Big M balancing act

Nick Salvi details what's behind the tough decisions The Meadowlands is forced to make in its stakes program for 2023.

by Debbie Little

The stakes landscape will be different at The Meadowlands in 2023, but not due to a lack of trying to keep it the same.

“We want to put on as many stakes races as we can afford to put on and still balance the overnight purse pool so that our overnight races are competitive in the region,” said Nick Salvi, Big M director and administrator of stakes races. “The only thing that keeps us putting on more races or raising the purses is a lack of revenue. We’re not dropping races for any reason other than lack of revenue.”

As reported last week, the Peter Haughton Memorial and Jim Doherty Memorial have a new home at Hoosier Park and now the Graduate mares are one and done due to a lack of entries in 2022.

“When you’re gathering money from a group like 4-year-old pacing mares that are at the top level there aren’t many, so to get the purses to the level that we needed to make the Graduate practical, you have to add a lot of money to keep the purses up where they are,” said Salvi. “For the Graduate, we take a February payment and a March payment, so however many make the nomination and sustaining payments are what you have in the purse pool and you have estimated the purses that you advertise, so when you have a small pool of horses that are paying into it, you have to add a lot of money to get to the numbers that the purse is guaranteed at.”

The Graduate Series for 4-year-old mares debuted in 2022 with a total of 44 mares – 26 pacers and 18 trotters – making both the nominating and sustaining payments. In contrast, their Graduate male counterparts had nearly double the entries.

"You take payments and when you don't have enough money to make the race worthwhile, you stop having the race," said Salvi.

Following Bella Bellini's victory in the TVG Mare Trot on Saturday, Nov. 26, owner Dave McDuffee was interviewed in the winner's circle and asked if she would be coming back in 2023 and he was noncommittal.

"I had talked to Jeff [Gural] just a few minutes prior to that interview," said McDuffee. "They had the Graduate Series this year for 4-year-old [mares] but half of them didn't fill and they cancelled the one in Canada, so I said to Jeff, 'You need to open up the Graduate to 4- and 5-year-olds.'"

McDuffee was not the only horseman to make this request and according to Salvi the possibility was discussed.

"What you wind up with there, if you're going to include 5-year-olds, would be the same mares that dominated the series as 4-year-olds, Test Of Faith and Bella Bellini," said Salvi, who went on to explain that the presence of those top 5-year-olds could deter 4-year-olds from competing.

"The whole premise of the Graduate Series when Jeff wanted to start it back up was because of the Gural Rule, to give the 4-year-olds half the season to race against their own age and then graduate into the open ranks so the Graduate final is always on Meadowlands Pace elimination [night], and at the time, our first open stakes were on Meadowlands Pace [night]."

According to McDuffee, it was Gural that convinced him to bring back Bella after her 3-year-old season because she would have the opportunity to race in the Graduate mare trot. When it comes to 2023, McDuffee has not made any final decision yet between racing or breeding her.

"My guess is if I feel comfortable that there will be enough quality racing for her, I would prefer to race her one more year," said McDuffee. "I'm leaning that way but until the schedule starts to come together, it's hard to anticipate if there's enough good racing for her.

"I've had a lot of good horses, but I've never had one that has such a following as she has. It doesn't matter where you go, people say 'I love that Bella Bellini, I love to watch the way she races.' Bella does it a different way [because she usually tracks horses down] and I think people kind of like that."

Should she come back as a 5-year-old, Bella will still have the option to race in the Miss Versatility for older trotting mares. There was even some discussion given to adding a Miss Versatility pacing division, which was not adopted.

"That was going to cost somewhere between $200,000 and $250,000 to put on and we're just not in a position to do that," said Salvi. "Like Jeff said in HRU [on Dec. 3], The Meadowlands is going to lose $5 million in operating costs on racing. That's an alarming statement because all anybody's used to seeing are the big handle numbers that Dave [Little] writes about when we have a good night at the races. They don't understand the mathematics. People don't know that."

In that HRU edition, Gural addressed the rehoming of the Haughton and Doherty, and in part, said: "Unlike all of our competitors who receive massive subsidies from slots, the standardbred industry in New Jersey only receives $10 million which we share with the breeders and Freehold. Because I am a horsemen, I also give $3 million to $4 million per year from our sports betting profits for purses, even though this year I expect we will lose over $5 million on racing."

Salvi continued on to explain that unlike in the 1970s, when wagering was all done on-track, today most tracks survive on simulcasting and, for many, the ancillary money from their casino.

"What is realized by the track is a tiny fraction of those big numbers that you see, the $2-, $3-, $4-million handles," said Salvi. "The on-track handle at The Meadowlands on Meadowlands' races is always less than 10 per cent of the handle and sometimes far less than that."

"So, it's not hard to do the math even if you're going to be generous and say that the off-track dollars bet at The Meadowlands result in four per cent that goes to the track and is split between the track and the purse account. You're talking about $120,000 on a $3-million night. That's what it is. That kind of paints the picture."

The Meadowlands is in the final year of a three-year appropriation from the state of New Jersey, which they are grateful for and hope will be continued. They are also appreciative of all their sponsors since every dollar they send to The Meadowlands to sponsor races goes into the purse account.

"People don't know, for example, that racetracks that take imported signals make more on the imports than they do on their own product because then you're getting the lion's share of the wagered dollar," said Salvi. "So, the simulcast money plays a very large role in what goes into the purse pool. However, existing legislation that permits the thoroughbreds to choose the dates that they’d like to race through the fall, also dictates that all money from import simulcasting from the Hambletonian until mid-December goes to Monmouth.

“So, fully one-third of the year, the money that’s generated from import simulcasting, which I would venture to say is probably the leading revenue source for racetrack income and purses, goes to Monmouth, because it’s legislated like that, because they used to have a real meet in the Fall.”

At the recently concluded racing secretaries’ meetings, Salvi had to wear several hats as a representative of The Meadowlands, vice president of the Grand Circuit and president of the American Harness Racing Secretaries.

“In race scheduling, my goal is to present the people that own the horses the best opportunity to maximize earnings for the horses they are staking,” said Salvi. “That’s what we should be doing.”

This year, because Oak Grove was late getting in their dates, their 4-year-old series coincided with the Graduate, but for 2023, this has been addressed.

“With Kenny Jackson’s help, who represents Churchill at Oak Grove, we were able to get it sorted out so they are finished before the Graduate Series starts next year, so that will eliminate that conflict,” said Salvi. “We should provide them an unfettered path to race in whatever races they choose to race in and it troubles me when they have to choose between a sire stake and a Grand Circuit race. I’d like to avoid that as much as we can. And we do largely, but we don’t completely.”

