Setting the line straight on Horse of the Year contenders

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Handicapping the field for the 2025 Horse of the Year, with my top seven contenders and the odds I've assigned them.

7. Super Chapter (40-1) – This Marcus Melander trainee had a record of 9-3-1 in 14 seasonal starts, and was the top 3-year-old money-winner with $1,236,099.

6. Emoticon Legacy (35-1) – He won the Canadian Trotting Classic in record time and the Kentucky Futurity in 1:49.2, one-fifth-of-a-second off the stakes mark, with a record of 7-1-0 in 10 starts and $954,875 in the bank.

5. Louprint (20-1) – His 1:46.3 mark was set at Lexington and he dominated the Jug and had a stirring North America Cup win. He had all 35 first place votes in the weekly top 10 poll ending September. Can Sweet Lou join Art Major as the only repeat HOY sire in the 21st century or in a what-have-you-done-for-me-lately business, has his brilliant season, 12 10-1-0 with $1,025,971, been pushed back on the shelf?

4. Yo Tillie (15-1) – This daughter of Tactical Landing – his fourth Breeders Crown winner in just the last three years joining Allegiant, Karl, and Tactical Approach – was almost perfect going 11-1-0 in 12 starts with $979,195. It's nitpicking time. As a 3YOFT you must face/beat boys during that year to be considered. Just ask Fancy Crown (1984), CR Kay Suzie (1995), Continentalvictory (1996), but especially Syrinx Hanover who ran the table in 2001 (12-for-12) but did not face the boys and was second to Bunny Lake in HOY balloting.

3. Lexus Kody (5-2) – Can a 7-year-old trotting gelding lead North America in earnings and be HOY for the first time in a half century? Savoir did it in 1975 with a record of 13-5-3 in 21 starts and $351,385. Lexus Kody's record this year was 21 11-3-4 and $1,317,651. He made more in his final six starts, $947,300, than any other older trotter did for the entire season. He won in a Canadian best 1:49.1 and captured the richest race in his division, the $1 million Yonkers International Trot.

It's been 14 years since a 7-year-old gelding was HOY: San Pail (2011). The only negative, while we are nitpicking, is 10 losses. But that didn't deter the voters in 2000, the last time a HOY had 10 defeats. Gallo Blue Chip was 19 for 29, but he reset the single season $ mark to $2.4 million.

2. Miki And Minnie (8-5) — The only horse in the top eight in $ in both 2024 and 2025. The Breeders Crown dead heat winner is a stablemate to the defending HOY Twin B Joe Fresh. Her record, 15 13-2-0 and $1,123,824, mirrors fellow 3YOFP Test Of Faith who was 16 14-2-0 and the 2021 HOY. Can Chris Ryder become the first 21st century trainer to go back-to-back in the balloting? Miki And Minnie blasted the older mares off the map in her authoritative FanDuel romp. No question the standout effort on Fall Final Four/FanDuel Night. Was it enough?

1. Beau Jangles (even) — He was 12-for-12 with $1,227,326. The same 12-for-12 the last 2YO had when she was named HOY in 2014: JK She'salady. Beau Jangles dominated from start to finish culminating in a 1:48.3 decisive record-setting Breeders Crown triumph. He met all challenges head on and took whatever they threw at him, and laughed it off. What's not to like? Glad you asked. Chantilly is the defending Canadian HOY. She went nine-for-nine at 2, but didn't even make a ripple in HOY balloting here. San Pail went 14-for-16 in 2011 his HOY season. The difference? He came to the states and did capture the Nat Ray (now the Cashman) in 2011, and dominated in the HOY ballot 93 to nine (Roll With Joe) and eight (Check Me Out). All 12 of Beau Jangles' wins came in Canada. Another example is the 2006 HOY ballot. Glidemaster here and Majestic Son in Canada. Glidemaster also won the Triple Crown and cruised to HOY honors. Nine of his 15 starts were in Canada and his matchups versus Majestic Son went the Canadian HOY's way. But, Majestic Son was totally dismissed in our balloting. He was no factor at all as Passionate Glide finished second to Glidemaster. Let me give you yet another obstacle for Beau Jangles whether it's fair or unfair. In 1986, 4-year-old Forrest Skipper won HOY over 2-year-old Jate Lobell. Both went undefeated, Jate Lobell (15-15) and Forrest Skipper (16-16), a great battle at year's end. I asked veteran writer and eventual Hall of Famer Clyde Hirt who he was voting for. "Forrest Skipper," he said. "Jate Lobell will win it next year." A "Lobell" did win it in 1987, Mack Lobell. At Harrisburg in casual conversation there were two different chats I had with two who vote. Neither ever votes for a 2-year-old for HOY. There you have it. Still, Beau Jangles had 32 of the 35 first place votes entering December in the weekly poll. He's the favorite to celebrate the biggie in Orlando.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

His first trip abroad helped Aussie driver Kyle Symington find himself in the winner's circle at The Meadowlands

by Debbie Little

A succession of firsts led driver Kyle Symington into The Meadowlands' winner's circle.

"I'd never been out of my home state," said Symington, a native of the port city of Bunbury in Western Australia. "So, last year, I wanted to go on vacation, and I chose America. Obviously, I knew harness racing was so big [in the U.S.] that I thought while I was on the other side of the world, I may as well check it out. And then I got in contact with Noel Daley, and it all kind of just came about pretty naturally like that. He offered me a job this year, and the opportunity. I thought, while I'm young and don't have too many commitments back home, I may as well take it. Everyone I've spoken to has always said, it's great to travel and see the world while you're young. It was kind of just a 'Why not?' mentality if that makes sense.

"I have a couple of friends back home that now started barns of their own, and once you start a barn, it's so hard to get away because you have so much responsibility, and the care of the horses. They can't go anywhere, and they may regret not experiencing it."

Western Australia is the largest of the six states and two territories that comprise Symington's land Down Under.

Aussie expat Daley recalls meeting Symington for the first time during that 2024 U.S. visit.

"He just came down and had that week or two with me," Daley said. "And then he said, 'Well, I'd like to come back,' and then it took forever to get the paperwork."

The original plan was for Symington, who turns 24 next week,

Jim Lisa
Kyle Symington.

to arrive in the U.S. for racing in the summer, but it took him close to four months to get his paperwork cleared.

"It's an agricultural visa, so I think the base of it is it's meant to be educational, so learning while you're on it," Symington said. "It's only for people under 30, so it's like a student visa. I have a year maximum, and then I have to leave."

Had Symington been able to arrive in July, Daley would have been able to give him more drives.

"This time of year gets quite quiet for us," Daley said. "It's not like when the other young kid came from Australia. He actually came at the right time, Jack [Callaghan]. He only came for that three months, but he came spot on the right time when everyone was gone. So, he ended up with a full book of drives at The Meadowlands from the second he walked in."

Callaghan drove at The Meadowlands in August – just after the Hambletonian – and in September before returning home to Australia.

Kyle Symington sporting his new colors while driving Moonwards Hanover to victory at The Meadowlands.

Symington finally arrived in mid-September and took some time to get acclimated before starting to drive in October. He recorded his first Meadowlands victory in his Big M debut with Daley's Stay Grounded.

"It was a bit of a shock to me," Symington said. "Obviously, the horse was suited in that class, but I definitely wasn't expecting to win my first drive at The Meadowlands. So, that was a nice surprise, but then I think moving forward, it was just getting consistent and more comfortable with driving on the mile track, because that's so foreign to me, because I'm used to racing on a half most of the time."

Symington's home track is Gloucester Park, a half-mile oval in Perth.

Unlike many that have come before him, Symington is not from a harness racing family and never watched racing at The Meadowlands or anywhere else for that matter.

"Well, growing up, I was never in harness racing, so I've only been following harness racing for like five or six years now," he said. "I've always ridden horses. My background was eventing, and then I just wanted a weekend job while I was finishing my last couple of years in high school, and there was a pacing stable close to home that one of our close friends was the second trainer for, so, that's how I got my got started with the pacers."

There are three phases to eventing: dressage, cross country, and show jumping, similar to an equestrian triathlon.

"It was a bit of a shock to me. Obviously, the horse was suited in that class, but I definitely wasn't expecting to win my first drive at The Meadowlands. So, that was a nice surprise, but then I think moving forward, it was just getting consistent and more comfortable with driving on the mile track, because that's so foreign to me, because I'm used to racing on a half most of the time."

~ Kyle Symington

The majority of Symington's 72 starts in the U.S. have come at The Meadowlands, where all six of his wins took place.

