat the Farmer Brown steak sandwich at the Darke County Fair.

"It's the best," he said. "I've seen the line stretch to where it takes 30 minutes to an hour to get served."

Here are some of the non-fattening highlights of what online viewers and those in the grandstand saw, stretching from spring through fall in 2023.

The season began on June 12 at Paulding with Why Tomorrow Ray, a 3-year-old pacer, winning off by 21 lengths. It was the start of a strong campaign for the son of Racing Hill. He would win six of his nine fair starts and finish second in the other three. The next day, Lady With No Fear, a sophomore pacer, topped Why Tomorrow Ray by romping by 21 1/2 lengths.

Brittany bred, raised and sold 2YO filly Pizzelle 2,1:53.2 ($315,850-above) won the $428,000 Goldsmith Maid at the Meadowlands, while Brittany-bred 3YO filly Twin B Joe Fresh p,3,1:48.2 ($1,440,203), sold in utero, won the $175,000 FanDuel Open Mare Pace. As Brittany nears the end of its run, for yearling buyers, it's only the beginning.

At Circleville (Pickaway County), two aged pacers, Blazen River N (on June 17) and Big Booty Rudy (June 18), missed the 28-year-old track record of 1:57 by a fifth of a second.

Pierce Henry dominated the action at Marion (Marion County) with nine winning drives in two days (July 3-4), and a week later at Wilmington (Clinton County) a lot was happening. Not only did Nisonger win 13 races, Dragon Grad missed the track record of 1:55.3 by a fifth of a second, and there were two dead-heats for win. Drew Neil, the second winningest driver on the year (58 wins) rallied horses to be parts of both deadlocks. In one of the deadlocks, Nisonger missed making it a triple dead-heat by a mere neck.

Nisonger and Dan Noble dominated the July 17 program at Lebanon Raceway (Warren County), winning 11 of the 16 races (six for Nisonger) while a pair of sophomores (Fiesty Sam and Jumping The Line) trotted within a second of the track record of two minutes flat.

Grover Hill moved to the head of the pack of romping fair winners July 18 when he scored at Oak Harbor (Ottawa County) by 21 3/4 lengths, topping Lady With No Fear's Paulding score by a quarter of a length.

The July 18 doubleheader card at the Carroll County Fair at Carrollton was a celebration of a life well-lived when driver Don McKirgan won a race on the afternoon card and one on the evening presentation. He did so at the age of 82. He was just three months shy of his 83rd birthday.

The Carrollton races also saw a track record performance when Townline Flight paced his mile in 1:57.2, shaving a fifth of a second off the mark set last year by Rockin Requiem.

The Crawford County Fair at Bucyrus saw the largest winning margin of the year get a new leader after the freshman trotting filly Tammie Sue buried her rivals by 24 lengths for trainer/driver Darren Harvey on July 20.

Fiesty Sam missed the track record at Lebanon, but he got it at Marysville (Union County) on July 23 when he trotted home in 1:59.3, eclipsing the former mark of 2:00.2 set by Blasco. The son of Victory Sam is owner, trained and driven by Matthew Brown.

A race is a race, even it's just a two-horse race. Which makes the effort of Unhinged in a race on July 26 at the Shelby County Fair at Sidney, the largest winning margin of 2023. He won off by 27 1/2 in a pedestrian 2:11 over a track labeled "good."

For years, Don Irvine, Jr. dominated the races at Northfield Park. At age 72, he reached back for a bit of the old magic on July 28 when the Summit County races were presented at the Rt. 8 oval. Irvine won five of the 16 races, including a sizzling 1:54.4 mile behind the trotter Along In Time.

Nisonger and Hank Le Van shared sulky honors July 30 at the Preble County Fair at Eaton with five winners each, but Le Van won the day as he trained all five of his triumphant racers. Le Van had 47 scores on the year, second only to Clegg.

In a July 31st race at the Columbiana County at Lisbon, a race in which all three starters broke, the 5-year-old pacing mare Filet Mignon got back on stride and stayed there to win off by 39 lengths, the new holder of the largest winning margin of the season.

It took just two days for Filet Mignon to lose her ranking. Besting a three-horse field on Aug. 2 at the Auglaize County Fair at Wapakoneta, Normally Stormy marched off to a 47 1/4 length laughter. It was the maiden victory for the 7-year-old mare and her only triumph of the year.

Both Wapakoneta track records fell, as Four Wheelin trotted in 1:59 on Aug. 1 to shave a fifth of a second off the mark set in 2019 by Rockinthepines and matched in 2021 by Windsong Patriot. The pacing standard fell Aug. 2 when Dancinbytheseaside, a 3-year-old filly was clocked in 1:56, erasing the 1:56.1 mark set by Mystical Rock in 2018.