There will also be a bit of a retooling for the New Jersey Classics, where rather than “A” and “B” divisions, they’re considering an elimination, final and consolation format.

They’re also considering taking a page out the Breeders Crown and Breeders’ Cup handbook, with a win and you’re in opportunity.

“The winners of the Kindergarten Finals will be extended entry, if they’re eligible, to those final four races,” said Salvi. “They will go directly to final and will draw with the elimination winners as the Breeders Crown did with the Haughton and Doherty this year.

“We want to put on the races and we want horses to race in them. That’s what we do. It’s The Meadowlands, the marquee track for harness racing, and we want to have the best races and the best horses as much as we possibly can.”

Bulldog Hanover, take a bow

by Melissa Keith

Woodbine Mohawk Park's Saturday night (Dec. 3) tribute to Bulldog Hanover (p. 4, 1:45.4m; $2,419,000) was a perfect homecoming for the sport's fastest-ever horse. He began his career there on June 27, 2020, qualifying unremarkably for Jody Jamieson. The then-2-year-old colt broke his maiden on July 20, 2020 at the Campbellville, ON track, winning an Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots event. He quickly stepped up into OSS Gold company and went undefeated at his home track in three more seasonal OSS starts there, including the Gold Super Final.

Bulldog Hanover began his 3-year-old campaign at Mohawk as well, with wins in back-to-back qualifiers leading up to his first 2021 pari-mutuel victory, July 3 in OSS Gold at WMP. The Shadow Play-BJs Squall son was riding a four-race win streak into the North America Cup, where he was favored but finished fourth. The remainder of his wins that year would come at Hoosier Park, where he went undefeated in four late-season stakes.

At age 4, the Jack Darling trainee still belonged to the Cambridge, ON horseman and partner Brad Grant of Milton, ON, but rapidly evolved into the people's horse. Over the course of his 14 wins in 16 seasonal starts, Bulldog Hanover equalled the fastest-ever mile in Canada (1:46.4s) twice at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Both were after his 1:45.4m record mile in the William R. Haughton Memorial TVG FFA on July 16 at The Meadowlands. He concluded his racing career there Nov. 26, capturing the TVG Open Pace in 1:47.3m for driver Dexter Dunn.

Saturday night at Mohawk, guest race caller Shannon "Sugar" Doyle described Bulldog Hanover's achievements as the pacer circled his home track one last time, with his owner/trainer in the jog cart.

"Jack Darling, take a bow," said Doyle.

Railbirds applauded as a blanket and photo presentation took place in the winners' circle, attended by Bulldog's caretaker Johnny Mallia, co-owner Grant, and representatives from Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Ann Straatman did not attend.

"I had laryngitis for most of the week, but we did send the rest of our team," said Seelster Farms' equine reproduction manager. "My sisters went, and their families, and all of our Seelster crew went to celebrate with Bulldog right there for the last day. We had a bus go down and they had dinner. I wasn't able to join them, but I made all the reservations and preparations."

Monday morning (Dec. 5), Bulldog Hanover arrived at Seelster Farms of Lucan, ON. Watching the newly-retired world champion's arrival evoked more of the emotions from Saturday's presentation at Mohawk.

"It's bittersweet, for sure," Straatman told HRU. "We're just thrilled to have him. The racing world was so excited just to see him one more time. Even today, when Jack and Johnny dropped him off, it wasn't sad, but it was bittersweet – the end for them, and a whole new beginning for Bulldog, starting with breeding. He's already had so many nice mares booked for next season. It's an exciting year for him."

She said Seelster introduced Bulldog Hanover to their stallion roster back in 2021, when the horse was not yet retired from racing.

"When we began, he was just finishing up his 3-year-old year. He still had a few races to go, in Hoosier Park. I got a call late on a Friday afternoon from Jack Darling, wanting to know if Seelster would have interest in standing Bulldog while he was training for racing in his 4-year-old season. We'd been following the horse all along – loved him, and found a way to make it work, where he could collect very near to Classy Lane Training Centre.

"We worked with a clinic there who helped us with transported semen and collected him every Monday, Wednesday, Friday. We were all-in, as soon as we found a way that we could make it work. It was an easy 'yes' for us."

Although Bulldog Hanover hadn't captured divisional honors at age 2 or 3, Straatman shared the faith his connections placed in him: "He was not quite at the million-dollar mark yet, and I thought it was prudent [to take him on as a stallion] because he was finishing his season so strong, winning four stakes in a row. Jack was very high on him, saying that he'd never been better. He was a big believer that the horse had more to show. So, for us, we wanted to be in on that first crop of a horse who was still adding to his already-impressive resume."

Bulldog Hanover's 2022 campaign unfolded beyond her wildest expectations.

"It was a dream come true, absolutely, watching him...Every week he was better."

There was unmet demand for the first-year stallion, as his priorities shifted from breeding shed to the track.

"We could have booked quite a few more [mares]," said Straatman. "But we always knew his racing season was very important, those four races coming up [at The Meadowlands] were really important, so we did the best that we could in the time limit we had, which was closing him about seven to 10 days before the end of the breeding season. It wasn't a huge inconvenience for breeders, but there's always some that want one more chance at him. We just couldn't offer that this year."

"We were blessed with a really perfect scenario. It wasn't a huge book of mares – booked 80, bred 79 – but it just worked out so well. It was a clinic we'd used before, for fertility testing. We had worked with Robert Fera [of Deerpath Breeding & Development, Puslinch, ON] on a few other stallions, and he was agreeable to put in the time during the breeding season, which meant a lot of communication. We needed the cooperation of Bulldog, too."

Breeding did not affect Bulldog Hanover's mindset on the track, but rules did prevent him from continuing to be collected.

"The competition was fierce for him – all of the top aged horses. He seemed to handle it so well, and by the time he went to The Meadowlands for those four races in a row, we had to close his stud book," said Straatman. "Once he leaves the province, we're no longer allowed to breed him anymore. So it was late June when he went down there, and there were a few [mare owners] that were trying to jump in late, to get in his book, but couldn't get in because he had left the country for those four races at The Meadowlands."

In his second breeding season at Seelster, the personable stallion will serve up to 180 mares. The farm's reproductive manager told HRU that Bulldog Hanover was already overbooked as of Dec. 5, with a few remaining shares on his syndicate remaining.

"All the big farms here in Canada and in the US are participating in his syndicate, so he's bound to have a great book for the foreseeable future," she said. "We have more applications than we do have spaces right now, but all the [mare] applications will be looked at, if there's people that still want to get in."