Two of those wins came for trainer Vincent Ginsburg, including Symington's first win driving a trotter.

Symington explained that trotters are not as plentiful in Australia as they are here.

“Especially on the West Coast where I'm from,” he said. “There is probably only one trot race a week. I never won on a trotter until I won [two weeks ago] with [Muskingum]. So that was good.”

Symington also has two wins for the Magies, trainer Brian and his wife Judy who owns the horses.

“We love to give the new young drivers opportunities,” Brian said. “Kyle is very professional and personable too. He's done a great job for us and gives each horse a chance, no matter what class they are in. We appreciate his positive attitude and our horses go well for him. He is certainly an asset to the driving colony at The Meadowlands.”

Symington's win last Thursday (Dec. 4) with the Magies' Moonwards Hanover may have been a little extra special since it was his first time winning in his own colors.

“Back home I use the trainer's colors or owner's colors if they have them,” he said.

When Symington started driving in the U.S. in October, he drove in the colors of owner Kevin Jeavons, a big supporter of his from back home.

Symington's own colors are black and gold, perhaps a nod to his home state where gold was discovered in the late 19th century.

Since The Big M likes to give nicknames to drivers, perhaps “Golden State Warrior” might be a good one for Symington since Western Australia is known as the Golden State.

Daley said one of things he likes best about Symington is that he's not afraid of hard work.

Although Symington's job is riding horses in the morning for Daley, he's fine about helping around the barn if needed, as he did back home in Australia.

“They do everything, I mean, literally everything [in Australia],” Dailey said. “They've got to get them ready, get out, drive them, come back, strip them, wash them, drive the truck back home, and then pick up another lot. They learn to do it all. He's a hard worker.”

Daley said he hopes Symington continues to get more opportunities to drive.

“He's been driving Stay Grounded for me down at Chester, and, you know, he's made $300,000 but he's a bit of a stupid horse,” Daley said. “He can get steppy and see things, but Kyle's great with him. Kyle's got him leaving the gate every week. I mean, most of the other fellas don't want to drive him, you know, Andy [McCarthy] and them, they'd rather not drive him. But Kyle just charges out of there, which is good. He sort of just doesn't take his bull---. So, he's used to driving ones that aren't perfect. You can tell he's good with horses.”

Symington said he didn't expect he'd be doing well so quickly, and is looking forward to whatever the future holds for the remainder of his stay.

“I try not to go into things with high expectations, because then I feel like you can just be less disappointed if things don't work out,” he said. “So, I'm just very thankful that trainers like Brian are giving me opportunities, and hopefully I can make the most of it when they do come.”

“I want to race as much as I possibly can, so I'd be happy to travel. I race at Chester for Noel, a little bit at the moment, but mainly it's just been Sundays, but yeah, I want to drive as much as possible, so if the opportunities are there, I'll take them.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Inmarosa scores in a stunning upset in the second 'B-race' at Vincennes

by Thomas Hedlund

One of France's toughest mares delivered a major shock when the second B-race, the $125,000 Prix du Bourbonnais, was contested at Vincennes on Sunday (Nov. 7).

Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) flashed early speed and crossed to the lead after only a few hundred meters, as Mathieu Mottier willingly released the front with Keep Going (Follow You).

Driver/trainer Daniel Wäjersten later opted to yield to Philippe Allaire's powerhouse Izoard Vedaquais (Bird Parker) — a horse known for maintaining a long, grinding tempo. Sitting in the pocket behind him looked like a sound plan.

But at Vincennes, the real race begins uphill.

And that's where the longshot struck.

Inmarosa (Amiral Sacha), driven by Leo Abrivard, launched a fierce three-wide attack heading into the far turn. She surged past Izoard Vedaquais before the bend and opened up a couple of lengths, instantly putting the field under pressure at 47-1.

Borups Victory finally shook free at the top of the lane and angled out in pursuit of the leader. For a moment it looked promising, but the last 150 meters belonged entirely to the French closers. Wäjersten's star flattened slightly late and had to settle for fifth.

Inmarosa dug in gamely and scored in a mile rate of 1:55.2 over 2,850 meters, a powerful, grinding performance.

Keep Going closed sharply once the gap appeared to finish second, while Izoard Vedaquais held for third.

The surprise package Harmony du Rabutin (Royal Dream) finished fourth — and with that, punched her ticket to the Prix d'Amérique.

Dec. 21 – $250,000 Prix Tenor de Baune – 2,700 meters (5-year-olds – winner only)

Dec. 28 – $125,000 Prix du Bourgogne – 2,100 meters auto start (four spots)

Jan. 11 – $125,000 Prix de Belgique – 2,850 meters (four spots)

MACK DE BLARY BACK ON TOP IN THE PRIX READY CASH

Muscle Hill son Ginostrabliggi started out as the favorite in the $220,000 Prix Ready Cash for 3-year-olds at Vincennes on Sunday, and driver Gabriele Gelormini controlled the race early. Stablemate Monzon Normand took the lead, and unsurprisingly, Ginostrabliggi was handed the front shortly thereafter.

But the French M-generation is deep, and fierce. Mack de Blary (Face Time Bourbon), trained by Thierry Duvaldestin, enjoyed a perfect second-over trip behind another top colt, Maitre Jacques (Rolling d'Heripre). With no pressure coming three-wide, Théo Duvaldestin waited patiently before sending Mack de Blary into top gear at the head of the stretch. The response was immediate.

Mack de Blary fought past Maitre Jacques and scored decisively in a mile rate of 1:54 over 2,100 meters.

Guglielmo Jet (Maharajah) closed strongly for second, and Maitre Jacques held third.

Ginostrabliggi was beaten early in the lane and wound up fourth.

LIBERTE DE CHOISEL TOO STRONG IN THE PRIX ARISTE HEMARD

Favorite Liza Josselyn did all she could to keep the upper hand in the $125,000 Prix Ariste Hemard at Vincennes on Saturday (Nov. 6). Jean-Michel Bazire swept to the lead with 1,300 meters remaining, but Liberte de Choisel (Captain Sparrow–River Love) – already a multiple semi-classic winner – landed first-over and immediately applied pressure.

In the stretch, the pressure told. Liberte de Choisel drew off easily for Anthony Barrier, winning in a mile rate of 1:56.3 over 2,700 meters.

Liza Josselyn (Ready Cash) had to settle for second in 1:57, while Love Letter (Royal Dream) saved third from a perfect second-over trip.

The Sylvain Gérard Dupont trainee has now won six of eight starts in 2025, including the $125,000 Prix Guy le Gonidec.

LOVINO BELLO IMPRESSIVE IN THE PRIX OCTAVE DOUESNEL

The 4-year-old colts met in the $125,000 Prix Octave Douesnel, where the favorite came from the Duvaldestin barn. His Lovino Bello (Village Mystic), one of the classiest horses in the French L-generation, showed his strength once more. Early in the race, Phantom Express and Lombok Jiel traded the lead before Falco Killer Gar swept to the front entering the backstretch. Lovino Bello launched his attack 800 meters out, advanced powerfully three-wide, and rolled to the lead at the top of the stretch.

From there, he was simply the best. Lovino Bello scored in a mile rate of 1:57.1 over 2,700 meters for Eric Raffin.

Lombok Jiel (Enino du Pommereux) held second, just ahead of Phantom Express (Ready Express), who finished well after finding room late.

This was Lovino Bello's third French win of the year, adding to the $88,000 Prix Guillaume le Conquerant and his Europaderby elimination.

THE BANK DOMINATES IN ITALY'S GRAN PREMIO ALLEVATORI

Irma Ferm (The Bank) delivered a one-horse show in the $195,000 Gran Premio Allevatori for 2-year-old fillies in Turin on Sunday (Dec. 7).

Driver Marco Stefani controlled the pace from the start and unleashed the decisive move entering the final turn.

The Enrico Montagna trainee stopped the clock in a mile rate of 2:01.4 over 2,100 meters. I Love America (Muscle Hill) finished second from the pocket, and Irenel Mail (Nad al Sheba) took third. It was Irma Ferm's fourth win in six starts, including the $35,500 Criterium Veneto.

The colt division of the $195,000 Gran Premio Allevatori also crowned a The Bank offspring, as Itan Pal Ferm (The Bank–Vayla di Vico) and Antonio Simioli produced a sparkling finish.

Iambellesi Tq tried for the lead on the backstretch, landing outside heavy favorite Izoard Blue Grif, but the favorite folded abruptly.