Unraced at two, Vh Volt made up for lost time in 2023 by winning seven times, including an Aug. 4 score at the Athens County Fair in Athens with a track record mile in 1:57. VH Princess Brea set the standard of 1:57.3 in 2019.

Another track record fell on Aug. 6 at the Ross County Fair in Chillicothe. Party Boy Hill, racing in the final heat of the day, won off by 6 lengths in 1:56.3, knocking a fifth of a second off the old mark set by C'mon Cha Cha Cha in 2006.

There were no track records or length-of-the-stretch victory margins at the Champaign County Fair at Urbana on Aug. 8, but the purses were eye-openers. Of the 11 races, nine carried a purse of $20,000 and another offered $10,000. That's big-time racing at the fairs.

When Nick Clegg got Dunkin' to go wire-to-wire Aug. 15 at the Henry County Fair at Napoleon, it gave the sophomore gelded son of Pet Rock his ninth consecutive Ohio fair victory. He would go on to win six more fair starts. His only loss on the Ohio circuit came at the Delaware County Fair when he finished fourth in the $61,500 Ohio Breeders Championship.

A few years back, when a worker was asked to rank the Darke County Fair at Greenville against the others in Ohio, she quickly answered, "Honey, compared to our fair, the rest are just carnivals."

The annual four-day Greenville celebration ended in record-breaking fashion on Aug. 24 when both the trotting and pacing track standards fell. Yo Mister, a 4-year-old gelding, got the trot record in 1:55, clipping a fifth of a second off the record set by I Know My Chip in 2019 and matched by Smoking Jet last year. The pace record of 1:51.4 was established by Swing City in 2017, but Charlie May crushed it in 1:50 in winning the $35,000 Gene Riegler Memorial Open. He romped by 9 ¼ lengths.

Brett Miller drove both Yo Mister and Charlie May.

Vh Volt, a track record setter at Athens, collected a second record at the Monroe County Fair at Woodsfield on Aug. 22 with a 1:56.1 mile. His bragging rights lasted just 34 minutes. Rockin Requiem, driven by Ronnie Gillespie, went wire-to-wire two races later in 1:55.4. The old mark of 1:57.3 was set by J J Tanner in 2019.

A track record, and a track record equaled made for a lively two evenings (Aug. 28-29) at the Noble County Fair at Caldwell. Hillbillypacinhill, a 3-year-old gelding, blasted to a 1:56.2 clocking, knocking a full second off the 26-year-old record set by Glive in 1997. On the second day of racing the aptly-named Father Time (he's 6) won in 2:00 to match the trot standard set by Uncle Leroy in 2018.

The casual racing fan might not have given much thought to Southwind Amazon's 1:57.2 mile at the Stark County Fair at Canton on Aug. 30. While it did equal the track pacing record set by E T's Camille in 2000 and matched by Beedis (2001) and Jomary (2003), it meant he stepped a little closer to history.

The 13-year-old Southwind Amazon has won 130 races and is eight victories away from being harness racing's all-time winningest horse.

Three horses no longer share the Hancock County Fair trotting track record of 2:00.2. Stoney Ridgetop's 2:00 mile at Findlay on Aug. 31 erased the work of Sonofapreacherman (2003), Wardon's Daughter (2012) and Sultan Of Cash (2022).

The renewal of the Mahoning County Fair races at Canfield on Sept. 4 resulted in both the pace and trot track records falling. Tan Man lead from start to finish and won by 14 ¼ lengths in 1:53.3 to lower the pace mark that was set at 1:54.1 by Bittersweetsymphony in 2022, and Majestic J in 1:56.4, nipped a fifth of a second off the trot mark set by Talladega Hanover in 2013.

In a battle of 2023 track record setters Hillbillypacinhill (Noble County) got the better of Vh Volt (Athens and Monroe) on Sept. 3 at the Washington County Fair at Marietta, eclipsing the 1:58.3 pacing mark of Cam-N-Sam's Trick with an eye-popping 1:57 effort.

If there is one fair that is more a pari-mutuel raceway than it is a county fair, it's the Delaware County Fair and its historic Little Brown Jug. The track records survived the five days of action this year (Pet Rock's 1:48.1 pace mark is now 10 years old) and no horse won off by a record margin. So, if you want to relive Jug week, try Harness Racing Update's archive files.

Dunkin', whose only Ohio Fair loss would come later in the week at Delaware, was on his toes at Ashland (Ashland County) on Sept. 18, not only winning, but doing so in track record time of 1:57.2. The old mark was 1:58, set by Bourbon St. Hanover in 2016.

The most stubborn county fair track record in Ohio is the pacing standard at Coshocton (Coshocton County). When Beach Party won on Oct. 4 in 1:56, he matched the record set in 2003 by both Secret Harbor and Jomary and repeated in 2007 by Gerald N Sam.