Darling recorded video as his horse stepped off the trailer Monday morning. Bulldog Hanover moved easily from Saturday's fan photos and applause at Mohawk, into his stall opposite Big Jim in the Seelster stallion barn.

"He's so smart," said the appreciative Straatman. "We got to have him a little while, between his racing [seasons]. He finished late November last year and we got to have him until the second week of February, when he went back to Classy Lane for training. He's an intelligent horse, he's very easy on himself. His physical attributes are excellent for a stallion: He's the perfect size, the right look. Everything about him is great."

She pointed out that Bulldog Hanover broke away from some popular stereotypes about breeding, elevating his Canadian Hall of Fame sire Shadow Play to renewed attention and dispelling a myth about older broodmares.

"You know, he's the 13th foal of the mare [BJs Squall]. Everyone tries to put down a later mare, but she's so well bred, and having that Artsplace dam matches him so well with many nice mares. We bred 10 of our own mares to him, so we're just thrilled to be able to start that early season."

Straatman said Bulldog Hanover would spend the coming days much like he spent Monday at the farm. "That will be his routine: Breakfast and then outside to play. We have a great stallion manager, Joanne McGinnis; she looks after all the stallions. They get groomed and bathed and pampered, like they were still racing. She does a great, great job with them."

The racetrack is now behind him, but not the admiration he received during his remarkable campaign. Straatman told HRU that anyone who missed the chance to see Bulldog Hanover's send-off at Mohawk can make arrangements to see him in person.

"Absolutely, we have an obligation that if they want to come and see him, most definitely. We would request a call ahead of time, just so we can make sure that there's someone there who can show him. We welcome people who want to see him. That's part of our job as well, to be able to show him off on behalf of the owners and his new syndicate. We're happy to facilitate that."

Taking a gamble in Bulldog Hanover's initial, double-duty year at stud proved rewarding for his connections, for Seelster Farms, and particularly for the breeders of his first-crop foals, said Straatman. "I'm so happy for those that supported him in his first year. I congratulate them for having walked down the rainbow to gold."

MacDonald wins eight races to set new Woodbine record

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

James MacDonald entered the Woodbine history book on Monday night (Dec. 5) by driving the winners of eight races at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The eight-win evening by MacDonald establishes a new record for most wins in a single card by a driver at Woodbine Entertainment/Ontario Jockey Club. MacDonald also established a record for most consecutive wins on a card by winning seven straight (races 4 through 10).

MacDonald entered Monday's card with 372 wins on the season at Mohawk Park, 106 more than his nearest rival. Woodbine's leading driver took advantage of his horsepower, guiding six post-time favourites to victory throughout the evening.

A native of Prince Edward Island and current resident of Guelph, ON, MacDonald's two most notable victories on the card came in the preferred trot (Locatelli) and Pop Up Series final (Never Mind N).

The victory with Locatelli also brought the need for an addition to the record book, as the 4-year-old gelding won in 1:50.4, matching the older trotting horse track record.

MacDonald's eight victories were:

Race – Purse – Horse (Trainer) - $2 Win Price

Race 2 - $20,000 - White Tiger (Dominic Gladu) - $4

Race 4 - $21,000 - Looks Like Moni (Harry Poulton) - $4.10

Race 5 - $10,000 - Pointomygranson (Chantal Mitchell) - $2.90

Race 6 - $20,000 - Resolute Bay (Harry Poulton) - $11.60

Race 7 - $16,000 - P L Opportunity (Matt Dupuis) - $2.80

Race 8 - $18,000 - Quan Blue Chip (Garry Merner) - $4.10

Race 9 - $34,000 - Locatelli (Harry Poulton) - $10.30

Race 10 - $30,000 - Never Mind N (Carmen Auciello) - $3.30

MacDonald also had a fifth and third-place finish in two other drives Monday.

The favorite to repeat as Canada's Driver of the Year at the O'Brien Awards, MacDonald leads the nation with 429 victories and is nearing $10 million in earnings for the 2022 season.

Shock move of Haughton and Doherty 2-year-old stakes is Hoosier's gain

by Brett Sturman

The 2-year-old trotting stakes dynamic for the 2023 season took an unexpected turn last week when it was announced that the Peter Haughton Memorial for colts and Jim Doherty Memorial for fillies will be leaving the Meadowlands for Hoosier Park next year.

What made the move profound for the Meadowlands to relinquish control of the races to the Hambletonian Society, is that these aren't any two ordinary or mid-major stakes that routinely move from track to track. These two stakes were staples of the Meadowlands, and moreover both races have never known any home other than Meadowlands since the Haughton's inception in 1981. The inaugural Doherty (raced as the Merrie Annabelle up to 2015) goes all the way back to 1977. The names of winners in the races over the years are legendary.

Numerous reasons for the change have been cited, including comments directly from Meadowlands owner Jeff Gural in last week's Harness Racing Update feedback, where ultimately it was a matter of shifting support to New Jersey-bred 2-year-old races. Whether the decision was made to accommodate the scheduling of 2-year-old New Jersey Sire Stakes and an New Jersey Championship series, non-eligibility of first crop Greenshoe offspring, purse account considerations or anything in addition, it's unquestionable that the two stakes had long since carried a special niche as being part of the Hambletonian Day card.

As the Haughton and Doherty leave the Meadowlands, they'll find a new home for the upcoming year at Harrah's Hoosier Park. The addition of the stakes will give further ascension to the quality of open stakes races across the Midwest, and more specifically, at Hoosier. For a track that coincidentally plays host to the next Breeders Crown, a pumped-up Hoosier Park will be one of the most visible tracks on the continent with its 2023 stakes schedule.

In a press release issued last week when the announcement was made, Sept. 15 was noted as the date when the two stakes would be raced. Though, in conversation this week with vice president and general manager at Harrah's Hoosier, Rick Moore, that date is still yet to be finalized.

"We're thinking that it may be a little bit beyond Hambletonian Day, maybe into September, but racing secretary Scott Peine and I have to finalize it," said Moore. "We're looking around to see what date works best for these horses. Not for us, but for the horses that come to Harrah's Hoosier Park; what would make sense for them and for the majority of the trainers' schedules, and that's where we'll place them."

The open stakes schedules at Harrah's Hoosier Park has generally been highlighted by its free-for-all races, the Dan Patch, Caesars Trotting Classic and Hoosier Park Pacing Derby. This past year certainly exemplified that as the track drew superstars Bulldog Hanover (twice, including his first start since accomplishing his 1:45.4 world record mile) and Bella Bellini in winning races, among many others. The track has also seen good fortune in the past couple of years with horses who have shown up for their 2-year-old filly stakes, the Kentuckiana. In 2020 the Kentuckiana on the pace was won by a young filly named Test Of Faith, and in 2021, the Kentuckiana trot was won by another filly just getting her career started named Joviality.