Itan Pal Ferm, from a perfect stalking trip, swept past Iambellesi Tq in the final 100 meters to score in a mile rate of 2:01 over 2,100 meters. Second went to Iambellesi Tq (El Ideal), with Il Trio Jet (Wishing Stone) finishing third.

No Absolution needed for Moiseyev's talented pacing mare

by Matthew Lomon

"She gives you what she's got, and she gives you a chance," Jack Moiseyev said.

Consistency, as renowned horseman Moiseyev laid out, has been Absolution's calling card through 40 career starts.

Cracking the top three in 27 of those appearances (11-8-8), and 12 straight going back to Aug. 22, has certainly done wonders to curate such a fine reputation.

But as Moiseyev — a winner of nearly 10,000 races as a driver during his storied and ongoing career — recalls the days before consistency came patience.

"As a yearling, she was a little small — built nice — but just a little bit small," he said. "That's why we took our time with her, just like we did with her mother [Bet Ya]."

Absolution, like her mother, did not race as a 2-year-old.

Having seen the script once before with Bet Ya, Moiseyev, with steady support from Absolution's co-breeders and co-owners Joanne Colville and Nancy MacNevin, knew better than to worry — at least not too much.

"If I didn't have her mother, I wouldn't have believed," Moiseyev said with a laugh. "Her mother did the same thing at 2 and 3 and then came right around. She ended up making over $300,000 [$358,362]."

The additional year proved invaluable to Absolution's development, both in body and mind.

"When we got her back going at 3, she grew some, but about two months after training, you could really see her growing," Moiseyev said. "Every month you would say 'Holy cow, I think she grew a little.'"

"On the mental side, she was going in 2:30 training down. She was making breaks, just like her mother. She'd make a break training and then one day something clicked in her. We

"I think [Absolution is] just a really nice mare and her attitude is great. She has a big heart, and she wants to do it — and it's really up to her. I have ones that get the same training, and they don't go like her. She always had that will, even training. Heading into the stretch she wanted to dig in and beat the other horse."

got around 2:20 and she clicked over and just started pacing perfectly the whole mile and never had a problem since.

"It felt like everything synced up growing wise, pacing wise, and mentally. Now, she's a really nice mare to drive and train."

Absolution's first taste of action came in a $6,500 dash at Flamboro Downs on Oct. 13, 2024.

It wasn't a triumphant outing, but one that gave Moiseyev all the encouragement he needed.

"Right away she showed she was going to be okay; you just didn't know how good," Moiseyev said. "Her first start she came up inside, and she finished third, but she was loaded with pace."

Moiseyev's instincts were spot on, as Absolution cruised to victory next time out on Oct. 27, and again on Nov. 7, this time at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The McWicked bay rounded out her freshman campaign with a strong 2-2-1 record through seven starts, collecting $21,880.

However, it was what Absolution showed beyond the stat sheet that affirmed what Moiseyev had seen in her from the beginning.

"I think she's just a really nice mare and her attitude is great," he said. "She has a big heart, and she wants to do it — and

“I couldn’t ask [Absolution] to do more than she’s been doing. Every week, she just shows up and gets us a nice check. She’s got nine wins this year and she’s always one, two, three. If I could put her heart into all my other ones, we’d be in good shape.”

~ Jack Moiseyev

it’s really up to her. I have ones that get the same training, and they don’t go like her.

“She always had that will, even training. Heading into the stretch she wanted to dig in and beat the other horse.”

Now a preferred-level star in her second professional season, Absolution, backed by the remarkable streak of a dozen straight in the money, has enjoyed several standout moments in 2025, namely, on Nov. 28 at Mohawk.

In an effort reflective of her resolute demeanor, Absolution came from the clouds to close on second favorite Tells On A Roll, and pull away for the one-length score to keep her top-three trend intact.

Moiseyev, while impressed, wasn’t exactly caught off guard by what’s become a familiar sight.

“That’s how she’s been racing,” he said. “That’s how she’s been racing. It doesn’t surprise me, because every week she shows just about the fastest last quarter in a race. Sometimes she’s a little too far back, but that happens... The last quarter is where they pay, not the beginning of the race.”

Getting Absolution to this point has not been a solo feat.

Colville and MacNevin, having raised Absolution, her mother, and grandmother, have provided a steadying presence for the reliable pacer.

“Joanne raised her, and Nancy picked out the grand dam of her,” said Moiseyev, who shares 10 horses with the duo. “They’re a great team. Joanne does an excellent job raising a baby at the farm and Nancy is always generous when it comes to buying young horses.

“A lot of the horses Joanne raised end up doing pretty well. We had a lot of luck with the homebreds and it feels good. You raise them from a baby right to racing like that, it makes you feel good.”

Add Colville’s daughter Emma Christoforou, who helps raise the foals, and Jamie Hart, Absolution’s caretaker, to the mix, and every base is covered.

“Jamie spends at least an hour at the end of the day to put her away for the night,” Moiseyev said. “She’s taken care of her since we got to the farm training. Emma is a tremendous help all around the barn, too.

“Between Joanne, Nancy, Jamie, and Emma, they all do a phenomenal job.”

Thanks to the unwavering dedication of her all-star support system, Absolution is still operating at peak levels with the New Year approaching.

“She’s racing like she’s not tired, so we’re going to give her a few more starts and see how she ends up after that,” Moiseyev said. “We might give her a month off in January or February, we’ll see how it goes.”

Other possibilities ahead include the Milton Stakes, Roses Are Red Stakes, and “if she stays well,” the Breeders Crown Open Mare Pace.

Until then, Moiseyev and Co. are content to revel in the resounding success that was, and still is, Absolution’s 2025 season – one that has earned top marks from her devoted trainer.

“For me, A-plus, A-plus,” he said. “I couldn’t ask her to do more than she’s been doing. Every week, she just shows up and gets us a nice check. She’s got nine wins this year and she’s always one, two, three. If I could put her heart into all my other ones, we’d be in good shape.”

Moiseyev, letting out one more hearty laugh, will have to settle for the next best thing.

“I’m going to put a TV in the barn so the other horses can watch her race,” he said.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Kathy Shipley is never at a loss for words when it comes to her horses

by Chris Lomon

Kathy Shipley never needs the slightest prompting when it comes to horse talk.

Conversations, albeit one-sided chats, have long been the norm for the Missouri horsewoman, who, along with her husband Thomas Shipley, remains a driving force on the Midwestern U.S. harness racing scene.

"I enjoy being around the horses, talking to them, rubbing them and petting them – all that good stuff," said Kathy, who married her horseman husband in 1999. "I just enjoy any chance I have to interact with them. I tell them how nice they are, how pretty they are, and that they are a good girl or good boy."

But Kathy is far more than a source of affectionate flattery. She has played an integral role in a racing operation that has known no shortage of success over the years.

One of their standout performers was Force Da Court.

A bay daughter of Work Force (IA) out of the Lucky Twenty Five mare Lucky Courney, the trotting miss was a near can't miss throughout a stellar career that yielded a 17-17-4 mark from 51 starts, along with $56,418 in purse earnings.

"We purchased Force Da Court, and she did pretty well for us," Kathy said. "So, that's where I got started with it. As a kid, I had some riding horses. I always liked horses, but she is the one who got me into racing."

Many others have kept her in it.

First Gunner, a son of Amigo Ranger, is one of her favorites.

"We raised him from a baby," she said. "He was the first foal out of Force Da Court. He did very well. We sold him as a 4-year-old to people in New York and he ended up racing at Yonkers and doing very well up there. He has always kind of been my baby."

Recently, a filly, one with a penchant for finding the winner's circle, has formed a close relationship with Shipley.

Al Mar Flash Over, co-owned by the Shipleys and Royal Roland, won eight times in nine starts in 2025. She closed out her rookie campaign with a 9½-length romp in 1:59 on Sept. 20, which tied the track record for 2-year-old fillies at Running Aces.

"Last year, the 2-year-olds we had all did very well," Kathy said. "Al Mar Flash Over raced in Iowa and she was Minnesota-eligible. We got her qualified so that she could race at Running Aces. We sent her up there into the care of Royal Roland, who we are partners with. His son, Nick, was at Running Aces and he raced her for us. She had a fantastic year."

The daughter of Southwind Flash (MN) out of the Andover Hall mare Vestal Hanover is happiest when Kathy is close by.