It is somewhat fitting that the last track record to fall in the 2023 season would come in the final race on the last day of the last fair, the Fairfield County Fair at Lancaster. On Oct. 12. Toureg Seelster, with a late surge, caught Rockin Requiem (who set the track record at Monroe County), in 1:57.4. The old pacing mark was 1:58.3 set by Ocean Pearl in 2011.

Thirty-three years after Artsplace's epic Breeders Crown victory

by Bob Heyden

Is it really 33 years since the Nov. 30, 1990 Breeders Crown with Artsplace?

In the 1990 Breeders Crown, with the freshman title up for grabs, Die Laughing was sent off at 3-5 against 9-5 Artsplace at Pompano Park. It was a chilly, windy evening and 1:51.1 later, the fastest ever freshman mark that would stand for 17 years. Artsplace cemented his name in both Breeders Crown history and in all our memory banks with a mile so outrageous you still hear it brought up today. Parked to a :26.2 and :53.2 first half, he cleared the top and sailed to a 1:23 flat three quarters. The son of Abercrombie two years removed from an unblemished HOY season, kept on opening up. Completely laughing off his difficult trip, he won by 8 lengths over 101-1 shot Stormin Jesse. Cambest was eighth beaten almost 14 lengths and Die Laughing faded to last. The year end balloting was just a formality from there, 270-30, for the Gene Riegler trained standout.

VETERANS DAY AGAIN FOR HORSE OF THE YEAR?

Brett Pelling is 65 and his trainee Confederate is the likely HOY. Pelling was 63 in 2021 with Test Of Faith. Jack Darling was the co-oldest trainer of a HOY last year at 70 with Bulldog Hanover. Jim King, Jr. was 67 in 2019 with Shartin N. Sep Palin, when Victory Song won the very first HOY title in 1947, was 69, and Bi Shively followed that up in 1948 at age 70 with Rodney.

Pelling is 35 years removed from making the move to New Jersey. in 1988 and opening a public stable, starting out with a star named Kiwi River N and progressing the next several seasons with names like White Ruffles, Stoneridge Scooter and the 1991 Cane Pace winner debuting for Pelling, Silky Stallone, who was ninth in that epic Breeders Crown 2YOCP won by Artsplace.

ONE AND DONE

The list is now up to three. Feel free to add to this list of horses who went on to greatness with just a lone start/win at 2: Hot Lead in 1995, Wiggle It Jiggle it in 2014 and now Bythemissal in 2021.

1976... TODAY... NO CHANGE

The career "Horse of the Year" leaders after the 1976 season are the same today. No change. No dent.

Stanley Dancer with seven, Frank Ervin had five, Jimmy Takter has four and Nancy Takter has a pair.

MY FOUR CANDIDATES FOR THE 2023 "RACE OF THE YEAR"

In no particular order:

1. The Dan Patch — Ponda Warrior with one start in nine months took on the best pacers in the sport, debuting for both Kyle Wilfong and Jay Hochstetler at their home track. In ultra-dramatic fashion, he was not a threat at any point, until the seven-eighths when he exploded to paydirt. It was six days after the Hambletonian.

2. The Hambletonian — Scott Zeron from post 10 gets away last. Forget about winning his third Hambletonian pre-35 years old, right? Wrong. He stayed inside saying hello to each and every pylon and found an opening once in the stretch as everyone else angled clear and got there! The only driver to do this prior to 35 (Campbell 1987, 1988, and 1990 at 35) Quite a Tactical Approach!

3. The Breeders Crown 3YOCP – Confederate rolls up first over and buries a strong group to likely cement the HOY title and build on a bio that included a 1:46.1 3-year-old world record. Like No. 1, this was also at Hoosier Park.

4. The Kentucky Futurity – Nobody wins a race, let alone a Triple Crown race, from where Scotty Zeron was sitting at the three-quarter pole. “Nancy is going to kill me” was his quote right after the race when asked what he was thinking as they turned for home. But somehow the son of Tactical Landing from his first crop, Tactical Approach found a seam and knifed through for the win in the 507th Triple Crown race in the sports history in the oldest Triple Crown test. A perfect 2-for-2 in Triple Crown tests for the Nancy Takter trainee.

TRAINER OF THE YEAR?

There’s going to be a battle for “Trainer of the Year” likely between the strong season put forth by Ron Burke, a kind of dream season experienced by Linda Toscano, and of course the four-time Breeders Crown winning Ake Svanstedt with three as a driver.

How do you choose?

Imagine, as a driver, going to the post 318 times in a single year.

Imagine the purse for every one of those 318 races is $36,662.

Imagine winning every one of those races.

And that a winner’s share in each start was $18,331.

That is what Ake Svanstedt just did in 2023.