“I don’t ever want to compare ourselves to anyone else, but I’ll say that we are very, very proud of the open stakes that we have here at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. We had Bulldog Hanover here a couple of times last year. Bella Bellini put in one of the greatest performances I’ve ever seen in the Caesars Trotting Classic. And these are the types of horses we’re drawing here on a regular basis. Knock on wood, but we’re getting the top horses, owners, trainers, drivers, and hopefully we keep that momentum going and I really believe that these two stakes will only add to that.”

~ Rick Moore

Unlike a couple of its 3-year-old stakes such as the Carl Erskine and Monument Circle that drew top quality horses this year including King Of The North and Bythemissal in the days after the Breeders Crown, the track will be well positioned to offer the Haughton and Doherty as key run-ups in advance of the Breeders Crown.

“These two stakes will draw the attention of horses from all over North America, and beyond,” said Moore. “The types of breeding that these 2-year-olds will have will set the tone. And even more fortuitous is that since we’re having the Breeders Crown here too, it allows connections that think they may have Breeders Crown potential, to race here in advance for big money and at the same time see how they do over the Hoosier Park track.”

The addition of the two highly prestigious 2-year-old trotting stakes will only give further credence to the quality of stakes racing being built outside of traditional East-coast racing hotbeds.

“I don’t ever want to compare ourselves to anyone else, but I’ll say that we are very, very proud of the open stakes that we have here at Harrah’s Hoosier Park,” said Moore. “We had Bulldog Hanover here a couple of times last year. Bella Bellini put in one of the greatest performances I’ve ever seen in the Caesars Trotting Classic. And these are the types of horses we’re drawing here on a regular basis. Knock on wood, but we’re getting the top horses, owners, trainers, drivers, and hopefully we keep that momentum going and I really believe that these two stakes will only add to that. With these races specifically, with the Greenshoe offspring now being eligible, that’s going to add even more intrigue and luster to those races.

“I love our stakes season. We don’t really start our open stakes season until we get to the Dan Patch and after that it’s bam-bam-bam all the way through. We like putting on a show, and we like having the best horses here.”

Harrah’s Hoosier Park will have new opportunities to do those very things next year.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Maritimer Haley Cameron is grateful for what the sport has afforded her

by Chris Lomon

Wherever the horses are is where Haley Cameron feels most at home.

For as long as she can remember, well before she began a career in standardbred racing, the native of Antigonish, NS has always enjoyed everything equine.

So, when an opportunity arose to work with a breed of horses she had no association with, Cameron decided to accept the offer.

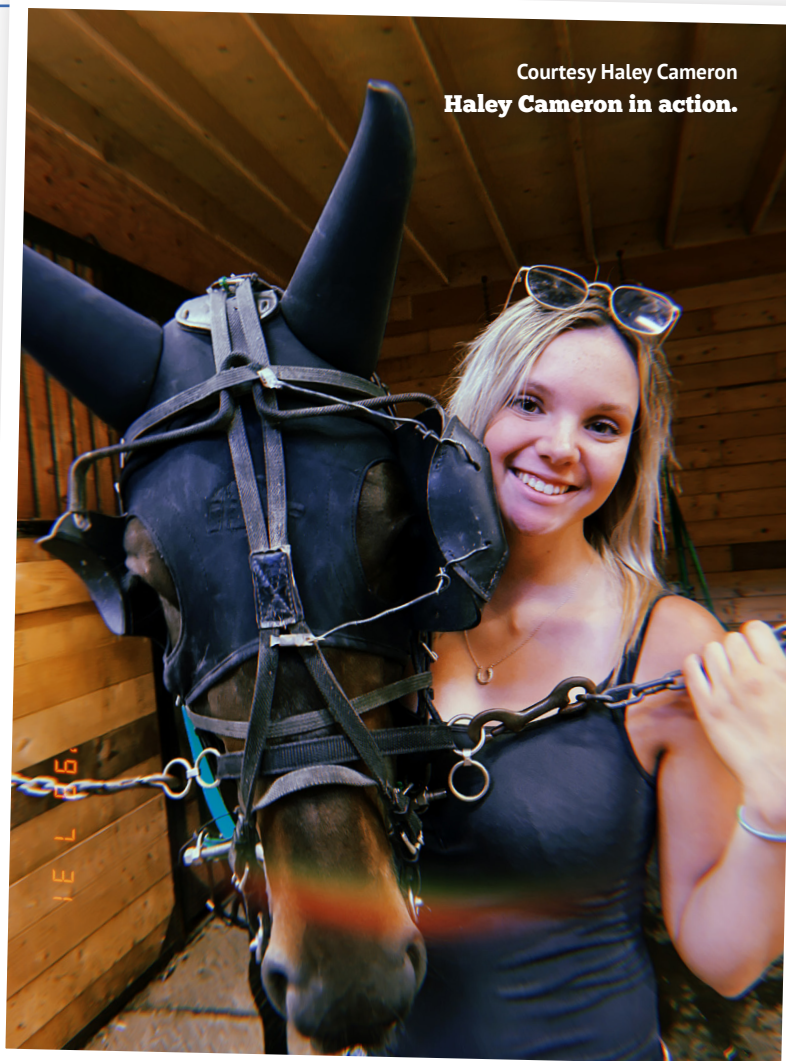

"I've always been around the horses and always had a love for them since I was a little girl," she said. "Around seven years ago, I heard through the grapevine that (driver/trainer) Clare MacDonald, who is pretty big in the Maritimes, was looking for a groom and farmhand, so I jumped at the opportunity. At the time, I had no sweet clue about standardbreds. I was a regular show horse girl and I also showed draft horses, but seven years ago, I set foot in the barn, and I never got away from it ever since."

It would be the start of a journey Cameron had never anticipated embarking on.

Last year, her standardbred travels took her west and south of Nova Scotia, including time spent at one of racing's most celebrated venues.

"It was a pretty big opportunity to work for Clare and her husband Kenny. Clare is the top female driver in the Maritimes and is an unbelievably talented horsewoman. I worked for her for about five years, but in December 2021, I moved to Ontario by myself and worked for (driver/trainer, and head of TheStable.ca fractional ownership group) Anthony MacDonald for a couple of months. That went well. They have an amazing operation and some really nice horses.