“ [My husband and I] both clean stalls, but we work together. I will get them harnessed and Thomas trains and jogs them. The hardest part is going to the races and unloading all the equipment, getting things set up and ready... We go all over the Iowa circuit, so it's constantly moving everything and getting it all set up for the races. ”

~ Kathy Shipley

“She can be a bit flighty, but I rub her and pet her,” Kathy said. “She comes up to me and wants attention, and I am happy to give it to her.”

Despite the job's many perks – particularly the chance to work so closely with her horses – it also comes with challenges.

The biggest is that the operation is essentially a two-person team.

“We both clean stalls, but we work together,” Kathy said. “I will get them harnessed and Thomas trains and jogs them. The hardest part is going to the races and unloading all the equipment, getting things set up and ready. We travel to different racetracks each weekend. We aren't set in one spot. We go all over the Iowa circuit, so it's constantly moving everything and getting it all set up for the races.”

The Shipleys have two main all-weather tracks on the Iowa circuit: What Cheer and Humboldt.

“We enjoy going to both tracks,” Kathy said. “What Cheer is close enough that we can come home. If we race Saturday and Sunday, we will stay over Saturday night and come home Sunday. Humboldt is five hours for us. We have a lot of friends there. If we race a couple days throughout the week, we will stay there and race on the weekends and come home on Monday. With all the travel, we will stay throughout the week or a little longer, so we don't have to keep going back and forth. Horses are pretty much what we do 24/7.”

In spite of the long hours and constant travel, Kathy's passion for harness racing has never waned – something recently recognized at the Iowa Harness Horseman's Association awards banquet, where she was honored as the 2025 Katherine Carey Caretaker of the Year.

“I was surprised,” she said. “I really appreciate it. I am not sure I deserve it, but it really does mean a lot. I am so happy to be part of the racing community.”

Her affection for her horses is equally unwavering. Watching them race can bring out her more animated side.

“Sometimes, I do get a little loud,” she said with a laugh. “I think they do [know when they win]. You can tell by the way they look at you and listen to you – I think they know. It's also good for their confidence. When they win, you can see it in their body language.”

With winter approaching, the Shipleys will remain busy with the horses under their care.

New arrivals are expected soon.

“We are partners with Royal Roland on them,” Kathy said. “We bought two yearlings in Minnesota at the sale, so we have them in our barn. We work with them every day, jogging and doing a lot of other things. Throughout the winter, as long as the weather permits, we work with them. Around February or March, we have four 3-year-olds coming to bring in, so there will be six in the barn.”

For Kathy, that means six more opportunities for conversation.

“I am always talking to them and petting them,” she said. “They all have their own personalities and attitudes. They are like your kids. You become so attached to them and spend so much time with them.”

Older pacers and trotters vying for year-end honors aren't so very old these days

by John Berry

Our final recap of the 2025 racing season covers the older pacers and trotters, meaning those 4 years old up to retirement age.

They, too, vie for Dan Patch year end awards and further illustrate that we are losing some of the most important commodity in our sport, those horses that fill overnight events.

The days of Seatrain, Rambling Willie, Foiled Again, and the grey gladiator of our sport, Admirals Express, are gone and the list of older performers like those mentioned above are shrinking with every passing season.

OLDER MARE TROTTERS

Beginning on the trotting side of the ledger, the top 50 on the money list included 15 mares and, as for speed, there were 11 gals on that select list.

Leading the earnings parade – the top three – were 4-year-old Warrawee Michelle ($569,991), 4-year-old Elista Hanover ($532,951), and six-year-old M-M's Dream ($470,162).

Referencing speed, Date Night Hanover took the fastest record of 1:49.2, earning $136,240 with M-M's Dream clocking in at 1:49.4 with Warrawee Michelle punching in at 1:50.

If winning is your leading indicator, there are 11 mares on the list of 67 – top 50 plus ties – with Topsy Moni leading that list of ladies with 12 wins while earning $229,690 to go along with a 1:54.4 mark.

So, here's the deal, Warrawee Michelle, age 4, rallied with a :26.4 finale to win her Breeders Crown event in 1:50.2 for her biggest payday in that $400,000 event and won the $230,000 Graduate at The Meadowlands in 1:50.2, outside every step of the mile and on a double bubble binge the final five sixteenths.

She took her 1:50 mark in a $100,000 invite at Pocono and just missed getting a 1:49.2 record when Date Night Hanover caught her right on the wire in the Allerage at The Red Mile.

Her final 2025 stats were 11 3-4-2.

Date Night Hanover, by the way, earned $136,240 this semester winning three events with that $80,000 Allerage win her biggest accomplishment to go along with a couple of Kentucky Sire Stakes wins.

Elista Hanover fashioned up 3-4-2 in her 14 starts, earning $532,951.

A consistent sort, Elista Hanover was a nose away in the Miss Versatility, a neck back in The Graduate (1:50.2), and a head away in the $400,000 Breeders Crown won by Warrawee Michelle, meaning she was, literally, just a few inches off earning the money crown, herself.

Her greatest accomplishment was in the $425,000 Hambletonian Maturity, winning that 1 1/8th distance in 2:03, handily over Warrawee Michelle.

The amazing M-M's Dream completed her fifth season on the track and now sports a lifetime bankroll of $2,296,762 on the strength of 37 lifetime wins in 70 starts and, this semester, took a new lifetime mark of 1:49.4, :26.3, in the $151,000 Steele at The Meadowlands over Warrawee Michelle, among others.

Her other successes were at Delaware, OH, Dayton, OH in the $250,000 Dayton Derby, and the $175,000 FanDuel – putting up all the numbers – in 1:51.4, :26.3.

It's the third straight year that M-M's Dream has won a stakes event at The Meadowlands during Hambletonian week.

In 2025, she tallied up a 5-4-3 record in 16 starts.

OLDER MALE TROTTERS

On to the boys where the 7-year-old gelding Lexus Kody is the class leader with $1,317,651 – the only older trotter to go over the million-dollar plateau.

He was also the fastest by taking a mark of 1:49.1 and fashioned 11 wins in 21 starts with 18 1-2-3 finishes.

But there were some other very gutsy individuals in the group, including Periculum, French Wine, and Up Your Deo, with a shout-out to the 9-year-old Aetos Kronos S, as well.

Lexus Kody, the rugged 7-year-old gelding, had, by far, the best season of his, thus far, five seasons of racing wars, with his $1.3 million plus easily eclipsed his previous best of $215,000 and change last year.

He spent a few months in competitive action at The Meadowlands trading places in the winner's circle with Outside The Fire, Aetos Kronos S, Periculum, and Up Your Deo but, by late August, began to assert his eventual dominance by winning the $400,000 Maple Leaf Trot at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:49.1, the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot at Yonkers – that 1¼ mile event in 2:24.4 – followed by a scintillating dead-heat win with Periculum in the $200,000 Caesars Trotting Classic and yet another score in the $250,000 Dayton Derby.

While he won his Breeders Crown elim in 1:49.4, he couldn't catch French Wine in the Breeders Crown final but crushed his competition in the $350,000 FanDuel at The Meadowlands in mid-November.

Periculum also had his best season of five by winning $838,902 in 2025, after winning $821,084 last semester.

The 6-year-old horse was 1-2 in 10 of 12 starts and took a 1:49.3 mark at The Meadowlands.

Periculum kicked off his campaign with a win in the $158,000 Cutler at The Meadowlands, was out of competitive action for a few weeks, then came back by winning the $164,000 Crawford at The Big M in 1:50, defeating Aetos Kronos S and Lexus Kody.

He, then was a close second in the Spirit of Massachusetts at Plainridge and, during Hambletonian Week, went a monster mile in the $300,000 Cashman to take his 1:49.3 mark.

Second to Lexus Kody in the Maple Leaf Trot at Mohawk, he couldn't overcome a second tier in the Yonkers International but used a ferocious rally at Hoosier Park in the Caesar's Trotting Classic and the judges couldn't separate he and Lexus Kody on the wire.

He then went on to win the Allerage at The Red Mile in 1:49.3, using a :25.3 final rally to win by a neck.

Periculum was a neck back of French Wine in the $600,000 Breeders Crown at Mohawk and second to Lexus Kody in the FanDuel.

The five-year-old French Wine won $382,699 this year to vault his lifetime bounty to $1,611,268 with his most notable win, of course, being in the $600,000 Breeders Crown at Mohawk, rallying late to score in 1:50.1 over Periculum and Lexus Kody.

Yet another notable performance was in the Allerage at The Red Mile as he trotted his mile in 1:49.4, 53.4, :26.1, finishing a fast closing third to Periculum and Aetos Kronos S.