At 64, versus the best drivers everywhere, he has averaged $18,331 every time he went onto a racetrack.

That figure is the highest ever in harness racing history by a lot.

In 318 drives he had 92 wins, 73 seconds, 36 thirds and $5,829,463 in driving earnings. His .455 UDRS was by far the highest of any of the top 50 drivers in North America.

As a stable, remember Dunn drove Jiggy Jog S, etc., the entire barn’s numbers were: 594 161-113-77 and $9,831,829.

FINALLY...

These ’80s records are still safe.

Redskin as a 2YO in 1986 with $1,407,263. They took serious shots at it in 2023 but it’s still good.

John Campbell winning the Hambletonian in back-to-back in 1987-88 (Mack Lobell and Armbro Goal). Tim Tetrick came the closest winning in 2012 and being runner up in 2013.

The six richest races ever contested are all still Wilsons from the 1980s. This one ain’t budging.

Two undefeated horses 1-2 in the HOY balloting, Forrest Skipper and Jate Lobell, in 1986.

Bill O’Donnell back-to-back HOY titles with a trotter then a pacer, Fancy Crown in 1984 and Nihilator in 1985.

Trainer ready for second Big M visit, more than a decade after first

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

It's been 13 years since Stacey McLenaghan made her first – and to this day only – training start at The Meadowlands, but she remembers it well. Not so much for the outcome, but the horse involved.

McLenaghan was in her second year as a trainer when she sent 4-year-old female pacer Beyond Perfection into a start at the Big M in December 2010. Beyond Perfection left from post 9 in a field of 10 and was at the rear of the field for three-quarters of a mile but rallied with a three-wide move to finish fifth. Nearly 10-lengths back at the half, she was beaten by 3-1/4 thanks to a :28.3 last quarter, second fastest in the race.

"She was always a closer on a big track," McLenaghan said.

McLenaghan had purchased Beyond Perfection in June 2009. She notched the first driving win of her career with the then 3-year-old filly that season and added nine more driving victories and 27 training triumphs before the horse retired at age 8 in 2014.

"I do [remember that race at The Meadowlands], probably because she was my favorite horse," McLenaghan said. "She was the first horse I won a race with, and I won a bunch with her afterwards. I still have her to this day. My parents have a farm in Virginia, and she's turned out there."

Tonight, McLenaghan will return to the Big M for the first time since her trip with Beyond Perfection. McLenaghan will send out trotters Jammin Jack, in race 7, and DW's Revenge, in race 12. Both horses will be driven by Corey Braden, who is McLenaghan's fiancé.

"We don't get up that way very often," McLenaghan said. "This winter, we might. We have four, kind of upper-end trotters in the barn and we're stabled in Maryland for the winter. Trying to get them all in at Rosecroft [Raceway] hasn't been working out, they don't have a lot of trot classes, so we will probably be shipping up there a little bit more."

McLenaghan has spent this year racing at Rosecroft, Shenandoah Downs, and Tioga Downs, which is her typical schedule. She has set career training highs this season with 50 wins and $422,886 in purses. She won a total of 19 times at Shenandoah's two meets, spring and fall, which was second most among trainers, and just one shy of the top spot. She had 20 wins at Tioga, good for sixth. She is winning at a nearly 15-per cent clip at Rosecroft.

"We've had a great year," McLenaghan said. "We had some great horses in the barn for owners, and a couple of our own that Corey and I own, and they've made it a great year for both of us. Hopefully, it keeps going in that direction."

McLenaghan followed in the footsteps of her father, Ron, in getting into harness racing. Her dad, who passed away in 2020, drove and trained horses in addition to owning and operating a construction company. The family raced primarily at New Kent's Colonial Downs, where McLenaghan spent her formative years, and added Shenandoah Downs when it began racing in 2016.

In 2021, McLenaghan tied for the most wins among trainers at Shenandoah with 10. Last year, she led the way with 15.

McLenaghan played softball, volleyball, and basketball in high school, and then played softball for four years at Averett

University, where she was an honorable mention all-conference selection in 2005. She got a degree in sports medicine and added a master's in physical education, but the allure of racing proved too strong.

For her career, she has won 386 races as a trainer and 40 as a driver.

McLenaghan, who has made one lifetime driving start at The Meadowlands, which came in March of this year in an International Women's Day race and resulted in a second-place finish, is looking forward to racing at The Big M again.

Jammin Jack has hit the board in 14 of 23 races this season, winning three. DW's Revenge has been in the top three in half of his 24 starts, also with three victories.

"It definitely is something special, going to the bigger show, as they would call it," McLenaghan said. "These guys have been very consistent all year, and they both give their all when you take them to race. They're both in classes where I think they should be competitive, and hopefully make the trip worthwhile."