"I trained yearlings and broke them for them, and after that, (trainer) Brandon Mongiello and I are very close, so he asked me to come down to New Jersey. I groomed for him from February to April this year. Since I'm a Canadian citizen, I could only stay down there for a certain period of time, so I came back home. That was probably the biggest highlight for me so far. The Meadowlands is a special place, that's where Brandon raced the most. We also went to Freehold, too. I got to see a couple of horses I actually trained here, so it was nice to reconnect with them."

Upon her return to the Maritimes, Cameron experienced one of her most treasured racing highlights.

Held at Red Shores at Charlottetown Driving Park, the annual Gold Cup & Saucer race traces its roots back to the early 1960s and has drawn some of the older paces in North America over the years.

This year, multiple stakes winner Sintra took top honors in a track record-equaling 1:50.1.

"I was chosen as one of the ambassadors for the Gold Cup & Saucer, which was fantastic. I had the privilege of representing one of the horses for a fellow Maritimer, Neil MacInnis. The horse, Rhodena Road, finished in, so that was another big highlight for me."

One particular pacer, who launched his career in eastern Canada, stands out as Cameron's personal favorite.

“(Clare MacDonald is) my go-to person. Her and Kenny are like my second parents. They are wonderful. They taught me pretty much everything I know about horses. I owe it all to them for getting me involved. I wouldn’t be here if it wasn’t for them.”

~ Haley Cameron

The son of Sunshine Beach—Pacific Playmate overcame a devastating injury to earn north of $230,000 along with 21 career wins from 51 starts.

“When I was working for Clare, she started out first with Mappos Lion. He is my heart horse. He didn’t race at 2, but he had his first qualifier in Truro and won his first start. He was one of the first horses I started working with and one of the first horses I jogged. I really developed a love for him. He’s such a special horse.”

Cameron has closely followed all of his triumphs.

On a trip to Ontario, her first order of business was to see an old friend.

“He went to Ontario because he was doing so well. The first thing I did when I got to Ontario was to go to see him. I went straight to Paul MacDonell’s barn to see Mappos Lion. He definitely knew it was me. He doesn’t like carrots, and I noticed there was some in his stall. I had an apple in my hand, and he loves those, so I brought it to him. He loved it. It was a really good connection to see him again, and I love watching him race.”

Back in the barn of Clare MacDonald, Cameron is grateful for what the sport has afforded her.

She laughs at the recollection of how it started with one phone call.

“I’ll go to Truro, (Prince Edward Island), or wherever she is. She’s my go-to person. Her and Kenny are like my second parents. They are wonderful. They taught me pretty much everything I know about horses. I owe it all to them for getting me involved. I wouldn’t be here if it wasn’t for them.”

As for what the next chapter of her racing might be, Cameron has some plans on the table.

One of them could include being closer to Mappos Lion.

“I’m definitely staying with the horses. I’d like to get my trainer’s license. I’d like to move to Ontario at some point and race out of there. I’d also like to get back to New Jersey. I have some good friends there and I really enjoy the atmosphere and the racing.”

When she isn’t spending time with pacers and trotters, Cameron, perhaps not surprisingly, is working with other horse breeds.

And just like her standardbred life, travel is a big part of her gig. Her latest road trip took her to the Hoosier State.

“My life is all about horses, and then repeat. I also show heavy horses, like Belgians and Clydesdales. Every summer, I go to exhibitions around the Maritimes and show them. A couple of weeks ago, I was in Indiana showing horses and we sold five, which was amazing. I love them almost as much as the standardbreds.”

Regardless of where she happens to find herself, the one certainty is that horses will be front and center.

“Where they are, that’s where I’ll be.”

Bleff Dipa outstanding in Paris as Alexandre Abrivard dominates

by Thomas Hedlund

Holger Ehlert trained Bleff Dipa (Mister J.P.) dominated the $125,000 Prix Doynel de Saint-Quentin at Vincennes in Paris on Saturday's (Dec. 3) race card and the victory was taken from the lead.

Driver Alexandre Abrivard hit the front after a quarter of a mile and Bleff Dipa was superior his opponents as he came home in a mile rate of 1:58.1 over 1.7 miles.

Five-year-old Bleff Dipa has fought in the top of the Italian "B-crop" with a Derby win as his highest ranked victory. In Saturday's race he bested some of the most merited French bred 5-year-olds, so the future looks bright for the Italian trotter.

The combination of an Italian-bred and Abrivard was even successful in a monté race, the $125,000 Prix Doynel de Saint-Quentin, the same day. Balsamine Font (Filipp Roc) sprinted to safe win after a third over trip and the 5-year-old mare won in strong mile rate 1:55 over 1.3 miles.

The $125,000 Prix Raoul Balliere for 3-year-olds under saddle ended the top races at Vincennes and the winner was... Abrivard, who sat on Joyner Sport (Dollar Macker), trained by Philippe Allaire.

On Sunday (Dec. 4), Vincennes played host to another race card with high staked races. It all started as the previous day ended, with a big triumph for Abrivard. This time in $125,000 monté race Prix Philippe du Rozier, where Abrivard sat on Laurent-Claude Abrivard's 4-year-old Inshore (Real de Lou), who finished best after an inside trip and won in a mile rate of 1:54.4 over 1.3 miles.

The $158,000 Grand National du Trot, the race series that basically includes France's all regions throughout the year, closed with the final at Vincennes and Jean-Michel Bazire picked up his seventh consecutive win in the race.

His weapon this year was Gently de Muze (Perlando), who had everything under safe control from the lead for Bazire, who is also his trainer. Bazire didn't have to remind his 6-year-old trotter significantly on the stretch and Gently de Muze won in a mile rate of 1:58 over 1.7 miles.

JEAN-MICHEL BAZIRE'S WINNERS IN GNT THE LAST SEVEN YEARS:

2022: Gently de Muze

2021: Cleangame

2020: Elie de Beaufour

2019: Cleangame

2018: Ble du Gers

2017: Bel Avis

2016: Aubrion du Gers

GOOGOO GAAGAA SON BEST IN FLORENCE

Swedish bred Usain Töll (Googoo Gaagaa) controlled the $105,000 Gran Premio Duomo in Florence, Italy on Sunday (Dec. 4) afternoon from the lead and Gennaro Casillo's trotter claimed his biggest win for the season.

The victory became safe when first choice Bengurion Jet was beaten in the last turn after a first over trip and Usain Töll held on to a 1:56 win for driver Vincenzo Piscuoglio Dell'Annunziata.

The text 'HOW MUCH DID YOU BET TODAY?' is written in large, bold, white and blue letters across the band. At the bottom, it says '#BETONHARNESS' in large white letters, followed by the 'HRU HARNESS RACING UPDATE' logo which includes a horse silhouette.