Now, a shout-out to Aetos Kronos S, the Swedish bred now 9-year-old who banked $294,134 this season and was the third fastest older trotter in competition.

He won $1,360,347 overseas before coming here to compete against the best we had to offer.

His first success was in the $100,000 Maxie Lee in Philly and then he won his Maple Leaf Trot elimination at Mohawk in record performance.

If winning is your cup of tea, the 5-year-old gelding Buckhead Ridge is for you.

He won 17 of 23 starts in 2025 – he won only one last year – and spent just about the whole season in Wally Hennessey territory (Charlottetown) while banking $31,983.

There are 44 trotters on the list that won 10 or more races this year, 5 mares, and 39 geldings.

In the list for the top 50 money earners, only one was 10-years-old – Itsrockandroll A – in 49th place with $181,902.

There was only one 9-year-old, too, the ageless Little Rocket Man, 24th on the list with $244,675 in bounty, he also made the top 50 speed list at number 26 with a 1:48 performance.

With regards to wins, the 13-year-old Music To My Gears made an amazing 22 journeys to the winner's circle in 41 starts, earning $41,929 with a 1:54.4 win his fastest of the year.

OLDER MARE PACERS

So, we'll start with our beloved mares with the focus on the top two – Twin B Joe Fresh and Sylvia Hanover.

In our entire two-plus centuries in our sport, it's doubtful that one filly or mare can be compared to Twin B Joe Fresh, now 5 years old.

In her four seasons of racing, she has won 36 of 49 starts with purse earnings of over $2.8 million.

She opened our eyes when she was a 2-year-old when she paced a winning mile in 1:48.4. The next season at age 3, she lowered that to 1:48.3 and, the next season, 2024 clipped that down to 1:47.3.

This season, she kicked off her season with a 1:49.3 win in the $100,000 Betsy Ross Invite in Philadelphia.

Traveling up North of the Border for the $212,380 Roses Are Red at Mohawk, Twin B Joe Fresh romped by 3½ lengths in a startling 1:48.4 mile off of a :55.1 first half.

Sylvia Hanover got a bit of revenge in the $116,500 Perfect Sting by collaring Twin B Joe Fresh in the lane in a mile clocked in 1:48.2.

On to The Meadowlands where she whipped her arch-rival Sylvia Hanover in the $142,000 Dorothy Haughton Memorial in 1:48.1 – her last quarter in :25.3.

Twin B Joe Fresh cut the mile in the $100,000 Clara Barton at Plainridge but both Sylvia Hanover and My Girl EJ caught her in Sylvia Hanover's 1:47.2 performance.

Sylvia Hanover took top honors again over Twin B Joe Fresh in the Lady Liberty at The Meadowlands during Hambletonian festivities and then took a bit of time off – with just a couple of qualifiers to keep tight – her final quarter in that qualifier timed in :25 flat.

In the Milton up at Mohawk, she crushed Sylvia Hanover by 5½ lengths in 1:47.4 and moved down to Ohio for the Dayton Derby, where she left no doubt with a 4¼ length win over Sylvia Hanover in 1:48.4.

On to The Red Mile where she held off a determined Sylvia Hanover by a half-length in 1:47.3 – her final quarter in that one :25.4.

On to the Breeders Crown after a Meadowlands qualifier to stay tight. It was thought that the grand mare had a bruised foot but, instead, a hairline fracture of her left front cannon bone was discovered and she was scratched.

Twin B Joe Fresh underwent surgery in early November and, reportedly, is doing well.

(But the question still remains, "What if the Louprint crew had found his injury and scratched from the Breeders Crown instead of racing, would he have been knocked off his perch at the top?)

Sylvia Hanover has a 53 27-15-3 scorecard during her four-year racing career with $2,268,468 on the books.

Surely, she is one of the greatest ever to wear a bridle but had one thing in her way—Twin B Joe Fresh.

She conquered Twin B Joe Fresh during the season as the two traded punches on the racetrack and Sylvia Hanover went the race-of-her-career at Plainridge, winning the $100,000 Clara Barton in 1:47.2.

She also handled Twin B Joe Fresh in the $139,000 Lady Liberty in 1:48.2 and was the bridesmaid to her arch-rival in the Dayton Derby and the Allera – though her last quarter was :25.3.

She was fourth in the $400,000 Breeders Crown event at Mohawk, her final major event.

Sylvia Hanover wound up the year with $464,493 with her 6-5-1 scorecard in 14 starts to go along with her new lifetime mark.

OLDER MALE PACERS

Finally, we tackle the category for older pacing horses and geldings.

Three of the five fastest aren't even in the hunt and it looks like the five-year-old horse, Ervin Hanover, has the advantage in earnings ($848,218) and record (1:46.2) based on his late season heroics.

With 10 wins in 17 starts, Ervin Hanover really didn't get into his championship form as he showed his raw speed in the $86,500 Brewer by pacing his first three-quarters in 1:20.2 but wound up fourth to Coach Stefanos in his 1:47.2 mile.

He was sixth to Maximus Miki in the $147,800 Haughton Memorial when Maximus Miki cut through the wire in 1:48.

Ervin Hanover gave a bit of a hint finishing fourth to Binge On Yankee in the Gerrity at Saratoga on their half-miler.

But, when August rolled around, a star was born.

Ervin won a preferred event at Mohawk in 1:48.1, :26, off the pace, used the same tactics to win another preferred there in 1:48.1, before graduating to the Canadian Pacing Derby elim in 1:47.4.

In the $503,750 final the next week, he cut the mile and fought hard throughout but lost by a head to Maximus Miki.

Traveling back-and-forth from Scioto Downs to Mohawk and back to Dayton, OH, he won three straight, including the Ewart and Dayton Derby, all three in 1:47.2.

After a short rest, Ervin Hanover won his Breeders Crown elimination in 1:48 and, then, the $600,000 Breeders Crown final in a scintillating 1:46.2 – out to the half in :53.4 and back game in – no misprint – :52.3.

A disappointing showing in the $350,000 FanDuel at The Meadowlands – seventh – could hardly put a damper on an amazing three months of races for Ervin Hanover.

Yes, Maximus Miki got him a few times and so did Coach Stefanos, but horses are not machines and have blood, bones, and heart just like every other living thing, and he more than proved his status in this class.

In kind, we'll give a shout-out to Helium N the New Zealand flash that had success in Ohio ($109,537) and, with Bythemissal, recorded the second fastest time of the year – 1:46.4 – blazing through panels of :25.3, :53, and 1:19.2.

That takes care of our review of the contenders for this year's honors with the hope that all of the voters will realize the importance of making a thorough selection, which means so much to the breeders, trainers, and owners in our grand sport.

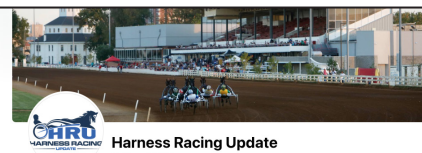

May The Horse Be With You!

Triple for Bartlett, Engblom in final round of MGM Grand Prix Pacing Series

by Yonkers Raceway media

Normally Captain Albano finishing off a three-for-three run through the MGM Grand Prix Pacing Series prelims would be the top story, but instead it was the tandem of leading driver Jason Bartlett and trainer Per Engblom who went up on the marquee, as they won three of the four $50,000 divisions on Monday night (Dec. 8) at MGM Yonkers Raceway with Coaches Corner, Redwood Hanover, and Huntinthelastdolar.

Coaches Corner won the second section in 1:52. After a battle with Soho Firestone A (Todd McCarthy) to the :27.3 quarter, Coaches Corner established command and kept it through middle-half stations of :56.1 and 1:24.3. Soho Firestone A tried to go after Coaches Corner from the pocket in the lane, but it was to no avail as Coaches Corner downed him by 2¼ lengths. Blazing Home N (Jordan Stratton), Tip Top Cat (Yannick Gingras), and Verdun completed the order.

Trained by Engblom, Coaches Corner is a 5-year-old gelded son of Always A Virgin owned by Jeff Fought Racing and Brian Carsey. Bred in Indiana by Black Creek Farm and Hickory Hollow Stable, Coaches Corner made his 34th trip to the winner's circle in his 91st effort and he has now pocketed $1,358,987. He returned $2.68 to win as the 1-5 choice and was atop a $3.14 exacta and an $8.16 trifecta.

Redwood Hanover was a 1:52.3 victor for Bartlett and Engblom in the next split. Redwood Hanover put up fractions of :28, :56.3, and 1:24.3, then held off a rally from pocket-sitter Catalpa Rescue A (McCarthy) by a head. Mossdale Ben N (Stratton) was third from first-over, followed by Nandolo N (Lauren Tritton) and Hemsworth N (Austin Siegelman).