Racing begins at 6:20 p.m. (EST) tonight. For complete entries, click here.

Misty Coast much the best in DSBF pacing filly prelim

by the Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund

Two-time Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) series champion Misty Coast began her quest for a First State hat trick with a commanding 1:53.1 win in her $20,000 first-round preliminary event for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Wednesday (Nov. 29) at Bally's Dover.

Art Stafford, Jr. kept the Powerful Mist—Cruisinthe coast filly reserved in fourth as Hold My Wine (driven by Montrell Teague) worked to clear 66-1 outsider She Is Risen (Corey Callahan) for the lead just past a :27.3 first quarter. Misty Coast began her ascent out of midfield with nine-sixteenths to go, advancing uncovered as Hold My Wine controlled a :57.2 half and forging to the lead with three-eighths to go. Midway up the backstretch, Misty Coast sped clear of Hold My Wine, and she immediately gained 2 lengths of clearance at three-quarters in 1:25.1 before using a :28 final split to equal her lifetime mark and defeat Hold My Wine by 2-3/4 lengths. She Is Risen finished third, 8-3/4 lengths farther behind.

Les Givens trains the Stephen Messick homebred, who now has won 13 times and earned $232,550 in her career. She paid $2.10 to win.

The second division saw Stafford and Chatty Kathleen ($26.60) mount a grandstand-side rally to finish just short of 8-5 favorite Lulu Miss but ultimately be elevated to victory after being deprived of her lane in deep stretch.

Lulu Mist (Trae Porter) launched her first-over attack from third as early pacesetter Spoiled Rotn Girl (Allan Davis) rated a :59 first half and dueled into the lead past three-quarters in 1:27.4. Meanwhile, Chatty Kathleen stalked the top flight from third-over before Stafford angled her three-wide into the final turn. Lulu Mist drew 2 lengths clear just inside the eighth pole and had ample pace to evade Chatty Kathleen's late charge by a head in 1:57.2, but she drifted into her rival's path and was disqualified to second. No Gel Nikki (Pat Berry), who rode the pocket throughout the mile, finished third, 2-1/2 lengths behind.

Dorothy Ann Conner owns and trains Chatty Kathleen, a Roddy's Bags Again—Chatty Kathy filly who has won three times and earned $63,117 in her career.

KODACK BLACK, PALEFACE WIN DSBF TROT PRELIMS

Kodack Black lived up to his prohibitive 1-20 favoritism in the second of two $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) first-round preliminary events for 3-year-old male trotters on Tuesday (Nov. 28) at Bally's Dover by way of a commanding 1:58.3 score while Paleface rode the pocket to a 2:01.2 score in the other division.

Kodack Black, who won the summer DSBF series title at Harrington Raceway in July, looked strong kicking off his quest for a second DSBF title, sprinting to the early lead in line to Montrell Teague before yielding control briefly to Perfect Twenty (driven by Victor Kirby) and immediately retaking for the top after a :29.2 first quarter. With a lap to go, Perfect Twenty broke stride, enabling Royal Mistake (Justin Vincent) to inherit second, but Kodack Black maintained a clear lead on his four rivals through middle splits of :59 and 1:28.3. The gelded son of Kodak Lindy—Love On Broadway drew 9-1/4 lengths clear to record his ninth win of the season. Hespoockshescores (Russell Foster), who saved ground the entire journey, lifted up the open stretch to collar Royal Mistake for second in the final 50 yards.

Kodack Black, a 12-time winner with $197,979 in career earnings, is trained by Clyde Francis for George Teague, Jr. Inc., David Collins and Lakiyah Teachey. He paid $2.10 to win.

A graphic with a dark blue background and a white diagonal stripe. The text "HOW MUCH DID YOU BET TODAY?" is written in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters, following the curve of the stripe. At the bottom, the hashtag "#BETONHARNESS" is in white, followed by the "HRU" logo which includes a horse silhouette and the text "HARNESS RACING UPDATE".

The first division, conducted as a non-wagering event, saw Paleface and trainer/driver Ross Shand sit behind Reddy Fox (Art Stafford, Jr.) through splits of :30, 1:00.2 and 1:30.4 before emerging out of the pocket turning for home. The Anders Bluestone—Victory Starburst gelding reeled in Reddy Fox in mid-stretch and edged clear by 1-1/4 lengths to win in 2:01.2. Youngbuck (Corey Callahan) finished third after his brief first-over challenge stalled off the far turn.

Paleface, a seven-time winner, has earned $74,712 for owner/breeder Shirley Shand.

STAFFORD SWEEPS DSBF FILLY TROTS

Art Stafford, Jr. swept both $20,000 first-round Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) events for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Monday (Nov. 27) at Bally's Dover, driving his trainees She Is Strong and Last Nights Hit to victory in their respective divisions.