DENZEL TREB, ZACON GIO CHANGE BARN

Italian Derby runner up Denzel Treb (Nuncio) has moved to Enrico Bellei's barn after a year in Massimo Compangno's training. Denzel Treb was undefeated in eight starts as a 2-year-old and he has had 14 starts with eight wins so far in his career.

Interantional Trot winner Zacon Gio (Ruty Grif) is another Italian top trotter that will change location. Alessandro Gocciadoro will train the 7-year-old colt who can look back at 31 wins in 67 starts and a lifetime earnings of $1,595,750. Holger Ehler trained Zacon Gio until recently.

AMERICAN-BRED IN B-RACE IN PARIS

American trotter Beads (Archangel) tries to grab a spot in 2023 year's edition of Prix d'Amérique as he's in the entries list for Sunday's (Dec. 11) $125,000 Prix du Bourbonnais at Vincennes.

Sixteen trotters are in the race and as usual, the top three will secure a number in next year's Prix d'Amérique.

Beads has left Norway and Frode Hamre's stable and Jean-Michel Bazire is the horse's new trainer. The start in Prix du Bourbonnais will be Beads' first attempt on French soil. Bazire has three horses in the race. Zarenne Fas and Hooker Berry join Beads from the same barn and Abrivard will drive the American bred trotter in Sunday's race.

Gaitway Gal gutsy in DSBF prelim win

by the Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund

Despite an extended first-over push up the backstretch and a stout late challenge from Bluffs Crush, the GTY Stable's homebred Gaitway Gal proved strong enough to eke out her second preliminary victory in the Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund series for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Bally's Dover, winning her $20,000 second-round division on Wednesday (Dec. 7) in 1:55.3 over good going. Odds On Surfer Gal rebounded from a seventh-place finish in the first round to capture the other division.

Driver Pat Berry rated the daughter of Delmarvalous—Brussels Hanover in fourth while Prime Power (driven by Ross Wolfenden) worked to seat fellow leaver Smokey's Passion (Tony Morgan) in the pocket through a :27.3 first quarter. After working to within 4-1/2 lengths of the lead through a :57.2 half, Gaitway Gal began her first-over climb up the backstretch, pushing aggressively to duel with Prime Power to three-quarters in 1:26.1 — and pacing that sectional in an individually-clocked :28 while uncovered. Gaitway Gal finally put Prime Power away at the eighth pole, but her strongest threat lurked just behind her cover. Montrell Teague switched Bluffs Crush off Berry's helmet to vault three-wide off the home turn, but Gaitway Gal dug deep to prevail by a scant nose over the valiant Bluffs Crush. Smokey's Passion saved third from her pocket trip.

Jeff Smith trains 10-time winner Gaitway Gal, who paid $2.10 across the board and has now amassed $177,304 in career earnings.

The other division saw Odds On Surfer Gal and driver Corey Callahan clear for the lead from post five before yielding to 3-5 favorite Bank The Win (Victor Kirby) — who quarter-moved from third — at the end of a :27.4 first split. Odds On Surfer Gal had the run of the race from there, tracking middle splits of :58.1 and 1:26.2 before lifting up the open stretch to defeat Bank The Win by a widening half-length in 1:56.3. Mistatude (Jason Thompson) finished third after her first-over push through the far turn stalled at the eighth pole.

Tony Alagna trains Odds On Surfer Gal, a Badlands Hanover—Odds On Moinet filly with five wins and $97,038 in the bank, for owner-breeder Mr. Dana Parham (as Odds On Racing and Odds On Nourrir, respectively). She paid $5.80 to win.

Second-round winners Gaitway Gal and Odds On Surfer Gal will be joined by Bank The Win, Shabby Chic, Prime Power, Bluffs Crush, Mistatude and Ky-Ky in next Wednesday's (Dec. 14) $100,000 DSBF series final.

NAVY BLUE COMPLETES DSBF PRELIMINARY SWEEP

Art Stafford Jr. and Wyatt Starkey's Navy Blue lived up to his 1-20 favoritism for the second consecutive week in the Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund series for 3-year-old male trotters at Bally's Dover, posting a comfortable 1:58.4 win in his $20,000 second-round division on a rainy Tuesday (Dec. 6).

Stafford, who also trains and drove the Anders Bluestone—Overnight Hit gelding, took his time in the early stages, allowing Snow Burst (driven by Allan Davis) and Wolfpack Russ (Corey Callahan) to duel before brushing Navy Blue from third and clearing for the lead just past a :29 quarter. From that point, Navy Blue faced nary a challenge, coasting through middle splits of :59.1 and 1:29.1 and opening up a five-length lead on the final turn. Stafford then took Navy Blue in hand through the stretch to win by a geared-down 1-1/2 lengths over Snow Burst. Sunset Sail (Tony Morgan) improved gradually up the backstretch to take third.

Navy Blue, now an 11-time winner with $167,986 in lifetime earnings, paid $2.10 across the board.

The other division winner, Big Daddy D, also won in 1:58.4 off a third-to-first move, but it took the Dusty Winner—Do We Lindy gelding and driver Cody Polisenno much longer to clear the lead, grinding first-over through a :57.1 half before wearing down and clearing Embrace The Stone (Tim Tetrack) midway up the backstretch. Despite slowing considerably in the stretch, Big Daddy D held his ground to stave off a wide rally from Tua (Montrell Teague) by three-quarters of a length. LG's Reed O Wen (Jim Morand) preserved third after losing cover nearing the far turn.

Carlo Polisenno trains seven-time winner Big Daddy D, who returned $4.60, for owner-breeder Jane Dunavant.

Navy Blue and Big Daddy D secured spots in next Tuesday's (Dec. 13) $100,000 DSBF series final, along with JAs Bluestone, LG's Reed O Wen, Snowburst, Tua, Sunset Sail and Embrace The Stone.

SHES ALL WOMAN STRIKES AGAIN IN DOVER DSBF PRELIM

Shes All Woman stamped herself as the likely leading lady in next week's $100,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund final for 3-year-old trotting fillies by way of a career-best 1:57.4 win in the lone $20,000 second-round preliminary event, held Monday (Dec. 5) at Bally's Dover.

The Anders Bluestone—Wark Woman filly floated forward from post seven and was rated by driver Victor Kirby to gradually gain on the outside of rivals before clearing early leader Just Pump It (driven by Art Stafford Jr.) with one lap remaining. Once in control, Shes All Woman reached the halfway point in a sensible :58 before steadily distancing herself from the field past three-quarters in 1:27.3. With Just Pump It tiring in her wake, Shes All Woman edged clear of eventual runner-up Miss Timber Wolf (Kim Vincent) by 4-1/4 lengths. Just Pump It faded to third.