A 5-year-old Stay Hungry stallion bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, Redwood Hanover is owned by Evans Nation with Engblom Stable LLC., and Hickory Hollow Stables. He has a summary of 16-6-13 from 65 appearances, has banked $502,053, and paid $2.20 to win as the 1-9 favorite. He led a $33 exacta and a $71.20 trifecta.

Mike Lizzi

Huntinthelastdolar completed the Bartlett/Engblom hat trick with a 1:53.4 tally in the final flight. He was in front of his five foes at the :27.4 quarter, :57.2 half, and 1:25.3 three-quarters and a :28.1 final kicker got him to the wire a length and three-quarters ahead of a first-over Spring Inhis Step A (McCarthy). Rounding out the top five were Sherlock N (Jim Marohn, Jr.), Jamaican Rock A (Matt Kakaley), and Always A Thrill (Colin Kelly).

Engblom sent out Huntinthelastdolar, a 5-year-old gelded son of Huntsville, for owners E Five Racing and John Fielding. The Crawford Farms-bred Huntinthelastdolar is a 23-time winner from 70 trips behind the gate, has put away $1,130,468 and returned $2.32 to win as the 1-9 favorite. The exacta was worth $3.90 and the trifecta kicked back $11.38.

As for Captain Albano, he prevailed in 1:52.3 back in the night's opening test. With McCarthy in the bike, he was positioned third as Calicojack Hanover (Dan Dube) cut opening-half panels of 27 seconds and :56.1. McCarthy wheeled Captain Albano out first-over, going to the 1:24.2 three-quarters, and Captain Albano wore down and went by Calicojack Hanover on the last turn. From there it was all Captain Albano as he pulled away to a 5¾ length win over a tiring Calicojack Hanover, with Captain Moore A (Kelly) up for third. Endofstory (Bartlett) was fourth and The Greek Freak (Kakaley) took fifth.

Noel Daley trains Captain Albano, a 4-year-old son of Captaintreacherous bred by Fred Hertrich III, for owners Patricia Stable, L A Express & Sjoblom Inc., Sjoblom Racing Inc., and Michael Dolan. A Dan Patch Award winner in 2023 and 2024, Captain Albano now has 26 victories from 44 starts, has earned $2,105,823, and returned $2.26 to win as the 1-9 favorite. He keyed a $12 exacta and a $51.02 trifecta.

Unofficially, the 10 horses who advanced to the $250,000 MGM Grand Prix Series final, which will be conducted at the distance of a mile and a quarter on Friday (Dec. 19) are:

Captain Albano (150 points)

Coaches Corner (125 points)

Huntinthelastdolar (125 points)

Redwood Hanover (112 points)

Soho Firestone A (100 points)

Spring Inhis Step A (83 points)

Mossdale Ben N (62 points)

Calicojack Hanover (50 points)

Catalpa Rescue A (35 points)

Always A Thrill (32 points)

Points for the series were earned on a 50-25-12-8-5 scale (winner gets 50 points, runner-up gets 25, etc.), and a horse had to race in all three legs to be eligible for the final and the $75,000 consolation, which will also take place on that Dec. 19 program. These same conditions apply to the companion MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series.

The final leg of the MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series will take place on Friday night (Dec. 12) at MGM Yonkers Raceway with a trio of $50,000 divisions slated to take place in races 4, 6, and 7 on the 11-race program.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is in the final two weeks of the 2025 meet, and outside of the program on Friday (Dec. 19), which is now scheduled to begin at 2:15 p.m. (EST), post time for the remainder of the Monday through Friday action has first-race post time at 6:45 p.m. (EST).

Delaware SIRE STAKES REPORT

Git Goin sweeps DSBF prelims; favorites upended

by Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund

Git Goin became the only 3-year-old pacing filly to sweep her Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) preliminaries at Bally's Dover with a 1:54.4 win in the second of three $20,000 second-round divisions contested Wednesday (Dec. 10).

With owner/trainer Vince Copeland at the lines, Git Goin floated into a 4-hole tuck directly behind 1-10 favorite and fellow first-round winner Bella Artiste (driven by Jim Morand) as Proper Lady (Cody Polisenno) sprinted through early fractions of :26.2 and :55.4. Up the backstretch, Copeland angled Git Goin into a second-over tow behind Bella Artiste, who offered steady pressure to Proper Lady past three-quarters in 1:24.3 and through the far turn. Turning for home, Git Goin switched three-wide, and the Badlands Hanover—Goin Again filly rallied into the lead with 100 yards to go, besting Bella Artiste by a half-length. Mornin Merle (Tim Tetrick) made mild late gains to finish third.

Git Goin, who did not race as a 2-year-old, has won five of 21 starts and banked $51,932 in career earnings. She paid $11.40 as the 9-2 second choice.

Another odds-on favorite was upended in the first division, as Mad Anne (Jason Thompson) rode the pocket through fractions of :27.2, :57.2, and 1:26.2 before lifting late to a three-quarter-length, 1:55.3 victory over 1-20 public choice Little Miss Peyton (Corey Callahan). Cake Pop (Polisenno) finished third.

Mad Anne, a Badlands Hanover—DVC Kolor Me Crazy filly who paid $14.20 to win, has won five of 25 races and earned $36,415 while competing as a homebred for owner/trainer Elizabeth Shockley.

In the third section, Seboomook Ohh Lala passed all seven of her rivals en route to a 27-1 upset over 6-5 favorite and first-round winner Bobby's Grace.

Ross Wolfenden angled the Papa Ray—Seboomook Fool Yah filly third-over with five-sixteenths to go, and the pair circled three-wide off the far turn to nab the first-over Bobby's Grace (Russell Foster) by a neck in a lifetime best 1:55.1. Valentina Station (Eddie Dennis) split rivals to save third from a failing pocket.

Garnet O'Marrow trains Seboomook Ohh Lala, now a four-time winner from 30 starts with $56,052 in earnings, and his O'Marrow's Stock Farm owns and bred the filly. She paid $57.20 to win.

The five preliminary winners — Git Goin, Bella Artiste, Bobby's Grace, Mad Anne, and Seboomook Ohh Lala — all have qualified for the $110,000 DSBF series championship, to be held at Bally's Dover next Wednesday (Dec. 17), as have Little Miss Peyton, Valentina Station, and Mimosa On The Key.

YALE, LEGEND OF ROCK TAKE DSBF PRELIMS

Yale and Legend Of Rock became the third and fourth horses to register preliminary wins in the Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) series for 3-year-old male trotters at Bally's Dover, taking their respective $20,000 second-round divisions on Tuesday (Dec. 9) and setting up a wide-open $110,000 championship event next Tuesday (Dec. 16).

In the second division, Legend Of Rock and driver Corey Callahan stalked from midfield as Delaware Xactly (driven by Jason Thompson) rated a :58.1 half, sustained a first-over push out of midfield to wear the pacesetter down past the 1:27.4 three-quarters, and dug in to fend off a late bid from runner-up Royalty Star (Troy Beyer) by a neck to win in 1:57.4. Bucky Highway (Ross Wolfenden) finished third.

Nick Callahan trains Legend Of Rock, an E L Platinum—Rock The Game gelding, who has won five of 22 starts and earned $102,034 while competing as a homebred for Dolly Callahan's Breakaway Racing. As the 6-5 favorite, Legend Of Rock paid $4.40 to win.

The first division saw Yale and driver Art Stafford, Jr. control splits of :28.3, 1:00.4, and 1:30.1 before using a :28.2 closing quarter to fend off a late push from first-round winner Melvin G (Tim Tetrick) by a half-length in 1:58.3. Chex Check (Montrell Teague), another first-round winner, faded to third after gapping the pocket on the final turn.

Yale, an E L Platinum—Press Corp colt who competes as a homebred for owner/trainer Stacy Johnson-Stafford, has won five of eight starts and banked $110,100.

The eight qualifiers for the $110,000 DSBF final for 3-year-old male trotters are: Melvin G, Yale, Chex Check, Legend Of Rock, Royalty Star, Wolfpack Cheddar, Bucky Highway, and Delaware Xactly.

KAT'S FANCY POISED FOR DSBF SWEEP

Jane Dunavant's homebred 3-year-old trotting filly Kat's Fancy is just one race away from a second Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) series sweep this season following her facile 1:58.1 win on Tuesday (Dec. 8) at Bally's Dover in the $20,000 second round of the December DSBF series.