In the first division, a three-horse non-wagering event, She Is Strong coasted to the 13th win of her career, defeating Tymal Jacquelyn by 25-3/4 lengths in 1:58.2.

The daughter of Anders Bluestone—Nidaros, who was a 7-length winner in the $110,000 DSBF final at Harrington Raceway in July, rolled unopposed through splits of :29.1, :58.3 and 1:28.3 en route to her 10th win in 16 starts this year. She has now banked $221,625 for owner Jeffery Clark, who bred the filly in partnership with Vernon Cannon. Tymal Jacquelyn (driven by Robert Sampson) kept 1-3/4 lengths of clearance on Abettabeatya (Ross Wolfenden) to preserve second after giving futile chase to She Is Strong throughout the entire mile.

Stafford completed his stakes double in the second division with Last Nights Hit ($8.00), who rated a comfortable early tempo before staving off 3-5 favorite Starlight Lounge for a gritty 2:00.3 score.

Last Nights Hit asserted herself to establish early control, seating Starlight Lounge (Cody Polisen) into a loose pocket on approach to the first turn. The Iron Mine Bucky—Overnight filly coasted through early fractions of :29.2, :59.3 and 1:28.4 before Starlight Lounge began to work closer and make her move out of the pocket with three-sixteenths to go. Starlight Lounge stuck her neck in front off the corner for home, but Last Nights Hit fought back under a Stafford drive to reclaim the lead 70 yards before the winning post and win by a half-length. Royal Flirt (Justin Vincent) finished third, 3 lengths farther in arrears.

Stafford bred and co-owns Last Nights Hit, now a two-time winner with $40,465 in career earnings, with Wyatt Starkey.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lou's Pearlman to stand at Hickory Lane in Ohio

The ownership group of 2021 Little Brown Jug champion Lou's Pearlman p,3,1:47.4 ($1,242,987) has announced that their horse has been retired and will stand in Ohio at Hickory Lane Horse Farm beginning with the 2024 breeding season.

North America's fastest 2- and 3-year-old pacing colt of his respective freshman and sophomore seasons, Lou's Pearlman retired as the second richest, and third fastest, stallion sired by Sweet Lou.

In 2020 at age 2, Lou's Pearlman started his career with a four-race winning streak, along with a 1:49.1 victory in the $119,100 Bluegrass Stake at Lexington's Red Mile.

The following season Lou's Pearlman captured eight races, including an elimination heat and the final of the $661,800 Little Brown Jug; $235,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final; $100,000 Max C. Hempt Memorial (Cons.), etc. He earned $593,519 during his 2021 sophomore campaign, defeating such top horses as Perfect Sting, Charlie May, Hellabalou and Southwind Gendry.

Leading trainer Ron Burke stated this about his homebred champion, "Lou's Pearlman is a great horse from my favorite maternal family. His ultra-game Jug victory is one of my most enjoyable wins ever."

Royally-bred, Lou's Pearlman is from the same maternal family as world champion and top sire Western Ideal p,2,1:54.3f; 1:48 ($1,455,422), and his full sister, My Girl EJ p,2,1:49.1-23 ($698,397) won the 2023 Breeders Crown for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Handy on all sized tracks, Lou's Pearlman took a 1:52.4 half-mile track record in his Jug victory on a track labeled 'good,' and scored in 1:48.4 on Pocono's five-eighths mile track.

This year at 5 he earned $332,250, highlighted by a second-place finish behind stable mate Bythemissal in the $600,000 Breeders Crown Open Pace, defeating the likes of Tattoo Artist, Allywag Hanover and Abuckabett Hanover. He was also stakes placed in the $185,000 Hoosier Park Pacing Derby and the final of the $455,100 Canadian Pacing Derby.

Co-owner and breeder Mark Weaver is excited about the next phase of his horse's career.

"I'm thrilled that Lou's Pearlman landed in Ohio," Weaver said. "With his speed and ability to cross with most mares, he is a great option for the best stakes program going."

Of course, this son of Sweet Lou heading to the breeding shed in the 'Year of the Lou' may be no coincidence.

"We are grateful to the ownership of Lou's Pearlman for entrusting Hickory Lane with their Little Brown Jug-winning son of Sweet Lou," said Kevin Greenfield, president of Hickory Lane Horse Farm.

"He is sure to be very popular with breeders throughout North America, and has already been well-received in Ohio."

Lou's Pearlman will stand for an introductory fee of $5,000. For more information regarding shares and breedings to Lou's Pearlman, contact either R. Kevin Greenfield, at 419.346.0609 or kgreen56@gkflaw.com; or Ashley Stickel, office manager, Hickory Lane Farm, at 419-422-3004 or ashley@hickorylanefarm.com.