John Wagner trains 13-time winner Shes All Woman, who paid $3.40 to win and has earned $244,780 for owner-breeder Pamela Wagner.

All eight fillies that participated in both preliminary events are eligible for the $100,000 series final, scheduled for next Monday (Dec. 12). They are: Shes All Woman, Miss Timber Wolf, Just Pump It, Antares Star, Franky Doyle, Giant Arbitration, Our Last Penny and Lady Bluestone.

Rustler Hanover dies at 27

Winbak Farm is sad to announce the passing of O'Brien Award Winner, Rustler Hanover, p, 2, 1:52.3; 3, 1:51 ($971,638). The 27-year-old passed away on November 29th.

"Rustler Hanover will be missed by the Winbak Farm team," said Jack Burke, general manager. "He had been retired from breeding for a few years but had a happy retired life at Winbak Farm of Delaware."

Rustler Hanover was a half-brother to USHWA Horse of the Year Award Winner, Rocknroll Hanover, p, 2, 1:49.4; 3, 1:48.3 ($2,754,038), and Royalflush Hanover, p, 2, 2:03.2h; 3, 1:51.2f; 1:49.3 ($2,153,893).

"Rustler Hanover was a gorgeous individual, who had a stellar pedigree and outstanding performance as a racehorse," said Joe Thomson, Winbak Farm owner. "He was associated with Winbak Farm for over 20 years and we were proud to stand him in Canada and in Delaware."

At 2, Rustler Hanover won the O'Brien Award for 2-Year-Old Pacing Colts and OJC Award for 2-Year-Old Pacing Colts. He won 6 races highlighted by the Metro Pace Final, Abe Lincoln Stakes, Nassagaweya Stakes elimination, Breeders Crown elimination and Arden Down Stakes. He was second in the Governor's Cup Final, Champlain Stakes and Metro Pace elimination.

At 3, Rustler Hanover won 8 races including the Confederation Cup elimination and Final, Nat Christie Memorial Pace elimination and Final, Burlington Pace and Meadowlands Pace elimination. He was second Art Rooney Pace elimination and North America Cup elimination.

"Rustler Hanover was a fast racehorse who went on to sire many rich performers," said Burke.

As a sire, Rustler Hanover sired 8 Winners of $500,000+ highlighted by:

Keystone Horatio, p, 2, 1:51s; 3, 1:50.2f; 1:48.4s ($1,536,204)

Armbro Acquire, p, 3, 1:52.3s; 1:49.2 ($924,952)

Alastor Hanover, p, 2, 1:52.3f; 3, 1:51.3f; 1:50.1f ($784,360)

Rustler Hanover had also found success as a broodmare sire, including being the sire of the dams of:

Wrangler Magic, p, 2, 1:53.3s; 3, 1:50.2s ($897,021)

Steelhead Hanover, p, 2, 1:52.3f; 3, 1:50f; 1:48.3f ($577,450)

Sprig Hanover, p, 2, Q1:57.3s; 3, 1:52.1s ($438,458)

Dam of Downbytheseaside, p, 2, 1:49; 3, 1:48.3f ($2,179,558)

"We want to thank the many breeders who bred to Rustler Hanover during his stallion career," said Thomson. "We also want to thank the members of the Rustler Hanover syndicate for their support."

Ecurie D to stand stud at Southwind Farms

Owners Marko Kreivi Stables, Inc., Suleyman Yuksel Stables, Inc. and Ake Svanstedt, Inc. are pleased to announce that their two time world champion Écurie D, 6, 1:49.1M, ($1,516,807) (Infinitif—Too Soon—Muscles Yankee), has been retired from racing and will stand stud at Southwind Farms in New Jersey commencing with the 2023 breeding season.

Blessed with superb size, striking conformation, a beautiful head and a powerful gait, Ecurie D is a product of the combination of the finest American and French blood the trotting sport has to offer.

Ecurie D began his racing career in Europe at age 3 by winning his first 11 starts which included establishing a new world record for 3-year-old trotters in a rated time of 1.12.2 over 1,640 meters and by winning the Grade 1 European Derby which was won the previous year by Face Time Bourbon.

At ages 4 and 6, Ecurie D won numerous high dollar European graded stakes before his owners were strongly encouraged to bring him to the United States late in his 5-year-old season in 2021 in order to show off his incredible talent. Indeed Ecurie D did just that by winning his only two starts in the States that year defeating the likes of Back Of The Neck, Ready For Moni, Forbidden Trade and It's Academic in both the $136,000 Allerage Farms open trot at the Red Mile and in the $650,000 Breeders Crown Older Trot at The Meadowlands.

In his final season racing exclusively in North America in 2022 at age 6, Ecurie D opened his season in awesome fashion by trotting the co-fastest mile in harness racing history, 1:49.1M, which also equaled the world record, in the $170,450 Arthur Cutler Memorial at The Meadowlands. He finished out a stellar season by amassing $733,439 in earnings by winning for the second straight year the $600,000 Breeders Crown older trot along with the $330,000 TVG Open Trot both in dominant wire to wire fashion. In 30 lifetime starts, Ecurie D won an amazing 20 times despite having to face the very best trotters in the world.

As impressive as his racing career was, Ecurie D's bloodlines represent the absolute finest cross of American and French blood anywhere to be found in the world. His sire, Infinitif, is a son of Pine Chip. Infinitif's mother, Island Dream, is also the mother of Clarabelle, and her immediate family has produced extreme 2-year-old speed in her noted son Cuatro de Julio, 2, 1:51.3M ($879,061) and in Una Madonna, 2, 1:55.1f ($118,918.00). Clarabelle's last two yearlings sold at Lexington for $200,000 and $360,000 respectively.

Ecurie D's mother, Too Soon, hails from the immediate families of several of France's greatest trotting stallions which include: Dream With Me €1,327,831; Daquet Rapide €1,396,695; Arnaquer €1,034,583; Oyannax €1,877,690; and, Indy de Vie €500,666, who is the sire of Ready Cash.

Ecurie D will now take his rightful place alongside three of the greatest trotting sires in the sport, Walner, Muscle Hill and Tactical Landing at Southwind Farms, New Jersey for an introductory service fee of $10,000 US. He is currently being syndicated both in North America and in Europe where frozen semen will be available for European shareholders.

Soaring Now tops PEO Sale at $160,000

One of the Hoosier State's top sophomore pacers of the past season, Soaring Now p,3,1:48.1-'22 ($411,375), topped the Dec. 5 Preferred Equine Online Mixed Sale after being purchased by Ken Jacobs for $160,000.