With Cody Polisenio at the lines for trainer Carlo Polisenio, Kat's Fancy traveled unopposed on the lead through splits of :28.4, :58.2, and 1:28.3 before repelling a first-over challenge from runner-up Take It Easy (driven by Ross Wolfenden) on the far turn and edging clear to win by 2½ lengths. Holly Lou (Allan Davis) finished third, another two lengths behind, after gapping the pocket on the far turn.

Kat's Fancy, a Dusty Winner—Koala Kat filly with 10 wins and $218,317 in purses earned from 25 starts, returned $2.60 to win as the 1-5 favorite.

On July 17, she completed a sweep of the summer DSBF series at Harrington Raceway with a 9¾ length win in the $110,000 final, and she will seek her second DSBF championship of the season in next Monday's (Dec. 15) $110,000 Dover series final. Also qualifying are: Take It Easy, Holly Lou, Marino Bluestone, Song Master, Peggys Girl, Buttoncandy, and Saints Design.

Jamieson records 9,000th win

Jody Jamieson unleashed Blast Of Sunshine from the pocket, and as the 6-year-old stallion rolled to victory, the reinsman tallied his 9,000th career driving win on Sunday (Dec. 7) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The win marked another major milestone for Jamieson, who became the first Canadian-based driver to hit $150 million in earnings in a career last season.

After Sunday's win, Canada's three-time Driver of the Year indicated he's already looking forward to the next one.

"It's a big number — I'm not sure of the amount of drivers in the history of harness racing who have got to 9,000," he said. "We saw a couple of guys lately get over 10 [thousand]. Nine thousand's the last one before 10,000, so it's a nice one to get out of the way."

In the milestone victory, Jamieson procured a blast of early speed from Blast Of Sunshine, getting the Gerard Demers trainee to the front in a :27.2 opening quarter. Outlawgrandetorino (James MacDonald) then brushed to the front nearing the half in :56.1 and led the field past three-quarters in 1:25.4. Blast Of Sunshine shifted out as they came off the last turn, and he swelled up and charged past Outlawgrandetorino to a 2¼-length win in 1:55.2. Jingle Inmy Pocket (Dave Kelly) was up for second over Rays Kredit (Tyler Borth). Blast Of Sunshine, owned by Demers of Freelon, ON, and Sylvain Caron of Quebec City, QC, paid $5.40 to win.

Jamieson, a fan favorite at Mohawk known for greeting racegoers after his wins, began his career in 1994 at the Paris Fair in Ontario. Since then, the Truro, NS native has won 9,000 races in 55,671 starts while racking up earnings of $157.3 million, earning four driving titles on the Woodbine Entertainment Group circuit along the way. The 49-year-old can count two World Driving Championships, two North America Cups, four Metro Paces, three Breeders Crowns, two Maple Leaf Trots, and a Little Brown Jug among his significant achievements.

Jamieson has earned 196 wins this year, his most since 2018, and has broken $5 million in earnings for the first time since 2014 while extending his streak of $4 million-plus seasons to 22.

He said on the Mohawk broadcast he is happy with his driving recently.

"When I got to 8,000, I felt like I was maybe trending downward," said Jamieson. "I didn't think I was getting here; I didn't think I'd get to nine [thousand]. But I'm hungrier than ever, I feel great about how I'm driving, I feel great about the whole game and where I'm at in it, and I'm going to be trying hard for 10,000."

Kevin Cummings gets his 5,000th driving win at Batavia Downs

When Kevin Cummings won with Tymal Envoy (1:58, $5.08) in the ninth race at Batavia Downs on Saturday (Dec. 6) night, he registered the 5,000th win of his illustrious 36-year career.

Cummings comes from a family steeped in harness racing lineage. His father John Cummings, Sr. and brothers John Cummings, Jr., Tony Cummings, and Todd Cummings all trained and drove at Batavia Downs going back to 1979, with the brothers getting a hands-on education from their father at an early age.

After starting to drive at age 19 in 1989, Kevin developed into a stellar reinsman who has been near the top of the leaderboard almost every year ever since. And throughout his career, Kevin has been a high demand driver and as a result, has won a slew of driving titles in western New York including five at Batavia Downs since the racino era began in 2005. He has also finished second five times at The Downs during that same time period.

Kevin is not only a desired driver by local trainers, he also draws some of the best visiting horses during stakes season when the New York Sire Stakes are in town. Plus, he's had the privilege of sitting behind the great $7 million dollar man, Foiled Again, in 2016 when they won the Downs' signature event, the Robert J. Kane Memorial Pace in 1:52.2. Cummings also won the 2006 Kane with Michael Scores in 1:52.1.

In 2021 when Kevin hit the 4,000-win mark, he reflected by saying, "It means a lot, it's a good milestone and I'd like to get to 5,000. But I don't know if that will happen."

Well, it only took four years to get there and at only 55-years of age now, 6,000 appears to be a very achievable goal for the savvy driving veteran.

Kevin's career numbers now show 5,001 wins from 28,742 starts, including 4,676 seconds, and 4,223 thirds, giving him a lifetime UDR of .313 and earnings of just under $27 million.

At the current Batavia Downs meet, Kevin now sits second for dash wins with 80, along with 80 seconds, and 68 thirds which have earned him over $640,000 in purses.

Captain Optimistic will race and breed in 2026

The owners of Captain Optimistic have decided to continue to race the well-bred son of Captaintreacherous in 2026 as well as breed a limited book of mares to give him every opportunity to dominate in the 2026 racing season.

Nancy Takter, trainer of Captain Optimistic said, "I'm really excited to see Captain Optimistic continue racing at 4. As his 3-year-old season progressed, he just got better and better, really finding his maturity. I'm confident he'll keep developing and stamp himself as one of the top open pacers next year. And for breeders, there's a unique opportunity to get in on him now – without any Gural rule penalty – and support New Jersey's rapidly improving breeding and stakes program at the same time."

Scott Zeron, who drove Captain Optimistic, had this to say about the colt: "He is a big strong colt. Aesthetically, he is just a perfect horse. He showed up to race every calling."

Captain Optimistic is extremely well bred on both his paternal and maternal lines. He is by Captaintreacherous and out of stakes winning mare, Cinamony (by Art Official) who has a mark of 1:49.3F, earnings of $532,404 and is the sister of $1.5 million winning Fear The Dragon. Cinamony's 2nd dam is Mattaroni, p, 3, 1:52.3m, $744,481.

Throughout his racing career, Captain Optimistic campaigned at the highest levels and produced multiple, eye-catching performances. He has a 2-year-old mark of 1:49m, a 3-year-old mark of 1:48m and earnings of $1,136,257.

In 2024, at 2, he won the New Jersey Classic final in 1:50.1 (a personal best at the time); set a track record mile of 1:49 in a Breeders Crown elimination at The Meadowlands; and captured the prestigious Governor's Cup in a sharp 1:49.3 mile, securing a $382,200 purse.

In 2025, he won the 3-year-old Triple Crown Cane Pace in 1:48.1, the 3-year-old Bluegrass Stake in 1:48 and won the Monument Circle at Hoosier. He finished third in the final of the $600,000 Breeders Crown.

Captain Optimistic's stud fee will be $5,000. For information about how to breed to him contact Linda Petrenko, Deo Volente Farms at 908-782-4848 or email linda@deovolentefarms.com.

Last call for Sweet Lou and Louprint contracts

This is the final opportunity to secure 2026 contracts for Sweet Lou, one of the sport's most in demand sires, as well as his exciting son, Louprint.

All paid booking contracts must be submitted by the today's (Dec. 12) deadline, as both stallion books will close and be completed shortly thereafter. Breeders are encouraged to book promptly to ensure they are on the list for these two in-demand stallions.

Breeders can book online at diamondcreekfarm.com, by email at bookings@diamondcreekfarm.com or by phone at 717-638-7100.

Breeders bullish on 'Bulldog'

Seelster Farms and the Bulldog Hanover partners are pleased to announce that the 2026 stallion book is now closed for the world's fastest standardbred, Bulldog Hanover.

One of the most talented and celebrated horses in recent memory, Bulldog's accolades include induction into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility, Horse of the Year on both sides of the border, Cam Fella Award winner and world champion with $2.7 million in earnings.

Not only did he become the world's fastest standardbred ever in July of 2022, that same year he also sired 54 foals and that limited first crop were outstanding this past racing season. Despite many sires easily having more than twice the number of foals, Bulldog's talented offspring catapulted him to second in the leading sires by average earnings for rookie pacers in 2025.