Young guns aiming for glory at The Big M

The Meadowlands big-stakes season ended last Saturday (Nov. 25) on Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night, yet with winter about to place its chilly grip on the Northeast, The Big M will now shift into cold-weather mode, which means racing at the mile oval will continue to be the best in North America, albeit with some new faces trying to make their mark in the driver colony as some of the superstar pilots take some well-deserved time off.

Two such faces belong to Johnathan Ahle, 26, and Braxten Boyd, 23.

Both have shown signs of promise at The Big M and are hoping for more opportunity there during the next three to four months.

"Yeah, I'll be there," said Boyd, who scored 11 times at The Big M from Oct. 20 through Nov. 18, including a four-winner night on Oct. 28. "I felt pretty good about it. You know, you've got to have a little horsepower and then try to drive smart and be aggressive."

Meadowlands fans have caught on quickly. Ten of Boyd's winners have come at odds of 5-1 or less, with the exception being the 27-1 action on a Ron Burke trainee named Copperfield in a Kindergarten preliminary leg.

"He raced well," said Boyd. "I couldn't believe he was that long, to be honest with you."

Boyd also mentioned the night he won four.

"Going into the card, I thought I could have a good night," said Boyd. "But anytime you win four, it surprises you a little bit."

Boyd is hoping to pick up some drives from trainers Bill Mac Kenzie, Edwin Quevedo and Mark and Cam Capone.

"Other than that, I'd like to be in every race as often as I can, trying for anybody I can," Boyd said.

Boyd has found most of his success at Pocono Downs, and it's at that Pennsylvania five-eighths-mile track and The Meadowlands where he is aiming to get most of his drives over the next few months.

He'll race at The Big M regularly on Fridays and Saturdays, hoping some trainer might take a shot with him with a 2-year-old down the road.

"That's the hope," said Boyd. "I mean, fingers crossed. Maybe I'll get lucky."

Ahle's rise in the game has been swift — and nothing short of amazing — to say the least.

While Boyd has won at least 239 races in each of his three seasons as a regular driver, Ahle was still an amateur pilot as recently as August of last year. Yet, after totaling three victories in 2021 and 45 in 2022, he has exploded on the national scene this season, with 271 wins heading into action this weekend.

"I think just traveling around and, you know, getting a lot more drives, helps you get more wins," said Ahle. "It's getting a chance to drive better horses, driving favorites and stuff like that. I've been going down to [Rosecroft in] Maryland and doing a lot of Freehold whenever I can."

Ahle currently sits 23rd in the standings at The Meadowlands with nine victories. His workload has been respectable, at 131 starts, with 27 on-the-board finishes.

Ahle learned the ropes working first for Shaun Vallee, and now, Noel Daley.

"Noel's helped me out a lot," said Ahle. "He gives me drives, gives me shots."

Like Boyd, Ahle is on-board with being a Big M regular.

"I certainly plan to [be there] as long as I get to work," said Ahle. "Assuming that a lot of bigger drivers take the winter off, I should get enough work to be able to. Noel uses me some and Tony Alagna used me a bit while the guys were in Kentucky, so that's pretty cool. Whatever opportunities I can get, I'm grateful for."

"If I had my druthers, I'd have most of my starts [over the winter] at The Meadowlands, Rosecroft and Freehold, and maybe a little bit of Dover."

SEE AHLE "IN THE SULKY": During Saturday night's pregame show, Ahle will be the guest as segment host Dave Little puts the pilot "In the Sulky" live on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

In the Sulky takes place shortly after the pregame show begins at 5:45 p.m.

OH, WHAT A NIGHT: Last Saturday's (Nov. 25) Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships card was a non-stop thrill-a-thon.

The star of the FF4 was Karl, who impressed once again in taking the Valley Victory; Caviart Belle upset 1-9 favorite My Girl EJ in the Three Diamonds; Pizzelle pulled off a 6-1 surprise in the Goldsmith Maid; and Captain Luke delivered as the 7-5 favorite up the inside in the Governor's Cup.

In the FDC, Twin B Joe Fresh became the first 3-year-old pacing filly to take the FanDuel Mares Pace; Jiggy Jog S finished off a powerhouse season with a victory in the Mares Trot; Southwind Tyrion crushed his foes, including Hambletonian champion Tactical Approach, who was trying to become the third 3-year-old in history to win the Open Trot; and in the much-anticipated matchup between Bythemissal and Confederate, it was Allywag Hanover who spoiled the party as a 17-1 upset in the Open Pace.

BIG BOUNTIES: Big fields at The Big M create a big chance for a big score.

Once again, they'll be a pair of carryovers heading into tonight's (Dec. 1) race card, after last Saturday's 20-cent Pick-8 and 20-cent Pick-6 failed to yield any winning tickets.