The Jk Endofanera colt, winner of five Indiana Sire Stakes legs in 2022 plus the $140,000 Jennas Beach Boy, was consigned by Preferred Equine Online as agent for Levi Stutzman.

Quality racehorses once again led demand during the afternoon auction. The 3-year-old Royalty For Life gelding Royaltys Rocket 3,1:55-'22 ($50,247), second in Woodbine-Mohawk's Ontario Harvest Final on Nov. 19, was sold to Joe Trice for $64,000 after being consigned as agent for trainer Donald Lindsey.

A pair of racehorses each sold for $50,000. The 5-year-old pacing mare Powered By Mach p,1:51f-'22 ($214,173), second in her previous two starts in the Filly & Mare Open Handicap at Plainridge, was collared by Lawrence Fox after being sold by Carmen Auciello.

The other $50,000 price tag was for the 2-year-old stakes winning Captaintreacherous colt Captain's Choice p,2,1:52.2-'22. The promising youngster finished behind the flashy Meadowlands Governor's Cup winner El Rey in the Corbin-KYSS at the Red Mile in late October. He was purchased by John Cappa Jr. after being consigned as agent for trainer Tony Alagna.

A full complement of broodmares was also on offer. Leading that group was Cambridge Kate, in foal to Tactical Landing, at $26,000. A share in world champion trotting sire Swan For All was sold for $20,000.

"As with all of our online sales, we're glad to provide a conduit between seller and buyer," said PEO owner and manager David Reid. "We've shown there are people wanting to move horses more often than when a live sale rolls around, and they want to do so in a professional and transparent manner. We think our brand and our platform certainly meet that demand."

In all, 24 of 31 lots on offer were sold for $589,100. Racehorses averaged $44,550. Horses not sold are still listed on the sale page, with "make offer" noted, and for many, an asking price.

Preferred Equine Online's next mixed sale will be held the week before Christmas on Monday, Dec. 19. Entries are currently being accepted at preferredequineonline.com.

Diamond Creek bringing Face Time Bourbon frozen semen to North America

Diamond Creek Farm is thrilled to announce their partnership with the owners of Face Time Bourbon. This new joint venture will give North American breeders access to frozen semen from one of the best racehorses this sport has ever featured.

Face Time Bourbon is the best son of Ready Cash. He was a winner of 17 Group 1 races in Europe, including the Prix D'Amerique in 2020 and 2021.

The first crop of Face Time Bourbon hit the tracks in 2022. Overseas, he is in the top 5 leading stallions of 2-year-olds in Italy. In France, he has had 54 per cent of his 2-year-olds qualify with average earnings of €117,000. In the United States, he has already had some success with Emira Mil and Sparkling Tile. Two yearlings out of Face Time Bourbon, Tap Phoned and Fenicia IT, were sold this fall at Lexington, with a sale average of $120,000.

The stud fee is $20,000 live foal and the frozen semen will be stored at Rood and Riddle in Kentucky but can be shipped to approved locations. All foals resulting from the frozen will be eligible to the Breeders Crown. You can book mares at diamondcreekfarm.com or by calling or emailing the office 717.638.7100/bookings@diamondcreekfarm.com.

Back Of The Neck to stand at Blue Chip

Blue Chip Farms is proud to welcome $1.46 million dollar winner, Back Of The Neck 1:51-22, to its Wallkill, NY facility for the 2023 breeding season. Known for his ability on all size tracks, Back Of The Neck has had numerous stakes performances including victories in the Reynolds Memorial at 2 and 3; William Wellwood Elim (3rd in Final), Stanley Dancer, Bluegrass, NJ Breeders Maturity, Maple Leaf Trot, and the Dayton Trotting Derby; 2nd in the Hambletonian elim. (3rd in Final), Breeders Crown-Open, Zweig Memorial and Matron. In October he came in second in the star studded MGM Yonkers International Trot after being parked almost the entire mile.

In 2022, Back Of The Neck became the 5th leading money winning son of Ready Cash, joining an elite grouping with Face Time Bourbon, Bold Eagle, Ready Express and Bird Parker. The sons of Ready Cash have demanded great respect for their success at stud in Europe. Back of The Neck will offer that same bloodline opportunity to North America.

Back Of The Neck also boasts a fabulous maternal line. Out of the Andover Hall mare Big Barb, he is from the immediate family of top performers including Dan Patch 3YO Trotting Filly of the Year, Broadway Schooner. Winner of the Hambletonian Oaks and Breeders Crown, she is also the dam of 2022 Hambletonian Oaks Winner Fashion Schooner p,3,1:50.1-22 ($787,337). This excellent pedigree foundation makes Back Of The Neck a complete outcross to almost every trotting bloodline in North America.

Back Of The Neck will stand for a stud fee of $7,500. Please contact jbrown@bluechipfarms.com for additional information and booking opportunities.

the harness racing bug. Wanting to pursue a full-time career in harness racing did not sit well with the elder Beltrami. So Tony went to law school and then became a practicing attorney for 15 years before being elected as a state trial court judge in Northampton (PA) County in 2005. He is currently serving his second 10-year term.

Beltrami, nicknamed "The Judge" by the late Dave Brower, will receive his award at the Dan Patch Awards Banquet, presented by Caesars Entertainment, on Sunday, Feb. 19 at Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando, FL. The banquet will honor the best of the best of harness racing, both human and equine, culminating with the announcement of the E. Roland Harriman Harness Horse of the Year. The 2023 banquet celebrates USHWA's 75th anniversary.

Beltrami voted USHWA Amateur Driver of the Year

Anthony S. "Tony" Beltrami has been voted United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) Amateur Driver of the Year for 2022 in a vote conducted by USHWA with the Amateur Driving Clubs. Beltrami, 60, edged out Edward Miller for the top honor.

"I want to thank all of the clubs who voted for me," Beltrami said when finding out the news. "This is an extremely high honor, and I am exceptionally grateful. This is an award I have always wanted to win."

Beltrami had his best year as a driver in 2022, visiting the winner's circle 34 times in amateur competition, racing with the top clubs in the Northeast such as AHDC, GSY, Billings, and NAADA at The Meadowlands, Yonkers, Freehold, Pocono, and Harrah's Philadelphia.

"I had a great group of trainers for whom I raced and terrific horses to race this year, and that, along with competing in more events this year than ever before, enabled me to have the success I did," said Beltrami. "One horse, Dream Out Loud N, was a particular dream to drive."

If the name Beltrami sounds familiar, it should be. His father Louis owned a powerful stable of horses from the late 1970s through the 1980s. Growing up in Hazleton, PA, it was following his father's horses at nearby Pocono Downs that Tony caught