Bulldog's first crop superstars included Three Diamonds winner Shes A Bulldog p, 2, 1:51.1 ($527,913); Battle of the Belles victress Daya p, 2, 1:50.4f ($495,914); Champlain champ Windor p, 2, 1:51.2s ($222,232); OSS victor Redland Rocket Man p, 2, 1:52s ($178,287); etc.

Bulldog Hanover's incredible success on the racetrack has seemingly followed him into his second career as a stallion. We thank all those who booked their mares early – it certainly is an impressive group.

Roy dominates sixth annual Drivers' Holiday Challenge at The Raceway

The holiday spirit was alive and well at The Raceway at Western Fair District on Tuesday evening (Dec. 9) as the sixth annual Drivers' Holiday Challenge delivered thrilling action and generous giving. The spotlight belonged to Louis-Philippe Roy, who stole the show with an incredible six-win performance in the 11-race competition.

Roy's victories included a sweep of both the early and late daily doubles, scoring with Larjon Levi and Credit Kawhi to kick off the card, then adding wins with Yes (race 7), Scratchin An Itch (race 8), and closing out the night with Silver Beast and Fireinsidemyeins.

Roy also partnered with Samuel Fillion to secure Team Quebec's triumph in the team portion of the event. They finished ahead of Team West, with Team Maritimes and Team Ontario rounding out the standings. Other participating drivers included:

- Team Ontario: Garrett Rooney, defending champion Lorne House
- Team West: Phil Hudon, Daryl Thiessen
- Team Maritimes: Austin Sorrie, Paul MacKenzie

Beyond the on-track excitement, the event once again showcased the industry's generosity. This year's challenge raised $12,000 in cash and toys for the Toys for Tots campaign, continuing a proud tradition of giving back to the community during the holiday season.

"The Drivers' Holiday Challenge has become a marquee event for us," said The Raceway's manager of equine programming Amy O'Toole. "It's a great way to celebrate the season, showcase top talent, and support a wonderful cause."

The Raceway's next live program comes up tonight (Dec. 12) with a first post of 5:50 p.m. For full race results and replays and the complete holiday racing schedule visit www.westernfairdistrict.com.

The Meadowlands Toys for Tots drive wraps tonight

Tonight (Dec. 12), is the last night to donate to The Meadowlands' Toys for Tots Collection Drive. Your contribution, no matter how big or small, can make a significant difference in a child's life this holiday season.

Retired Jets wide receiver, Quincy Enunwa, will be at the track tonight to thank all who donate to this great cause.

The U.S. Marines Toys for Tots and Enunwa will personally deliver the collected toys to children at SBH Health System, a Safety Net Hospital in The Bronx, NYC, on Tuesday (Dec. 16), at noon.

"We encourage all of our patrons and horsemen to donate a new unwrapped toy during this holiday season," said Jason M.

Settlemoir, GM/COO of The Meadowlands. "Helping others in need is what the holiday season is all about."

For more information on the Toys for Tots collection drive and live racing, visit PlayMeadowlands.com.

New York awards banquet a 'family affair'

Treasured publicity icon and stakes administrator Moira Fanning looked out at the capacity crowd of well-wishers at Sunday (Dec. 7) night's 66th Awards banquet of the Monticello-Goshen chapter of the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), presented by the New York Sire Stakes, and said, "We all know how important family is. Without my family, I am not sure I could have done anything!"

The Communicators Hall of Famer who has worked tirelessly at the Hambletonian Society and Breeders Crown for the last 35 years added, "The luckiest day of my very lucky life was the day I met [my husband] Tom Fanning."

Aside from being grateful for his partnership, and the two wonderful daughters they created, Moira also recognized the four best bosses she ever had: Marv Bachrad, Bill Fidati, Tom Charters, and John Campbell. During her tenure the prestigious Hambletonian Stakes celebrated its 100th renewal, and the Breeders Crown purses nearly doubled from $4 million to over $7 million each year.

An expert in promoting and facilitating big events, Moira has seen the industry change, and insists that, "everyone in harness racing, all of us, must be an advocate for the sport, for the horses, and for ourselves. We have to do it. No one else will do it."

The recipient of the chapter's highest honor, the Lifetime Achievement Award, closed with, "We have to fight for our livelihoods, and never stop letting people know we exist."

The USHWA chapter also honored Ralph Scunziano, the outgoing executive director of the Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Fund, with the Excelsior Award. Under his direction the New York Sire Stakes program has secured a record purse structure and instituted a series of Big Apple races for freshmen worth $1 million.

The writers also presented Keith Hamilton with the chapter's John Gilmour Good Guy Award for his 50 years of dedication to New York harness racing. Dr. Janet Durso received the Amy Bull Crist Distinguished Service Award for her long-time support of racing at Goshen Historic Track. James Crawford IV took home the Cradle of the Trotter Breeders Award.

In addition, Jessica Hallett, harness racing social media influencer and award-winning photographer received the chapter's Phil Pines Award. Speaking of family, Rising Star award winner, and NY County Fair Trainer of the year Dylan Huckabone-Miller enjoyed the company of his mother (Casey) and his grandmother (Joann), who both originally hail from the Monticello area and were on hand to support their honoree.

Aside from recognizing nationally prominent honorees, the awards banquet still maintains its 'Borscht Belt' roots. Since 1959 the Monticello-Goshen chapter has been rewarding the local horsemen and women that compete at the Mighty M, as well as the hard-working staff and management that keep the races rolling.

The Mighty M Award of Appreciation was bestowed upon Barb Merton and Liz Stubits for their 30-plus years of dedication to Monticello Raceway and benevolence for those in need at the track's close-knit racing community. Brenna Gill was named Caretaker of the Year.

These folks, and others from around the region, received their awards along with their peers for the 60-plus divisional equine honors bestowed upon the hard-working owners, trainers, and caretakers that call New York State, and the Sullivan County oval home.

Jason Bartlett, who is enjoying a career year, received a fistful of accolades for his driving prowess and accomplishments, along with Jared Bako who was named the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) and USTA District 8 Trainer of the Year.

Awards for all three divisions of the New York program, including the Sire Stakes, Excelsior Series, and the County Fairs were presented to both horses and their connections. The NYSS and USTA Dist. 8 Horse of the Year Award was given to Super Chapter. Mark Loewe accepted on behalf of breeder and co-owner Hanover Shoe Farms. The Hambletonian Society was the dinner sponsor.

With revenue from their loyal advertisers in the 84-page souvenir journal, the Monticello-Goshen Chapter of USHWA was able to donate $7,500 each to the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame, as well as Goshen Historic Track in 2025. These two distinct, separate entities share the same hallowed ground and a singleness of purpose to preserve, protect and promote harness racing.

The practice of raising money and donating funds to Historic Track and the Hall of Fame began in the mid-1970s with Monticello Raceway publicity guru John Manzi, and has continued ever since. In just the last 25 years, the local Monticello-Goshen chapter has donated well over $160,000 to these important industry preservationists.

Museum holiday celebration and craft event on Dec. 20

Join us at the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame, 240 Main Street, Goshen, NY, on Saturday (Dec. 20) from 10–11:30 a.m. to ring in the season with a holiday celebration craft event for people of all ages. Walk through our decorated stable, take photos in a "one horse open sleigh" and enjoy light refreshments. Participants create art of a snowy winter scene with a red barn, horses, and a Christmas tree in a blue wooden frame. An assortment of simple tree ornament crafts are also available. There are games for the children and each child will receive a small toy. Top off your visit with a heart-pounding ride on our harness racing simulator. The cost is $10 for all ages. Parents not participating in the crafts are free. Supplies are limited and reservations are not accepted.

Programs are made possible with support from the United States Trotting Association and the Agriculture & New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund. For further information on the Museum's educational workshops or children's birthday parties, please contact the education department at 845-294-6330 or email education@harnessmuseum.com. For information on Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame events, please visit our website www.harnessmuseum.com. The Museum is located at 240 Main Street, Goshen, NY, and is currently open from 10 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Tuesday to Saturday.

Deadline approaching for 2026 stall applications at Yonkers

Stall applications for 2026 at MGM Yonkers Raceway are due on Monday (Dec. 15).

Copies of the stall applications are available at the Yonkers race office, by visiting the SOA of NY website or by e-mailing assistant race secretary John Piassek at jpiassek@empirecitycasino.com.

Horsemen must send in a stall application to be eligible to potentially race at Yonkers next year.