The Pick-8 (which spans races 4 through 11) will begin with $8,180 in the hat while the Pick-6 (races 8 through 13) will start with $13,662 in the pot.

"Both wagers will deservedly get an enormous amount of interest," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "The minimum for both wagers is only 20 cents, so everyone can afford to play. Negative takeout is extremely likely with the carryovers. Combine all that with a 15 per cent takeout and these wagers certainly check all the boxes for the horseplayers [tonight]."

Both of the multi-leg puzzles will feature large fields, which is what the player seeking a big hit craves. Beginning with the fourth race on tonight's card, of the 10 races that make up the Pick-8 and Pick-6, seven will have 10 starters and three will have nine behind the gate.

RECORD BREAKERS: It figures that Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night was a hit with bettors. After all, it's the last huge night of racing in the sport for the calendar year. But 2023 was a tad more special than all of the others, because when the final tallies were calculated, it turned out to be the biggest FF4/FDC night ever in terms of business.

Despite two of the big races having five-horse fields, total handle on the 14 dashes was $3,691,552, which is $200,000 more than the previous best, set in 2013 when the great Foiled Again was the star attraction.

"Watching the top 3-year-olds take on the very best in the sport while setting the handle record was a great curtain call for the 2023 stakes season at The Meadowlands," said Settlemoir. "At the end of the day, we gave racing fans the year-end matchups they desperately wanted to see. Their record-setting response says it all."

FIVE YEARS, STILL GROWING: "There are many factors that go into our success," said Settlemoir. "And one that all of us at The Meadowlands are extremely appreciative of are the steps Gov.

[Phil] Murphy and the N.J. State Legislature have taken to make sure that the harness game stays strong in the great State of New Jersey."

The numbers in November show anything but a game in decline.

These are the average nightly Big M handle figures for the month of November, starting in 2018:

- 2019: $2,390,320
- 2020: $2,510,807
- 2021: $2,534,332
- 2022: $2,757,900
- 2023: $2,995,875

Over the five-year span, November handle figures are up 41.9 per cent.

THE SKED: The Meadowlands will race every Friday and Saturday through the end of the year, with one exception.

There will be one extra night of live racing on Thursday (Dec. 7).

Post time for every program is 6:20 p.m. with the pregame show at 5:45 p.m.

MSOA seeks executive director

The board of directors of the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA) announced today that it is accepting applications for the position of MSOA executive director.

The new executive director will succeed Kim Hankins, who has served in that position since 2007. This year, Hankins was named the Mary Lib Miller Awardee of the Keystone Chapter of the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), the chapter's highest honor. He also is a former Harness Horsemen International "Person of the Year."

"We congratulate Kim on a remarkable career that has included almost every facet of harness racing," said Richard Gillock, MSOA president. "We're seeking candidates who can build on the leadership Kim has provided."

The MSOA is a nonprofit organization that represents the interests of approximately 700 standardbred trainers, drivers, caretakers and owners at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. In addition to providing horses to race at The Meadows, the MSOA administers such member-centric services as health insurance and retirement programs for horsemen and horsewomen.

The executive director provides leadership for those day-to-day activities and also serves as liaison with Penn National Gaming (owner of The Meadows), the Pennsylvania Legislature and the Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume and a minimum of two references to:

Search Committee, MSOA

P.O. Box 253

Meadow Lands, PA 15347

Applicants also may e-mail the above information to msoa@themsoa.com

Applications will be accepted until Dec. 15, 2023. Complete position responsibilities and requirements are available at <https://www.themsoa.com/msoa-seeks-executive-director/>.

Last call for Au Revoir; Three-day weekend at Cumberland

For the third season in a row First Tracks Cumberland will present the Au Revoir Retirement Showcase, slated for Saturday (Dec. 23). The event is open to 14-year-old horses that are racing or have retired within the last four years, and have Maine connections.

Horses will parade in front of the fans in either harness or halter and be featured in a half-page bio with photograph in the program. Equine honorees must be present to participate. This shall serve as the track's 'last call' for entries. Trainers or owners must 'declare' their horse by Dec. 6. To enter your horse, or for more information, send an email of interest to Chris Tully at: tullytrot@yahoo.com.

First Tracks Cumberland has transitioned to a three-day weekend of racing, adding the Friday (Dec. 1) card, which compliments the Saturday (Dec. 2) and Sunday (Dec. 3) programs. A total of 33 races will go postward over the three-day span. First post is 11 a.m.

Horsemen are reminded that Cumberland's Winter Late Closing Series starts next week, with the potential for over $150,000 in purses being offered. For more information, please go to: <https://firsttrackscumberland.com/horsemen/>.

Racing at Cumberland continues three days each week through Christmas Eve, 2023. Post time remains 11 a.m.

For more information go to our website: <https://firsttrackscumberland.com/>.
